SAINT ATHANASIUS

“I am Saint Athanasius.

Today, for most human life, it is just another day, but in reality, it can be made a special day, through accepting more understanding regarding how one prays, how one feels about family, friends, plus how one decides to adjust to things that could be more beneficial in many ways; also, give help where it is needed, hope where it is needed, and a Gift of Divine Love based on Divine Will.

I know What I have spoken will be unusual for some to read, but I beseech you, look at It in Its Worth, and how pleased it would make The Father to hear you say words of comfort, sincerity, helping someone who did not expect help, thus giving to them the thought that because of what occurred, the individual was encouraged by The Heavenly Father.

There are so many ways in human life to help others remember, be reminded of the good things in life that, many times, could be based on spiritual understanding, or devotion to The Heavenly King, The Heavenly Mother.

I speak differently today, but It is important, physical measures are important; but to give someone else the sensitive feeling that only God would have encouraged you to do a certain thing, both Souls, yours and the other one's is so pleased.

Rarely are the Souls thought about in the degree, the measure, or their full reasonability for you having a Soul instilled into you at the moment of your conception. That Soul knows everything that occurs, every wish you have, every hurt you suffer, and every gift of love you aid someone else with.

I speak differently, but My Words are to remind those who read these Words: All the Saints Here in the Heavens are Saints because They have the desire to help the Souls act, perform, and use Their Place in Heaven to aid Others — Some on earth, but also Some Who have passed across the Gate of Heaven and have some things yet that must be changed.

I close these Words with Words you all understand: God The Father sees all things, and blesses those who use time and good acts to give strength, hope, and happiness to another one like themselves, human in every respect.”
