

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON SEPTEMBER 16, 2002 AT 12:48 P.M.

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. What I am about to say is of great importance to all ages of human life.

Morality is not a thing of the past. It is important for all ages to understand the Commandments of The Creator were given a long time ago as, and for, the foundation for the good of all human's Souls.

We hear some say, 'I cannot see my Soul, I cannot feel It, maybe I was not given a Soul at the moment of my conception.' This, of course, is a human being using a weak point to defend how they feel regarding the Importance of What they truly have within them, and that this Soul no human being is born without.

In the conception of a human life, the Soul is the First Part, Portion, Gift, that is immediately placed, protecting the little one or little ones from all that they hear, they become a part of, at that time when they begin to grow and will be called a human being.

My Words, to some, may be difficult to understand such a phenomenon as this, but in the Beauty of The Creator of All Things, in the Love for human life, He never allows a child to be conceived under any other circumstances, other than His Love for this creation, His Goal for this creation, to one day be returned to Him forever and ever and ever.

Throughout the world there is so much immoral confusion amidst and among all ages of human life. We hear so many excuses for the lack of understanding, thus meaning the lack of willingness to comply with the importance of the Gift of human life, and its Goal at the moment of its conception.

So many Saints Here in the Heavens plead with The Father to help Them give strength where it is needed for all human life. I am going to add a statement to this that will surprise many who will read it. Though prayer is understood to be a communication between an individual and The Divine, I would shock you if I were to explain to you how little prayer is used in communication in one day, in one week, any time.

Even though It has been put into print, the Importance of communication, it is sad for me to say it is ignored by millions of human beings of all ages, all backgrounds, every day they live. Granted, there are many activities that must be accomplished in a daily way of life, but there are many ways to pray. The first one is human behavior. Is it moral or is it immoral? Is it behavior that others enjoy being with because of its dignity, sincerity, good example, or is it using each day accepting all that is occurring, no matter what it is, even if it is impure in the slightest suggestion or the slightest condition?

Many excuses are made under these conditions, and accepted readily, because men, women and children have a way of making excuses when they are exposed to conditions that innately they know they could rectify, or make a point that they were displeased with the immorality, indecency, the impurities, that were shown to be acted out as natural to the way of life, thus ignoring that every Soul of every human being bears a responsibility for what the one in whom They are placed at a given time — nothing is not accountable for. You can compare this with two or more individuals in daily life who find it either acceptable or enjoyable or necessary, to do something to someone else that is unkind, unjust, impure.

There are so many conditions in life wherein much consideration should be spoken out openly when it is something that an individual should not accept, and not just stand by and appear as they are unconcerned over the impurities of conversation, actions, or intentions.

As I close these Words at this time, remember, as adults see what can occur, always remember, children can become victims because they do not always see or understand or can they evaluate impurities. I plead with you, protect them, because the enemy of all there is, is constantly using many ways, many things, many situations, to make the Souls of those present disgraced, and rob them of the purity that they were given for the Goal in life The Father decreed to be, and that is to become a Saint.
