

SAINT JOAN OF ARC

“I am Saint Joan of Arc. In my day I wore an armor openly, obvious in the battles that were so prevalent at that time.

The little one through whom We All speak wears an armor unseen, but evident in how she approaches all things. It is sad when We see, hear, or observe a lack of understanding of All that passes through her momentarily, or in a formal way.

It is easy for men, women and children to ignore Words such as pour forth through her, because to them there is no obvious distinction in what one human looks like over and above what others look like. They cannot see the armor, but it is evident the armor is Truth in all Facets in life, and all Issues in life, for the benefit of all Souls of all human beings living at this time, and in the years to come, because All that has been delivered, Much has been put into script, and the script is evidence of what The Father expects all ages of human life, all dimensions of mentalities, and all Faiths in the knowledge, the belief of a Creator, that without The Creator nothing would exist.

The little one used as this instrument of a Higher Power than man knows power to be, never resists the Power but submits to The Power, knowing that it is difficult on her physical in many ways. For a long time now The Father has addressed so many subjects, alerting all age groups of human life, all mentalities, all backgrounds, to be aware that human life is distinctive over all other living things, because of its intellect, its sensitivities, its ability to know and to act in a pure way over an impure way; also, the innate justice that is obvious, many times, in many ways.

As I close My Words now, I beseech you, those who take My Words in script, never to not follow these Words or any Others that have been delivered by so Many from Here, because these Words are not words of a human way, feeling, They are Words from The Divine; a Greater Gift no human being could have, could receive.

The Father, in His Love for human life, He placed a Soul, a Portion Of Himself. That is why it is so important that All He has allowed to be delivered by so Many of Us must pass throughout the world, because of the Souls of all human beings that are at stake, because of the nature and/or the understanding that the Soul, as a Portion of The Creator, must be returned to Him in a Pure State.

Thousands and thousands of Words could be written on the Magnitude of The Creator's Love for human life, but it would be too much for individuals to read, to absorb. That is why it is important that this Gift Of The Father's Love, bearing the Name Of The Beloved Saint Joseph, The Holy Spirit Of The Creator, be passed throughout the world in all languages, because of the Souls that need this Gift to be seen, to be understood.

I bless you in The Father's Will and Name, and I beseech you, do not ignore What I have spoken and All Others from Here have spoken, because it could be One Line, One Word, that will help a Soul return to The Father a Beautiful Saint. So be it."
