

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON FEBRUARY 10, 1997 AT 1:22 P.M.

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. Mankind must understand that The Father, in His Love for mankind, never allows mankind to be alone. The world at this time is in a great moral chaos. Immorality is prevalent throughout the world, because the Commandments of God have been set aside and are never mentioned.

How difficult it must be for mankind not having these Rules for life openly present to their eyes, reminding them the importance of them, and the reason for which they were given in lengthy detail to a man a long time ago. True, they are in print and available in some places, but for the most part the print is not describing the full meaning of each Commandment. The conciseness leaves out the full meaning, the full description in which each Commandment was truly given and instructed at a given time, for all of mankind from that time on.

Let us take one of the Commandments, ‘I Am The Lord Thy God, Thou Shalt Not Have strange gods Before Me’. As you read this, do you fully understand how much, how many things does mankind treat Godlike? If you think in a sound way, you will find that mankind holds material things as not just a necessity, but as a goal for being successful, being happy.

Another statement that should be looked at indepthly, and that is: How many people throughout the world see these words in the full meaning they were meant to deliver? There are so many areas of life that men, women and children use to replace their feeling about The Father: financial gain, personal importance, and also, immoral values, immoral standards.

There is another Commandment that in its brief form says, ‘Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery'. It is sad that so many ignore the full meaning of this Commandment. It is somehow placed in a oneness of category, when adultery covers many actions of life, many sinful emotions and motions.

Children are not being instructed properly on the importance of this Commandment, its full definition, because adults or those in charge of children sometimes find it embarrassing to speak about this subject, ignoring the fact that this subject covers many areas of life, many abuses in life.

Morality is not a subject that is important. For the most part it is rarely discussed, because of so much acceptance of what is immoral. Acceptance does not justify the immorality prevalent in so many areas, in so many ages, that immorality has become a way of life, ignoring the fact that it is abusive in many ways, mentally, physically, spiritually.

This Miracle of The Beloved Saint Joseph has been given to the world to instruct all ages, on all areas of what human life is all about, and the importance of every human being fully understanding that God Himself gave to mankind the Rules to live by, so that mankind would understand his or her closeness to God, and that to displease God would only please the enemy of God and man.

Human life is a Gift of Divine Love. It is logical for mankind to believe this, because The Father Himself gave to mankind a Portion of Himself called The Son of God, and a Woman called The Heavenly Mother, Who it was described as being The Mother of The Son of God; and then The Spirit of God placed within this Gift — a Foster Father — which openly says that the Father of The Son of God had to be God Himself.

Difficult for some theologians to accept openly, but their resistance to seeing it so plainly written, so plainly explained, should not in any way diminish the Facts, or the Great Love The Father had, giving to mankind the importance of family life, and the importance of understanding that every human being is a creation of The Father, and within them they have a Portion of Him called the Soul. So be it.”
