

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON JANUARY 31, 2000 AT 1:39 P.M.

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori.

The world is saturated with egotism, immorality, selfishness, permissiveness. None of these things are beneficial to one’s Soul, because each of these uses what is wrong, and also encourages a lack of purity of mind, a lack of generosity, and promotes no spiritual growth.

Today as I speak, I speak through a small voice, but an obedient voice. The world is saturated with satanic acceptances, abuses, but mankind as a whole, does not see what this ugliness is doing to the morality of millions of human beings.

When two people talk to each other on a subject, and each has a different opinion, sometimes a subject can be interesting or at other times cause a disturbance in their relationship, allowing them to not feel comfortable with each other.

Imagine what an impurity for the Soul does to one’s communication with The Father, especially when the individual expresses arrogance, independence, ignoring totally what is occurring to that Portion of Divine Love that becomes the victim of what an individual is involved in.

The little one through whom We All speak has been encouraged to not accept, or be vulnerable to, what others will to be done, when it eliminates the importance of what effect the Soul will be the victim of if the situation or conditions are not pure, or not according to The Father’s Will.

As I leave you, I say: Your sound judgment must never be cast aside because for each statement you make, everything you are committed to, your Soul receives either blessings or sadness, because your Soul is what will be present at a given time, accountable for all you do, all you have said, regarding moral views, moral standards, moral values, moral agreements, definitely moral decisions. So be it.”
