

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON AUGUST 19, 2004 AT 12:54 P.M.

SAINT ROBERT BELLARMINE

“I am Saint Robert Bellarmine.

We All smile when the little one announces Our Presence, because Our Presence to her, is as obvious as your presence is to her. I say this with a smile, because she recognizes Us the moment she sees Us. I have the privilege today to speak, so that others may read the Words and, hopefully, not just be pleased by Them, but They will give strength where it is meant to be.

To face each day in the human way, is oftentimes based on gender and age. Many times individuals who feel they have a brilliant mind and can take the time to discuss many important subjects, but they are hurried through, and feel they have not covered what was due to be spoken about.

Today as I speak, it is with deep love for those who have accepted the responsibility of putting into print What The Father allows Us Saints to speak, hopefully, to instruct in some Form, some Way, some Degree, some Manner, some Purpose, What some individual will use to strengthen their sensitivity about dealing with a particular subject matter that, at the moment, they are faced with.

Today as I speak, it is to help those who live in what they call ‘the single state’. The single state is a privilege many times, because there is so much to be learned when one must deal on decisions that are of great importance, and will strengthen their abilities for a later time.

Today, as I speak to you, in many places throughout the world there is a great need for hope. Hope is not always easy to feel, easy to accept, because it does not always reveal all the facets and all the different decisions that will give it an important stature in daily living. To be in the human way, has so many separate decisions on issues, on time, on space, and oftentimes difficult because one is not experienced enough in what would be the right conclusion to accept.

Now, to some, My Words may be difficult, but to some, They will be a God-given Gift, because every human being has decisions to make, and daily life is oftentimes full of concerns over different issues, facts, on how to contend with other individuals who are close to them.

My Words, to some, may be difficult to feel it was timely for such a Statement to make, but as I close My Time with you now, I want to add: Never forget, The Heavenly Father is always available to guide you, and to give you the strength to make decisions that will be beneficial in more ways than you have considered in how you think.
