

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON JUNE 22, 2000 AT 1:02 P.M.

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. As changes are inherent in human life, it is important that men, women and children understand that if they are acting impurely, changes are available for the mind, the body.

We hear so many say: 'I'm in the habit of doing it; I know it's wrong.' When you hear an individual speak in this format, make them aware that having the privilege to act, to think, to respond, also gives them the opportunity to correct what they are doing if it is wrong, and to make it more pure in every form of its meaning.

When children are corrected on misbehavior, because of misbehavior, they should be instructed on the importance of correcting it, but most times this important information is eliminated because the individual correcting someone, either does not want to take the time, or feels innately they do not have the ability to stress the important points that would be feasible to the one they are correcting.

Needless to say, so much has been instructed on so many subjects through this Precious Gift to all of mankind at this particular time. The Father in His understanding, that sometimes a background or educational practices prevent an individual from understanding other abilities they possess; by other abilities it is meant to be able to see things logically, and not to feel they are burdens, or they have the inability to correct what has been improperly spoken, practiced, or they have taken part in.

So much education is available on so many subjects that individuals will never use. That is why it is Important for this Miracle of Divine Love that The Father has given at this time, constantly and repetitively, through so Many Saints, reminding men, women and children the simplicity of being able to use what is practical in conversation, and/or in association with others.

Today as I speak, I speak with much love, because the Soul is the recipient of all an individual speaks, thinks, acts out, or permits himself or herself to be a part of. There is very little example for the young, in discipline, in dignity, in the ability to discern what is pure over what is impure, what is kind over what is unkind, what is just over what is unjust.

All of the Saints want to give Messages through this Gift of Divine Love, because Each of Us know the Importance of the Soul that is a Living Portion Of The Creator in every human life.

As I leave you, I want you to know that as Each of Us Saints speak, We turn to The Father and thank Him for being a Portion of this Gift that was given to the world for the Protection and the Safety of Souls. So be it."
