SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI
SAINT PEREGRINE
SAINT STANISLAUS
SAINT JOHN OF THE CROSS

“I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. I am Saint Peregrine. I am Saint Stanislaus. I am Saint John of The Cross.

There are Several of Us present at this time, because of the necessity for mankind of all degrees of intellect, all backgrounds, all ways of life, to better understand the importance of human life, because it is the only creation The Father uses a Portion of Himself to be present within.

When an individual man, woman or child is told they have a Soul, most times they ignore this statement, because they do not understand, or desire to understand, the responsibilities of human life because of the Soul they are the custodian of.

Throughout the world there are no lessons such as These being given. It is sad for me to say but it is truth. Evil is everywhere, based on lust, anger, greed, and a lack of understanding the fact, the logic, that all things were created by a Supreme, Superior Power. If this were not so, oceans would not stay in one place, mountains would crumble, the stars would fall, and human life could not exist in the horror of all that could take place.

A human voice has been given the responsibility to deliver Words that nothing or no one else can do on their own. This Gift of Divine Love is a Gift beyond human comprehension, ability, thus giving to all of human life the logic in human life having within them a Portion of The Creator called a Soul.

A long time ago a man was given a set of Rules for others and himself to live by. These Rules have been erased in many ways, almost to the point where they no longer exist in the minds of a large number of human beings. It is not a case of human life not being able to remember them; it is a case of so much evil superseding them in the thoughts, the ideas, ideals, practices, that have become, many times, through time, a part of human life, acceptable, ignoring that only a Divine Creator of Pure Thinking on Every Subject, in Every Way, cares indepthly for the lives of human beings, because human beings are the only creation that bears a Portion of The Divine.

You live in a time much worse than the ugly, immoral, abusive times in the history of human life.

It is sad for me to say, 'When We speak, All that is spoken is not seen for the Greatness It is, because what man calls immorality is more than a weakness, it is an acceptable way of life, thus ignoring the Rules that were given to human life.' The Father did not just create human life and let it alone. He has always been ever watchful over it, protective of it, and constantly alerting individuals of all degrees of nature, mentalities, to see the importance of correct decisions, not just to protect the physical, but to protect the mental and, of course, that Portion, the Soul.

As I close what I am about to say, it is time that human life awaken mentally, socially, physically, morally, to the privilege of human life, and that it contains a Soul that nothing else has the privilege to have in any degree, any way. So be it."
