“BLINDNESS — PHYSICAL OR SPIRITUAL?”

“Blindness is a terrible affliction, and yet many people walk through life blind to truth. They are so quick to accept another person’s opinion, and never question what the opinion is based on, which, logic says, makes them more blind than one who walks not able to see with his eyes. This type of blindness affects more than just the eyes; it shuts out reality and it condones many things that are purely figments of other men’s dreams, desires and selfish motives.

Don’t walk blind to truth, but recognize the importance of how God meant Faith to develop within you. Base your Faith on the Ten Commandments. Then, in this stability of values and standards and justice, use your innate love for God to give you the strength to perform daily with His Will in mind at all times, with a firm commitment to satisfy only God’s Will, and to not depend upon other men for the Salvation of your Soul.”
