

REVELATION DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON DECEMBER 27, 1999 AT 1:28 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“I am Saint Joseph. Today throughout the world, men, women and children are discussing many so-called adventures that they have experienced through time.

The human mind oftentimes dwells on what occurred in the past, feeling that the experience of certain things made life more interesting, more informative, giving to life substance that no other living matter or thing has. At this time mankind has been blessed with so many Instructions regarding the Importance of human life, the Values of human life, the Purpose for human life, and the Goal for human life.

Throughout the world men, women and children base many of their experiences on where they live, how they live, what they are taught to respond to; also, vocations such as those dedicated to spiritual endeavors, practices, are evident, because those who are involved in this facet of a way of life utilize this time to be more expressive regarding the spiritual side of what human life consists of.

Today as I speak through one small voice, I feel I must say that today spiritual hope, practice, love, is somewhat different than it should be, because now so much is based on humanistic evaluations, dismissing, ignoring or bypassing what The Son of The Creator gave as Important Instruction, dealing with the Souls of all human life.

There are so many various interpretations of spiritual integrity, beliefs, values, understanding, and the innate need for spiritual practice that puts the Soul of an individual above all other senses that an individual is aware of, in every act of daily living.

As I speak on this day, it is My Hope that this Gift I have given to the world will spread like wildfire throughout the world, because so many men, women and children of all backgrounds are in great need of All that has been spoken about regarding the Purpose for which human life was created, what is expected of human life, and the values that are instilled in human life, because of the Soul that is the recipient of all acts, thoughts, words, deeds, that an individual acts out, partakes in, is example of, or practices.

Millions and millions of Words could be written on the importance of human life, but mankind would find it distracting from the daily practices of human life that they are accustomed to, thus human activities, goals, interests, habits, come first and are found to be natural to what human life is all about.

As I leave you today, only in writing, of course, in openly dictating What I desire all to read, I beseech each human being of any age to look at each day as a day to begin to change certain things that are obviously destructive to the Soul, because the Soul is a Hidden Act of Divine Love that is, in many ways, obvious, because of a human being knowing a pure act over an impure act, justice over injustice, truth over untruth, love over hate.

As I leave you I bless you and I say, 'As the Soul is a Portion of Who I Am, What I Am, remember, I am ever present every day.' So be it."
