

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON AUGUST 25, 1999 AT 1:45 P.M.

SAINT IGNATIUS LOYOLA

“I am Saint Ignatius Loyola. As I speak today through one small voice, I speak with a great love and deep hope, that those who have the privilege of learning about this Gift of The Father’s Love, called The Miracle Of Saint Joseph, begin to more fully understand what a Precious Gift human life is to man.

Today, as in many, many, many days past, little attention is cast on the Commandments The Father gave to a man a long time ago. It is sad for All of Us Saints to hear these Commandments remembered in such a concise format, eliminating the Importance of Each Commandment because of the lack of detail. It is very important that this be looked into by every human being.

For instance, if someone says to you, ‘Go there,’ would not your first response be, ‘Where?’ So it is when mankind looks at the Commandments in such a concise way, because in Their Greatness, Their Fullness, the explanation makes all things clearer, more understandable, logical.

Let us take the one Commandment that is sinned against thousands of times in one day. You call it the Sixth Commandment, ‘Thou Shalt Not Commit Adultery.’ This Commandment many times appears to be the only Commandment that was made obvious because of what it said. What about ‘Thou Shalt Not Kill’, ‘Thou Shalt Not Steal’, ‘Thou Shalt Not Bear False Witness Against Thy Neighbor’?

Needless to say, Each Commandment has a particular Importance to It, in It, for It, and the conciseness They are learned in must cease, because throughout the world, those who claim to be believers in these Commandments, fail to recognize what Each One means.

If an adult commands a child to do something that is normal for the child to do, it is usually spoken in a form of command, expecting the child to respond to the strength in what is spoken. No matter what age a human being is, what background they bear, what intelligence they can claim is theirs, simple logic must come into vision when one is told, even in the conciseness, that the words are important because of one's Soul.

All of the Saints Here in the Heavens could speak volumes on every important point of what men, women and children should take serious in their daily life. Morality is spoken about in such a light manner. Immorality is many times interesting conversation among all ages.

Today it is important that though the work to follow through on what has been requested of those close to this Miracle, your Soul can be a victim if you ignore the plea, because your Soul has a responsibility, and many times urges you to remember that the Commandments given to a man one day are to be followed through in Their fullest degree, and each human being must remember, not the concise form, but the Indepthness, the Importance, the Reality, that Each Commandment was given for, in, with, and how.

I beseech those who read the Words to stand up for truth, and most of all, stand strong in your Faith for The Creator. So be it.”
