

SAINT PEREGRINE

“I am Saint Peregrine.

Logic is evident, because there are so many times that when logic gives hope and draws people together there is logic in prayer, because the words, in their particular manner and way, draw the attention to the Soul that waits for men, women and children to pray.

The Words I use are different than what is normally spoken, regarding the human closeness to The Divine Way.

There are periods in some humans' lives wherein they feel the necessity of prayer, the need for prayer, and the hope they feel is transferred from them to Whomever they are praying to.

Just as human beings consider small points in daily life that can be related to communication, helping someone notice they are there, a prayer immediately gains the attention, unseen, of course, but obviously there is a close association when one says a prayer and chooses the One they desire to hear the prayer.

Each day, on awakening, without communication to those around or those with whom you associate, the day would be dull, without reason, without purpose, if there was no communication verbally, mentally.

The reason for My Words is to draw your attention to the important fact that as you are aware that The Holy Father hears everything you do, say, The Heavenly Queen also is fully aware of what you practice as an individual in your daily way. The Saints, though you do not see Them, are also present in a degree and a way, always ready to listen to what you have to say.

When you call upon Saint Elizabeth, She immediately recognizes the communication. If you call on Saint Paul, the same thing occurs, because the Souls of these Saints are constantly aware of all things. The Beauty of Sainthood is to be close to The Heavenly King, to help the Souls of millions of human beings understand that human life, in Divine Plan, is connected through the Soul to The Heavenly King.

I know What I have spoken may be difficult for some to understand, but just as you whisper something to someone physical, they will hear you, and the Souls of All in the Heavens are always aware when you pray; even if you do not mention a Name, there is always Someone to hear.

The Father, in His Love for this creation, human life, has instilled in it more gifts than the human mind can perceive to be; but never forget, when you speak to anyone, what you say is heard because of the Soul that you are gifted with at the moment of your conception, and the Soul never loses contact with The Divine, or does The Divine ever lose contact with your Soul.

That is why it is so important for all men, women and children to never feel they are all alone. A prayer is sometimes the greatest thing one can do, because that Portion of human life, the Soul, feels the closeness to The Creator when It is used to help the one in whom It was placed at a given time.

I know what I have spoken is different in how individuals think about, but The Father, in His Love for human life, would never leave you alone. The Soul is the Protector, the Guide, and the
