

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON MAY 24, 2001 AT 12:55 P.M.

SAINT JOHN OF THE CROSS

I am Saint John of The Cross. There are Many Here with Me today, and Each One desires to speak because of the Importance of so many Souls that are the victims of the weakness of those with whom They were placed at the moment of conception.

The little one sheds tears because of what We show her today. There is but a handful of people throughout the world, in every vocation of life, that truly understand or are sensitive to the importance of human life.

So much is taken for granted, and this is what the enemy of all things uses to weaken the understanding on what is morally right, important, and in The Father's Will. There is a great battle going on every day, and the enemy of all that is good uses every form of attention, drawing individuals away from the importance of what is morally sound and, of course, what The Father Wills for the Soul of each human being born.

The tears the child shows are My tears, because so many times when We are allowed to speak, We know that the Message is deeper than those writing It or reading It will ever understand, because of the human mind of man.

I speak differently on this day, because of the importance of this Gift of The Father's Love that is not being seen in the Greatness It is. Everything is so humanistic in value, perception and acceptance. There are Many Saints Who daily ask The Father to speak through this Gift of Such Importance, for the Souls to be returned to The Father in a Pure State as They were once given.

Many of Us are present now, and We show her a street. There is much chaos on the street, much vulgarity, much hate, much indifference, totally diabolical in practice, with no concern for the Souls they are the custodians of, and are to be returned to The Father, Saints.

Believe it or not, I cry with the child. The sight she sees is horrible. She wants to scream 'STOP', but the reason We show her this and it is to be written for others to know about it, is that so few men, women and children see what is occurring that is diabolical in all facets of it, and that the Souls of hundreds, even thousands of people, are abused by the impurities and the ugliness in pleasing the enemy instead of The Creator.

I will close My Statements soon. It is too much for her to handle.

The world has been blessed in many ways, first by learning that The Son of The Creator of All Things, a Portion of The Creator, came to the earth to lay the Ground Rules for many important things. To so many that seems like the only time that this has occurred, but through time The Father has given to mankind individuals who walked a very tight line between evil and good, good and evil, right and wrong. The only attack on this was to try to destroy the individual who was so obviously acting in a manner pleasing to The Creator of all.

I release her slowly for what she has seen has tortured her mentally. It is a sadness when this must be done, because the human body, when it is in a State of Grace according to The Father's Will, cannot bear to see the ugliness that abounds throughout the world, accepted as humanistic, thus saying it is not dangerous to anyone, anything, thus ignoring the fact that every human being has a Soul, a Portion that is to be returned to The Father after enduring the human role.

If all that this little one sees, many times, was put out in the open for thousands to see, some would die from the sight, because of the ugliness that only the enemy of The Father and man has the strength to perform in so many ways.

I am forced to bless this little one in The Father's Way because of the horror that she has seen, and what I had to say, because without the Blessing she would want to run away.

It will take her three hours to fully return to how she should feel, because the pain of what she has seen would be unbearable on the body, the mind and the Soul. So be it.”
