

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON JANUARY 12, 2001 AT 12:43 P.M.

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori.

There are systems that mankind depends upon, systems based on moral values. In moral values, there are many areas that all human beings participate in daily. Sound moral values give to human life a foundation of truths, strengths, purpose. This subject is endless in all that can be said about it.

The human mind was given the ability to choose what would be morally correct, morally impure, morally unjust, but so few individuals think about the full meaning of their association in many aspects of human life, wherein they are associated with other individuals or major facts of importance, wherein the results can be beneficial, just, and pure in relationship to the minds, the values and the Commandments of The Creator.

As I speak these Words I speak Them slowly through one small voice, but these Words are to be put into script and read by millions of human beings, for them to better understand the Importance of the meaning in What is spoken that is beneficial to the human way of life morally, disallowing immorality to take place in many degrees on any issue, no matter what association they are involved in.

I speak differently on this day, because so Much that has been spoken thus far through this Gift of Divine Love is not being seen for the Indepthness of the Words. Individuals are skimming over the Words and not seeing the Content for the Full Measure It has been delivered.

Many religious organizations have bound so many individuals to believing that all that is spoken is directly from The Creator and must be obeyed, thus omitting personal interpretation of their thoughts, what they have learned, and the real meaning of the values for which human life is bound and was created for.

As I speak, it is with Deep Love for The Father's Will to be understood in the manner, the degree, and for the purpose He intends it to be, because there is so much diabolical interference being practiced by all dimensions of intellect, of abilities, and of course, personal pride and ego.

As I leave you, I bless you in a manner and way; for those who are taking these Words in print, it is important that you know, that as you work for The Father to give others His Will, His Way, you are blessed abundantly, and your Soul is the recipient of these Blessings that will show to you one day, Another Way. So be it.”
