

“Since the beginning of the creation of human life, there were many areas that each generation had to learn a higher degree of understanding regarding many factors, features, of what human life was to be able to use in a practical form and, also, a degree that would give to human life a greater understanding of the Importance for which The Father created this life of human beings.

Today as I speak, I speak with much concern, because at this time so many areas of human behavior have allowed evil to enter, thus catering to the enemy of all human life.

It is sad to say that most human beings of all ages, never picture, never think about whether their actions, emotions, practices or involvements, contain a moral way or an immoral way. So little thought is given on this subject, because most individuals take it for granted that being human, and having the ability to make decisions, is all that is necessary to walk the human way.

At this moment that I speak, there are thousands of children throughout the world practicing impurities in every area of life, because there is so little instruction and so little love for the young. It is important that the young be instructed on the Commandments of The Creator, but always in a fuller degree than They have been recorded to be: so concise, almost indifferent to what the subject is all about.

As All of the Saints Here in the Heavens speak, We hear so many men, women and children discussing what they will accept as entertainment; also, what they will practice with their friends, their family, and those they come in contact. So much of this conversation is empty, because too much emphasis is put on humanism, rather than what would be not just practical, but proper morally.

Immorality is prevalent throughout the world, justified in every age group of human life, and automatically accepted as a way of life.

The world has been blessed by a Gift Greater than the human mind can fully perceive It to be, because All the Saints Here in the Heavens wait for The Father to request Them, or just beckon Them to speak, to help all the living individuals throughout the world to more fully understand that to be born in the human way is a privilege, has a Purpose, and definitely is in Divine Plan.

This should be to all who read these Words understandable, because it is innate in the human minds to want to be successful, and to want to reach goals that have purpose and hope for the future. Every human being born, when they see what is pure over what is impure, just over unjust, right over wrong, should automatically see the importance of how they choose to make decisions in every act of human life, and that it has a Purpose, because the individual will be judged according to the Commandments in Their fullest measure.

I must add here, time has caused men and women, even children, to shorten the Commandments that were given in greater detail when They were first delivered. It is important that the logical detail be put back in the Commandments, and the conciseness be cast aside, because as The Father sees the Soul, He will know, and He does know now, what effect all that is being practiced by the one in whom the Soul is, will have on the future of the Soul's judgment at a given time.

So many so-called learned men and women will read What I have just spoken, but many will not agree, because it is easier to see something more simply acceptable when it does not cause more thought, more understanding and, of course, more meaning.

As I close My Words I repeat: 'Don't walk each day ignoring what you were created for. The Goal was, and is, to one day become a Saint.'
