

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON MAY 18, 2000 AT 1:35 P.M.

SAINT IGNATIUS LOYOLA

I am Saint Ignatius Loyola. The Saints surrounding me are so numerous in number, you might be shocked to hear all the Names, if I were to give you Them in the order in which They are standing Here with me.

At different times The Father has chosen one voice to speak openly on particular subjects that were to aid other men, women and children, on fully understanding the creation of human life being Special in many ways.

It is sad when We hear rejection of what is morally sound, pure, just, by an individual who must make a decision concerning a personal gesture, or accept an advancement socially, morally, physically, that will cause the individual to have to deny what others think, and make judgment that will please only their own Soul.

This statement might be difficult for some to understand, but it is a consistent part of human life that never ends.

As I speak today, I speak with deep love, because each human being has within them a Portion of The Creator, and this Portion must be taken care of to remain pure in every phase of the individual's life in whom It was placed at the moment of his or her conception.

As I speak to you now, I am also seeing a group of individuals who are acting impurely, ignoring totally the consequences of their actions, but they are so involved in pleasing one another that they are ignoring the consequences.

Every home should have listed in length, what the Commandments fully mean. The little one through whom I speak, has been ordered a long time ago to prepare this, because it is so easy for the human mind to ignore responsibilities and allow themselves to be victims or participants of all degrees of immoralities, impurities, indignities.

As I leave you, it is important that the little one The Father chose will not linger longer on what was requested, because of the Importance of Souls that at this time are victims of the lack of sound moral values and sound moral standards in the one in whom They were placed at the moment of the human conception.

We hold back her tears, because she knows this statement We have given is Important for millions of individuals to better learn all about the Full Meaning of God's Commandments. So be it.”
