

TEACHING DELIVERED THROUGH FRANCES M. KLUG
ON AUGUST 27, 1995 AT 2:30 P.M.

“Why are not God’s Commandments more openly talked about and more openly recognized as the logical standards and values of daily living?

Sound legal rules and laws automatically address the areas wherein the Rules of God are the basic foundation of judgment when there are legal interpretations to be judged on:

Killing
Lying
Blasphemy

Adultery
Stealing
Wrongful Possession

God’s Commandments should be elaborated upon in writing in ‘all places’, so mankind cannot find weak excuses on ignoring them or watering them down.

Mankind many times brags about indifference to God’s Sixth Commandment, as though this Commandment was meant for another time and no longer is a grievous sin.

The ninth Commandment is ignored because no one seems to feel it is a grievous sin when a man or woman ignores the full meaning of this Commandment.

Mankind justifies wrong, not because of not knowing it is wrong, but by ignoring the wrong in it, because of personal opinion, lust, and any other excuse that ignores the sound value of why it was delivered by God, and the rational reasoning behind it.

When truth is watered down, it dilutes its full meaning, and opens doors to many diabolic interventions, weaknesses, misinterpretations, thus allowing humanism to accept false interpretation, injustice, immorality, to all degrees of contamination to filter in, allowing justification of wrong being acceptable.”
