

SAINT JOAN OF ARC

“I am Saint Joan of Arc. For a long time mankind has associated me with being the leader of an army of men. This statement is truth, and at this time I would like to say, ‘The men with whom I walked the earth were men of much courage, and in many ways, willing to give their lives for the purpose of the fight.’

Today as I look at the world from Where I am, it is important for men, women and children to realize that in human life there is an Ultimate Purpose; needless to say, to be the instrument of returning his or her Soul to God, a Saint.

In human life men look for credit for what they do, honor in their name, and in every way can aspire to high degrees of challenges, commitments. Every living human being has a Specific Goal to reach for, and that Goal is to return the Soul to The Creator, a beautiful Saint.

I hear some say, as I say these Words, ‘To be pronounced a Saint takes other human beings to assign this Title to one’s name. Is this not so?’ It is not necessarily so, because each human being gifted with the ability to know right from wrong, good from evil, has within them not just the chance, but is promised the Goal they were created for, and that is to become a Saint.

Mankind uses the Word ‘Saint’, but in many ways, the True Goal for which this Soul has the ability to reach, is to return to The Father in a Glory beyond what mankind can describe It to be, understand It to be, because the Soul, as a Portion of The Creator, desires constantly to return to from Where It came, because The Father chose It to be with an individual He created for a period of time, helping the individual to better understand that the Gift of human life can go on through the Soul. There is no greater gift that an individual human being can achieve.

We hear some individuals boldly say, 'What difference does it make if I was never born, my Soul would exist.' What they miss in this statement is this: through the human life, the human part will be remembered in a distinct way, and will enjoy in certain forms, degrees, manner of life, to be recognized as the individual in whom the Soul was placed at the moment of conception on a given day.

I leave you with a Blessing, and I say, 'Your free will is your path to doing what you know is best for your Soul, to one day return to The Father with your name.' So be it."
