

SAINT JOHN OF THE CROSS

“I am Saint John of The Cross.

As you kneel before the Crucifix, do you feel the Importance of this Act of Love that was given for a Very Important Reason? All that It was for has never been written, because to some it would be difficult to write the story of how vile, contemptible, that what caused this Cross, this Event to occur — jealousy, anger — are two of the most important factors that this Crucifixion was based on.

Today, the time in which you live, and you have the privilege to write what is spoken, describing many facts regarding the past, and the Purpose for which there was a Crucifixion, you do not always see, feel, or understand that this Event was based on jealousy, hate. There was no love, only violence, too difficult for all human life to truly evaluate.

Sometimes We hear men, women and children speak about this time to be remembered. It is often said in a matter-of-fact manner, way, not truly feeling or understanding the vile actions, and the pain that it caused to the One Who was being nailed to the Cross.

There are several types of pain; some is physical, some is mental. I will not mention them all at this time, but pain comes and it is never truly examined for how it could have been avoided through kindness, through humility, and of course, through justice.

All that has been delivered, through this Gift of The Father’s Love for human life, is not being translated into Its full concept, even though the script is understood in the wording, but definitely not in the Values of What is meant.

My next Words may be difficult for some who read this to understand, but whether it is believed or not, Saints sometimes find unkindness, meanness, and They bear tears, beseeching The Father to stop what is occurring, and to not allow the so-called free will of human life to cause so much harm morally, mentally, physically, spiritually.

Needless to say, I could speak hours on this subject, but the little one through whom I speak, We All speak, many times finds What We say difficult, because injustice, harm —physical, mental, spiritual — is more than she can bear.

Those who surround her do not know her. Those who say they love her do not realize that the love is not the love that gives strength, but it is a love of human concept, concern, condition, regarding human relationship.

The world has been blessed through this Gift of Divine Love. It is a Gift that should give Strength, Hope, and alert those who read the Words, those who write the Words, a fuller understanding that speech is not the only communication man has, because the Written Words can pass to thousands and thousands and thousands, even millions, and when they are Words of Worthwhile Content, Consideration, Concern, They give Hope, Strength, and many times, Happiness.

As I close My time with you now, I beseech you to never ignore the privilege it is to speak personally to The Creator of All Things, to The Son Who gave His Life for human life, and All the Words that were given, and are being given, to give strength to the mind, the actions, the goals, of your own life.

I could speak hours in this personal way to you, but What I have said thus far is to awaken you to the importance of what a privilege you have to use prayer, kindness, sincerity, hope, with your fellowman. So be it.”
