

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON FEBRUARY 20, 1977 AT 3:27 P.M.

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“My beloved children, I am the one you talk about much. I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori.

This child with whom you sit, you speak, you discuss occurrences, the hopes and the plans, the desires and the moods, the manners and the ways, to best accomplish many things suited to personalities, natures and physical degrees, We Here in the Heavens listen, and We smile sometimes and say, ‘The children are active in their thoughts, intelligent in many ways, and yet, in their hearts they desire to perform totally for God’s Will in their days.’ We Here know that when you desire to do, desire to fulfill, desire to take action to accomplish only The Father’s Will, it is difficult to work in a manner, a degree, a way, and with others of human way that do not completely understand your inward desires to live more fully in the way of man.

This child through whom I speak is an instrument through which, by which, for which, in which, The Father uses All of Us Here to teach. Oftentimes this child is distracted by Us, listens to Us, and does not transmit Our Words to you. She knows that What We are saying is a form of Instilling within her for a time to come when it will be needed to respond to a child’s whims or woes, desires, or even antics.

The Instilling that this child goes through can be slightly recorded thusly: Place yourself in a library of ten thousand books. You must read each one of these books totally. You must retain from these books, certain references, certain subjects, certain combinations. And now I move you to another book, the book of life, that you will use what you have retained. Now I take you into another library, and in here there are fifty thousand books that you must not only look at, but read thoroughly, retain, and remember the subject matter; remember that not only the subject matter is important, but the determination of how the subject will be used.

I could go on and on and on like this, and I would say: In reference to this type of knowledge, accumulating wisdom, there would be many, many words used that would take your time to read, that would be unnecessary to accomplish the end result. So The Father's Way of Instilling in this child is to eliminate all the words that men would have to take to write these books, and He uses but One Word and teaches her the facets of these Words that will be important at given times for the particular Teachings and the given areas of Direction for the whole of mankind, for all races, all colors, all creeds; for men to be able to understand, not always simply but logically, the Direction of Truths that were given for men to be able to follow, to the perfection needed, to enter the Kingdom of Heaven.

This child is as a library of many subjects. The sacrifice, the commitment, the acceptance of The Father's Will might be difficult for you to understand, but nonetheless, it is shown through the many Words written and through the child's response to you and to all men. When you see her with others, is it not true that you respond with assurance that she is capable of handling the situation in a manner unknown to you?

So many times people watch this child speak to another and they are not sure of the content of conversation, nor are they sure of the degree of conversation. But what they do not truly understand is that the Words used are positive, not negative; direct, not indirect; sensitive, not insensitive. They are Words of commitment, not noncommittal. They are Words of structure, not chaotic. They are Words of promise, not disappointment. They are Words of assurance, not a lack of assurance. They are Words with discipline, not a lack of discipline.

I come today to reiterate to you the positive nature of this child's place upon the earth, for the purpose of The Father's Will to be done, and for men of all kinds to better understand that this child, though she walks upon the land, is God's little computer.

I bless you from the Heavens and I say, 'As you see in her a naturalness, remember this: The Father uses a natural way to accomplish His Will in a given way.' And let me remind you that humility and quietness go hand in hand, for the child is strong in her commitment. And I repeat, the listening that occurs between her and All of Us Here has a marked effect upon the whole world. If it does not show now, it will show in time, that the commitment of one child dedicated to God will leave behind, not challenge, not adventure, but hope for the good of mankind. So be it."
