

SAINT STANISLAUS

“I am Saint Stanislaus. In This Beautiful Gift of The Father’s Love for human beings of all ages, all colors, all backgrounds, it is a privilege to be able to deliver Words of Direction, Hope, Concern and Love.

Though it is difficult for many to believe that a Miracle of This Dimension is in the world of human life today, do not allow the skepticism of so many so-called ‘learned’ men and women to cause you to reject the Magnitude, the Beauty, the Love, the Hope that a Gift of This Design is meant to do.

Human beings of all ages have an innate understanding of what is pure in thought, in words, actions. Many ignore This Gift because of an innate desire to practice their own will in a way, a form, a manner that pleases their egos, their own self-righteousness.

Today as I speak, it is for all ages. So many writings have come down through time, not all describing the many facets of human life that are closely connected to The Divine. Some who instruct speak in a manner they decide, a manner that coincides with how they feel, what they’ve learned.

The Father, in His Love for human life, has at different times since the beginning of this Creation of His, given to human beings Advice, Direction, using other Saints, other human beings, because of the Importance of what human life was created for.

Never doubt that how you live, how you act, what you reflect in all you are, does not affect those with whom you live or those with whom you associate.

So many Warnings have been passed through This Gift because it is important to be aware that the Soul is a Portion you must protect. Some say, 'I cannot see my Soul nor can I feel my Soul.' This basically is not so. The Soul is evident in one's manner of thinking right over wrong, good over evil. The Soul is also active in one's conscience, one's ability to use the human means to either show purity or impurity, love over hate, decency over indecency. There are other factors that must be looked for: pride, prejudice, that defies what is good, what is moral.

I could speak hours, but We are told to limit what We speak so it is not too much to be remembered, and also that when It is read, It can be passed on to others, giving them strength in manners, ways, areas, that they would not have if it were not for These Messages. Translation sometimes does not give the full measure of Our Words, but hopefully when They are translated, It will give Direction to help the Souls of those who will read the Words or hear Them spoken.

This Gift of The Father's is beyond what human nature understands It to be. It is a Gift of Assurance, because in What It speaks, It hopefully causes many to remember the possibilities that could occur, and be dangerous to their Soul on subjects that seem so innocent but are actually vile, contemptible, and only pleasing to the enemy of all things. So be it."
