

SAINT PETER

“I am Saint Peter.

Many of the Saints Here in the Heavens have spoken through this Gift of The Father’s Divine Love. As We walked the earth as a Group, Instructing in all Ways, Degrees, that We were capable of doing, We always found the importance in the right words, at the right time.

Our Instruction from The Son Who walked with Us for so long, made Us aware of the differences in human beings, and how the different intellects, backgrounds, personalities, natures, reacted to certain types of wording, of content in what was spoken to them.

Children are not being instructed on what is morally right, pleasing to The Father. Children are being allowed to be what is called ‘natural’ in their thinking, their practices, their associations, their goals. This is not totally wrong, but We are seeing very little instruction on the Importance of The Commandments that are the Basic Rules for human behavior. True, they are not being learned in their full concept, order, full degree.

Mankind has become so lax, even nonchalant, about the importance of rational purity of the mind and the body, for the best of the Soul. The Soul is rarely, if ever, mentioned when two people discuss what life is all about. Humanism takes over totally, and the subject matter is based on practical daily situations, conditions, interests, abilities, totally ignoring that human life is gifted with an understanding that no other living matter has, and that is the fact that there is a Goal beyond what mankind can picture a goal to be; but nonetheless, there is an innate reality of understanding, even in children, that human life is special.

The Father has given to the world a Gift of His Divine Love, bearing the Name of His Holy Spirit. Some might say, 'How can Saint Joseph be The Holy Spirit of God?' Here again, the human mind ignores the past history that was so evident, that as the Foster Father of The Son of God, The Beloved Joseph was not of ordinary means. He was the Protector, and as The Heavenly Queen Immaculately Conceived, this should help human beings of all ages, all degrees of Faith in The Divine, more fully understand the beauty, the Love that The Creator has for human life.

There are so Many Saints Here in the Heavens Who are available to speak, because Their Love for Their Place in the Heavens, They want all of human life to reach.

Needless to say I could speak hours, but as I leave you now, I beseech you to be example of purity, of honesty, of hope, in its finest degree because, do not forget, your presence to others very often gives to them the desire to do The Father's Will, because they innately feel it through your presence, your speech, and your willingness to share what you have learned through this Gift of The Father's Love.

As I leave you, I bless you with the strength to never be afraid to hand someone the Words, and then say a silent prayer that their Soul will be the recipient of all the individual learns from What you have handed to one like yourself, who bears a Soul like the One you have. So be it."
