

TEACHING DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON MAY 1, 1994

“DON'T IGNORE MORAL TRUTHS AND IMMORAL FACTS”

The obvious diabolical intervention in moral families can be seen through parents and siblings tolerating, but not fully morally accepting, the boldness of a member or members of their family, who defies morality and boldly acts out against God's Sixth Commandment, thus disobeying several other Commandments.

In many cases, the boldness, arrogance of the defector, is repulsive, abusive and totally destructive to the unity of a family, because it is a constant hurt, stigma, disappointment.

It is not a case of self-righteousness on the part of the family, but it is amazing to find how much hurt, concern, extra responsibility and even abuse occurs by the defector's demands.

Physical problems would be attended to in a thorough way, but moral problems too often are allowed, so as to not cause the wrongdoer to become irate, defensive, and leave the family.

What is the code of honor, of ethics, of logic that should be applied?”