SAINT PEREGRINE

I am Saint Peregrine. There are Several Others standing Here with Me. It is a beauty to see, because as All of Us are present, listening, watching out for, and contributing to The Father's Love for human life, as We join in this Gift, Each of Us finds the beauty that no human being can feel or fully understand.

The Soul, as a Portion of The Father, responds immediately to Our Presence when it is in such an open way. Granted, no human being can see their Soul; It would be a Sight indescribable and not understandable.

Today as I speak — and All the Others Here with Me smile each time this little one is approached by One of Us — her response is immediate, and she waits for the Words that pass through in a manner and a way, unable for the human mind to understand who watch this occur, but it is obviously The Father's Way of wanting to save Souls, and He uses All of the Saints through this Gift of His Divine Love, not just to enlighten men, women and children, but to give strength, more understanding about the future that He has planned for the Soul that is a Portion of Him, that at one time walked through man.

My Words may be difficult for some to understand, but I am sure, eventually, It will be seen for the Importance of Them.

Today, throughout the world, there are men, women and children asking for help on some manner of action, or for some hope to help them through a crisis of some sort.

Prayers are heard. Never forget this, because the communication between human life and The Divine is always heard, not in the manner you understand hearing, but because of the Magnitude that The Divine has in Understanding, in Abilities, and the Care, no prayer is unanswered, and though it may appear that the request is denied, there is always something else given, because of the Faith of the individual who had the courage to request help from What they cannot see, they cannot hear, but innately know It exists.

As I leave you, be assured, you are never alone. Even though you cannot see your Guardian Angel or the Saints Who surround you, you are free to call on Them and They will hear. So be it."
