

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON APRIL 20, 2005 AT 1:24 P.M.

“The word ‘responsibility’ is oftentimes a word individuals do not like to hear about, because they feel it causes a burden on them that does not make them happy.

Now let Us look at the Beauty of human life. It starts out first with the conception for a human being to be born. Those who are portions of this conception have much responsibility, many ways, in fact; but the end result is for them to be able, to be able to say they have a child born to them. The child has a Soul, but without the heart the child could not live.

Then We have those who feel that they are the only individuals in the world that bear responsibilities. I ask all of them: ‘At this time, did you create the responsibilities? If so, was it pure in thought? Was it logical in reasoning, and was it good for yourself, or for the Soul also, to be put so close to you and one day be a human being, to live and to earn the Gifts of being a human being?’

This list is endless, but if all human beings would realize openly, consciously, that human lives were designed with a Goal in mind, but the first goal was to live a human way, being able to use all the human Gifts and then, hopefully, one day to be successful, whether it be through bearing children, or doing other things of kindness, above and beyond what they ever thought would occur.

There are so many facts and factors in being a human being. All have a purpose, all have a reason, and these use the things that give to life in the human way, interest and decisions to be made; hopefully, in the best way for the Soul they are the custodian of.

As I speak these Words, I cannot help but feel gratitude to The Creator Who, in the Design of human life, gave with it, so many areas that give hope, interest, purpose, Divine Love and a Goal.

I will close these Words now, but never forget, as you take these Words, your Soul is also the recipient of these Words, because your Soul is a 'Portion' of you that was designed by The Divine."
