

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON NOVEMBER 8, 2001 AT 12:38 P.M.

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori.

All of what has passed through this Gift of Divine Love must be transmitted throughout the world in languages understandable to millions of human life.

Men, women and children are starving in the physical way, but they are also starving in their love for God. There is so little logic, in a spiritual form, being transmitted in areas wherein thousands of individuals live.

Today, as All of the Saints speak through this Gift of The Father’s Love, so little is being transmitted to the degree to cover all areas of human life.

As I speak today, I speak differently, but I have come to enlighten you, to inform you, and to request of you that All that has been delivered through this Gift of Divine Love never be held in one place, but be spread throughout the world. It is needed more than you can conceive It to be needed.

Those who are close to this Gift are aware of the Greatness of It, in It, for It. It is time that It be transmitted in languages understandable to those who cannot be present where you are. So be it.”
