

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“I am Saint Francis of Assisi.

Too little attention is paid to what is important on moral values, moral standards, moral virtues, moral practices, moral views. The word ‘moral’ is used very little in all walks of life, thus not drawing attention to the importance of morality on and in every act, every thought, every word, every deed, during one’s daytime.

We hear the hours of the day oftentimes elaborated upon. Certain hours mean more than others because of an individual’s scheduling, or what they are involved in that demands certain hours for certain obligations.

The Father’s Love for human life, for a very long time, has been expressed through one small voice, using Words applicable to every intention of human life, every need of human life.

We hear some individuals say, ‘It is necessary for me to go and see what is available for me, and what will please my way of life.’ This statement could mean many things, but it could also mean places, situations, that are detrimental to the purity of one’s Soul. It is natural for a human being to know right from wrong, good from evil. Excuses are the only things that encourage an individual to participate in what is impure, unjust, and definitely abusive to the Soul.

Very little is instructed by so-called ‘clergymen’, because they tend to look for what appeals to individuals of all cultures, all temperaments, and all degrees of pleasing to God. This is a rare one, though, because this rarely, if ever, becomes the point for the direction of what intentions, what practices are involved.

The Father has given to the world a Gift greater than mankind can comprehend It to be, because the Gift, in so much Instruction, constantly instructs on morality, moral views, moral practices. The full meaning of what morality is, and how important it is to the Soul, to the mind, is totally unseen.

As I leave you, I sincerely pray that The Father's Will will become the Foundation, the Basis, for what a human being uses in all decisions from now on.

So many of Us Saints have the privilege of speaking through this Gift Of The Father's Love for human life, because as We see things so obviously unclean morally, mentally, physically, emotionally, spiritually, it is Our Prayer for all who live that they will look at each day as a day Closer to becoming a Saint, Over and Above any other goal of life. So be it."
