

OUR HEAVENLY FATHER

“I am your Heavenly Father.

I smile, because when I addressed My Presence to this little one, she said, ‘All right’ to Me and she moved immediately.

The world has been blessed abundantly. You have heard these Words before, but these Words are more than you see Them to be. They are a Heavenly Commitment from The Heavenly Father, for your will and your physical to be able to walk a path, a road inconceivable to your manner of thinking, or how you go through each day in manner and way that you have adopted according to how you will things to be, how you feel capable of, and how you feel others agree.

There are so many things that I see in the human manner and way of doing things, but remember, I created life, I created all things, so that when the time came and I was to meet Face to face with men, women and children of all ages, they would have a response to My Presence, feeling comfortable with It.

So many times I have spoken Words plain to understand, but My Love for human life is beyond My Words. It is for a time to come that We will face Each Other, and the timing is important, because then We will discuss the past, and now the present.

I love My Way in the Creation of human life. I love everyone born to it, in it, but I also love those who look to Me for the Truth, the Reasonability, and the Value that I have invested in, included in, what human life has: all the abilities to accomplish,
