

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON NOVEMBER 17, 2003 AT 12:45 P.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“Some time ago, Much was delivered from Many Saints Here in the Heavens. I am Saint Athanasius.

There are Many standing Here with Me now, All willing and even desiring to help those who are yet in the living state, because of the diabolical confusion that exists amongst human life of all degrees of intellect, all areas of mentality, all backgrounds.

Each day I hear thousands or even more than this number, ask for help on an issue, a situation, a condition, or regarding their personal views, plans, ideas regarding subjects that automatically should be understood, not just in the value of their thinking the subject matter, but practicing how they will practice it, how they will take it for granted and ignore the wrong in it.

As All of the Saints Here see so much confusion on every subject concerning the values of life, and what life should accept or deny, or be part of, confusion reigns in more ways than I would want to discuss at this time.

We see all ages read the Bible. Many say it is confusing, but interpretation confuses the mentalities, because the nature, the attitude, and the moral values of an individual oftentimes find confusion in the most easily understood subject matter, because confusion does not just limit, but allows them to ignore truths.

You live in a time that has been spoken about many times. The words are: ‘You live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah.’ These words are easily accepted, but not fully understood for the full intention regarding the modern understanding, or I should say, the so-called modern understanding of what is sound in clarity regarding a subject that is important for the whole being of an individual, not just the mentality, but the actions, the usefulness of all they have been granted with; also, their communication with others like themselves.

In many ways, places, confusion reigns louder than the sound of lightning striking in the air, thunder, and all the things that the earth has. Gossip is not the real culprit. The real demonic influence is in the mentalities of how an individual or individuals desire to practice what they think about, or what they desire to be part of amongst others they know, they are close to, and also that they feel comfortable with socially, morally, physically.

Life, to most people at this time, is much like the time of Sodom and Gomorrah. The wrongs, perhaps practiced differently, but nonetheless, purity of the mind and the Soul are not thought about to the degree necessary for the Salvation of one's Soul.

This Gift that has instructed so much in a very common, calm way, is oftentimes ignored once It is put into script; set aside, because the human mind oftentimes intentionally understands what is not acceptable, but makes excuses when they use whatever it is, and I should say, consciously use it to appease, or be part of what is present for them to make choices on.

As I close My Words, hopefully They have left a mark, and will leave a mark, awakening the mentalities of thousands of people on the necessity to use life as a Gift of Divine Love, practicing all that is moral and would be pleasing to The Creator if He were standing in Person, rather than just being present, but not seen. He is present, every moment of every day, to every human being born the human way. An explanation of this Greatness would be impossible to give, but human life has been given the senses of sight, touch, feel, understanding, and the abilities to project acceptance or rejection, hope or denial of It, love or hate.

I could speak hours unlimited, but I beseech those who take the Words and who will read the Words, to never forget, you are not just a human being, you are a Gift, bearing the responsibilities of a Soul that you must return to The Creator 'a Saint'.
