SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori.

Let us stand in a room. Let us call it a room of laws, a room of courage, and yet a room of love.

When the time comes and The Father stands before Him a Soul, ask yourself: What questions does The Father ask this Portion of Himself that He placed within a human being some time ago?

The Soul is responsible in many ways, for many things, but a human being never sees the Soul that he or she is the bearer of. The Soul is a Guardian; in many ways, a Protector. The Soul gives advanced warnings of danger. The Soul wants the one in whom It was placed to see purity over impurity, love over hate.

Ask yourself: How often have you seen a small child stand before you, appearing in an innocence that was attractive, and what you felt from this child was a need for you to show strength, courage, hope, love?

I know it will be difficult for some to understand, but The Holy Spirit of The Creator of All Things, constantly stands with a Watchful Eye, Protecting Souls throughout the world, because of the Importance of the Souls to The Creator.

It is difficult for some to understand that within them they have a Portion of Divine Love. No other living matter or thing is gifted with this, but it is time that men, women and children begin to understand that human life is a Special Gift of Divine Love, and when it was first created it was part of a Great Plan. The Plan has never changed. It never will, because it is how The Father decreed that human life would have intellect, understanding, courage, hope, and innately believe in a Supreme Power, Supreme Being.

As I leave you, I beseech you, let no day pass that you do not thank The Creator of All Things for that Portion of you that is a Portion of Him, called the Soul. So be it for now.”
