

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON MARCH 5, 2002 AT 12:50 P.M.

SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA

I am Saint Catherine of Siena.

I am surrounded by many Saints as I speak to you today, and Each One of Them wants Me to say Words of encouragement regarding how you approach what is moral, what is sound, what is pure, what is just, because many times, when it is done in a frivolous way, it causes much harm to the minds and the Souls of those who are present, and see your act of disrespect, lack of concern, regarding the dignity that Sainthood should receive.

All the Saints want this Gift of The Father's Love, called 'The Miracle of Saint Joseph', to spread to all languages, all backgrounds, all intellects, and all degrees of spiritual understanding. Throughout the world at this time, in so many ways, and so many places, sound spiritual recognition, concern and practice is being eliminated, and it is sad to see so much sinfulness by all ages of human beings.

We hear some mention that they have read the Bible, but they also add, 'That was for another time.' Perhaps what occurred was at another time, but the Messages within the Words reveal the importance of how human beings should use their senses, their abilities, for what is pure over what is impure, for what is just over what is unjust, what is pleasing to The Father over what is vile and contemptible, morally, mentally, physically.

As I speak, the Power We must use through one small body is a Power beyond human understanding. She listens throughout a full day, not for the rustle of Our garments, but for Our Presence that she has been trained to recognize in a particular way.

I hold her tightly, and I show her a scene. There are three men, three women. She is watching their actions. Their actions are obscene. She says, 'Cast them aside, I cannot bear it.'

Thousands of men, women and children express themselves in so many ways, totally indifferent to what is morally pure, sound, acceptable. They ignore totally what harm they are doing to the ones they are abusing in many ways.

We show her another scene. Children are playing in a yard. She is happy with this scene, but suddenly now she cries, because evil has entered the scene. We will draw it away, because she could not handle what could have happened at a time when children are the evil's prey.

As I close My Words, be assured that you do live in a time of confusion based on immorality, and a lack of concern for what is morally sound, pure, correct. That is why this Gift of Divine Love has been given to the world, and instructed to be put into script, because without the script the Words would fade away, and never be remembered.

All that has been delivered thus far must travel throughout the world, irregardless of the language barrier that oftentimes is used as an excuse when certain individuals do not want to read what they are capable of reading, especially when they find it opposite of what they are doing.

You live in a time of so many indiscretions, so much carelessness in morals, and very little concern over the full and true meaning of purity of the mind, the body, for the Soul.

I will close My Words, because the little one has been tortured by what I have shown her. Every moment of the day, be mindful that you were created for a Beautiful Goal for your Soul, and as each day is important to you now, through your Soul you will live in a manner and way that will give you a happiness inconceivable to your mentality now, but at the time that it occurs you will thank The Father for having learned about the Goal you were alerted to be able to have for your Soul.”
