

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“I am your Heavenly Mother.

We All smile when this little one is happy to receive Us in a Verbal Way, because she knows Our Presence is obviously close to her and all of you, when We request a time to speak through her, Words The Father Wills to be known, to be able to give strength where it is needed, and hope when it is an aid to a condition or a situation that the individual is concerned about.

I come on this day because of an Important Situation that I am going to ask you to understand.

Children of all ages are not being instructed indepthly on the Importance of what prayers they speak, and how sincerely they are when they repeat the words in a very proper manner. So much has been modernized; thus, sometimes or many times, eliminating it where it is needed.

We hear so many excuses about timing, and about how busy individuals are and find it difficult to pray. Then, there are those who, in a disguise of purity, promise to pray on many things, helping someone think that they are going to pray for the importance of a condition, a situation, or even an evaluation of some deed, need or constant purpose.

When The Heavenly King beckons One of Us to be aware that someone is talking to Us from some place throughout the world, or it could be many places in different parts of the world, granted, We always make Ourselves available, and We do in many ways, try to assist, to give strength, hope, and a more important indepthness to the Role We play, aiding those who are yet alive in the world at this time.

Children should be taught more regarding the communication that exists between themselves and All of Us. We enjoy their prayers, and just as We do to the older ones who request Our Attention, We listen to the little ones, and are often surprised at their deep sincerity, obvious concern, regarding a situation that they are unhappy or frightened about.

Prayer is Important; never deny this. It is like when you communicate with someone you know, and in your communication you are discussing a condition that needs help. You oftentimes hope that the individual will pray for it to occur, to aid you.

Sometimes the one listening ignores the request coming to them, but the individual that makes the request should remember that they, as the one who needs the answers, should pray in a manner, degree and way, respectful and in honor of the One in Whom they are praying to.

Sometimes the prayer lacks sincerity, even sometimes it lacks hope, but no prayer is ever not heard by the One Who it is addressed to.

A prayer to be answered is a Gift of Divine Love, but always remember, a Saint Here in the Heavens, in hearing the request, expects the individual to be honorable and to take part in what they have requested to happen, but some just give the question and then walk away, ignoring the fact that they should be praying also, for the answer they will to occur.

Human lives are gifted with so many Gifts, and there is No One Here in the Heavens that does not want to help when They are requested to do so, but always remember: Do not cast aside the part you play in this request to One of Us, that you must partake in all you can, to give the strength to the individual that requested the prayer to be made."
