SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA

“I am Saint Catherine of Siena. Many of Us are present wherever this little one is. We call her ‘the little one’ because her time with The Father was from the beginning of her birth.

There are many, many Lessons passed through this Gift that are not just Means of Advice to those who read the Words, but They are Directions for the individual to learn more about becoming a Saint, to better understand the Purpose for life, and the Beauty of the Goal that awaits the Soul at a given time.

Children throughout the world, of all ages, are not being instructed properly. So much humanism is involved, thus using humanistic versions above and beyond what the necessity for spiritual activities, actions, thoughts, words and deeds, mean to the Soul.

Ask yourself: ‘How many times today have I thought about my Soul?’ Have you spoken to It in words of communication or requests, by asking the Soul to give you the strength to act as The Father would want you to? What example are you to others you meet, you associate with? Do they see purity in how you talk, what you speak, and how you think through your actions, your mannerisms in how you approach others like yourself, human beings?

I will not speak long, because there are so Many Here in the Heavens Who are, in many ways devoted to this Gift of Divine Love, that The Father has so lovingly bestowed upon the human beings that hear the Words or read the Words.

Today as I leave you, I have one thing to say: Never allow a day to pass that you do not remember to say, ‘Father, forgive me for my sins today.

I love You and I pray that my Soul will not be harmed by me in any way.’”
