“Many of Us speak to and through this little one on many Subjects, due to the fact that she was chosen by The Heavenly Father for the work she was to accomplish for the sake of Souls.

You live in a time wherein so many human beings are ignoring the Power of The Divine, the Reasonability of The Divine, and the Closeness of The Divine to human lives.

In the beginning, when human beings gathered to find different phases of life important, but also adding to each one they thought of, talked about, and felt good about, they appointed several conditions or situations that they felt would be feasible, not just to acknowledge but to be able to address as something they could use mentally, psychologically or physically. Is that not so?

Now Let Us go to the time We call ‘now’. In the changes that appear to take place, do you ever ask yourself: ‘Will I progress mentally, socially, if I copy what others are doing that I see they’re seeming to enjoy indepthly in how they act, or should I assign different ideas I have, and should I try these out?’ such as when you communicate with another human being, or you are associated in some form of business that you know some parts of, but you are still learning; or if it is a case of educational means, what and who are you going to choose as the instructive area, constructive for you in how it is assigned to be, prepared to be, or logical in what it covers in meaning, in sound, and of course, every portion of it that a human life would need or feel better with or learn more from.

I know it may be difficult to understand why I would question or why I would even speak to you on this form of how you live at this time regarding certain facets of not just learning, but understanding for the betterment of how you live.

Now let Us take a little attention on the Soul that every human being is the custodian of. Just your own manner of living, your Soul will be accountable for. Is that not so? If you were to meet your Soul within the next half hour, would you be prepared to meet your Soul, and would your Soul be happy to be able to be one-on-one with you openly?

We hear some say, 'This would certainly be different, even in my own thinking,' but just for the purpose of looking at one's self, how would you end up feeling the results would be, if you took This, read It, and thought about It personally?

The human being is a Gift of Divine Love, is given the privilege to one day have the Soul that is within it, return to The Creator, and hopefully be named 'a Saint'. Ask yourself, do you realize This Statement to be Fact, and does it coincide with What was spoken in print before this Question and Fact?

Never forget, you were created by The Heavenly Father, and He has opened Heaven for every human being created. It's a Fact."
