

SAINT JOHN OF THE CROSS

“I am Saint John of The Cross.

Too little is being instructed on the Importance of the Soul that each human being is the custodian of. This Gift of Divine Love is far more precious to human life than any human being has the ability to conceive, perceive, understand, or be thankful for.

We hear many say, ‘If I have a Soul, why can I not see It, if It is a Portion of me and important to me?’ It is necessary for all human life to begin to understand that human life was created in a special way, different in concept, but greatly different in Purpose and Goal than any other living matter or thing ever created in the world.

The world mankind lives on is special, the elements in it conducive to being important to human life, giving to human life many things that no other planet, at this point, is capable of.

Now, as I speak to you through one voice, The Father has decreed this Miracle to be. The world is an important place, because The Father gave to human life so many things available on the earth to help human life in many ways, for many reasons.

Mankind looks for another planet, and though the other planets are there, the planet Earth had a specific time, purpose for human life to use, to live in a manner and way to one day arrive Where The Father intended human life to reach for. It is called Heaven.

Today as I speak, it is important that All the Words that have been passed through this Gift of The Father’s Love saturate the world, so that no
