

SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA

“I am Saint Catherine of Siena.

We hear so much conversation on spiritual ideals and humanistic progress on issues that pertain only to monetary measures or social issues.

The Father has given to human life the intelligence, the sensitivities to so many things, but it is sad to say so much is taken out of context, thus making what is right not so right, always making excuses for the weaknesses in it. To say to an individual, ‘Purity of your mind is a Blessing to your Soul,’ that too, is oftentimes not understood in its full measure.

The Father has given to the world, the whole world, this Gift that so many Saints Here in the Heavens find it a privilege to be a part of. It is important that children of all ages begin to read what has been written through this Gift, because very little sound direction is available to them.

This may be difficult for some to understand. When I say ‘some’ I mean all ages, because sometimes the element in which an individual lives has a tremendous effect on not just how they think, but how they adjust to the surroundings, oftentimes accepting what is morally unsound, unreasonable — surely, out of the imitation of those with whom they come in contact, or they see with their eyes in acts that are diabolical, impure, and even unrelated to the present situation at that time.

Many times it is very difficult for Us Saints to speak in the manner I have just spoken, because We want everyone who reads Our Words to see the beauty in life, and how close each human being is to The Divine, because of the Connecting Link of Love that nothing else is created with, that is called the Soul.

It is oftentimes easy for an individual to tell another one, 'I love you.' It is not always meant in the manner it was expected to be, or should be. Some think the word 'love' opens the door to many actions that could violate the purity of the association.

I could speak endlessly on this subject, but All of Us Saints Here in the Heavens want everyone born to the world of human life, to the way of human life, to fully understand that they are gifted with so many forms of understanding, and the ability to learn more than they are born with. Also, there is an innate sensitivity that each human being is aware of, but sometimes denies its existence, and that is purity of the mind, the body, over all that is foul, evil, and enjoyed only by the enemy of God and man, because much hate comes from the enemy that is not available for men, women and children to visibly see, but it is evident in how it affects the minds of some people when they accept what is immoral over what is pleasing to The Father.

As I leave you at this moment, I beseech you, when you know an act would displease, don't just resist it, but reject it in every measure and degree. Remember, you have a Portion of The Creator within you, and all you do and all you say reflects in It, the Soul that The Father wants returned to Him, a Saint. So be it."
