

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON MARCH 23, 2005 AT 11:00 A.M.

MANY SAINTS

“There are Many of Us present at all times where this little one is. Some might question why We call her ‘the little one’. I smile when I say, ‘She also questions this.’ The word ‘little’ here means that her personality, nature and character is not what it is expected to be like, with the burden and the Gift she has been used for, for such a long time.

Her love is consistent in how she accepts the responsibilities that are evident in how she walks, speaks and accepts what, in many ways, would be difficult.

Today, every moment is important to her. Tomorrow will be the same. Each day has an important factor and a necessity for obedience in how she accepts what The Father uses her for — to help Souls that plead with Him many times for an individual to be held responsible, for what He Wills is not just kindness, but obedience for a reason unseen.

So Many of Us request many times to be able to speak through her, thus delivering help for those who are yet upon the earth.

I will speak at another time on this Subject, because as she is given the privilege to communicate, We Here in the Heavens have the privilege to be able to communicate with her.”

“She has requested if the time will be short before We speak again. We smile at this, because Our Presence basically never ends because of the Importance of what she has been not just gifted with, but responsible for.

It might take her awhile at this time to be released from the Power she is subjected to. It is what We Here in the Heavens call ‘a line of communication’ based totally on The Father’s Will.”
