ON OCTOBER 19, 2001 AT 1:08 P.M.

One is Saint Athanasius. One is Saint Bernadette. One is Saint Constantine. Saint Gerard. This One is smiling, saying, “Yes, I am Saint Valentine.”

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. Yes, there are Many present each time One of Us speaks. All the Names are not mentioned at different times, because it is more important for the Words that are to be said remain in the minds of those who read What is Important.

Human life was chosen above all other living matter or thing, to be Gifted with a Soul, a Portion of The Creator of All Things. It is sad when We see men, women and children of all ages concentrate on matters, situations, conditions, that have no sound reasoning, thus ignoring the importance and the value of concentrating on the worth of their lives, the importance of their lives, and how they use each day of their lives morally, mentally, physically.

There is so little attention given to an examination of conscience. It is not a thing of the past. It is just something that can be called bothersome, because conscience is ignored, and more attention is emphasized on what an individual or group of individuals find entertaining, interesting, enjoyable.

The world has been given a Gift Greater than the human mind of any individual can perceive the Greatness of It, the Importance of It, the Divine Love in It. The Gift is a Gift enlightening the minds of all ages that there is a Supreme Power in Charge of All Things, and that all of human life is indebted to this Power, openly known as The Heavenly Father, The Holy Trinity.

Why this is so difficult for all degrees of mentality to not fully understand is not just a forgivable sin, in essence it declares human life to be irrational on the Importance of being given the Gift of human life, and not seeing that it has a Goal beyond what any other living matter has. Human life is not a tree, a flower, a plant, or a blade of grass, it is not an animal. Human life has a conscience, an innate understanding of values, of truths, of what is moral, what is immoral, what is good, what is evil, what is just, what is unjust.

Sad to say, even so-called highly learned individuals forget or ignore that human life has a Goal, and to reach the Goal The Father intends human life to reach, there is a Portion of The Creator within each human being that will be the Representative of the one in whom It was placed at a given time; that is, at the moment of conception.

Without responsibilities human life would be like all other living matter or thing — no goal and no reason to live, because purpose is important to human life. It is innate in human life to see purpose for many things.

I could speak endlessly on this subject, but The Father always instructs Us to give the amount that will be able to be understood, because of the Importance that the Words are directed to, for, and From.

As I close My time with you, I bless you with The Father's Love, and I beseech you to let no day pass that you do not remember or respect That Portion of you that is a Portion of God Himself."
