

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON MARCH 25, 2005 AT 1:13 P.M.

SAINT STANISLAUS

“I am Saint Stanislaus.

So Many of Us stand by ready to speak Words of Importance through this one little voice that The Father has chosen for a Major Task.

We All love her very much, because she responds to Our Presence first of all, and when she is alert to Our Words, We try to use Words comfortable for her to repeat, and when We hear her say, ‘I will get my father for you,’ We All smile, because We know Curly¹ is not close to her at that point.

Today as I speak, it is to initiate in those who work for this Gift of Divine Love — work for It and work because of It — so much is able to be given that, without It being presented verbally, physically, others would never hear what a Treasure The Father gives through instructing Words, not just of comfort, but Words to give aid, mental and physical strength, and Direction that nothing else would have the Power to give, the Knowledge to give, or the Right to give in some ways.

I will close My Words, but I have spoken in a manner and way to encourage those who participate, who partake in taking the Words from Those of Us Who are requested to speak Them, because Each Message has a Purpose to It, a Reason for It, and a Divine Love in It. Remember this.”
