

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON APRIL 4, 2005 AT 12:54 P.M.

SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA
SAINT MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE

“I am Saint Catherine of Siena; and I am Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque.

We All smile at this little one who is so sensitive to Everything We speak, even to What We think, and We do not even say that to let her know.

This Gift of Divine Love that has been with you for a very long time, is a Gift Far Greater than It is seen to be, because time alone gave It so much from so Many Saints Here in the Heavens, for those who would take the Words to learn more about how close they are to the Souls of Those Who, at one time, walked the path of human life using each day for what had to be done, for what had to be spoken, and yes, to please The Holy One.

You live in a time wherein Spiritual Understanding is Genteel, is Gentle, and in many ways Explicit in Everything It says, because without It, you could not learn as much as you know there to be. So much is spoken, and so much Divine Love encouraged for you to understand, because as you live each day, you are example in everything you think, do and say.

This is a privilege beyond what It is understood to be, but Many Saints Here in the Heavens smile and thank The Holy Trinity for blessing you in so many ways, thus giving you the strength, the hope, but the knowledge in giving to your Souls, the ability and chance to one day become a Great Saint.”
