SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. I have spoken many times through this Gift of The Father's Love, because it is important for mankind to more fully understand what a privilege it is to be born as man, because through this human birth, when the time comes, the individual will respond to The Divine Plan that awaits every Soul that is placed in a human life at the moment of conception.

Those of Us Who had the privilege to walk with spiritual tasks daily, with responsibilities regarding the Souls of many others, We now, as We stand Here in the Heavens, want every living human being to fully understand that the Life after death in the human way, is a Life close to Divine Way, Divine Will, and continues to be in service throughout the world, guiding, helping others that need physical help, spiritual direction, hope, and many times just the satisfaction to know that as We represent The Father's Will, We are immediately responsive to their prayers, according to His Will.

We see mankind throughout the world, some totally ignoring the logic that within them they have a Portion of God; else how would they be able to respond to what is morally sound, morally good, morally practical? Man would be like the animals, on instincts, not sensitivity, nor would they see the practicality that occurs in everyday life through dealings with others like themselves, or the emotions of others that can be very discouraging and/or harmful.

When a clergyman wears the garb of a clergyman, it says, 'I stand for God, I stand for what your Soul needs, feels, responds to.' At least that is what it is supposed to be, because the garb of a human being speaks many things. A uniform says one thing, according to what it represents. A formal dress, man or woman, depicts an affair, an event. A costume may say theater. A hat, a uniform may say service to a country.

I could go on and on because the manner of clothing is an important asset, an important point of recognition. Then there are those manners of dressing that depict only impurities, indecencies, immorality. This is sadness, because mankind has the freedom of choice, the freedom of the will to respond openly to his or her belief in God's Commandments.

Sometimes We hear individuals say that God's Commandments are a thing of the past, they were right for that time, but the world has changed; mankind is updated, more modern, more realistic. What a sadness to see and to hear such mockery, when God's Commandments deal with sound reasoning, and they do not restrict mankind because of the year they were given in. The Souls of mankind are still in need of God's Commandments, and should never be omitted for any reason, any mental block that supports only humanism, satanism.

The world has been blessed by this Gift of Divine Love, The Miracle Of Saint Joseph, because It is constantly reminding mankind that human life has a Purpose, a Goal, and this Goal has never changed since the beginning of human life.

Sometimes, when We see immorality that is total desecration to not just the moral values of an individual, but to their physical, their mental, and their values in all areas of life, We would like to say: 'Wake up before it is too late. You have a Soul that cries for help. You have a Soul that pleads with God to awaken you to what you are doing.'

So many Blessings pass through at the request of a prayer, because a prayer is never not heard, and mankind should learn to pray more privately, individually, because prayer gives strength that nothing else can. Prayer is communication and there is no better communication than to say, 'Please help me, God, I need to know what You Will for me to do, and I need Your Help in doing it.'
So be it."
