

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON OCTOBER 20, 1995 AT 1:50 P.M.

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. If The Father allowed Us We would speak every moment of every day, because of the need for so many people throughout the whole world that need everything We have to say.

Many times when We are aware of a situation, or I should say situations, that should never be occurring, because they are so devastating to the Souls of a few or many. The Soul of every individual is such a Precious Gift of Purity, Divinely given, for each human being to be able to one day be represented in Heaven with the name of the individual within whom that Soul spent a given amount of years on earth.

It is difficult for many to believe, to understand, to accept, that each living human being has such a Special Portion of The Father within them, because mankind stresses certain areas of human life as belonging to them personally, to do with what they want to do, not wanting any restrictions on them.

We hear many swear ugly words, demanding their rights for how they act, through their nature, their personality, their values, their standards, their abilities, and everything else they connect to being a human being. Sometimes when We hear an individual speak out so strongly about what they are, who they are, We would be happy if The Father would show them the condition of their Soul at that point in time.

The Father gave to mankind Rules that were important for every living human being to obey, and live according to the purpose of each Rule. It is sad when We hear some say, ‘I have not sinned against any Commandment.’ One of the reasons for the importance of the Commandments to be presented to mankind at this time, is so that no one does not fully understand the full meaning of each of them, because enough was not spoken about in the learning stages of these Commandments. They are far more in-depth in meaning than mankind would like to recognize. One Commandment, 'Thou Shalt Not Kill,' is one of the easiest Commandments for mankind to say that he or she never killed anyone. This Commandment must definitely be elaborated upon in the fullness it was first given, and then there are other Commandments that are so easily passed over, because it is more comfortable for men, women, and even children, to not feel responsible for what the Commandment truly means.

This Miracle of The Father's Love has been given to the whole world. We realize that for some time now, It has been what man would term 'in a local area of distribution', that does not spread to the degree The Father Wills It to, but It must spread quickly, because many Souls are being lost, due to the lack of information, sound spiritual instruction, that they are victimized by.

The Father uses a small voice, but through the Written Words this voice must be heard, because What is spoken through this voice is delivered by The Father, by Our Heavenly Mother, and more Saints than mankind could count. Many speak through this little one in general conversation, not announcing Their Name, but The Father has chosen a quiet one, and yet one who is obedient, at times that most would not truly expect to hear Someone from Here; hear Words of Direction, of Hope, of Clarification, of Inspiration.

The world many times in the past has been in desperate need for moral instruction, and The Father would use different means to make it appear to mankind normal, natural. At this time, as it has been said before, it is worse than Sodom and Gomorrah. This Miracle is the Greatest Instruction that mankind can receive, because It has Clarity, Conciseness, Direction, Logic, and is easily understood, whether it is verbal or in the Written Word."
