PREFACE

These “Stories From Heaven” could not have been given to the world at a more appropriate time than now. The world is in a terrible state of corruption and confusion politically, religiously and socially. Honesty, modesty, genteelness and morality seem to have been eliminated from our way of life, at least in effect if not consciously. However, God has given the world a Miracle it needs.

On July 28, 1967, The Miracle Of Saint Joseph was formally announced to a True Mystic. God had chosen a woman to give us the sound direction, hope and example we need. It was not the first time God had chosen a woman to accomplish His Purpose, always for a specific task in a particular time. This True Mystic for our day is Frances Marie Klug. She resided in Southern California as a wife, a mother, and a grandmother until her death on November 15, 2009.

In This Miracle Of Saint Joseph, Many Saints have come forth to speak through Frances Klug. These “Stories From Heaven” are just a few of the thousands of Revelations received through her. Very often these Revelations were preceded by extensive Teachings which time and space did not allow us to put in print. However, some of these Teachings will be found in several of the many Volumes of "Stories From Heaven".

In these Revelations The Saints refer to Frances as "the child", "the funnel", "the spoon", "the instrument" and "the little one". God made her our Spiritual Mother. For many years now, because of this fact, she has been called "Mother Frances", or simply "Mother". Heaven also refers to people of all ages as "children" and emphasizes time and again, This Miracle is for people of all races, all colors and all creeds.

For someone turning the pages of these "Stories From Heaven" for the first time, they will easily recognize the sound logic and sound direction the Messages contain. Mother Frances heard the Words with the Ears of her Soul, and would repeat Them aloud when she was told to do so.

This Teaching Miracle is a direct parallel to the time Our Lord walked the earth. He did not loudly proclaim to everyone, "I am The Son of God." He taught in a quiet manner, simple, extensive, but always detailed in repetitiveness, instilling in those listening what He wanted them to remember. He taught in parables, short, simple stories containing moral lessons. He knew men could more easily understand and remember the point He was trying to make this way. His “Teaching Stories” pertained to everyday living, practical matters, and how to become a Saint. He gave hope through these stories. He gave example.

Now in our time, God is once again giving us “Teaching Stories” through Saint Joseph and His instrument, Mother Frances. Through her, in a quiet, unassuming and genteel way which appears so “natural”, mankind is again being taught the Purpose of life, and what God expects man to be like in his daily living. People feel hope in these Teachings, Example always given.

Two major Revelations of significance have been given for us in our day. Our Heavenly Mother is Part of The Divine, and Saint Joseph is truly The Holy Ghost. These should not bring an immediate rejection, but should pique our curiosity and interest.

Our Faith in God is based upon many mysteries. Whether it be The Holy Trinity, the Incarnation of God, or The Holy Eucharist, men strive to understand These, trying to grasp a small glimpse of the Beauty of the Truth They Are. These mysteries also pique our imagination and interest. However, even though we know God revealed these mysteries to mankind and we accept them in Faith, they still remain just that, mysteries.

One has only to look at these “Stories From Heaven” to see the value They are, and to feel the hope They instill. No man can logically deny purity of thought when it is so obvious. No man can deny purity in direction, when it is based on sound morals, sound values, sound standards. Do not be blind to truth. Skepticism is for people who are unable to see the truth of a matter or situation, and many times skepticism drowns out purity because it is full of ego and pride in one’s self. Skeptics find it an easy out to disclaim truth.

There is no doubt that it takes time for such Phenomena as This Miracle to penetrate even those minds who feel they are capable of discerning such Phenomena. We must not be governed by purely another man’s determination, but we must understand that logic, sound reasoning and purpose must be the criteria of our Faith in God.

PLEASE READ

In some early volumes of “Stories From Heaven”, many Revelations describe edifices to be built on Saint Joseph’s Hill Of Hope. As just one facet of The Miracle Of Saint Joseph, God invited men of all races, colors and creeds to participate in building a “City Of God”. Every building, chapel, bridge, shrine, garden, amphitheater, and even a hospital and a research center, to be included in this Magnificent Project, would be designed down to the most minute detail by Heaven.

This City Of God would be a place of great beauty for men throughout the world to visit, to gain true spiritual strength and to learn firsthand that which Heaven wants all men to know.

Much to the great loss of every man, woman and child in the world, this City has not been built. Innumerable obstacles were placed in the way of Its completion by those who would have benefited the most. Not enough men volunteered to return the gifts of their time and talents to God. Not enough people came forward with the money needed to participate in God’s Plan in a monetary way. Donations became less and less, because the men in the Church said, “Don’t give.” They discouraged people from participating.

For many years, Mother Frances and a handful of volunteers made every effort to overcome all opposition to men’s lack of wisdom, to build this City for God. However, we are not at a total loss. The Sound Teaching and Sound Direction given by Heaven in the many volumes of “Stories From Heaven” continued through the years, and will benefit people everywhere for many generations to come.

In the future, if the hearts and minds of men change, the world will one day see the Beautiful City Of God.

All Revelations are delivered spontaneously and continuously as witnessed by all those present at the time.

OUR LORD

“My sons, My daughters, as you entered this dwelling tonight you were conscious of a physical sight. You were conscious of your own being and you were conscious of all things around you. You were conscious of material things, but there was one thing you were not conscious of, the Most Important Part of each one: the Soul, My children.

Your entering the door was My Wish, was My Love, for I am The Son of God, and I come to you on this night with a Message of Truth. I am speaking first, and Others will follow to you, but I am opening the door to touch your hearts for a night you must not forget, for there is much learning to be done by you and there is much Teaching to be taught.

Each child here must be conscious of the Soul that was given to them at the moment of conception of their life. Each child in My Presence here must know that that Soul must return to Us as a Light, in a Great Light.

My little ones, do not doubt My Words, and do not doubt the way I would speak to you. Men have requested for centuries to hear direct, Our Words, and now it comes to you. The Heavenly Father has designed This Time to be. He says, 'Now is the time for the world to see The Beloved Saint Joseph.' So, you see, My little ones, this time has many facets. This time is a time to help you learn the way to Sainthood. This time is to make you aware that the Purpose of your life is to be a Saint Here Where We are. Each child in My Presence here has this chance, this privilege, this way. Only you can deny yourselves this Beautiful Goal, this Beautiful Gift.

Oh, My children, when I died upon the Crucifix, I said to man, 'Pay attention to what has happened here and follow God's Plan.' My dying did enough, and this is why I come to you on this night. Do not die totally but live for Me, and let your Soul be a Great Light. As I speak through this child, I teach you the way to pray. I teach you to hold prayer dear to you, for it is communication. Pray.

Sometimes, when you are in despair, you would feel less this way if you would talk Our Way. And many times you pass Me by as I stay in the Tabernacle watching you go by. I desire you to stop and say, ‘I love You, God, help me today.’ How many here in My Presence now, did this today? So few. Please remember this, My children, and when you do, stop and I will listen to you.

On this day, as all days, We stood waiting for children to come to receive the Ultimate Gift of Love, the Strength that only We are, only We can give, and again I say, ‘Were you among those who came Our Way?’ Oh, My children, I want so much to have you know the Love that We do bestow. The Love We have to give is Far Greater than you know. Please, on the morrow remember this.

As I bless you through the child, I say, ‘Keep in mind the need to pray, and also, My children, receive each day The Holy Eucharist.’ I bless you with The Father’s Love, and as I take My Hand to your breast I touch My Heart to yours, for it was with this Love I gave you life; and I cross your shoulders one at a time and I call upon The Third Person of The Divine, and as I do this, I give thee Faith to understand the Truth that must come your way. So be it.”

SAINT MICHAEL

“My beloved sons, My beloved daughters, sometimes it is so easy to listen to words, it is so easy to read words. It is so easy to pass them by, it is so easy to deny what you heard. I ask you, My children, that What you hear tonight, do not pass It by, do not dismiss It. Do not say you did not hear It, for you did, and Heaven knows you did. Heaven knows exactly what occurred on this night for Heaven Delivered It, Heaven Governed It, Heaven Was At The Helm Of It.

Keep in mind, My children, also, that nowhere can you hide and nowhere can you shield yourself from the enemy, for you see, he is all around. There is one weapon against him and that is the Sword of Love for God.

I am Saint Michael. As I speak to you on this night, I speak with a firmness, for as I stand Here in the Heavens I know the Greatness this Sword is, for this is the Sword I carried through all time. Tonight, as you pick up this Sword before you leave this dwelling, keep this in mind: No one else will see this Sword, only you. This Sword can be one inside of you or on the outside of you, for this Sword is your love for God, for The Divine.

Say My Prayer, My children, and as you do, I am ever ready to help you, for when a child calls upon Me, I never deny the child My Presence nor My Help, for you see, the Sword I carry covers the whole world. As I stand in the Heavens and I see children in battle the physical way, I say to them, 'With the goal you have, have the Sword of Love for God and it will help you in every way.'

Every time I am pictured, man sees a physical sword. This is good, for this is the way I have been seen; but the Sword, in reality, is My Love for The Divine Three, and tonight I give each one here a Sword to carry for Him, a Sword that will help you through all things. And on the day that you arrive Here, the Sword will be handed to Him, but you will find that the Sword was so small compared to the Sword that He carried for you, a Sword of Protection, a Sword of Love. Your Sword will look so small then.

You have been Blessed much on this night, My children, and you have been given much Light; and as I bless you with God's Love, I say: 'Carry the Sword of Love, doing God's Will each day, so one day you will arrive Here, a Saint in Heaven Where I am, to stay; and when you follow God's Words, do it in joy and He will grant you Grace for the way you served in your little way.' So be it."

FEBRUARY 3, 1972 AT 8:05 P.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“My children, all through time I have asked children to abide by My Rules, by My Commandments. All through time I have shown children, in some way, the Beauty of The Divine. If I allowed you to become a thousand years old, you would still be My child. If I allowed you all the knowledge in the world, you would still be My child. If I allowed you all the power in the world, you would still be My child. I am your Heavenly Father. I am The One Who created you.

I am speaking with Light, requesting each child in My Presence here to return to Me. I am giving you My Love. Nowhere in the world do I speak so much as I do through This Miracle of Personal Touch, This Miracle I designed for a favored Son because He walked, He lived, He served, carrying the Sword of Love for Me. I speak slowly through the child, so each child in My Presence here now will understand What I say.

You were each given a physical life, designed by Me, so one day you would share Heaven with Me. You have no power on your own. I gave you a will so you would be able to accept or reject truth, untruth. When I created man, I did it with Love, out of Love, and in Love. There was no selfishness involved. Never do I deny you My Love. Never do I reject you in any way. Never do I ask more of you than I have given you ability to do. Nowhere have I ever rejected a child for any reason.

I speak on this night for many reasons. You are here in this room because it is Our Will, not yours. Your will complied with Ours, no matter what reason is evident to you. Right now in the world there are many kneeling, begging for My Words. I have chosen this place, I have chosen you to speak to. You are Blessed on this night, My Way. The Lessons taught were the Ones I wanted taught on this night. These Lessons are to awaken you, these Lessons are to alert you to My Way.

There is not one child present here that I do not love, and if you feel you have done things to displease Me, I want you to use your will to correct the weaknesses, the faults you feel would displease Me.

All through time I have given mankind truth. I have never once not seen man's need and ignored him. You live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah, and I am coming through This Miracle I designed so each child here will be aware of the way to walk amidst the horror that is everywhere. Men are using their will against Me. They are joining the enemy because he offers them physical things, but he is not telling them the evil. He is not being truthful with man. He is covering the ugliness with a sheer line of glitter, color, intriguing falsehood. Keep this in mind. He is also using men to shout My Name, but underneath he plays a game, a game with your Soul; for he envies you, for you have the chance to carry the Sword of Love for Me, and his chance is gone.

When I decided to create man there was order in My Plan. There is order in all I do, there is reason for all I do, there is purpose for all I do. My children, I do love you. I ask you to love Me. Carry that Sword that the beloved Saint Michael gave each of thee. It will be a Sword that will shunt the enemy.

I bless you with My Love. I bless you with courage, I bless you with strength, I bless you with Faith, I bless you with trust My Way. I bless you with The Heart of My Son and I ask each one to give your heart to Me.”

FEBRUARY 4, 1972 AT 9:55 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My children, it is a joy to Heaven to hear children plan God’s Way and to desire to do only His Will for this Great Hill. The Hill, in its design, will show men of all kinds proof, proof of His Generosity, and it will give mankind hope for Sainthood. There are so many things to be on this Hill; a Basilica in Honor of The Holy Trinity, with a Place of Honor for Me. All men must recognize the Magnitude, the Meaning of The Holy Trinity, and it is God’s Will that I be there for men to see.

When man looks at this Great Room dedicated to The Heavenly Queen, man will feel the beauty of womanhood and to the purpose God gave it to be. Man will see the dignity that God placed woman in. Man will recognize that God showed all men the beauty of Creation when He chose a Woman to bear His Son, to give man life in Eternity. The Example that was shown is to be talked about and delivered constantly.

That Great Room of Saints, oh, how beautiful it will be. They will All be there, to be recognized as walking the physical road and then entering Here. Man will enter this room and he will see the physical appearance of many men. He will be told of the roads they took, the action they gave, and the love they showed. Man will be told about these Great Faiths in a Divine Power that made men do things unnatural, because of such dedication and love for The Supernatural. The walls will show an elegance of charm, a Heavenly Peace. The walls will tell stories so men can see facts. The walls will be solidly lined with Heaven's Way.

Oh, My children, this Hill is one of such Greatness, such Beauty. The men on the Hill will be dedicated to God in a special way. There will be a sign saying:

*'Thy Will, my God, not mine, Thy Will be done by me. Let my will be used to perpetuate
Your Will for the good of the Soul, for the Glorification of all Souls.'*

There will be a group of men bearing the Name of Saint John Vianney. Ah, these men will stand out on this Hill and they will lead pilgrims to the top of the Hill.

There will be psalms sung honoring The Holy Trinity. There will be psalms sung honoring The Heavenly Queen. There will be songs to The Saints, praising Their way, desiring to follow Their way. There will be prayers said daily, nightly, asking The Holy Trinity to help those who are ill, to stand by the dying, and to release Souls from Purgatory, to let all Souls enter the Kingdom of Heaven. There will be prayers for the conversion of the sinners. There will be prayers to soften the cold, hard hearts of so many, to make their heart warm with love for God. There will be prayers asking The Beloved Holy Trinity to rid the world of satan, for he is all despair, destruction. There will be prayers thanking The Holy Trinity for the privilege of the physical life, for the privilege to one day be a Saint. There will be prayers praising God for His Love. There will be prayers requesting to love God more His Way.

There will be a Pilgrim House here, unlike the one Mary and I stayed at, but this one will be of your times, of your day, where men will come and stay while they are here. They will feel the Power of the Hill, the Grace that the Hill bears, and they will feel a need to pray. They will become so absorbed in the story of this Hill, in the design of this Hill, the truth of this Hill, in the purpose of this Hill, that they will not want to go away. It will be what God instills in them when they are on this Hill that will bring them to His Feet one day. Prayer will be evident all over this Hill, not emotional prayer, but prayer of peace, tranquillity, love, kindness.

Every act that is to be performed on this Hill will be an act of love for God, for the good of a Soul. Man will learn on this Hill, the Important Part of himself, the Soul, the Part that must come to Eternity. Man, in his love for this Hill, will suddenly realize that he wants to do only God's Will.

There will be a special edifice here. It will be a hospital, a place for the sick to come. It will be a place of refuge, it will be a place of hope, it will be a place of dedication. It will be a place of learning. It will be a place that when man enters, he will feel God's Grace, not fear. He will feel himself be enfolded in the Arms of Heaven Itself. It will give him strength for he will be served by men and women who care about God.

No Man Is To Work On This Hill Who Does Not Love God. I Say This And I Mean This — Only Those Who Want To Do His Will. The others must come, but the work must be done by those who love Him and His Will.

As it was described, a man has been chosen to head, to lead the men in the way of Saint John Vianney, the man who must be humble in his tasks, who must show love for God above all things, who must lead the men in this Hill so that they will, in turn, lead others. This beloved Saint will stand in every place on that Hill and He will speak through the men who walk his way; and when a child wants to be cleansed in the Spiritual way, Saint John will instill peace, cleansing, love, and spur the child on to go all the way to God without delay.

Other men have been and will be chosen to stand on this Hill in special places. A physical healer of the body has been chosen. He must stand in this place in service for the rest of his days.

This Hill will be coordinated, that all things will have easy access to. This Hill will stand out like a beacon to the sky, to the land. This Hill will show God's Love.

There will be a path on this Hill for those who are physically ill and this path will be a busy path. This path will be a path of love for many men to serve The Father. This path will give men hope, this path will heal Souls.

The beloved prayer that will encircle this Hill will always be there. This prayer says, 'Hail Mary, full of Grace', and when man says this prayer, he will absorb the Grace that has been placed in this Hill by God, for in these words, man says, 'I believe in Her, I believe in Grace,' and when man says, 'The Lord is with Thee', man will receive more Grace, for this is Faith, belief in what God did, and when man says, 'Blessed art Thou among women', All Heaven will rejoice at this. 'Blessed is the Fruit of Thy Womb'; oh yes, My children, the Innocence of Her Way bore the Greatest Fruit the world has ever known, the obedience of Her Way, the trust. And all through time, God has shown mankind the Importance of these things, but man seems to set it aside; and now, God is showing man, in the eye, to the eye, with the eye, the Importance of these things.

Men will walk on this Hill, calling to The Father, and they will say, 'Our Father Who art in Heaven.' This line alone, My children, says you believe that He is there for you to one day see. The line alone says there must be a Purpose to life, and each time you say these words you will be blessed with Light.

The entrance to this Hill will be one of great beauty. The statuary that will be there will be a welcoming sign of love.

On this Hill there will be a place set aside for men to walk the path The Divine Son did before He died in the physical way. And these places will not be made of cold stone nor will they be made of a hard metal. They will be manlike in form, and show man how it really was on this path of sorrow, this path of agony, this path of degrading

The Son of God. It will make men know that this path had meaning. This path He took was not a cold path, but a path of emotion, a path of fear, a path of, totally, dedication to God, for no man could have withstood the agony. Only love for God could have spurred Him on to the end. Man must begin to see this. Man has begun to deny this, has put it aside, for he does not want to think of sadness. No, he just wants to look at the frivolous side; but these places, these stops, will refresh man's memory, for so much of this path has lost its meaning through time. Believe Me, My children, Heaven has not forgotten the path, for it was this path that has allowed Heaven to be opened for all mankind.

The men designated to fulfill God's Will, will work hard, for there will be many who will object to this being done. There will be many who will fight hard for it to not be accomplished, for they will not see God's Will for Me. There will be men who will say, 'There is no need,' and there will be others who will wonder, 'Could it be?' but what man will not see is the Power of God standing above this Hill, preparing it for children to come, all over the world, to be a part of.

As I speak through this child, I am in the Heavens. From this day on, the child will have little rest where This Miracle must be. I will send her away sometimes so she will gain strength to serve The Holy Trinity.

I bless you with God's Love and I bless you with the Hill of Hope that will bear My Name, for man to come to Eternity, for man to be a Saint in the Realm of Heaven, for man to one day see the Beatific Vision. So be it."

SAINT BERNARD

“My beloved children, much has been said to you today to help you better understand God’s Way. Much has been given to you today for you to deliver to others your way. Much has been learned by you today and much will be retained by you today, for in this room you have learned what God wants for you, of you, from you.

I am a Saint, and as I stand Here in the Heavens, I know each one of you. I walked the earth with not the privilege you have. I did not hear firsthand, Words such as you have heard, and yet in my little way, I knew that there was a Greater Power than man. Oh, My children, I am Saint Bernard, and as I speak to you today, I say: ‘I, too, had to walk in Faith. I, too, had to perform for God. I, too, had to show my love. God did not come in the sky with Angels blowing trumpets, but He instilled in my heart the truth, the Faith, the love that was needed for me to withstand what I must for Him, as He has done this to each child here.’

At the moment of conception, the beginning of your lives, you were given Faith as I was. Men will try to deny this Faith and they will say theologically it is different, but this is not so. Each child is given the Faith that a Higher Being has all 'say so'. At the moment of conception, when two cells meet, your Soul is there, your will is there; and as the physical fights to live, the Soul, too, fights to live with God in Eternity.

Your being present in this room was not a casual thought of yours or someone else's you know. You have been enlightened to the Presence of This Miracle because God wanted it so. Some of you do not understand, some of you understand deeply, and there are those of you who want to know that This is true, for if It is, It will help you.

I know what each child feels, and as I speak through this child as you, I say, 'Take the problems you are aware of in your way and offer them to God His Way.' As the Cross was laid upon the Shoulders of The Son, it gave you responsibility, the responsibility to acknowledge this Cross, to thank Him for accepting it, and for you to show your thankfulness by doing what you can to come Here one day. He did not allow the Cross to be laid so you would be doomed satan's way, but He did allow the Cross for you to be saved.

Do not allow your life in the way of man to be a contradiction to His Love, for if you do, you will walk in sadness, remorse, weakness, no hope, and each thing will be a burden to you. Those who walk, willing to love God His Way, willing to serve Him His Way, walk in a joy that no human words can describe, for this joy is so deep inside that it cannot be seen, but it does radiate in many ways.

I bless My sons in the room for they are God's sons, and I bless the daughters in the room for you are God's daughters, and I say, 'Let your hearts acknowledge the Faith you have, let your hope dwell in God's Love, and let this day be a beginning for you that only truth will come your way.' So be it."

FEBRUARY 9, 1972 AT 11:29 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved children, many children will hear of this Hill of Hope, this Hill of Love, this place of refuge for children to come so one day they will all come Above. This Hill of Hope is for men to see the Beauty of God’s Creation. Oh, My children, this Hill will also teach each of thee and all men, Bible History. This Hill will mean much to mankind, for this Hill will help those who are ill understand, perhaps, why God allowed this illness to be. This Hill will show the little ones the beauty of God’s world. This Hill will give men Faith. This Hill will give men courage. This Hill will give men a retreat from the world, a retreat into God’s Way. Sometimes it will be momentarily and sometimes it will be for a length of time, but this Hill will be a place for children of all colors, all creeds, to learn of The Divine.

As you are Blessed in the knowledge of this Hill, be Blessed by the Grace that is within this Hill. There will be many, many children come to the House of Refuge on this Hill, the place where the ill will lie in bed and learn of God from those who serve on this Hill. And some of you in this room now will work on the Hill. God Wills it this way, God wants it this way, and God says, 'As you serve on this Hill, you will grow in Grace.' Keep this in mind, My children, for the Hill is a place for your day, your time, and this Hill will conquer much in weakness and crime.

The Hill will be protected by the Beads of Love. The Beads will surround this Hill and will be seen from above. So keep in mind, My little ones, the purpose of this Hill. It is for you, for everyone. It has been Blessed by God Above. So be it."

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“My beloved sons and My beloved daughters, I am Saint Francis of Assisi. Nowhere in time has man heard Words like This from The Divine, Words in such a personal way, Words in such a direct way. Some men have been chosen along the line to hear These Words to help others, but never has it been that so many thousands of men hear Them as you hear Them tonight. When The Beloved Son of God walked the earth as man, He taught the Wisdom of The Father. He, too, talked to multitudes and He, too, constantly observed God’s Plan.

When I walked the earth, I realized there was a Great Power that I must look to, that I must listen for. It was not easy in My day for I had to draw myself close to God in many ways, as you must do in your day. No man in My Presence now would be rejected by God if you were to say to God this moment, ‘I will do Your Will, God, not mine.’ These are the words God loves to hear, as He did mine. Some children say to walk for God is a difficult way.

Not so, My children, for in many ways, it is the most simple road to take, the most joyful road to be on, and the happiest road for every day.

I could speak through this child with poetry hour on end, but you, in your littleness, could not hold up under the time, and you could not retain All that I would have said. So, in your little way, take Each Word I say tonight and follow Them. Do not close your heart, for if you do, you will shut God out. Close your eyes and open your heart and you will feel His Love inside you.

If I were to come down from the Heavens and kneel before you here, some of you would be very shocked and some of you would feel the Beauty of The Divine near, but for the most part, most of you would not be able to stand the Power of My Being, firsthand. So that is why The Heavenly Father chose a child, as you, to use as an instrument of Love to reach you. It is as it was in the time of The Son: the Wisdom that was taught was God, through a Man like you.

When you feel a restless way and when you feel indifferent, when you feel a burdensome way, look to Us and We will reassure you, for We did walk your way. So many children now are not being taught the Purpose of The Saints. Our Work Here in Heaven is being ignored, for man says, 'Do not bother with Them, They do not exist.' This is not so. We exist in God's Way, and He asks Each One of Us to help you so you will better grow His Way.

You know, My children, as I stand in the Heavens Here, I teach a Lesson so worthwhile and I ask each one to hold It dear. Be blessed by this night. Grow from it and in it, and be sure of one thing, that when you leave this dwelling you open your heart, close your eyes, and let God enter into your whole being. Now when I say, 'Close your eyes,' I mean to the material world. I do not say, 'Have nothing,' but I do say, 'Do not place all importance on the material way.'

I bless you with God's Love and I touch your heart so you will open it to God, His Way. So be it."

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“My beloved sons, My beloved daughters, I come to you on this night with love and with understanding, and I say, ‘As you gather in a room of your day to listen to Words direct from Here, All Saints are alerted to your presence here.’ All Heaven is alerted to where you are, for nowhere can you be that Heaven is not alerted to each one of thee.

There is much work to be done by each child here. Some of you will refuse, some of you will accept; some of you will deny you heard the Words one day, that I, Saint Alphonsus Liguori, come through this child now, and I say, ‘Do not make excuses for What you hear on this night, and do not make excuses that you do not hear that God’s Will is choosing each of you to perform His Way.’

On the morrow when you awaken, ask yourself this: ‘What shall I do today, my will or God’s Will?’ How many times have you chosen your way when it would have brought much more happiness if you had chosen His Way? Think much on this, My children, for you see, to walk His Way, all men will not agree with you each day, but in your hearts you will know that you serve The Creator, that one day you must spend Eternity His Way.

Oh, My children, as you are gathered in this way, you are gathered in this dwelling of your day, you are given a privilege, a chance, a goal. Ask yourselves: Will you spend the next day using your will to do His Will, His Way? How many times have you wished that you could do what He did ask of you? And if you really analyzed this, you could honestly say that the only reason you did not was because you made an excuse your way. Is this not so?

When I was young and I walked the earth, I was denied many things: the friendship of a loved one, the consolation of a loved one, the support of a loved one, and yet I knew that I had to walk alone, God's Way. Oh, My children, it is good to love one another, it is good to serve one another, but keep this in mind: Do not lean on one another, for if you do, you will be weakened by the weakness of the other. Lean only on God each day and do His Will, His Way.

I, Saint Alphonsus, was requested by God to speak to you on this night, for there are three children in My Presence here who are struggling against those they love dear, and I say, 'Love them, serve them, but do not lean upon them, for you will be weakened by it and God does not want that to be.'

I bless you with God's Love and I bless you with the strength to stand alone for Him. I bless you with Faith. So be it for now."

SAINT TERESA OF AVILA

“I am Saint Teresa of Avila. As I speak through this child, I speak direct. As I speak through this child, I say to each one here, ‘Do not give Me excuses, I do not want them.’ I want each child to say to God on this night, on the next night and on the following night, that you desire to become a Saint, for if you keep saying this, it will happen, for you will find that if a night comes and you do not say, ‘God, help me to be a Saint,’ you will feel very sad.

So on this night I request each child here to say to God, ‘Help me be a Saint.’ Tomorrow night, I say, ‘Say to God, “Help me be a Saint.”’ Make it a habit, My children. Prayer is a habit. Loving God is a habit. Serving God is a habit. Obedience to God is a habit. Trusting God is a habit.

Many times, when young women would kneel at my feet and they would say to me, ‘Mother, help me, help me with my vocation; do I really have one, do I really want to serve God?’

unbeknownst to this child before me, I would be pleading to God, saying, 'Help me become a Saint and help this child have the strength to want this also.'

And so, My children, on this night I say to each one here, 'Repeat it again and again and again and again and again, so God will hear it quite clear: "Please, God, help me be a Saint."' So be it."

SAINT THERESE OF LISIEUX

“There are some children here in My Presence now who have devotion to Me. They seek My Aid, My Intercession to The Divine King. I am ‘The Little Flower’.

I ask each child in My Presence here to pray much for the Men of God, so they will do as God Wills them to do and they will never walk weak in any way. It is important that these men walk as The Son walked, ever ready to serve, ever ready to please The Father.

If one of you is in deceit on this night, rectify it. Do not let it remain as such. My children, sometimes, if you do not feel strong enough to face others as you truly are, pray for the strength, pray for the love, pray for the courage, for if you ever walk in deceit in any way, you will harm yourself many ways. Face truth for what it is, face obedience for how it is, and face trust in God for the fullness it is.

Each day, on the Altar, a Man of God has a power of change. There is no deceit in this. There is all truth, all love. All men must live this pure, this true, each day. All men must see the beauty of truth. All men must understand it is God's Way.

As I walked the earth there were many times I was very lonely, and I often wondered if my life outside the walls of the convent would have been so full that loneliness would not have touched me in any way, and yet I knew that if I had walked on the outside of the walls, I would have walked in deceit and I could not bear this way, for I felt to not stand solely for God in the habit way, in the religious way, would have been deceit on my part.

Now, some of you in the room where this child is will attack What I say to you. Never walk in deceit. Have the courage to face all men in truth. Heaven is All Truth. Heaven is All Love.

Oh, My children, gather a bouquet each day, not a bouquet of flowers as you know flowers to be, but a bouquet consisting of acts of love, so when nighttime comes and you lay these acts at the Feet of God, to Him they will look as a bouquet of great beauty, and He will say: ‘I compare each act, My child, to a flower I created, and as I look at this bouquet that you have given Me on this day, I see roses, I see peonies, I see daffodils, and yes, another flower mixed in. This, My child, I love, for it was the filler, causing the bouquet to be more beautiful and more lovingly displayed.’

As you leave this dwelling on this night, I ask each child here to follow truth, and hand The Heavenly Father tonight a bouquet of love from you. So be it.”

GOD THE FATHER

“My beloved children, when I created the world, I did it because I had so much Love. I wanted to share this Love in some way. I did not create the world because of lonesomeness on My Part. When I created man I did it to share. I had Great Plans for man. You have all heard the story of children I created disappointing Me. You have been taught that through this disappointment I made another Plan, and this was to wash away the sin, the weakness, with the Cleansing of a Water also created by Me.

In Heaven Where I am, Where I have always been, I had another Plan, and this was to send to the world Part of Me, to be Example for the whole world. I created This Plan, requesting that it be carried out to save man. A Son was born to the world. A Star shined over Bethlehem, telling certain men of a Great Event. Even then I gave man the knowledge to follow a sign to find Me.

From the moment of this Birth many men tried to interfere, some even tried to kill The Son that I held dear. It was through the obedience of Two Other Children that I created, that allowed My Plan to come about. They obeyed signs. I sent Angels to speak to Them. Keep in mind, My children, that They had a free will to accept or reject the Angel and what He would say. There are many things that have not been written by man, pertaining to this day. I have allowed this to be for many reasons.

Now again, in the world, a star must shine to give hope, to give life, to give love to all of mankind. This star is not as a star is seen to be, but this time I have chosen a mound of soil I created, and it will be known as the Hill of Hope. As My Divine Son was crucified on a small Hill and His physical death gave man life, so it will be on another Hill, not too high, that many, many men will be saved because My Will will be done.

I have designed this Hill. I have put Grace into this Hill, and I have chosen children such as thee to be obedient. This time, instead of Angels appearing to each, I have placed a child and I speak through this child. There are many similarities, if you will but look for them and accept them. You must fight for this star to shine. You must fight for My Will to be done. You must accept the tiresome times, as My Son once did. I ask each child in My Presence here to be honest with Me, to be truthful with Me and to trust in Me.

I have designed this Hill because of My Love for you, for all men. I want to share this Hill, for this Hill will save many men. In the time in which you live, I decided that this would be the best way for man to turn to Me. I decided that this Beloved Saint, Who was obedient constantly, would be seen, would be Honored and Revered by all men. This is His Hill, for He walked in Hope, He walked in Love, He walked in Truth, He walked in Trust, He walked in Complete Obedience to Me. When an Angel appeared to Him He did not say, 'I will not do it Your Way,' but He asked for Guidance to understand. He asked for Perseverance, He asked for Faith, He asked for Trust, He asked to be Obedient to My Will.

Man has forgotten how to pray. Man has become so selfish, so wise, so knowledgeable, in man's way. If each child will accept humility, there will be a joy in their activity. If each child will give total commitment to this Hill, there will be a line of Souls waiting to walk on this Hill. Some will walk on the Hill with indifference, and I will touch their hearts with My Love. Some will come to the Hill because of illness and they will want Me to make them clean, and I will use My Own Thinking as to what degree is best for the child. I will use men in this field.

I want man to understand that I gave him a brain, I gave him a will, I gave him the capability to work for Me. I did not make man a blade of grass. I did not make man a tree. I did not make man a piece of metal. I made men flesh, blood, Soul. I enjoy men's progress, I enjoy men's enthusiasm, I enjoy men's laughter, I enjoy men's hope, I enjoy men's trust in Me. I enjoy watching man at repast. I gave him these things to enjoy. Why would I not want to enjoy seeing him use them? I did not say to all men, 'Be poor.' That would be foolish; but I did say and I do say, 'Use the advantages allowed by Me to perpetuate My Name, to perpetuate My Will; serve Me.'

I am your God. I am your Father. I am your Creator. I have chosen a place in the world to profess My Love. It is here, through a creation of Mine. Once before I chose a particular spot and I again used Children such as you. My Plan has not changed. My Way has not changed. I have never changed. Then why can you not understand, why can you not see the similarity here? Look for it; you will find it. Cling to it; it will draw you to Me. Serve in it; it will be a means to Sainthood.

As I speak to you, I speak at a rate of speed you understand. I speak through a voice you can hear with your ears. I place a physical human being in front of you for you to see, for you to relate to, so you will better understand My Words, My Way, My Plan. I did it before. I am doing it again. All Heaven is coming forward to perpetuate This Miracle of The Beloved Son, Saint Joseph. All Heaven will be on that Hill of Hope. All Heaven will help those who come to the Hill.

Many men will try to discredit this child. Many men will try to say What she says is not worthwhile. This is sadness to Me for these men are not seeing the similarity of a long time ago. They are blinded by their own selfishness, their own envy, their own self-love, their own righteousness, and their own indifference to how I would work from Above.

Many stories you have heard of children who walked hazardous roads and They are now Here in Heaven with Me. I have given you these paths to follow, and sometimes you have read the lives of these little ones, and sometimes you cannot picture yourselves in the same role They played. I do not ask you to walk in a total way as Saint Francis, My beloved of Assisi, did. I do not ask you to walk in the Pure Way that The Heavenly Mother did. I ask you to imitate. I ask you to seek out what is best. I ask you to come to Me. I created you individually and that is how I want you to return to Me. I do not want you to lean on man. I do not want you to follow, to the letter, another's plan, another's way. I want you to come Here your way.

So many children do not realize that I created them in an individual way. Even when the birth carries more than one, each child to Me is a Soul, a body, a love. Keep this in mind, My little ones, and that is how I will judge you one day. I am Divine. My Power is far beyond what you know power to be, and in My sharing of the Power, I gave you a will. That is the only power you have, and I ask each child to use the power I gave to serve Me.

I bless you with My Love and I hold before your eyes the Star of Hope. Remember All I have said. Read It often and keep It close to you, for It will give you the strength to lead all men to the Hill of Hope. So be it.”

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved sons, My beloved daughters, as I speak through this child I speak with Heavenly Grace, with Heavenly Desire, with Heavenly Will. You partake in a Miracle designed by God. For the first time since a long time ago, God The Father is teaching Wisdom so children will better understand their role, the Purpose of their lives.

I come to you on this day. I am Saint Joseph. Many children throughout the world have heard My Name and they have heard the part I played a long time ago. So many, though, do not understand what God wants now of them, so God is sending Me to the world through a child such as you. This is to show mankind My Willingness to obey and My Trust in God’s Way. This, My children, is Example for your day.

I heard you speak of this Great Hill for Me. Man will come from all over the world to see it and to partake in it. The Graces have poured into this Magnificent Hill for centuries, and those who walk upon this Hill will feel the Grace, they will be given Hope, and it will renew their Faith in God's Way. Every edifice on this Magnificent Hill will serve a special purpose in a particular place.

When a child enters the gates, he will feel a Welcoming Hand. He will not see it as God's, but it will be His; and as the children walk through these hills to pray at the different coves, and to participate in the way The Son walked, they will feel a Power unfold. Some will feel a great need to confess. Some will feel a great need to start anew, and some will feel that the rest of their lives must be in service to God, for He Is All Real.

Men have prayed years for a Miracle such as This. The Heavenly Father places It amidst mankind in a place close to you. You are Blessed. All The Saints in Heaven will be seen on this Hill. It is God's Will. And one day men will write books about this Hill and about the trust and obedience and Faith it took to accomplish this Hill. Many books will be written on the History of this Hill. Many books will be written with the knowledge that will be instilled on this Hill.

The Bible History that will be taught will be to a degree you cannot guess, you cannot see, you cannot feel. Each edifice will depict a particular story, truth, that The Heavenly Father wants children to know.

The Pilgrim House will show mankind the Value of the Angels, and of course, the Beauty of Saint Michael with His Sword. The Sword is His Love for God and through this Sword He is ready to defend, at all times, God's Words. Men will get to know this Sword and they, in seeing It, will desire to carry one just like It.

There are so many places on this Hill that will give men hope; one, the hospital. The Heart of The Divine Son will show to all the children who enter, and It will give hope, for there will be stories all around, showing how The Divine Son, Who was My earthly Son, gave His Love; the suffering that He did was proof of His Love. His Heart will glow and the Tabernacle will be suspended here from the Rays of His Heart, and children will see the value that suffering can hold.

As men fly overhead they will see the Beads lit up and they will say, 'I should pray those Beads.' It will make men think. Oh, My children, this is a Hill of Light. Men are saying out loud, 'I want The Holy Ghost to come inside, I want the enlightenment He can give,' but they are seeking it in the wrong way. The True Light from The Holy Ghost gives children the desire to love God more His Way. It alerts children to the Purpose of life, to the Creation God made.

Children will walk through the edifice in Honor of The Beloved Mother of All. Each one will see the Beads of Hope, the Beads that are destined to release Souls; the Beads that were given to men, always to pray upon; the Beads She loves to hear Her children say, repeating again and again, 'Hail Mary, full of Grace.' The Crucifix at the beginning and the end of these Beads around Her Edifice will be one of such great beauty, and it will show mankind the Beauty of His Love.

Oh, My children, this Hill will radiate love. It will give life Purpose and it will show man hope. This Hill must never be interfered with by any man; and no man's thoughts, dreams, ideas, must go into this Hill until God says. He designed the Plan. There are so many coves to be on this Hill, depicting the lives of Particular Ones God chose. These places will be places of prayer for children to kneel and to learn about the Saint there. There will be places for children to rest, to enjoy the quiet, to enjoy the beauty of God's world. No place in the world will be as this, for God has designed it so.

Thousands of children will work on this Hill, and some will walk in a frivolous way, and some will walk in doubt as to the truth of this Hill, and some will say, 'I hope some of it rubs off on me today,' but what all these children do not know is that the Graces in this Hill are God's Love to all.

There will be many men who will fight this Hill and say, 'It is someone's dream.' Yes, this is true, God's; and many men will try to connect man with this Hill, and no man is to ever have credit for this Hill. It is totally God's.

I could go on and on about this Hill. There are too many issues to be solved before the completion of this Hill.

And through the child I speak with Love, and I say, ‘Ask yourselves today, if The Heavenly Father appeared before you now and asked a favor of you, would you reject Him, would you accept Him, or would you make excuses to Him and choose the world?’ All through time God has chosen children in the way of mankind to fulfill His Way, His Will, to help others.

In the time I lived, We were chosen to walk a particular path for a particular purpose. It was not easy all the time and nowhere could it say it was, but We knew there was a Greater Power than Us, and We prayed daily to It. When the Angel appeared at different times, I knew it had to be God’s Will. I knew that obedience and trust were the main ingredients for My Soul to one day reach My Father Up Above.

Oftentimes Mary and I would speak of the way We had to walk, the way We were requested to walk, and We found a Heavenly Peace. I do not say We did not have unhappy moments, for We did. The illness that came Our way was sometimes shocking in its way, and as We cared for Each Other and others that We knew, We prayed their lives be spared and We requested help to do the things We knew We had to do.

It is no different in your time, it is no different with you. You walk as man, you have a will, and you, too, have been given the chance to use your will to do God's Will or just follow as you will. No man in the world has a power all his own except the power of his will to do right or wrong. No man can make a life as it really is, and no man can ward off death of the physical if the time is then for him. So would you not say, My children, that the power that you have is in the will, as you live in the way of man, as you work in the way of man, as you love in the way of man, as you are in the way of man?

I come to the earth through a child such as you. This child is weaker than most in the physical, and yet through her the Will of God will be seen, It will be heard, It will be shown, and It will be taught. Ask yourselves, My little ones, what answer you would give if He were to ask you to walk the road He asked the child to walk and yet live. This Miracle of Mine has been set forth among mankind to show the Light that God gives.

I bless you with God's Love. I bless you with Hope. I bless you with Truth. I bless you with Obedience. I bless you with My Mantle to protect you in your decision. So be it."

SAINT JUDE

“My beloved children, as I spoke through the child, All Heaven smiled upon each one here, for in your little way you did not expect Us to be speaking Our Way. Very often We use you to extend God’s Love to another man. Very often We use you to help another man, God’s Way. There are so many times that you, in your little way, do not listen Our Way, for you become so preoccupied with things of so little worth. This was done to you today to show you how We could speak through someone else to guide you.

If each child here will picture God standing in the Heavens, you will see Him with His Hand on every child’s head, never letting go, and sometimes when you feel He’s not there, He is; it is only you who let go.

All through time man has been taught to look to truth, to look to the Lessons that have come forth. The Heavenly Mother has appeared many times, seeking children out, and now again Heaven comes forward, reassuring you of God's Hand, telling you about God's Will and asking you to hold tight to His Hand.

I am a Saint. I was man. I am Saint Jude. Children pray for the impossible way and I do hear every prayer they say. I intercede to God for the prayer to be answered His Way. Oftentimes He will say, 'Jude, will this bring the child My Way?' and I must face Him with the truth and say, 'It will only appease the child, man's way.' And with His Love, He looks at Me and says, 'Help the child, My Way.' So you see, My children, if you have prayed and you have felt your prayers were not answered your way, know that God knew what was best, and I carried out His Words, His Way, for what was best for you that day.

Right now, a child is kneeling in prayer to Me, and this child is begging for a life to be spared, for the child cannot bear to lose the life that he feels belongs to him. Many stand at this bedside. I am there, and We know that if this child is spared, that the very one who prays for this will lead this child to despair. I ask you now, 'What would God's Will be for this child who stands on the brink of Eternity?' Your answer is, 'Oh, Saint Jude, let God's Will be done, not his.'

And so it is, My children, you must have Faith, have trust in what occurs, and do not shout at God and say, 'You do not love me today, You do not give me my way.' This is sadness to be heard, for you see, you must learn to depend upon The Holy Trinity, for that is what is wrong with the world.

You live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah, and God is coming through this child to give you Strength, to give you Hope, to give you Love, so you will not fade into the world. There is no stronger Love than God's. There is no stronger Strength than His. There is no greater Hope than the One He gives, and that, My children, is for each of you to one day really live.

You are Blessed through This Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph. And as I explained the Hill to you, We smiled in Heaven, for We knew your thoughts, and with some of you, your eagerness to do; and those of you who felt the Beauty of the Hill are Blessed, for the Hill is Hope. The Hill, in many ways, will be a test, for God's Will must be done in every spot on this ground.

And when men enter the gate, from that moment on, they will feel the Power in the Hill, they will feel the Grace, and as they wander to the top they will learn Bible History, God's Way. The Crucifixion site will be placed in such a way that man will walk the path to Calvary that The Son of God did take one day, and this will renew men's knowledge of this Hill; and God does want men to see The Heart that had to be so filled with Love that It withstood every test.

I bless you in the Name of God. I bless you with The Heart that The Son did give to give you life, and I bless you with the Light of Heaven to light the path for each child. So be it."

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“My children, I am Saint Francis of Assisi. The House of Retreat on this Hill of Love, this Hill of Hope, this Magnificent Ground that God created, will be dedicated to Me. I will stand upon this Altar and I will teach men the power of retreat, the love of retreat, the beauty of retreat, the meaning of retreat, the magnificence of retreat, and the way retreat can save Souls.

Oh, My children, I say these things to you today, and I say, ‘Do retreat from man’s way, for as you do, you can take the time to grow in God’s Way.’

One day I retreated from the world, and yet in this retreat I became more a part of the world, because I became more conscious of the world; and you, too, when you retreat, will become more conscious of the world. Retreat does not mean die from the physical. Retreat means live the physical way, but do it God’s Way.

Oh, My children, this Altar will be dedicated to Me, in My Way; and I will always teach you the way to The Holy Trinity, for this is the only way man should walk, this is the only way man should serve, this is the only way man should give his life.

I bless you with God's Love and I say, 'Let the Hill be God's Way.' So be it."

SAINT JOSEPH

“When man writes a book, man can only put in this book the knowledge he has, the hope he has, the imagination he has developed, but when God writes a book, the book is always many ways. The book can say, ‘I love you,’ billions of ways. The book can say, ‘Save your Soul,’ billions of ways. God does not have to lean on the language of your way, in your day, to express His Love so you will understand It.

Many times He says to you, ‘I love you, child, go visit Me,’ and you do not listen, but in your way you feel you would like to make a visit to Him, but you let other things take place instead. Sometimes He will encourage you to receive Him, to give you strength, and you, in your little way, say you have other things that day; but what you do not know is that His Constant Touch with you is teaching you, is helping you come His Way. His Means of doing this are endless. His Love is endless.

Oh, My children, learn to pray. I am Saint Joseph. This Miracle has been set down in your day to give you the strength to be a Saint, to give you the hope to come Here one day. Do not stand on the earth that God created and depend upon man to sustain you; he cannot. Do not depend upon man to help your love grow in God's Way. You, and you alone, have the strength to do this. You, and you alone, have your own will to accept or reject loving God, His Way.

If I were to stand in a visual way before you right now, it would not help you love Me more. It would not help you love God more, for even then, you would have to accept Faith. You would have to accept how I would do it, how God would allow it to be, and even then, some of you would doubt it being this way. So, as you were born, you were given Faith. Use this Faith, this trust, to come This Way.

This Hill of magnificent size will give all mankind hope, and men will come from all over the world to see this place God designed.

Right now, My children, if you but knew the children on the other side of the world who are discussing This Miracle of Mine, it might shock you, for It has been released on the Winds of God's Power, Which are Divine. In many places, certain men envy you, for they say you are learning direct, God's Love, God's Truth, God's Way, and yet you participate in a natural way.

Oh, My children, do you not see the hope you have been given today? Can you not feel the Truth that Heaven has spoken through a child such as you? And can you not see God working just this way? This Miracle of Mine has been designed by God, and as I was obedient to Him in the world, I am again obedient to Him in The Divine. He has chosen This Time for Me to be seen, for Me to be heard, and I must comply. It was not a command, it was Love, and He said: 'Joseph, go forth to the world as You once did, and teach children My Way. Teach them that I give them hope, I give them strength, and if they will be but obedient to Me, I give them Sainthood. I place You before them, Joseph, again; and as You stood in humility, I ask You now to stand in the Power of My Way.'

And so it is, My children, I come to you today in a very real way. It is as real as if your eyes could see Me; for, in truth, your ears hear Me.

I bless you with God's Love, for you are privileged to live in this day.
So be it."

SAINT MICHAEL

“My children, I, Saint Michael, come to you on this day to inform you that The Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph must be seen, must be heard, must be Honored, must be Revered around the world.

And as I speak These Words, I stand before The Heavenly Queen, to announce Her Appearance here. Nowhere in the world is this happening, as it is happening here. This Miracle has been designed by God and has been designed for all men to understand, to come to, and to grow from. This Miracle is God’s Love for mankind, This Miracle is God’s Truth for all men, and This Miracle is to be perpetuated in all ways.

No child has ever been asked to walk this way, and you, My children, are faced with the Reality of This Miracle. You are faced with the responsibility of It and you are faced with obedience to It. You are faced with accepting the Truth and you are faced with accepting, in trust, God's Will.

In many Visions of Our Heavenly Mother, you have been told to pray the Rosary. Ask yourselves on this day: How many of you have obeyed Her Desire, Her Wish, Her Will? Many of you will have to say, 'I have not obeyed,' and many of you will have to say, 'I have ignored Her Prayers every day,' and many of you will have to say, 'It is only my lack of trust.'

And, as you have been Blessed on this day by partaking in a Miracle of such Divine Way, you are Blessed in many ways. Keep this in mind, My children, and as you leave this dwelling, this place, in the time in which you live, I will give you a Sword to take with you, a Sword of Love, so you, too, will be a soldier for God Above. Those of you who reject this Sword, it will be sadness to Us, for to carry this Sword when It is handed to you by Us, is a privilege beyond your knowledge.

And The Heavenly Mother asks Me to hand each child a Sword, a Sword of Love. You are Blessed by this Sword and it is up to you to carry It with honor, with dignity, with integrity, and always in hope that you will grow more in love with The Heavenly Father, and deeper in love with His Way and His Will.

As was said, you are as a grain of sand on the world, no power on your own, only the power of your will to say 'Yes' or 'No', to accept truth or untruth. Oh, My children, be sure that what you accept is truth and do not let any falsehoods lead you, guide you, or help you to stray from God's Light, God's Way.

I bless you with the Sword I carry, for It is My strength every day. So be it."

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“I could extend much Power through this child and do many things to keep you in awe, My children, but that would not support this Love I give to you on this night, for what you would see with your eyes would not help your hearts. Keep this in mind.

Oh, My children, I am Saint Francis of Assisi, and I come on this night to extend to you the reason for This Miracle of such Divine Truth. Be aware of the beauty of retreat, and as you do, keep this in mind, that when you retreat from the world it is not escape from the world, but it gives you strength to return to stand among mankind, in truth, in love sublime.

So many men are passing by God’s House. They are not going in, for they fear going in will keep them in bondage. Not so. To love God is freedom. To be close to Him is love. To be closer to God than anything in the world gives you the greatest freedom in the world.

Oh, My children, I knew this, for I walked the world, free, and as you have seen many pictures of Me, I talked with the birds, I talked with the trees, and through this talking I felt free. My devotion was to God. I did not retreat from life, I entered it. Keep this in mind as you live each day.

I love you. You are God's Love, and I come to you on this night to say, 'Be wise, My children, retreat, to give you strength to return to the world and fight for what is right in your day.' So be it."

SAINT ELIZABETH

“My beloved children, man tries in many ways to escape. He tries oftentimes to escape the physical life. He thinks that roads of escape are falling into sin, and sometimes he chooses to have companions that are all weakness, for in this he feels strength. If you could but see the sorrow that is Here when children act this way. The Father says, ‘Oh, children, do not lean on each other’s weaknesses; lean on Me, I am All Strength.’

I had a son who walked the earth. He was strong: strong in his acceptance of truth, strong in his delivery of it, and strong and firm in standing up to it. My son you know, for I am Saint Elizabeth, and My son was the One Who gave you a Sacrament: Baptism. ‘Saint John The Baptist’ you know him as. Many times, when he walked the land men laughed at him, and when they accused him of being the Promised One, he would abruptly say, ‘Not so,’ for he was a humble man. He insisted upon truth in all things.

I come to you on this night as I did once before, to alert you to the fact that many children are not being baptized as God Wills it to be. There are many children putting off this Sacrament, waiting for the little one to accept it on his own. If you but knew the sorrow that is God's when this is done, for you see, the child may die in the physical way and he will not be able to enjoy Heaven to the fullest way. It is up to you, My children, to stand firm on the Sacrament of Love, the Sacrament of Cleansing.

I know that here in My Presence now, as I said once before, one of you or two of you are aware of someone who has not had the Sacrament of Love, the Sacrament of Care. So keep this in mind, and as you do, be blessed by this knowledge I give to you, and pass it on and show you care.

Oh, My children, as John walked the earth he knew the Greater Power was close and yet far away, but he knew that he had to serve in a special way. So one day, when The Son of God came close to him, to show the need, the beauty, the love He had for the washing of the water, the pouring of the water, oh, My children, John looked into His Eyes and knew He was The One he had waited for.

And now I speak to you. You have waited for Heaven to speak for centuries. Is this not so? And now We do, and in many ways it is a cleansing, it is a purifying. It will be the cleansing of your minds so you will see only truth. It will purify your Souls, for the Teaching that is done through This Miracle will alert you to the importance you must do. Do you understand What I say to you?

My children, as I stand Here in the Heavens there is much work to do, and sometimes God does say to Us, 'Work here, My Saints,' and that We do; and then We go to other children on the other side of the world, but We are always conscious of your prayers that come to Us for help, for aid. Keep this in mind, My little ones, when you pray.

I bless you with the Gift of Baptism, I bless you with the cleansing of your minds, I bless you with a pure heart. Be blessed by My Words tonight. So be it."

SAINT PETER

“My beloved sons, My beloved daughters, I am Saint Peter, and oftentimes I come through this child to tell you different things, and oftentimes, when I come through her, I must say: ‘You must stand solid in the Church of all days. You must stand firm, for the Holy Mother Church must remain in the truth it is, in the beauty it is,’ for you see, I am the Rock on which this Church was built, and as I walked with The Son of God one day and He spoke to us, He taught us to go forth in Our day.

I again come through this child to teach you on this night, that you, too, must leave this dwelling and you, too, must go forth and teach What The Saints have said to you on this night, and be aware of one thing, My children: To walk for God you must stand in truth. To walk with true love, you must love Him first. So be it for tonight.”

FEBRUARY 17, 1972 AT 7:54 P.M.

THE SACRED HEART

“My children, I am The Sacred Heart. As I reach My Hand into each heart here before Me now, I can stop the beat of your heart or I can make it pump more. I choose to allow it to pump back and forth, up and down, in and out, because I love you.

As you gather on this night, you gather with hope, hope that This Miracle of a Beloved Son is true. Some of you express it in your eyes, some in your thoughts, for you see, I know what you feel. I have not taken My Hand off your heart, for I love you. I want your heart to remember My Hand for all times. It is My Love that touches your heart, not only My Hand.

Right now in the world, My Heart is not spoken of enough, the Beauty of My Heart is not displayed enough, the Action of My Heart is not shown enough, the Purpose for which I display My Heart is not told enough. If I were to show My Heart above each Altar where I am, and if I were to allow Drops of Blood to drip upon the Altar, men would stand and say, 'It cannot be true, it is someone playing a game,' and others would stop by and say, 'It's a figment of imagination; it must be the lighting,' and some would stop by and say, 'It's got to be true.' I ask of you now, 'Which one are you?'

The Heart does not stand above the Altar, but I am there in The Host for you. The Holy Trinity, of Which I am a Part, is ready to be given to you, if you will but allow it to be. Children make excuses for not receiving this Host of Love, this Gift of Truth. Children deny themselves this Great Gift. It is sadness to Us, for so oftentimes a child denies himself Us when it is only foolishness on the child's part. The enemy of Ours sees the Value of this Beloved Host and this is what he tries to desecrate the most. I am sure that most of you children in My Presence here are aware of this desecration.

Oh, My children, when you leave this dwelling in your time, My Hand will remain on your heart, and each day, if you will but feel the tug, it will be Me drawing you to the Altar of Love, for I want each child to accept the Gift that awaits each day, for with this Gift and through this Gift, you will grow strong Our Way.

We have put This Miracle of All Love upon the earth for you, and through It, I touch your heart, for as you entered this dwelling on this night, it was Our Idea for you, it was Our Love for you, no matter what you felt, and those of you who fought to not come, you did not feel the urging from Us. It was not a human child who drew you to the door. It was My Hand, My Love. I will ask each child in My Presence here to keep in evidence to the eye, a picture of My Heart, so you will remember this night.

I love you, and you must understand that once I touch your heart I will not let go of your hand. I bless you with The Father's Love and I bless you in your heart. I bless you with the Light to follow the Rays of My Heart, and I ask each child to keep in mind The Host that is Divine. So be it."

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved children, I am Saint Joseph. History is repeating itself once again in God’s Direction, God’s Way, God’s Will. The time now has been set aside by The Divine Father for children all over the world to become aware of the Purpose of life, through a Soul, through a child who walks in the human way.

The Divine Father has designed a Miracle for Me and This Miracle is being perpetuated in a manner man can understand, man can feel, man can feel close to, man can accept, and again a child had to be prepared to accept Divine Words, Wisdom, Way, Plan, Truth. It happened once again that a child was approached by Heaven and asked to walk in complete blind trust of Divine Will.

As it was with The Beloved Holy Mother and with Me, again The Heavenly Father has come to the world, in a like manner, requesting of a particular child to walk with a deep love, a true love, a lasting love, a subservient love. This Miracle of Mine has had much preparation so that It could be extended to mankind on a level of understanding, a level easily accepted.

When We walked the earth, We, too, were prepared for The Son's walking away to teach God's Truth. We, too, were prepared for His absence from home. We, too, were prepared for the Things He would say, teaching Great Wisdom God's Way. We, too, were prepared to accept a daily, an instant, and momentarily, submission to God's Will.

There is so much likeness here, My children, for when God teaches Truth, there are parallels, there are parables, there are similarities, there are Stories, depicting all that is good, and each thing carries a weight, each manner in which It is expressed carries a weight, and certain children accept It a certain way and other children accept It another way; and that is why It has been given in this manner, this way, through this means.

This Hill of Hope is far beyond any man's dream, and no man who walks on this Hill will fully comprehend the meaning this Hill is, for it is far beyond man's scope, man's intelligence, men's capabilities; for, as man sees buildings, man sees Bible History, man sees the growth of beings, man will never see the growth of Souls, in reality; only God will see this.

One time, when The Heavenly Father chose Our physical life to walk, to live for Him, He allowed Our Wills to accept Him, He allowed Our Love to be shown to Him. So it is again, the will of a child has been requested by Him; submission of life, the physical way, requested by Him.

Many men will fight this. Many men will say, 'God does not ask a child to give the will.' Oh my, how men can stifle the meaning of a word, of a meaning. Men can close in on the Beauty of God's Will, God's Way. When a child submits a will, it is a promise between the child and God, and that the child will do only God's Will, His Way.

There are so many Things to be learned through this child, there are so many Lessons to be taught. There are so many Souls to be saved, there are so many children to come to This Miracle of Mine.

As you return to man's way, I bless you with God's Love and I say: 'Keep in mind how He works. Keep in mind His Love. Keep in mind the truth. Walk with His Will totally in your sight. Walk with His Will, the Goal that you must accomplish in the physical way.' The Glory of Heaven is here, but you have been privileged in many ways, for when God says, 'Child, do My Will each day,' it is said with Love, and the freedom to choose. Know this.

There is much yet to come, in a Wisdom Way, on the will of man doing the Will of God each day. Men have misinterpreted this much, and men must be straightened out on this, for the Will of God must be done, as it was by The Divine Son. I bless you with Grace. So be it."

SAINT ANASTASIA

“My beloved sons, My beloved daughters, I am speaking through this child in a manner that you understand. I am speaking in a language you understand. You are not frightened of this child, for when you see her, you see one as you, but the more you hear the Words from her, the more you know, the more you feel, the more you will understand the Words are not hers. Some of you children, who have spoken with her before, are fully aware of the Magnitude, the Wisdom of the Words that have come through her. Is this not so? and as I say this on this night, I beseech you, My little ones, to open your heart to the Faith that was put there at the moment of conception a time ago.

I am a Saint few of you pray to, few of you might know, but nonetheless, I speak with God’s Words through this child on this night, and I am concerned with the glow of your Soul, the Light. I am Saint Anastasia.

There are many things you must know of. There are many things you must do. There are many prayers you must say. The Heavenly Father has requested that I come to you on this night to alert you to the necessity of prayer, the necessity to be aware of the Soul He gave you.

As it was said through the child in the first, children are dying on this night in the physical way. The night will come, a day will be, and you, too, will leave the world, as I did in My time, and through This Miracle, governed by The Divine, directed by The Divine, you must become aware that you must be prepared for such a time. So few children accept this knowledge for the Greatness It is, the Love It is.

In My time, we, too, walked with the path of the day, the problems involved in many things, the illnesses that took place. We, too, had our distractions. We, too, had our dilemmas, and we, too, had many men who wished to lead us astray, but I say to you from the Realm of Heaven Where I am, 'Be alert to this day, be conscious of the right and the wrong, and be conscious of the truth that must come from you, the decisions throughout the day.'

You are Blessed, My children, in a special way. The Saints Here in Heaven see all your needs and are conscious every day of how you are, what you accept and what you reject, for God allows it to be this way.

I do not come in sadness tonight. I come in joy, for it is a Love from God that allows Me to say These Words, and there can be no sadness in His Love. We come from Heaven with a warning to all mankind, through this child who walks solely for The Divine. There will be many things explained to you on this night, and with each thing there will be much Love given with a Light no man can make, no man can create, for the Light is that of The Holy Trinity.

I bless you, My children, with God's Love, and I say, 'The child will now tell you what must be for the Salvation of Souls in your time and for a long time to come.' So be it."

FEBRUARY 22, 1972 AT 7:37 P.M.

SAINT JUDE

“My children, a long time ago your Creator, your God, your Love, designed the Salvation for you. In the first move in this direction, He sent a Divine Son to give you life. And when this was done, the world you live in progressed along the way, in the way of man, and at different times there were many struggles, many heresies overcome. You now live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah. You live in a time when only The Heavenly Father can help you.

Oh, My children, God again is sending Salvation to mankind: First, through This Miracle of The Beloved Son, Saint Joseph, and then, He is giving another Great Grace to man. The Heavenly Father has called this Great Grace ‘a Hill of Hope’, ‘a Hill of Love’, ‘a Hill of Life’ for man. As it was experienced and expressed in the Time of The Divine Son upon a Hill, it will be expressed again on another Hill.

The Hill of Calvary was the Hill of Hope for all mankind. And now again, The Heavenly Father has designed another Hill to be, and this time this Hill will be called 'The Hill of Hope', to free mankind to live Eternally with The Divine Three. This Hill, My children, will open its arms, for they will be God's Arms. This Hill has Grace within it, pouring within the grain of ground, and the sand that is on this Hill is mixed with soil and every grain has Grace. There must be no turmoil upon this Hill. And God has designed this Hill to be among you. He has placed this soil in a place close to you.

I am Saint Jude, and The Heavenly Father has asked Me on this night to come to speak of this Hill of Hope, for this Hill will give you strength, just to know about this Hill, where God has planted Grace.

Upon this Hill there will be a Basilica in Honor of The Beloved Saint, Saint Joseph. He will stand at the top of this Hill and He will extend His Hand, drawing you close to The Holy Trinity.

Our Heavenly Mother will be on this Hill and She will pour out Grace to those who say the Holy Rosary in His Way. And around Her Chapel there will be all the decades, all the reminders, all the memories, and when you little children go by and say the prayers, The Heavenly Mother will bless you with Grace, for you see, My children, the prayers you say will save Souls and draw Souls This Way.

There will be a special room called 'the Room of Hope, the Room of Saints', and in this place All Saints will be shown, letting you know how They walked the way in the human form, in the physical way, as you do in your day. Sainthood was not just for These; Sainthood is for you. How will you respond to the request to be a Saint? And in this place, My little ones, you will get a chance to see that there are Many Saints in Heaven Who walked, perhaps, much like thee.

And down this Hill there will be a place, a place of hope, a place run by men who work the physical way, and they will be Blessed for their love for God, and they will constantly save the physical, with His Help, with His Love; and as they protect the physical way, they will be asked to teach children God's Way.

There will be another edifice on this Great Hill of Hope and this will be a Monastery of men, dedicating their lives to God's Plan.

There will be a Convent on this Hill, with women who say, 'Let me walk the way as The Beloved Mother did one day.'

There will be a house to retreat in, a place where all children can go and stand on the Hill of Hope for short periods of time, to give them strength to go on and fight for truth in the world.

There will be another place on this Hill, a house for pilgrims to pass through, and no one is to be turned away from here, for The Beloved Saint Whose Honor this Hill speaks out with, and in, says, 'Turn no one away as We were one day.'

The arms surrounding this Hill will be lights depicting the fifteen decades of the Holy Rosary, and nowhere in time did man ever expect Someone from The Divine to speak out so direct regarding a place such as this, but I ask you, My children, to compare the two Hills: Calvary, the Hill of Hope, and you will see similarity and you will see Light.

The time has come when The Beloved Saint Joseph must become known throughout the world. His Name must be Honored and Revered, and all mankind must see Him and know how He walked in the world, loving God above all things.

Ask yourselves on this night: 'Who do I love most, my God Who created me, my loved ones whom I love and live with, or do I love myself above all things?' Many of you will have to question your answers, many of you will have to say, 'I love myself, for I feel hope only in myself, I feel strength only in myself.' This is a sad way, My children. Keep in mind that God Alone is Strength and you are weakness.

You are loved much on this night, more than you can know. Keep in mind the Words that I have spoken and do not pass Them by, for one day each child here must walk on this Hill of Hope and absorb the Graces that are there.

I bless you with a Love Far Greater than you know; and as you pray

My Way, you say, ‘Oh Jude, perform the impossible,’ and I also tell you tonight, ‘Nothing is impossible, God’s Way.’ I bless you with His Love for today. So be it.”

FEBRUARY 22, 1972 AT 7:50 P.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“Many times, My children, when the burn of the stigmata worked into my flesh, the pain was so excruciating that I would call out to God and say, ‘Another test?’ and He would gently inform me in some manner that it had to be, for I was to help Souls come to Him in Eternity. Sometimes He asks a child to suffer, not always in an obvious way, but sometimes in a very quiet manner.

I remember one time, My little ones, and I want to share this time with you now, that as I was kneeling in my cell, the pain was so much that all I wanted to do was scream out. Sometimes The Heavenly Father allowed it to grow and that was when He needed another Soul; and I would fall to my knees and then I would fall to the ground, because the pain was more than I could bear, and yet I knew that through this pain God was always there, and I could not help but wonder how The Divine Son stood it on the Cross without screaming out: ‘God, help Me. Be with Me on this

Cross.’ And this is what sustained Him through ordeals all the time, for just the thought of seeing Him, a Great Part of The Divine, and yet, all the physical Hope of man.

Oh, My children, as you gather on this night, This Teaching Miracle of Love has come to the world to give you strength, to help you know that the path to Heaven is God’s Love, God’s Light. The paths in the world are made by man. Think back to a long time ago when certain men had adventure in their Soul. They would walk a certain path, and others would follow because of the easy manner following in this path. Men have made heroes out of those who walked the first time. Is this not so? How many men have made a hero out of This Son Who died, Who walked that road? Oh, My children, know that as He was torn to pieces, you might say He never once denied His Love for God in any way.

And I ask you on this night, not to suffer physical pain, but to understand the need to walk in the direct Light God has given man. This Light is Truth. This Light is Him. This Light is His Love for every man. Do not become so involved in others in the world that you neglect to see the Light God gives to you to walk in the world.

I could go on and on for hours, through this child, and some of you would let your minds wander, so I will stop at this moment and keep asking, through this child, that each of you respect God's Will, and when He offers a small cross, do not decline, but accept it with the Grace and Love He gives at such a time.

I bless you with God's Love and I bless you with the Wounds I had. And I let you in on a secret: 'All here in the room have a chance to walk a special way for God.' Let Him know you accept. So be it."

FEBRUARY 22, 1972 AT 7:58 P.M.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“My children, throughout the world men have made much of My Visions. Throughout the world, I have been seen in special places. Throughout the world, I have opened My Heart to special children so that they could be ‘the instrument’ through which I would work, through which I would speak, through which I would direct what must be. Again I come to the world in a manner as this.

I am your Heavenly Mother, and I come first to say, ‘I love you more than you can know, more than you can accept, more than you can understand.’ Most of you have prayed to Me. Most of you in the room love Me. There is one amongst you who is not sure of Me.

For centuries I have asked man to pray the Beads of Love, and many men have spoken out against these Beads; they say the Beads are not necessary. Not so. These Beads say many things. These Beads give man History. These Beads give man important dates to look upon, to meditate. These Beads tell man My Way. They also tell man of the Crucifixion Day. They also tell man of the Glorious Way. So, would you not say, My children, that these Beads are also for your day?

When a child reaches for the Beads, the Grace comes to the child, and when the child touches the Crucifix, he cannot help but feel a certain love; and when the child begins to pray, he says, 'I believe.' This, My children, is acceptance. This, My children, is love; and then, as the child goes through these Beads and the child begins to say the prayer that was given in a special way, he says, 'Our Father, Who art in Heaven.' Again the child calls upon The Greatest One, and when the child walks through the Beads, he says, 'God, give me Faith, Hope, and Charity,' and then he says in a simple way, 'Glory be to God.'

Oh, My children, can you not see the love that God has for these Beads? All along, up to this place, you have asked Him for special things and you have told Him of your love, and suddenly, upon these Beads, you begin to think of what they mean. You begin by meditating on a Special Event: the Announcement of Hope for all mankind, the Announcement of Love Divine. Would you not say then, for this small time, you are expressing understanding, love for a Great Gift from The Divine?

As you go through the Beads, you call My Name and you say words over again and again, words I love to hear, simple though they might be. They are words so easy for every child to remember and they say so much to Me, and as you go further along into the Beads, you meditate on many Events.

Now, if you will but walk these Beads each day, you will find strength, not in the chain that connects the beads but in the Grace that comes from saying the Beads. When you return to the Cross, an act We love so much is for your lips to touch the Body on the Cross, showing your love, expressing your feelings. The prayer is loved by Everyone Here.

If I were to allow a Rosary to drop from the Heavens into each child's hands, for awhile you would exclaim, 'It came to me from Them.' Imagine your excitement if this were to be, and yet, all you would have would be a material thing; but when you say the Beads and offer each bead you say for the Souls in Purgatory, you are taking part in releasing Souls to come Here. You exchange a Gift. There's no comparison, My children.

I walked the earth as you, and I know that you have certain things that bring pleasure to your way, but from this night forward I want each child here to keep in mind that to give God a gift, the greatest gift you can give Him is to release a Soul from Purgatory. Oh, My children, The Angels sing, The Saints rejoice as I take the hand of the Soul and pass Him on to The King. This is what your daily Rosary can be.

I bless you with My Motherly Love and I say, 'Do not forget the Gift of Love. He loves it done this way.' So be it."

FEBRUARY 22, 1972 AT 8:09 P.M.

OUR LORD

“My children, I once taught on a hill, and when I taught, the Words I said were the Wisdom of the Heavens, and it was always God’s Will. I speak again on this night through a child and say, ‘I speak to teach you, to extend to you God’s Hand.’

As The Heavenly Mother said, ‘Remember to kiss the Cross,’ this is true; I love the children to express this act of love. It is an act of humility, it is an act of truth, for as you do this, you say to Me, ‘Oh God, I do love You, and I am grateful for what You did, and I love You for all things You gave, and I accept the Life that You gave for me.’ Oh, My children, just this kiss says so much to Me.

I am not standing on a hill teaching through this child. I stand Here in the Heavens, in the Power of The Holy Trinity I use to reach you. As I use the child’s body, I use the mechanisms for the voice to be heard. I use her eyes to look into yours and I use her arms to express My Way. I use her totally and I always will.

As I hung upon the Cross that day, I begged The Father to help all men understand His Way, and He said to Me: 'My Son, through Your Great Love, You have given man the Way to Me. Through Your Humility, You have expressed to man what pleases Me; and even though there were times that You could have expressed Yourself, You waited for My Command, You waited for My Will to be done. Thank You, Son, for giving Me all the Souls in the world.'

Through time, My children, man has begun to feel no need to pray; man has felt a power in his way. And as you are in My Sight now, you are fully aware that the Power through Which I come is not yours nor the child's. The Power is Mine. You could not reach Me through the power you have, but I can reach you through the Power I Am. Since the Crucifixion, no man has been asked to stand before the world until this time, and you are learning direct from The Divine.

As it was spoken on this night, God has designed a Hill of Hope for men to walk on, men to partake in, men to seek truth on, in, with. Every spot on this Hill has been designed by The Father. There is not one spot He has not thought about. This Hill can be compared to the Hill I died upon. The size is somewhat similar, not too high, rolling in some ways, always looking to the sky. I stood alone on this Hill. Now, again, another Hill is to free mankind. This time the freedom is a different way; this time the freedom, not to open the Gates of Heaven, but to open man's heart to God's Will.

As I stand Here in the Heavens, I cannot tell you the desire that The Heavenly Father has, that I feel, for you to understand the necessity for each child here, and others in the world, to begin to face truth, to begin to see the necessity for prayer, to begin to understand that in The Holy Eucharist, We are there. We are truly there, My children, Body and Blood. Do not walk by Us every day, but stop and receive the Gift of Light. Do not let scruples keep you away. Do not let your weakness draw you from Us, for many times you do not understand Our Love. Come forward, children, and receive Us. If you will but make it a practice to every day receive this Gift,

It will give you a strength nothing else can, and if you will combine this Gift with the prayers to your Heavenly Mother, you will find your day happier and you will feel like facing another.

I will not hang upon the Cross again; there is no need for it. But now, the time in which you live is sadness, so We send another Child, Who walked the world as My Beloved Father, Who was obedient at all times and Who trusted. He is to become known for His Service and His Love, His Dedication and His Hope, the Truth that He stood in, the Protection that He was. You must begin to recognize the Beauty of His Way and you must imitate the Example He set down one day, for if you do, you will find a growth within yourself that nothing else can give you. So, you see, My children, He became a Saint through obedience and trust, His Love for God's Way.

I bless you with The Father's Love and I bless you with My Heart. I bless you with the Light of The Holy Ghost, and I say, 'Begin tonight to love.' So be it."

SAINT JOSEPH

“Man oftentimes works on instinct. In some instances, this is good; in some, it is not. This Hill of Hope will not be worked upon this way, nor will it be accomplished in this manner. This Hill has been planned for centuries. This Hill is to come about totally God’s Way. The Hill is not just a group of edifices, nor is this Hill a site for people to come to with fun, delight. This Hill is to be honored and revered in a way, in a manner that shows dignity, God’s Way.

Men are to enter this Hill, not with a picnic atmosphere, but with a look to Heaven for what is here. The Hill is to teach man God’s Way, God’s Truth. This does not say men are to not enjoy this Hill, but men are to see this Hill for its worth. It is not just a plot of ground. It is a place God has planned for men to walk upon and gain Grace.

Every dwelling here is to depict God’s Love, God’s Generosity, God’s Flexibility, God’s Grace, God’s Trust.

Every place is to radiate Divine Grace, Divine Love. This Hill of Hope is to extend God's Hand to man. It is not a place where commercialism will be. It is a place that must be entered, making all children conscious of the Souls God gave to each.

Man, in hearing words, looks for his own definition, or the definition of another human being. Very often, The Heavenly Father, in using a word, means ten million times more than man could mean; for instance, the word 'Grace'. The definition of this has been set down in a particular way, but The Heavenly Father's Meaning of this word has so much more meaning than man could ever say.

Everything about Heaven, Everything that God desires for His children, Everything that is taught through This Miracle of Mine, is extending man's scope to The Divine. It is teaching man God's Great Realm. It is showing man, in many ways, God's Power. It is encouraging man to lean upon God alone.

More men must come to This Miracle of Mine. They must come in droves to hear the Words so sublime.

They must stand and listen, they must sit and listen, they must kneel and listen to the Teachings that will be.

Oh, My children, you live in a time of great heresy. You live in a time of weakness. You live in a time where man has accustomed himself to leaning upon man, forgetting the Strength of God, the Power of God, the reason of the physical.

Man forgets very easily, and sometimes, in man's forgetting, he rejects God's Way completely. He says: 'I am not ready for This Miracle. I do not want to give up life,' but what man does not understand is This Miracle will give man life. It will give men Truth to cling to. It is Security for the world, and if the learned men will begin to look into the parallels It is, and look to the parables It says, It delivers, they will see the Hand of God. They will see the Truth of The Holy Trinity, and they will see the necessity for this Hill of Hope, but so many men are afraid of This Miracle. They are afraid to come forth because they are afraid they will become involved in the Truth It is. We watch innocent children being distracted from It because the evil one does not want them to come near It, and they have become so used to leaning upon man that they do not seek out the Truth that is always Here, Where I am.

Throughout time, there has been no great announcement about Me. I have remained in the Heavens, and through a few children, I have worked Miraculously, but the time is now that I have come to the world in a Manner of Great Importance to man, and I come to the world at God's Command, for it is His Will that it be this way.

As I become known throughout the world, men will seek out this child to find out who she is and why she would be chosen and not another one, and many men would say, 'She would not be my choice.' She knows this; We have prepared her in this way, but in her obedience to the Commands from Here, she must do only what We say. I am as One with her; All of Heaven is as One with her. She is a fork We use to gather the Souls to come Here, and the more you understand this way We think of her, the more you will understand the work that must be done through her, and the more you will want to be part of the fork that she is.

Oftentimes, when I lift the little fork, her tiredness says, 'Unless You hold me, I cannot remain firm.' I smile at her and I say: 'I extend the strength you need today. Obey Me.' And that is how she lives, in constant obedience to Us, constant listening for Our Entrance. The Entrance is different than anyone has ever experienced. It is a pouring in of a Divine Being with a human child, and that is why it is so instant, so spontaneous, so flexible, and so enjoyable when you listen, for We become part of her whole body, every inch of it.

As I stand Here in the Heavens, I fully understand your needs. There is no part of you We do not know. There is no thought you have We do not see. So keep in mind, My children, that to have a strength, you must stay close to The Holy Trinity, and as you stay close to Them, you are close to Us. It is God's Way, God's Will, it be done thus.

And All the Angels in Heaven are fully aware of this child's presence, and oftentimes when They come through her, she shuts Them out. We smile at this, for there is a slight difference in how she feels with Them.

I cannot describe This Miracle so Profound, in detail, to everyone around, but I have told you much today, and in the telling, I have given you Grace. Do not try to understand this Grace, but accept It with love It was given, and help It to grow by growing in love with The Holy Trinity. Each child must learn of The Holy Trinity. Each child must begin to see the Beauty of The Holy Trinity, and every child in the world must begin to accept God for What He Is, Who He Is, The Power He Is.

Oh, My children, I bless you for your work in This Miracle of Mine. I bless you for the Truth you must stand in, and I bless you in Truth, for that is how all things must be handled in This Miracle Divine. No untruths, no falsehood must ever be shown, be handed out, be given, be extended, be thought about. This Miracle is Truth. God is All Truth. I bless you with My Protection, and I say to each of you, 'Stay close to Me, My little ones, and I will protect you.' So be it."

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“My beloved children, do not follow man, for when you do, you lend your weakness to him, and the weakness combined is no strength to you nor him. Do not allow man to walk with you at all times but find time to walk alone, for when you do, this will be a time to meditate on God’s Will for you. Do not allow others to be solely the example for you, for when you do, you will find that many times their example is not good for you. Do not permit yourselves to become so engrossed in what others do that you forget what God wants of you.

Oh, My children, I am Saint Athanasius, and I walked in a time of great heresy. I walked in a time when men had to know truth, and I walked in a time where children such as you were beginning to follow the wrong path, the wrong way. I come to the world again through this child, and I say, ‘The Arianism of My time is the heresy of your day.’ Be aware of what other men can lead you to do, and be conscious of the untruth that you can fall into, absorb, and become a part of.

Oh, My children, keep in mind the Beauty of Sainthood, and know that as you walk in the physical world, God has destined for you to be a Saint. I love you. I am Saint Athanasius. So be it.”

SAINT AUGUSTINE

“Each child in My Presence here was born in the same manner, was born with the same things, was born out of God’s Love, and was born with the Gift of Faith instilled within the heart. Many men would argue this point, but this is truth, and that is why, when God says, ‘All men are born equal,’ He means just this: Faith in a Supreme Being. When you were conceived, at the moment of conception you were given a will, you were given a Soul, a body, and a Guardian Angel, and yes, My children, you were given Faith. How this Faith grows is up to you. How much you grow in love with God depends upon your will.

I am a Saint Here in the Heavens and I walked the path as you. I walked a treacherous road, for sometimes I began to fall; sometimes I truly fell. I am Saint Augustine. I speak My Name quietly and yet firmly. I do not say, ‘Use my example for your day,’ for many times I could have used my time to grow in love with God, in love with The Divine, but instead I selfishly looked my way and I said, 'I love You, God, but I love myself more today.' I was skeptical, I was critical, I was selfish in many ways. How many in My Presence here can say this of themselves today, or can you say you love God so much that you would give your life for Him today? There is no child in My Presence here who can honestly say that from the waking moment until now, you offered your physical totally to God and to His Crown.

As I come through this child on this night to say the Words of Wisdom, the Words to alert you to a special way, I come with a Love Far Beyond the one you know, Far Deeper than the one you feel for anyone you know. You see, My Love is now governed by The Divine. God has given the world Saints to see, to know, to pray to, for so many children must be assured that the physical life has Purpose. We are example of this for We walked the physical road.

Some of you have made many mistakes. Some of you are not yet willing to give up these mistakes. Some of you are very weak; and some, not ready to gain strength. Some of you say, 'To love God is to rob me of life, my way.' Not so, My children. Loving Him is a freedom you cannot know, is a strength nothing else can give. Try it and you will love it. I promise you so.

As I stand Here in the Heavens, We are busy helping children come This Way for God does not allow you to be alone for one moment. Whether you are asleep or awake, the time is precious to God, for He knows the evil one is constantly trying to gain your Soul, to get his way with you. Do not be so prideful that you say you need no help any day, but seek Us out. Come to Us and We will help you in every way.

This Miracle that has been set upon the earth for each child here, and each child throughout the world, is to make Saints of everyone. It is not too late. I beg of you, I beseech you that on this night you promise God with all your might that you will be a Saint and share His Light, but do it with humility, do it with love, do it with obedience, and do it with trust in His Way. I beseech you on this night: Promise God that you will pray, promise Him that you will use every moment of every day to grow to be a Saint His Way. And how to do it? Easy, My children, use the will that God gave you; there is no other way for you. When you awakened on this day, it was your will who brought you to your feet. It was your will that made you eat. It was your will that made you work. It was your will that made you do the tasks today. So keep in mind, My children, that it will be your will that will help you be a Saint. So be it.”

FEBRUARY 24, 1972 AT 7:53 P.M.

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“My children, I am Saint Alphonsus. I know it is unusual to you to hear so readily so Many Saints come to you. I know it is unusual to hear the Words direct from Here, but I promise you the Truth of Them, the Wisdom that They are, and that no man could compare.

I walked the earth in troubled times, but I walked the earth saddened by the love of the human way. I walked the earth, praying desperately the Souls I loved in the physical way would understand the love I had for God in my little way, but few truly understood the pull I had toward the Divine Way. The hurts were many, the sorrows much, and I did have to pray, and I say to you on this night, ‘The obstacles that you have, the sorrows that you know, can be cured, can be helped, if you will but take the time to pray.’ Do not be so busy, so preoccupied with the world that you forget to talk to God, to tell Him what you want, and how you feel about the physical.

Oh, My children, you are not being taught the beauty of the childlike way, the reward of this way; the beauty of obedience to the Ten Commandments that are as much a part of your day as they were Mine in My day. You are not being taught the beauty of Faith, the beauty of Hope, the beauty of Charity. You are not being taught the beauty of Trust in God's Way. You are being smothered by overindulgence in man's way, overindulgence in the sensitive parts of the body, overindulgence in many things to please the human eye, the human touch, the human pride. I beg of you on this night to forget these things. I beg of you on this night to ask God to help you rid yourselves of these things. Strip yourselves, My children, of the weaknesses you have, of the weakness you are, and grow so deeply in love with God that you will want to see only the Beatific Vision, of What It is.

Children in the world fear death, because they say, 'What lies beyond?' You have been promised Sainthood; you have been promised the Vision so far from what any man knows. Look forward to this Vision; It is One of Such Greatness. Look forward to the Light that God shows, and do not let others play with your Soul, for when you do, satan is the one who grows. Do not be part of him and do not respect him in any way, and do not respond to the foolishness he is, for believe Me, children, he hates you. He cannot love you for he envies you. The pride he has is one alone. He will never be rid of this pride.

I beg of you on this night, keep close to you the Words you have learned, the Meaning that They were, the Magnitude Each One was, and promise yourselves to only see His Light.

I bless you with My priestly way, and keep in mind, My children, that when the Man of God does bless you, it is Christ Himself that bestows the Grace, the Blessing, each time this man does raise his hand in the manner of the Cross. So be it.”

FEBRUARY 24, 1972 AT 8:01 P.M.

OUR LORD

“My children, I am The Son of The Father, and as I stand Here in the Heavens I look over all the children of the world. I see them performing acts that were painful to Me a long time ago. Every blow that I suffered was forty times more than man would feel it, and when they whipped Me, each blow was forty times the strength that you know. It had to be this way, for you see, I could not have suffered enough, just man’s way, to save the world. The sufferings could only have been endured with My Love for God before Me at all times, for I knew He wanted every Soul that He would allow to be born to the world.

I speak through this child. She is of flesh and I use her to reach you. If I came into the room physically, it would still be up to you to use your will to save your Soul. I could not be closer than I am now, and I desire each child here and throughout the world to be more conscious of the Soul that is much a Part of you.

No child kneels in prayer, desiring help, that We do not hear. No child's heart beats that We do not control the beat in a way you cannot know, in a manner far beyond what you could comprehend. Only God can make a man, a Soul. Man has begun an all-out act to compete with God. Man cannot last. Man does not govern the Life of God, but God governs the life of man.

Through your will you will be a Saint. If I were to hand each child in this room a crown with jewels, some of you would throw it away, not realizing the value. You would be skeptical of its worth. Some would even be jealous of the other child's crown. Is this not so? And some of you would wait for another man to throw his away, and go get it, and you would hoard the crown in a selfish way.

And that is why a Miracle such as This has been given in such a natural way, with each child able to share an amount of It, the Depth of It, the Magnitude of It, the Beauty of It. Each Word you read, dictated by Us, can give you strength. Do not be prideful and say, 'It cannot be God's Way,' for you see, My children, We give you things We know will help you, and in a manner and in a way that you can handle it in your little way.

This Miracle of a Beloved Son, Who was My physical Father, is given to the world to give all men strength, no matter what color, no matter what creed, no matter what personality. All Saints have been requested by The Father to speak through this child. All Heaven has been alerted to the Greatness of This Miracle and to the reason for It, and The Miracle is to let the world know of This Beloved Saint. He must be Honored, He must be Revered, and He must become known for What He Was and Who He Is.

I will not hang upon the Cross again, for the Gates of Heaven are opened to all men, but This Miracle has been set forth upon the earth to express God's Love and to teach men the physical worth. Take advantage of It, My children, and as you do, pass the Truth to others so they will join you in Heaven Where I am.

The Power that is used through this child to reach you is one alone. No man can duplicate It, no man can analyze It, just as no man can analyze nor duplicate God's Love.

I love you much, for one day I died for each of you in a physical touch. I suffered forty times more each blow, and each thorn that dug into My Head was forty times greater, for it took this much suffering to free your Souls so They could one day come Here.

Let no man teach you untruth about Our Gift to you, so when you receive this Gift it is truly Us Who come within you. When I stood with men such as you and I performed this Act of Change, I did it as the First Example for others to follow, so they could give you the Ultimate Gift from Us. Nothing in My physical life was unnecessary, was sinful; it all had Great Worth, Great Meaning. Oh, My children, be wise to the wrong around, and accept the Truth that you learned through This Miracle of Our Beloved Saint.

I bless you with God's Love and I bless you with My Heart, for it was through this Heart I was able to suffer the blows, the disgrace; and I bless you with the Light of Truth, the Light that is only God's Way. So be it."

FEBRUARY 27, 1972 AT 7:20 P.M.

OUR LORD

“Man says, ‘What difference is it, if I believe or I do not believe in how God would work?’ Man says, ‘Why should I have to believe in something so phenomenal, something so outlandish, something so different than I know things to be?’ Man says: ‘Why do I have to care about a woman like this? She says she walks for The Divine,’ but what these men do not know is that the child is not saying this; it is I, for you see, My children, I am The Son of God, and I come to you on this night with a Great Love, a Deep Love, a Divine Love, for through this child, a Saint will be shown, a Saint will become known, a Saint will be seen. Through the delicate manner she is, through the smallness she is, man will begin to see the Power of The Holy Three.

Thousands upon thousands upon thousands upon thousands upon thousands upon thousands upon thousands upon thousands upon thousands upon thousands, triple this amount, this will be the amount that must come to The Miracle for Him. Oh, My children, you have been Blessed much in the closeness you are to This Miracle of Us, to the closeness you see of The Divine Three, and for the personal touch that This Miracle is for you.

My children, I walked the world in a human form because The Father Willed it so, and then I left the world in the human form to come Here, Where I am Eternally with Him Who Is. I am The Sacred Heart, I am The Son of Saint Joseph, I am The Second Person of The Blessed Trinity, and I say this openly to each of you here, to let you know the Places in which I have stood and I stand.

And now, the world must know of This Obedient Man, Who is now The Highest Saint in Heaven, beneath The Heavenly Queen. Oh, My children, you partake in a Miracle of Greatness, a Miracle of All Truth, a Miracle of Divine Love. So be it.”

FEBRUARY 27, 1972 AT 7:48 P.M.

SAINT JAMES

“My children, I am Saint James. I speak through this child at a moment’s notice. I attract her attention to Me through the Power of God, and I come to you to say many things. This Miracle, in such a natural manner, is truly Divine. No child in the world walks as she walks, so closely connected with The Divine. She has been so fully prepared to receive Us, for God The Father knew, God The Son knew, that she would accept His Will. As I come through her on this night, it is to teach you and to tell you what is right.

For centuries God has planned This Miracle to be among man. This Miracle is to draw mankind to the Feet of God, to the chair Where He is. This Miracle is to set men’s thinking straight and to correct the heresy that is all around. There are so many learned men being dragged into the abyss of Hell, because of their pride in what they know, because of the learnings they have, because they followed others who taught wrong.

My children, as I stand Here in the Heavens, I speak through her in a natural manner that is far from this. As the Power comes through her, My Words reach you.

You live in a time of great sorrow, a time of great sin, a time that many men will have to turn and think of what is right, what is truth; a time when man will have to begin to think of what direction he is going, and a time when man will have to see that there is a great wrong in the world, that satan is trying to gain power over all things. Man must understand that through these hazardous times, he must lean only on God and The Divine.

You see, My children, I was man and I walked the world as such, and there were many times in the way I lived, in the time I lived, that men tried to drag me down to the abyss of Hell. It was only through my love for Him Who Is that I was able to stand upon my feet and fight them in every way. It was only through His Love that I was able to become a Saint.

Oh, My children, first each day, say to God how much you love Him and to thank Him for the day, and as the day progresses along its way, keep in mind the dignity of loving God, the Purpose in the life you have, and the Beauty of the Purpose for you one day. This is important, My children, for men are losing sight of the importance of this fact for each day. So many men are struggling around and trying to lean on other men, when all they have to do is awaken in the morning and say to God:

‘I love You. Stay close to me today. Protect me, God, and do not let me stray.’

These Words are meaningful. These Words are full. These Words say to mankind, ‘This is strength here for you.’

So many things are occurring throughout the world. There are so many men losing their Souls because of a weakness, because of their catering to their weakness. Oh, My children, do not let this be one of you.

I bless you with God’s Love and I say, ‘Awaken each morning and say what I told you to say.’ So be it.”

FEBRUARY 27, 1972 AT 8:00 P.M.

SAINT STEVEN

“I am Saint Steven. Many people in the world would call Me ‘Stephen’, but I do like the name Steven, because a very loved one called Me this in My day.

My children, I am in the Heavens Where God is, and All Things surrounding Him are Bliss, All Things surrounding Him are Love, All Things surrounding Him are Joy and Happiness, All Things surrounding Him are Good, They are Truth, They are Justice.

Know, My children, to be Just is an important measure of life. Many men have false justice towards each other. So many men depend upon the justice of others and they find that the other one was not so just, and as I come to you on this night, I say: ‘All children should be aware of the Justice of God. All children should be aware of how He works only in truth, only for the good of all mankind.’

Oh, My children, as I walked the earth there were many weaknesses, and in these weaknesses men showed pride, men showed arrogance, men showed defiance, men showed knowledge, but so few realized that wisdom is different.

In This Miracle Of This Beloved Saint Joseph, All Heaven has been able to come forward and speak What God Wills spoken. This Miracle is to save mankind from the snares of the evil one, from the jealousy he projects, from the envy he is, from the lack of hope all things are, surrounding him.

I have requested that God allow Me to speak. He granted Me My wish. I have spoken before, many times. This child must be seen, must be heard, for through her, a Beloved Saint will become known throughout the world. We All love Him very much, for you see, He is One of God's Favored Souls.

I bless you with Divine Love and I bless you with Truth. I bless you with the Light of the Heavens that God gives to you. So be it."

FEBRUARY 27, 1972 AT 8:05 P.M.

SAINT COLUMBKILLE

“I am Saint Columbkille. Many, many children do not know of Me, but I come on this night because God Wills it, to teach you what is right.

Be conscious, My children, the Beauty of Heaven. Be conscious of the Will of God. Be conscious of all things that are in His Way, His Will, His Plan, and if you follow this way of life, you will enjoy Sainthood one day.

So many children are not being taught the Beauty that awaits them. So many are being told that the physical life is just that, and when it ends there is no more. This must change.

Children enjoy having a better place to go. Children enjoy a goal. Children enjoy beauty, and when they are encouraged to save their Souls so they will enjoy the Beauty of Heaven, you will find the world change, and you will find a drive to do God’s Will. This is one of the reasons, the main one, for This Miracle of such Great Magnitude; that is, My children, to save Souls. So be it.”

MARCH 4, 1972 AT 10:15 P.M.

SAINT GEORGE

“My beloved children, challenge is something most men love to accept. Beauty is one thing that all men easily accept. Love is something that all men desire. Let Me say this now to you, ‘To serve God is not challenge, for you see, My children, it is love.’ Please, as you gather in this room on this night, and you enjoy in such a grand way the physical delights, be in love with God, for He is All Beauty, He is All Love.

I am a Saint that has never announced My Name. I come to this child for the first time on this night. I lived a long time ago. I lived in a time when many men struggled against the heresy all around. The Heavenly Father has requested I speak tonight, and as I do, I say, ‘My Name when I was upon the earth carried, partly, George.’

There are so many facets of My life that men would like to explore, but as I stand Here in the Heavens now, I say to each one here: ‘Enjoy the physical that you have and use it to bring you Here. Enjoy the beauty God gives you, for you see, He expects you to enjoy the beauty of the world, for He promises All Beauty in Heaven, so He, too, enjoys beauty.'

I bless you with His Love and I say, 'Enjoy the physical in every way.' Keep in mind when you enjoy, that God is ever by your side, and never do one thing against The Commandments He gave to you, and never let your weakness be your joy, for when you do, you sin. You are loved. So be it for now."

MARCH 6, 1972 AT 4:35 P.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“My sons, My daughters, I am Saint Athanasius. I come in a very strict rule, a very strict way, a very firm stand. You see, the time in which you live, My little ones, is a time in which you must have great strength, great purpose, and you must begin to know that you stand on the threshold of Hell, for you see, satan is working hard to gain your Soul. And now, on this day, make a promise to yourselves, make a promise to God, that you will do all things in your way to serve Him, to do His Will, and to show your love for Him.

There are many, many things yet to be done for the good of mankind, and you are a part of a great army of people, of men, of truth, of service, of love. It is a privilege, My children, to be a part of this great army that follows Saint Michael to lead all men to the Feet of God.

As I stand Here in the Heavens, I lived in a time of great trouble, and I look back upon it and I see that you, too, live in a time similar to this. You must understand that to form an army for man, it is formed in a different way, but to form an army for God, it means you must pray. You must have confidence in Him, in His Way. You must obey the Ten Commandments and you must see truth. You must look for it and not follow all the things that other men say. Look to God above all things. Depend upon God before all things, and accept His Will, and do not allow yourselves to procrastinate in serving Him, for if you do, you could lose your Soul.

I bless you with God's Love, but I bless you with a firm Truth: Follow God's Way and you will be a Saint one day. So be it."

MARCH 8, 1972 AT 10:53 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved children, there is no home in the world where I stand as I do here. I am Saint Joseph. Unbeknownst to you, I was not the only One Who greeted you. The Heavenly Mother touched each child and The Divine Son Blessed each one.

This Miracle is to show mankind the way of obedience, the way of trust, the way of truth. This Miracle is to give man strength, courage. This Miracle is to correct the heresy in the world. This Miracle is to help clear the world. You see, My children, you live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah.

Man, when he becomes dirty working in the soil, he can cleanse himself readily; but when man allows his weaknesses to cause him to sin, it is not an easy matter to cleanse himself, unless, of course, he accepts the Sacrament of Penance to do this. Man, when he is rude to another man, says, ‘I am sorry.’ When man is rude to God, he says nothing. Keep this in mind. You must be kind to your God. You must ask His Forgiveness at all times and you must learn the act of humility in all ways.

Sodom and Gomorrah was built on weakness. Sodom and Gomorrah was filled with pride. Sodom and Gomorrah was ugly with sin. Sodom and Gomorrah forgot purity. Sodom and Gomorrah ignored God. Sodom and Gomorrah had to be wiped away. The time in which you live is worse than Sodom and Gomorrah. Ask yourselves, My little ones, if, on this day, you made 'The Sign of The Cross', saying, 'I love You, God, Your Way'?

When man was born to the world, at the moment of conception he was given a will. This will that each one has is the strength and the power of the human way. Some men use their will for only self-love. Other men use their will to turn God's Way.

This Miracle of Mine has been given to the world to show mankind the Beauty of Sainthood, the Personal Love of God. This Miracle of Mine is to renew men's thinking in The Holy Trinity, Which is Divine. This Miracle of Mine is to cleanse the world of the falsehoods, the untruths that man has accepted, for you see, My children, to stand for Truth you very often have to stand alone.

As I speak through this child, I speak with a Love and in a Love you cannot know, for It is God's. All Things He is, He gave man to a degree. He made man to His Image and Likeness, and each of you in this home of Mine is to His Likeness. You are a trinity. Your Soul is to you as The Father is to The Trinity, the Ultimate One. Your body is to you as The Son is to The Trinity, the Human One, the One with the Heart, the One with the Will. Your Guardian Angel is to you as The Holy Ghost is to The Trinity, the Guardian, the Guide, the One Who works for God, the Light for you.

As I have spoken to you today through this child, I am prepared to say millions of Words through her. As This Miracle progresses, it is to show men all over the world God's Love. It is to make Me known as God Wills it to be. Men will come from all over the world to the place where this child is. Keep in mind, My children, that God, when He delivers Truth, He spreads the Word in a way no man can, for the Truth is on the Winds of His Power and He lays It in every land.

I have greeted you, I have Blessed you and I have taught you, and now I will leave in a verbal way, but I say to you on this day: ‘Keep in mind, My children, Who God Is, and All the things that He does say, and when you leave My home, keep in mind and refresh your thinking about
The Rules that The Father laid down,
The Ten Commandments, for through These, your obedience to These, you will become a Saint.’

I bless you with God’s Love and I bless you with Truth. I bless you with Faith and I say, ‘I truly love you.’
So be it.”

SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

“My children, My loved ones, God’s Love, I am Saint John The Baptist and I have spoken often through this child. Many children are ignoring the Sacrament that is so important to God and so important to the Soul. If you know someone who is, speak up. Suggest what you know should be done and try very hard to see that it is. At first you will meet opposition; truth does, but bear in mind one thing, that as the physical is arguing with you, the Soul is pleading with you to continue to speak up.

Man so often faces man just as man. The next time you face man, face him looking at the Soul. The Soul is not an imaginary part of man; the Soul is a Very Important Part of man. The Soul must be fed, It must be cared for, It must be nourished. When you leave this home today, I beg of you, My children, remember the Sacrament that cleanses, that gives life, for when you remember this, you will desire to work for God with all your might.

When I walked the land, I was as you, but one day I felt the love of God, as you will do. God now is forming an army of men, and in each hand He is placing a Sword. The Sword is love for Him, and as you leave this home of The Beloved Saint Joseph, you will have the Sword with you, for there are Many Angels and Many Saints present in this home, and each one of you will be given the Sword by One.

I bless you with God's Love and I say: 'The wrong thinking that is being done on this Sacrament of such Greatness must be stopped today. Children must be baptized in the proper order, in the proper way, and it must be a Sacrament, not just the whim of a prideful man.' So be it."

MARCH 8, 1972 AT 11:12 A.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“My children, I am Saint Athanasius. I lived in a time of great heresy, and now you also live in a time such as this. It will be this army that the beloved Saint John The Baptist spoke about that will wipe out the heresy all around; the army of love for God, the army of truth for Him, the army reaching for purity, the army that carries only truth. You are chosen on this day to walk in this army. How many of you will lag behind? How many of you will be afraid? How many of you will not take the Sword given to you today?”

I walked alone in My day and I fought, sometimes to the point of exhaustion, but now I stand Here in the Heavens and I give you the strength to fight as I once fought, for you see, I lived in a time of Arian heresy. You live in a time equal to this.

I bless you with the Sword that you were handed by Saint John The Baptist, and I say, ‘Let this Sword grow so large, so when you reach Heaven you will say, “God, help Me carry the Sword that I have for You today.” So be it.”

MARCH 8, 1972 AT 11:16 A.M.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“My beloved children, I, too, greeted you at the door. Where else would I be at a time like this? I am your Heavenly Mother.

As I speak through this child, I speak with a Love for you deeper than you know, for as this home has been placed in this particular spot for The Beloved Saint Joseph, I share it with Him, as I did the home in the world. We lived in the world as a Family; and as The Heavenly Father designed This Miracle, He designed It for all Three of Us to partake in, to stand before you in a loving way.

This Miracle has a Depth you cannot know and It has a Love that is Heaven’s Glow. Many centuries have gone by and The Beloved Saint Joseph has stayed within the Heavens, waiting only, willing only to do God’s Will. The Holy Trinity has designed this time to be for Him.

In all My Visions throughout the world, I have requested children to come to Me through My Holy Rosary.

Some have, some have not. Some are unwilling to spend a few moments with Me each day.

I stand in the Heavens, greeting all Souls, helping Them to come This Way. As you stand in this home, this dwelling, this place, and someone in this room were to faint, you would know, you would feel a little sad. If someone in this room were to die in the world, it would upset you. Is this not so?

We, Here in the Heavens, each day watch Souls leave the world and go right to Hell where there is no hope, there is no love; and Those Who are sent to Purgatory, the one strength They have there is hope, and if I had My Way, I would take Them All within My Garment and draw Them to the Feet of God, His Way, but I must be obedient to His Rules so when a Child arrives Here, They are cleansed, They are purified. It must be this way. This Miracle of The Beloved Saint is to show children that they can begin the purification, the cleansing, right here on earth, and they do not have to wait to have it done in Purgatory.

My Rosary I love, for each time the child says it, the child says, ‘Hail Mary, full of Grace.’ Do you not like a friend to say ‘Hello’ to you? I love it from My children such as you. It is not a monotonous prayer. It is a prayer of love, it is a prayer of hope, it is a prayer of truth, it is a prayer designed to help each one of you.

I bless you with My Rosary and I bless you with Hope, and I bless you through The Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph; and I ask you on this day to carry the Sword Saint John gave you today, for as you do, you will help other men escape Hell and perhaps not touch Purgatory. So be it.”

MARCH 8, 1972 AT 1:28 P.M.

OUR BLESSED MOTHER

“My children, I come to you on this day for the second time. I am your Mother, and as all mothers are concerned with their children’s way, their children’s lives, their children’s futures, I am concerned with yours: the work for This Beloved Saint Whom We All love and Whom Our God loves much. This Miracle must show Heaven’s Truth, Heaven’s Perfection, Heaven’s Magnitude, and you must participate in a way, as you have never participated in your physical lives.

Many men will come to This Miracle, showing little Faith. Many men will come to This Miracle, desiring Faith, and many men will come to This Miracle, deep in Faith, but skeptical in how God would work man’s way. Many men will come to This Miracle, eager to learn, eager to be helped, eager to satisfy, eager to serve, eager to be obedient, eager to trust, and they must see the wholesomeness, the sincerity, the love, the joy, the happiness, that walking close to This Miracle gives to you each day.

Many men will be critical of This Miracle. It is not a lack of Faith in some, but a pride in what they feel they have. Man interprets all things differently than God, and man tries to inject human thoughts, human ways, human personality. This cannot be allowed in This Miracle that is marked as 'The Miracle of Hope'.

The child through whom I speak is a child who must serve endlessly, and in blindness you cannot know. The child serves each day, ready to submit to the Will of God, His Way. It is, in many ways, the redoing of Calvary; of course, man will not be able to see it in this manner, for man looks to the easy way. Man tries to show all things as casual, as natural, and man fears in many ways, justice; in many ways, suffering; in many ways, perseverance in things of this manner.

All Heaven has come forward to perpetuate This Great Miracle. You have heard Many Words, you have seen change in many people. You have desired change in many you love. Keep Faith, My children, and remain in hope, for hope is what you have to cling to. Prayer is what will sustain you.

There are thousands that must come through this home where We will dwell and where His Beloved Name, His Beloved Way will be shown to all men. We will greet each one, We will bless each one, and We will teach each one God's Way. Children will begin to know that this house, this home, belongs to a Beloved Saint. A statuary of Him stands out, and this is what they will look for, and they will look for the lights to show them the way, the human lights, and once they enter, they will look for the Light of Heaven to show them the Supernatural Way.

There are thousands of children, thousands upon thousands, desiring, beseeching God to show them the Way to Him. You do not know of these children, but they are praying and they are asking God to show them, in some way, through some means, His Truth, His Love, His Desires; and here where you are is His Answer to them.

So, as the Hill of Hope is as the Star of Bethlehem was, this home is the guiding point, the Ray of Light that shines from the Hill of Hope, leading all mankind to God.

I bless you with My Motherly Love and I bless you for the prayers you say to save Souls so They will come God's Way. So be it."

MARCH 9, 1972 AT 7:31 P.M.

SAINT DOMINIC

“My beloved sons, My beloved daughters, Heaven is overjoyed through This Miracle. Heaven is happy to come forward to children such as you. All The Saints in Heaven have been alerted to This Miracle of such Great Power.

I am Saint Dominic. As I stand in the Heavens, I speak to you. I speak to you on a level and in terms you can understand. I speak through a child's physical and I use her to reach you. Through This Miracle of Great Hope, Great Love, Great Truth, All Heaven is teaching children of all kinds the Wisdom God wants children to know.

My children, in many ways, the Holy Rosary is a dedication that God wants all men to have. All of you present who do not say these Beads, please, learn to love them, for you see, they bring Souls This Way. Many children say, ‘I do not like the Beads, they are passe.’ This is not so. The Beads are truly loved by God and they are truly a weapon against the evil one.

As you entered this home tonight, you were Blessed, for, My children, this is the home of The Beloved Saint Joseph, and this is how this home will become known to all men.

Keep in mind that as you walk through the day, you must communicate with Here in some way. The favored way of The Beloved Holy Trinity are these: First, you must receive The Holy Eucharist, for as you do, you receive The Holy Trinity. This will give you strength, This will give you help in all ways; and then, a prayer loved by All Here is the Holy Rosary. Please, My children, keep in mind the beauty of purity, the beauty of your way, and say to each other, ‘Remember, say the Holy Rosary today.’

I bless you with My Love, but I bless you with The Heart of Jesus and I bless you with the Holy Rosary. So be it for today.”

MARCH 9, 1972 AT 7:36 P.M.

SAINT ANNE

“My beloved children, I am your Heavenly Grandmother. Most children do not refer to Me as this, but because I am the mother of your Beloved Blessed Mother, I am your Heavenly Grandmother. I am Saint Anne.

The whole world is alerted to This Miracle. The whole world is responding to It, for you see, My children, it is God’s Will that you draw close to Us. It is God’s Will that We come to you in a personal way. Satan is working hard all over the world to gather Souls to spend eternity in Hell. It will be through This Miracle that Souls will rise above their weaknesses and reach for God’s Love, and that is why We have All come forward to help in this way.

The Heavenly Father has designed this day to be. You are partaking in a Miracle of Love, for you see, My children, My speaking to you is truly a Miracle. If I were to appear in the room, I would frighten some. Some of you would die of shock and some of you would run away, and that is why The Heavenly Father has chosen this way to come to you in a personal way, so you could well understand What is said and the Direction you must take this day.

I am your Grandmother and I do care. I care because you are God's Love. Each child present here, and throughout the world, was created from His Love and through It. My children, at the moment of conception, a child is given the Greatest Gift he can have. A child is given a Soul. Each child here now has a Soul. Many days you ignore this Great Gift. Is this not so? If a man were to walk into this room and hand each of you a great jewel, you would be elated over it. Some of you would be frightened to carry this jewel at a distance, and many of you would worry over protection for it. Is this not so? Then, My children, why do you not protect the Jewel that God gave you at the moment of your conception? The Jewel, as you readily know, is your Soul.

When you leave this home tonight, keep in mind, you walked in with a Great Jewel and you walk out with the awareness of It. Please, My children, polish the Jewel, take care of It and thank God each day for It. And if you feel weak in this way, call on Us. We will help you protect It, and yes, shine It to a glow. Keep in mind, your Heavenly Grandmother stands ready at all times to do this with you. I cannot polish the Jewel for you, but in My Love for you, I will work with you on It and I will join with you in the polishing of It.

I bless you with God's Love and I bless you with Hope, and I bless you with the desire to polish the Jewel God gave you. So be it."

MARCH 9, 1972 AT 7:43 P.M.

SAINT BERNADETTE

“For the little ones who are present here, I have asked The Beloved Father to speak. I am Saint Bernadette. When I was a very small child The Heavenly Mother approached me. I was frightened when I saw Her. And then, when the Vision became more frequent, there was less fear within me and more desire to see Her.

And so it is in your day, My little ones. You must become acquainted with the Beauty of Heaven. You must become acquainted with the Beauty that All Saints are, and you must be aware of the Greatness of The Holy Trinity, and you must look, always, to Our Heavenly Mother, wherever you are.

Many times, when you are alone, you could offer this time in prayer; and many times The Heavenly Mother is whispering in your ear, ‘Say the Rosary and hold it dear,’ but you ignore these words, is this not so? for you allowed distraction of earthly way to come to you.

On this night, in your time and in your day, I beseech you to pray the Holy Rosary each day. And as I speak direct to the children present here, I did not eliminate those who are of many years, for you see, in God's Eyes all children are children to Him. Keep this in mind as you walk each day.

I stand Here in the Heavens and I encourage children to say the Beads that The Heavenly Mother loves to hear the children say, for you see, She stands with Her Hand outstretched, leading Souls This Way. Children do not know the Power of the Rosary. Children think it is just a prayer. This is not so. There are many Souls in Purgatory now Who are waiting for your Rosary today. Sometimes The Heavenly Mother has to say, 'Wait, Child, for more Rosaries must come Your way.' Keep this in mind as you go through the day, for that one Rosary you might say could be the one to release a Soul that day.

I bless you with God's Love and I bless you with Mine, and I say, 'The vision tonight was not with your eyes, but with your ears and your heart,' and you knew it was right for Me to say, 'Pray the Holy Rosary every day.'"

MARCH 9, 1972 AT 7:48 P.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“To many in the room, My Name is familiar. My Way is also familiar. I am Saint Francis of Assisi. I come to you on this night to prepare you for many things. I come on this night to prepare you to say, ‘God, let Your Will be mine today.’ I come on this night to tell you of God’s Love. I come on this night to say to you, ‘Sainthood waits for you Above.’ God does not say to each man here, ‘Suffer the Wounds of My Way,’ but He does say, ‘Use your will to do Mine, and then come This Way.’

There are many learned children in My Presence here, and many of them are so endowed with privileges that God gave them, and now I say, ‘Use these privileges and use this knowledge to teach others of God’s Way.’ So many children are being taught untruth today. It is easy to speak an untruth, but ask yourselves on this night, why have you not trained yourselves to speak only truth?

When I walked the land, I walked in a difficult way and I walked alone in many ways. There are some men in this room tonight dedicated to My Way. I know this for I have heard them pray. Many times, when I was in rags, men would ridicule me in a funny way. They would laugh at me, they would smirk and they would call me names, for they did not see my heart or the reason why I walked this way.

Oh, My children, on this night I say to you: ‘The Way to Heaven is one of doing God’s Will. It is sacrifice, obedience, and trust in His Way. It is tolerance of others in your day.’

I bless you with God’s Love and I say, ‘Be blessed through This Miracle of The Beloved Saint, and as you go your way, be prepared; this is God’s Will, His Way.’ So be it.”

MARCH 9, 1972 AT 7:52 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved children, I am Saint Joseph. I speak through this child on this night for many reasons. For many of you, this is the first time you have come to This Miracle of Mine. This Miracle has been set forth upon the earth to give man the Way to Heaven.

As you entered you did not see Us. You were aware of a physical touch. You were aware of a physical place. It was The Heavenly Mother Who greeted you at the door and I was standing next to Her; and behind Her, The Beloved Lord, Our Son, Jesus. We stand in this home. We stand on this earth now, in a way you cannot fully understand, but nonetheless, true. The Heavenly Father has designed this time for each of you. He has asked Us to come to the world to help you rid yourselves of weaknesses, yes, and to learn the beauty of the Way to Here.

You must understand, My children, the time in which you live is a particular time, a particular love for God. You have a chance to become a Great Saint. Some of you in My Presence here will ignore the Words you have heard on this night. Some of you in My Presence here will say, 'How can it be?' Some of you in the room here, in presence on this night, will say, 'It cannot be. God would not act this way.'

And so it was in Our day. When Our Beloved Son was being dragged, forced to the Hill of Calvary, men were saying it could not be that He would be The Son of God, and men were saying, 'It cannot be that He is The Son of God or He would stand up for what is truth.' So, you see, My children, it is now as it was then. It is difficult for man to believe truth. Heaven is teaching on this night this Wisdom. Heaven is giving you the chance to learn what you were given at the beginning.

There is to be a Hill for Me called 'the Hill of Hope'. Many men will fight this Hill. Many men will say, 'This Hill is not necessary,' but believe Me, My children, as you are present in this home, this Hill is necessary, for this Hill is to be the Hill of Hope for all mankind to stand upon it, to learn to pray, to be taught Bible History, God's Way.

The Hill has been designed by The Heavenly Father for Me, and upon this Hill there will be many edifices to help you come Here and spend Eternity.

Upon this Hill there will be a house for pilgrims to stay, a house for pilgrims to stand in, a place for children to pray. And in the Chapel in this place, the Altar will be arranged for the Great Saint Michael to stand before mankind and show the strength. The strength is not a physical strength, My children. The strength He will show is love for God: the Sword of Love, the Sword of Hope.

And then I walk further up this Hill with you, and upon this Hill there is another edifice and this will house many children who will come to retreat from the world and stand on the Hill of Hope; and as children gather here to spend time to renew their love for God, they will leave in a short time, renewed, cleansed, having hope for the physical, hope for the Spiritual.

And now I take you further up this Hill, and upon this Hill there is to be a group of men dedicated to God through Saint John Vianney, and they will bear His Name, and they will bear a Crucifix upon them, showing man that through this Death man was given life, for man could spend Eternity with God.

And upon this Hill there will be another edifice, a place for daughters to be obedient to the Will of God, to spend a life of service.

And now I take you further on this Hill, and there is a great building housing the physical, taking care of the physical ills; and in this place, all men will be dedicated to The Holy Trinity, or they will not be allowed to touch one child who comes to this Hill. They will be eliminated if they have little love for God, for you see, My children, as these men and women help the physical, they must also help the Soul of everyone.

And now I take you further on this Hill, and I take you to the Chapel of Hope, and in this place, God has designed it to be All Saints will be seen. None will be left out. And as this place grows, children will come through these rooms and they will feel God's Hope and they will feel God's Love, for God has truly designed this Hill. In this Chapel to The Beloved Saints, you must walk and you must learn the way They took to become a Saint. They walked the earth as you. Why does man think that to be a Saint you must not have weaknesses? It is the conquering of the weaknesses that makes man a Saint. Remember this, for you see, this room will give you hope.

And now I take you further up this Hill and I take you to the Chapel of The Beloved Mother, and as you enter this Chapel, you will become aware of the Holy Rosary. And all around this Chapel there will be Beads, reminding children to say, 'Hail Mary, full of Grace. I love Thee.'

And now I take you from this Chapel, just for awhile, and I take you to another hill, housing The Holy Trinity. The Father has designed a Place of Honor here for Me, and I am obedient to His Will and I must do what He Wills Me to do.

Oh, My children, by the time you reach the top of this Hill you will see Heaven's wish for you. Graces have poured into this Hill since the Crucifixion Day. Every spot on this Hill must be God's Way. And when you enter this place you will feel the Hand of God, for He will be there in every place. The Chapels all will have dedication to a Particular One. Saint Michael leads the way. Keep this in mind.

And I ask you on this night to pray that the obstacles in the way will cease and God's Will will be done as He planned it one day. He did not plan this Hill for Himself alone. He planned this Hill for man. This Hill is compared to the Hill of Calvary, for there man was given life; and here again, man is given life. Keep this in mind.

I bless you with My Love and I bless you with Hope, and I say to each child here, 'The only thing the Souls in Purgatory have is hope, and God is allowing This Miracle to be, to give man hope before he reaches Purgatory.' So be it."

MARCH 9, 1972 AT 8:03 P.M.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“I have appeared in many places in the world and I have requested children to do certain things. Many children have not obeyed the requests or complied with it. I come to you on this night through The Miracle Of Saint Joseph. I am much evident in This Miracle for I was His Spouse upon the earth. God is allowing man to see the dignity of this state of life. God is requesting that man look to this state of life as a way of His Love, the sharing of Creation with The Holy Trinity.

God has sent This Miracle to the world for many reasons. One is to alert mankind to the dignity of the marriage state, to the beauty that it is, and the reason it was created. It is a state in life that God loves most, for through it many men come into the world. I, your Heavenly Mother, speak to you on this night because I love you.

Nowhere in the world is there a Miracle such as This, and This Miracle is on the Winds of God’s Power. I ask you, My little ones, to think much on this night, for if you do, you will change your way, and you will become more alert to the privilege of the physical way and the Purpose of it. The Teaching that is being done from Heaven is one alone. Children must learn to communicate with God. The reason for the sad state that things are in now is, children have forgotten Who created them and why.

I stand Here in the Heavens, desiring all Souls to come This Way, and I see the conditions of all things, and you truly live in a time worse, My children, than Sodom and Gomorrah. You cannot see it as We do, you cannot feel it as We do, for you are in the midst of it, and you are being drawn into the pits of Hell because of it. There are many men walking the earth now who honor the evil one and do it with their own will. These men are not sure of what they are doing, but they take pleasure in being optimists. Pray for these men. Pray for their Souls, for God wants Them.

There are many Souls in Purgatory now Who are depending upon each child here to release Them with prayer. Ask yourselves, My little ones, on this night, did you waste the day or did you help a Soul come Here?

It is so easy to pray. Use this as an outline, every day: When you awaken in the morning, ask God to help through the day; no effort here, and no time involved, for you can do this in a little way. And then, as you busy yourselves with the necessities of life, offer each act up for a Soul to come This Way. It is not a thing of the past, an act of love; it is a thing of now, for you to do.

Children have become so sophisticated all throughout the world, for they say, 'It is needless to pray.' This is satan's way. There are children right now, committing great sin against The Holy Trinity. There are many involved in this who never think to pray.

You are present on this night because it is God's Will, and I say to you from Heaven: 'Before you lay your head tonight, reach for the Holy Rosary and say the Beads I love to hear, and one day, when you reach Heaven Where I am, I will then give you an accounting of the Souls you helped come This Way.' And keep in mind,

My little ones, that you could be One of these Souls Who needed someone to pray.

As I speak through this child, I speak in Truth, and as I speak through her, I put My Arms around each one of you, for those who came in Faith tonight, in God's Love, you are granted Grace you cannot touch, you cannot feel, you cannot see, but It is there for you to use when there is need. Those of you who came to This Miracle of Hope with little Faith, with little love, with little trust, I touch your hearts with My Immaculate Heart and I say, 'When the Angel appeared to Me and told Me What God Willed, it was the trust that made Me say, "Yes." It was My desire to do His Will.'

And so it can be with you on this night. As I touch you with My Immaculate Heart, be in trust and be in love, for you see, My children, God wants you. So be it."

MARCH 10, 1972 AT 8:45 A.M.

OUR LORD

“I am here and I am often lonesome for children to come and visit Me. Sometimes I whisper to their hearts, sometimes I make a sign openly. I give all children the opportunity to walk in to where I am. They are not being taught the beauty of this freedom or the act of love it is.

Many times I single children out to spend time with Me for I know they will accept My offer and visit The Holy Trinity. My Heart stands in the Tabernacle, ready to appease and ready to please all who come here to visit Me. I do not make It visible for if I did it would frighten children, so I ask each child to trust in Me and how I would be.

Many thousands have been Blessed and will be Blessed through this child by Me. It will be much time before man recognizes this Particular Power of The Divine; nevertheless, it has to be.

As I speak from the Heavens Where I am, I say: ‘Teach This to all children in every land. Give children copies of My Words so they will learn to understand what Truth is, what Wisdom is, and they will take My Hand.'

I bless the world with My Love and I extend My Heart to every child. I am here in the Church I made. Tell children of this and tell them to visit Me each day. So be it."

MARCH 11, 1972

SAINT JOSEPH

“The advantages of This Miracle are far too many to mention this time while I am here with you. Many men are frightened of This Great Miracle. They fear the Truth It is. They fear the Beauty It is. They fear the Magnitude of It, for you see, nowhere in time has such a thing occurred, except, of course, when The Son of The Divine walked the earth. That is why so many men will fight this child, saying she is untrue, saying she walks in fakery. You know that no human could walk as she walks without God sustaining her.

The profit of This Miracle is for man to save his Soul; the Goal of The Miracle, for man to become a Saint. You see, My children, God has designed This Whole Miracle in facet way. Many times one facet will tell a child to pray, and then It will teach the child how to pray. Another facet says, ‘Somewhere you must walk straight to God in a firm way.’

I could go on and on for a long time. I am reaching the child in a delicate way. The tiredness she has is much, and the weariness far greater than man can say.

The difficulties, the problems that are gathering around this quest for this Hill of Hope says satan is working. He does not want this Hill to be, and many learned men will fight this Hill. The child will have to stand alone, and as she does, We will depend upon you to take the Truth and show it where it is.

I, Saint Joseph, say to you, 'I love you. Keep in mind The Miracle of your day and, My children, be sure you pray.' So be it."

MARCH 13, 1972 AT 12:50 P.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“Suddenly the world is faced with Truth. Suddenly the world must face the reality that Heaven Exists. Suddenly the world must recognize that Saints truly are in their midst. Suddenly the world must realize that the Purpose of life is to become a Saint. Suddenly the world has to acknowledge that God has created All things. Suddenly the world must see what all things truly are. Suddenly the world must recognize the wickedness all around. Suddenly the world must be told that satan, the evil one, is rapidly growing in degree.

I, My children, come to you on this day. I am Saint Athanasius, and as I speak through this child, I speak from the Realm of Heaven Where I am. The Power I use is God’s. The Words are the Wisdom of Him.

And now I say: ‘You live in a time of great heresy, and you live in a time when man must have example before him at all times. You live in a time when many children are desiring the Gifts from God. God does not hand them out so easily.'

Many men are walking around, saying that they have the charismatic Gifts from God. This is not so, for you see, when God bestows these Gifts upon a child, God takes care of the child in a particular way, and God protects the mysticism in His Own Way. There are many children running around, saying that they have the Gifts, and they say to each other, 'What is your Gift on this day?' and the child suddenly makes up a Gift. So, you see, it cannot be from God, My children. This is attributing to the heresy in some ways. Also, many children are developing a heresy in particular corners of the world.

I have come to you on this day to alert you to This Miracle of so much Worth; and also, there will be much on heresy soon, for you see, My children, you must follow God's Truth, and ignore the heresy, for it bears no fruit. So be it."

MARCH 14, 1972 AT 7:22 P.M.

SAINT BERNARD

“My beloved sons and My beloved daughters, I am a Saint with Whom you do not speak in a natural way. There are some of those in the room who have prayed to Me one day. I am Saint Bernard. There is one in the room who prayed desperately to Me one day, and now I openly say to this child, ‘Your prayers were answered; perhaps not in your way, but in God’s Way,’ for all prayers are presented to The Holy Trinity, and then We ask Him which direction He desires Us to take. Each prayer is heard and each prayer is answered, and keep in mind, My children, that if a prayer is not answered your way, God has answered it a more efficient way.

As I stand Here in the Heavens, I do not stand alone. There are Many Saints surrounding Me, for I stand within the Realm Where The Holy Trinity truly is. There is much room Here in Heaven, and this is one of the facets of This Beautiful Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph, and that is, to teach mankind, to tell mankind of Sainthood. You are here in this home tonight to listen to Teachings and to learn how you can become a Saint. Remember, My children, the Crown of Sainthood is not a crown as you know a crown to be. The Crown of Sainthood is seeing The Holy Trinity.

I bless you with God's Love and I say, 'As I speak through this child I bless you with His Power, for as you walk your way each day, it would be wise if you used your will to do His, for then you could guarantee Sainthood for each of thee.' So be it."

SAINT AUGUSTINE

“My children, I am a Saint many books have been written about, and I add many Words to These Great Stories From Heaven. I am Saint Augustine. My life, to many, is an open book, but there were many parts of My life that were not told; but as I stand Here in the Heavens Where I am, I will say this to you, My children: ‘It is wise if you walk a good life. It is wise if you walk with your will doing God’s. It is wise if you try, in all ways, to help others walk to God. It is wise to be example in all things.’

So many children are walking the earth doing as they please, and as they do this, they are pleasing the evil one. I know, for you see, until the day I became in wisdom of God’s Way, I, too, catered to the evil one in many ways.

I come to you now from the Realm of Heaven to alert you to all the things that you can do to please God, and so that one day you, too, can wear a Crown Here with Us. First of all, My children, do not ignore the beauty of prayer, the necessity of it, nor the need of it, and keep in mind as you pray, that others cannot pray for you in a particular way; you must also communicate with God, your way. It is true, others can pray for you and you can pray for others, but God loves it more when you yourself pray to Him, for then He knows you have a spark of love for Him.

Keep in mind, also, that The Heavenly Father has given you Truth when He gave you the Church to lean upon. Keep this in mind as you walk each day, for The Holy Trinity exposes Itself to you in a loving way. Each day, The Holy Trinity says, ‘Oh, children, come and gain strength Our Way.’ And ask yourselves on this night, how many times have you ignored this request? Ask yourselves on the morrow, if you are using scruples to keep you away, or just excuses? All children should cleanse themselves, for they can, you know. It just takes your own will. Keep in mind that the Men of God wait to cleanse the sins so you can stand before God and receive Him as He is.

I bless you with God's Love and I say, 'Pray, and receive The Holy Eucharist every day.' So be it."

SAINT PETER

“I am Saint Peter. There are many men who are following the path I was given to lead. There are many men on this path and in this way, who sometimes do not teach all the things God Wills them to teach. There are many who are, and there are many who do; so, My children, look to these men who do. There are many truths to be taught. The children are not learning the full truth. The children are not learning to respect The Holy Eucharist. So, as you walk and you teach and you lead others, keep in mind that to teach the little ones respect for The Holy Eucharist is important to God.

On that particular night, at the Last Supper, all of us there knew that this Great Gift that God was giving to the world had a Light nothing else could. And so, as the beloved Man of God stands on the Altar each day, keep in mind, My children, he hands you the Light to Heaven in The Host Way.

I, Saint Peter, walked the earth in a gruff, rough way, for it was the way of my vocation. And as we walked with The Son of God and He taught us along the way, we listened well, and sometimes He would say things we did not know of, but suddenly, when the True Light came, we realized the Wisdom in Everything He had said. And now I pass this on to you on this night: Look for the truth, My children, and find it; first, in The Holy Eucharist, for by receiving this Great Light, this Great Food, you will receive the strength to sift the truth from the untruth.

I bless you with God's Love and I bless you with Truth, and I say to you on this night, 'Never walk in deceit. Walk in truth.' So be it."

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“My children, I am Saint Francis of Assisi and I speak to you on this day through a child as you, but I speak to you with great purpose and I say: ‘Obedience is not a thing of the past. Sacrifice is not a thing of the past, nor is penance.’ Man just makes it this way. There are so few children ready to accept God’s Will and perform it in any way.

There are so few children being told the Beauty of The Holy Eucharist, the Greatness of The Holy Eucharist, the Power of The Holy Eucharist. It is being diminished in size, in all ways. You, My children, when you leave this home on this day, be aware of the Greatness of The Holy Eucharist, for It is truly the Ultimate Gift from God, for when He gives you a Part of Himself, All of Himself, there is no Greater Gift in the world. Stand up for It, sacrifice to receive It, and do penance to receive It.

Children, I ask you on this day: ‘Did you accept the Gift today or did you ignore It? Did you make an excuse to not accept this Gift of Love from God Who stands Above?’ Many of you will have to say: ‘I did not accept It today. I had intentions but that’s all there was to it.’ My children, you truly live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah, and satan is working hard to gather all your wills so he will fill Hell with you.

And now I bless you with God’s Love, and I say, ‘God awaits for you on the Altar each day.’ Tomorrow, will you say, ‘I am too busy, God, to walk to You’? I bless you in a way you cannot know and I bless you with the Truth. Oh, My children, accept the Will of God and accept His Body that He gives just for you. So be it.”

MARCH 16, 1972 AT 7:37 P.M.

SAINT JOHN THE BAPTIST

“My beloved sons and My beloved daughters, many times some of you have requested that you hear God’s Words direct. God has heard your prayers and He has heard your request. I am a Saint Who stands in the Heavens each day. I am a Saint Who answers many prayers for man in his way.

Let Me say this to you on this night, ‘I am Saint John The Baptist, and as I speak through this child, I speak with a Force, with a Power you cannot know,’ and I say: ‘In your midst in the world, there are many who follow the evil one; there are many who follow the satanic plan, and those who do had better stop, for you see, My children, God is ready to raise not One Fist, but Two, and those who follow the evil one must learn that they not only hurt God, but themselves.’

I, Saint John, say: ‘There are many children walking around in this day not baptized, for they are ignoring the Sacrament. There are many children walking to the railing, not prepared to do so, and they are receiving The Holy Trinity, not knowing What they are receiving.’ Keep in mind, My children, that the evil one sanctions disrespect, and he says, ‘Go forward, show who you are and act upon this.’ Keep this in mind, My little ones, and as you do, be prepared to face God on this particular rule.

So many children are not following the Ten Commandments, and I say to you on this night, and I stand in your midst, ‘Be sure that you know Them so you can be example of Them and you can follow each one true.’

As I stand Here in the Heavens, there are Many Saints ready to speak to you. Some will, on this night, and Some will wait for another time; but before I leave you, I bless you with the desire, the desire to do God’s Will. So be it, My children, for tonight.”

MARCH 16, 1972 AT 7:40 P.M.

SAINT MARY MAGDALENE

“My sons and My daughters, I am a Saint that some has been written about. I am a Saint Who walked out of pure self-love for a time. I am a Saint Who stands Here in the Heavens, always saying to God, ‘Thank You for the privilege, God, of being Here with You.’ He oftentimes smiles at Me and says, ‘Mary, you changed your ways and I forgave you, and I am so happy that your example will be followed by others in the world.’

My Name is Mary Magdalene. You see, My children, God is forgiving; but keep this in mind, that once you say, ‘I am sorry, God, help me today,’ be sure you mean it, for there is no merit to not meaning it, for He knows your heart and your Soul.

There are so many children throughout the world who need to know of This Miracle, for they, too, are walking as I walked: a sinful way, a selfish way, a way full of self-love and no hope.

As I come through this child on this day, I stand in hope for you each day. Do not be so overconfident that you can say to God, ‘I did not sin today, God, I am great.’ Oh, My children, that is a form of pride, of ego, and keep in mind that God favors humility in every way; and as you walk each day, grow in humility God’s Way, for when you do, you grow in love with Him, for you see, My children, He has awaiting you and all men, Sainthood. No Saint can stand in Heaven and say, ‘I stand in pride. I made it this way.’ So, as you walk your little way, walk in dignity, walk in purity, walk in modesty, walk in obedience, and walk in humility.

I bless you with God’s Love for I have the privilege to do this, and I bless you with Hope, for you see, I, too, walked the human way. And I say to you, ‘Follow the end of My life and not the beginning, and you, too, will become a Saint Here Where I am.’ So be it.”

MARCH 16, 1972 AT 7:46 P.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“My sons, My daughters, I am Saint Francis of Assisi, and I smile upon you on this night and I say, ‘You have not learned yet, the beauty of obedience, the greatness of sacrifice, and the power of penance, but I have come tonight to tell you of these things.’ First of all, keep in mind that to sacrifice means to give up, to do penance means to do, and obedience means just that.

I walked the earth daily with God on my mind, and many men acted differently towards me, for they said I was not human in my way, and they said I was so different they could not stand my way, and they said that they could not respond to God the way I did. And every day I would kneel upon my knees and say, ‘Thank You, God, for allowing me to see the need to walk this way for You.’

And you, too, must understand that God has chosen every man in a particular way, but not for great things in all ways, but sometimes for the little things; sometimes just to teach others to pray; sometimes just to kneel and be example; sometimes just to say to another child, ‘Give an act of love today, perform an act of hope for another child in your way.’ God does not expect each of you to suffer the Wounds. No, you could not. You could not stand the pain of these Wounds, but I say to you, ‘Do not forget the beauty of modesty, the power of purity, and the greatness of prayer.’

Please, My children, as you read the life that man has written about Me, keep in mind I had a personal thought about God that no man could have written, for you see, man can only see a certain part of man, man can only see a certain part of you. So keep within you, My children, a deep love for God and do not care whether any man knows the depth of it, but use it daily to perform for Him in sacrifice, in penance, in purity and modesty, obedience and love, and trust in Him.

I bless you with a Blessing on this night, and I say to each one here, ‘Do not let one day go by that you do not ask God to hold you dear, for when you do, it is humility, and so few men understand that to be humble before

God is Grace-giving.’ I bless you from a Realm Far Beyond the one you know, and I say, ‘Follow God’s Will every day.’ So be it.”

MARCH 16, 1972 AT 7:51 P.M.

VISION

There are about Fifty to Seventy-five Angels. You and I would call them “a Choir of Angels”. They are all white. They are holding what you and I would call an Altar, and upon this Altar is a monstrance, but it is not a monstrance as you and I know a monstrance. It has a Heart in it, and Our Lord is standing above it, and the white He has is a glistening white, and yet not a natural white.

OUR LORD

“So many men are diminishing this Great Gift We have given to man. The Heart of The Holy Trinity is truly in The Holy Eucharist, for The Holy Eucharist is God’s Love for man. Men are receiving this Ultimate Gift with much disrespect and much dishonor. Men are performing sacrilegious acts with The Holy Eucharist. This must cease, else We will have to use force upon men in some manner, because We can no longer accept the desecration happening to this Great Gift.

I am The Son of The Father and I speak on this night through a child as you. You have heard much Wisdom revealed through her. It is as it was when I walked the earth. Heavenly Teaching was sent forth and a Victim Soul chosen by The Father was the Transmitter of the Word, of the Truth. Not since I walked the earth has there been such a deluge of Wisdom facing mankind, of such Great Worth. We stand in the Heavens, giving mankind a Miracle of Hope, a Miracle of Truth, a Miracle Divine, and as We do, We grant Grace to give you the strength and the Faith and the courage to accept the Wisdom that comes your way.

When I walked the path, I walked alone. I walked for you. And I come to you on this night to inform you of what is occurring against Our Will. Will you allow it to continue, or will you do your part to stomp it out, to correct it? I read your heart.

Each day We are present on Altars all over the world, waiting for man to come Our Way, waiting to give man hope, strength, courage, love, and so many men deny themselves the reception of Our Gift. We have chosen a child to stand before you for Us. If

We were The Ones to show Ourselves before you now, some of you could not take the Sight, so in Our Love for you, We are doing it through a child as you.

As I stood on the Hill, beaten almost to the end, I stood sustained by The Father in the form of Love. It was My Love to do His Will that sustained Me to the end. Man does not know the Beauty of Pure Love until he falls in love with God, and so few men desire to do this, for they have the mistaken idea that to fall in love with God is a thing of the past.

If each day The Holy Eucharist bled My Blood, man would become so frightened, overwhelmed, that he could not receive this Great Gift, and so We keep It clean so man will not fear receiving It. My children, when you receive this Ultimate Gift, walk in humility, walk in a dignity, and walk with purity. There is so little modesty in Our Presence and so little dignity expressed. The evil one is working diligently to rob mankind of this Great Gift.

You are present now at a Miracle Far Greater than you know. You are experiencing Our Words direct, and you are experiencing total submission of a will. Ask yourself on this ordinary night, what changes you must make. You might find there will not be too many. You might find it is not too late. A strict Examination of conscience, a firm resolution to think of the Ten Commandments, and a desire to pray Our Way, will be the greatest starting point for all men of your day.

When I left the earth, I left man with a hope nothing else could give. Those who leave the world and are sent to the Purgatory place have one thing to hold onto, and that, My children, is hope to one day come Here.

We are presenting to the world another Hill, called 'the Hill of Hope', and through This Miracle of Hope We have designed all facets of this Hill. All through time The Father has given man a means of hope, a manner of hope, a direct way of hope. The Holy Eucharist is man's hope.

My children, as I speak through this child, I do it in a slow manner so you can well absorb the meaning of My Words. There is much you have learned on this night, and if you will but allow yourselves to see it, you have been handed hope, and through this child I have revealed it. All ages, all colors, all creeds must eventually face her as she walks for Me. It is My Will, not hers. It is My Way to give you hope.

I bless you from the Heaven Where I am, in the Name of The Divine Holy King. I bless you with My Heart, and I bless you with the Light of The Holy Ghost, of Which Each One of Us is a Part. So be it.”

MARCH 18, 1972 (EVENING)

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved children, I am Saint Joseph. Man has a day whereby man will Honor Me, Revere Me, and seek My Way. Thousands will hear about this celebration and thousands will wonder where it took place, why it took place, how it took place, and what purpose it was for it happening. This great celebration has been set in your midst to coincide with The Miracle of Hope, The Miracle of Love.

My children, I stand within this home at all times. It is My earthly place. It is the place from which I speak in many ways. It is the place that Heaven teaches the Wisdom of the Realm of Heaven, teaches the Wisdom of The Holy Trinity to children of all kinds, colors, creeds.

As you gather on this night, you gather in somewhat of a celebration, first of all, on the eve of My Feast. There are so many children to come to see this event on the morrow, and some will see it in a different light than you. Some will say, ‘Who is Saint Joseph, and where did He come from?' You may not hear these remarks but they will be evident to Us. Some will come saying, 'Why is This Saint not more heard of?' and We in the Heavens will say, 'God has chosen This Time and This Place.' Some will come and say, 'I wonder if He truly walked God's Way.' These will be so few, but nonetheless, they will be skeptical, and in their own view they will be self-loved, self-willed, and yes, determined to do their own will.

On this night you gather in preparation. There is a joy in preparation. There was with Mary and I as We walked the earth, for We knew that The Divine Son would be born and the world would be saved. The Angels told Us so, and We had Faith. You, too, gather in Faith on this night. You, too, gather in trust. This is important to God, for children to do thus.

So many here are of a different time of life, and yet you join in one single thought: to pay Honor to Me. I cherish each one of thee, and I say, 'Never let one untruth be passed your way, for if you do you will feel unhappy, uncertain, yes, and undignified, and you will feel the evil one by your side.'

So, on this night that is a joy to Us Here in the Heavens, I say, 'Be happy, stand in truth each day, and be blessed by The Holy Trinity, for you see, My children, it is through Their Love for you that This Miracle of Mine comes your way.' So be it."

MARCH 18, 1972 (EVENING)

SAINT BERNADETTE

“My beloved children, I am Saint Bernadette and I come to you on this night for a special reason. When Our Lady appeared to me when I was in the world, She stressed purity, She stressed modesty, She stressed truth and She stressed self-discipline, and She stressed doing all things God’s Way and in His Will. And now, as I come to you on this night through a child as you, time is repeated, and there are similarities here as I speak to you.

Many men said that my Visions could not be true. I knew They were, for you see, when Our Lady spoke to me, She spoke of the Divine Beauty of Heaven, and I knew the manner in which She spoke, the feeling I had when She spoke, the Sight I saw with my eyes could not have been imagination, nor man. I carried the Beauty of This all through my life and when my physical time was about to end, I did not feel pride in having seen What I had, but I felt a great desire to do all I could to help other men.

And now as I stand Here in the Heavens with The Beloved Mother, with The Divine Holy Trinity, I am allowed to speak to you to help you come Here. The Purpose of This Great Miracle is to teach you God's Way, to give you firsthand, His Wisdom, His Truths. So, I repeat to you What The Heavenly Mother once said to Me: 'Walk in modesty, walk in purity, walk in obedience, walk in trusting God alone, walk in a true love and not an imaginary one.'

I bless you with God's Love and I say, 'Hold tight to the Holy Rosary every day, and when you do, your Heavenly Mother loves you.' So be it."

MARCH 18, 1972 (EVENING)

OUR LORD

“My sons and My daughters, I am The Son of The Father. I come to you on this night to join with a preparation that gives Heaven a great delight. The morrow is anticipated by Us also, for on the morrow certain men will be on the road to recognizing The Beloved Saint Joseph. Heaven is happy, in joy, with all who participate in this festive experience. This celebration has a firm foundation, a solid base, a true love of man, in the human way, for Divine Reasoning. Divine Reasoning, of course, is the Purpose of life, to make man a Saint.

You do not work on just an individual basis. You work collectively, and I add, prudently; and I add, in a dignified manner. This is important to Heaven, My children, for you see, satan is trying to diminish the Beauty of Sainthood and the Magnitude of This Great Miracle. This Miracle of My Son, Who was My earthly Father, has Its place all over the world. This is the core of It. This is the base of It. This is the instrument of It, and yet, the world is suddenly alerted to a child who is obedient to Heaven day and night. Can you not see My Hand in This? Can you not see Our Love in This? Can you not see the Winds of Our Power taking This and placing It where We Will, where We Desire It to be?

You stand in the midst of a Great Miracle. Children who visit the Great Visions in the different parts of the world love the feeling they have when they are in the Presence of Divine Way, even though they do not see it; and yet, here, through This Miracle of Such Greatness, you participate in a personal way, and you receive firsthand, the Truth, the Light, the Wisdom, and you are the beneficiaries of This Great Miracle.

Many times, when man deals with man, he says: 'What am I guaranteed? What benefits will I derive from this plan?' And Heaven presents the Greatest Gift in the world, The Holy Eucharist, each day, and men stand aside and say, 'It's not what I want; I have no use for It.'

God has sent This Great Miracle to the world. I, The Son of The Father, stand firm in It, stand evident through It, and I say, ‘We guarantee you Sainthood, My children, when you serve The Holy Trinity in the correct way, when you use your will to do Our Will, when you use your will to desire Sainthood, when you use your will to obey the Ten Commandments The Father gave you one day, when you use your will to stand up for truth.’

Man, in the physical, does not enjoy the presence of a coward, and as you know, cowards build nothing. It takes courage to build, it takes courage to stand when all are against you; and I speak through this child, for it takes courage for her in a way you cannot know, to face you and say, ‘God has just spoken through me today.’ Oh, My children, This Miracle is Truth, This Miracle is to help you come This Way.

I bless you in this preparation, for you see, All Heaven is alerted to children who honor This Beloved Saint. A Special Place in Heaven is His, the Highest anyone can reach; and, so you see, My little ones, We bless you with Our Love and We say, ‘Help His Name grow and show others His Example, for when they follow, they, too, will be a Saint.’ So be it.”

MARCH 19, 1972 AT 9:50 A.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“Today, man is celebrating in My Honor. Man is looking to My Way and to My Name. I stand Here in the Heavens and I proclaim that the Heavenly Will must be done by every child born to the world. The Beauty of This Miracle of Mine is to alert mankind to the Truth, to the Wisdom of God. There are so many individuals who are following untruths. They are following the weaknesses of men and they are determined to do this, no matter what the price will be that they will have to pay for the evil plan.

My children, keep in mind this: The Holy Trinity is The Creator of All Things; The Beloved Mother, The Heavenly Mother of All Beings. I, Saint Joseph, stand Here, obedient to the Will of God. As it was upon the earth, it is now.

When you are in your daily work, offer this work to God. When you finish the day, give thanks for all the things that came your way. Good or bad, be sure you say, ‘Thank You, God,’ for you see, My children, sometimes an unhappiness is allowed to give you strength.

This day is truly Blessed by Me. The hours ahead, men will honor Me. I bless you in the Name of The Holy Trinity and I send your Mother's Love to each of thee, and as I stand Here in the Heavens I cover you with My Mantle, for This is a Protection for each of thee. So be it."

MARCH 19, 1972 AT 1:30 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved children, when I blessed the world with The Child in My Arms it was, in a way, announcing to the world Where I stand in the Heavens. This Vision of The Child with Me was an Important Event. This Vision was, in many ways, announcing This Miracle for Me, through Me, in the time in which you live. God has designed This Time to be. I, Saint Joseph, am obedient to His Will endlessly.

The Holy Trinity must be recognized by all mankind for the Power It Is, the Greatness It Is, the One It Is. This Miracle of Mine has been sent to the world to teach mankind God’s Wisdom, God’s Truths, God’s Love, God’s Way, God’s Will.

As another day was, My Son, Who was The Son of The Divine, taught mankind the Wisdom and gave man the Light for All Eternity. Now, I come to the world through a child and I speak Words that must be heard, must be seen, must be followed, for These Words are Direction for all mankind. I stress obedience, I stress modesty, I stress purity, I stress humility, I stress trust in God above all things.

You live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah. The Purpose of This Miracle is to put man back on the right path, in the right direction, knowing the Correct Purpose of life, the Full Purpose of the physical way. Thousands of Words have been written. There are thousands yet to come to make man aware of the Greatness of The Beloved God, the Generosity of Him, the Beauty of Him.

The Hill of Hope, designed by The Holy Trinity, must come about as quickly as possible. God has put a time limit on the completion of this Hill. He says, 'I want it done in five years of man's way, and it must be done My Way.' This Hill is to give man the History that is dear to God's Heart, to give man the Wisdom that God has put in the Planning, the Order of all things.

Upon this Hill, man must renew the Faith he has. He must grow in love with God. Man must recognize the Truth of The Holy Eucharist, the Magnitude of this Ultimate Gift. Man must begin to see the Beauty of the Cleansing Way. Man must learn the Purpose of life and how to attain Sanctity.

This Message of Mine is to be placed in writing for all mankind. This Message is to be seen by the world. This Message is to be remembered by all mankind. This Miracle that is Truly Divine must be respected, listened to, acknowledged and followed.

I bless you again with The Child in My Arms and with the flower of purity, and I cover you with My Mantle, for through this Covering I protect you. So be it.”

MARCH 21, 1972 AT 7:36 P.M.

SAINT FRANCIS OF ASSISI

“My beloved sons, My beloved daughters, I come to you at this time for a special reason, for you see, My children, it is a time of fast and so few children are doing it. There is no rule left for man to follow in this way, for man says, ‘Do not do penance today, it is not of our time.’ I, Saint Francis of Assisi, say to you on this night, ‘Penance is for all times, fasting is for all times, sacrifice is for all times,’ for you see, My children, this is your way of telling God you love Him. This is your way of telling God that you desire to help Him in your little way.

Purgatory has many, many, many, many, many, many, many, many Souls waiting for you to help release Them. A small sacrifice, a small amount of penance will help. Are you willing to let these Souls stay longer in Purgatory, or are you going to help a Soul on this night? I say to you, My children, ‘God’s Will would be that you pray a Rosary on this night, for through the Holy Rosary, Souls are released from Purgatory.’ There is a Soul, My children, waiting right now to be released. Will you participate, or will you deny the Soul God's Sight?

I bless you and I say, 'Obedience, penance, fast, sacrifice, and the Holy Rosary — all things like this please your God.' On this night you can release a Soul from Purgatory. Will you accept this as your way? I bless you with God's Love and I say, 'The Souls are waiting to come God's Way.' So be it."

MARCH 21, 1972 AT 7:40 P.M.

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

“My children, I am Saint John Vianney and I speak through this child tonight to bring Heaven closer to you. I speak to show you the Beauty that is Here and to tell you about the Love that is Here. As I stand Here in the Heavens, God has asked Me to share with you some things that will help you the rest of your days.

First of all, do not omit the Sacrament of Penance from your life. Do not allow scruples to keep you away from this Sacrament that God loves so much. Do not allow yourselves to be drawn away from the things that God is teaching through this beloved Sacrament, for you see, My children, man is diminishing the Sacrament. He says, ‘It is not necessary,’ but this is satan’s way of drawing you to him, for you see, when you do not accept the Sacrament of Penance, you do not accept forgiveness, and pride builds up, My children.

So keep this in mind, for when you kneel and say, ‘Please, God, forgive my sins, make me whole again, help me to be pure,’ this, My children, is the way to Here Where I am. And satan says, ‘Be so prideful that you do not need the Sacraments.’ Satan says, ‘Why should you kneel, asking forgiveness?’ and satan says, ‘Do not bend to another man but go your way and allow yourselves the beauty of the physical.’ But God says, ‘Oh child, be humble in My Way. Ask My Forgiveness and I will say, “I forgive you, child, in My Way.”’

I bless you with My Priestly Blessing and I say, ‘Do not let scruples draw you from God, but let your humility bring you closer to Him.’ So be it.”

MARCH 21, 1972 AT 7:47 P.M.

SAINT BERNADETTE

“I share many things with this child on this night. I share sadness, I share sorrow, for I, too, walked the way she must walk in your sight. I am Saint Bernadette.

As I stand Here in the Heavens and I look back on time, what I had to face was truly mankind. And when I stood before a certain man and I said, ‘I speak the truth,’ this man was aware that I did, and that my way would bear much fruit. There are many things you have heard about My Way. Not all facets of it come your way, for many men distorted many things, and so it is for this child who faces you today.

Man has a difficult time accepting truth, for man has not developed a love for it. Man has become so used to following what he feels is good. This is not always truth, and man has a way of taking truth and making it fit the occasion of the situation or the personality in view. I, Saint Bernadette, come to you on this night and I say, ‘As I stood in truth, this child also does, in front of you.' And as I use her vocal cords, her physical to speak to you, I will teach to you through her.

All through time man has fought heresy, and man has made decisions regarding others' lives. God has given man the true way to Him. God has given man the formula to be a Saint. It is man who has rejected this formula. The formula is this: First, obey the Ten Commandments, for They were given to men of all kinds, all races, all creeds, and in obedience to These you will be on firm ground and you will be able to accept truth.

The next thing, My children, is prayer. And each of you ask yourselves on this night: Have you prayed today? How much have you prayed? How deeply have you prayed and how much Faith did you use when you did? Some of you will have to say you did not pray today. Some of you will have to say you were too busy to pray today, and some of you will make excuses far beyond the amount you would make on other things. Ask yourselves, did you think today of the Soul you have? Many of you did not. This should be an everyday thought with each of you.

Ask yourselves if today you were kind when others were not? Ask yourselves if today you looked to Heaven to help you make decisions, or did you depend solely on yourself?

The third thing, My children, and very special to God, is: Did you receive The Holy Eucharist, the Ultimate Gift from Him? If you did not, please think of this, and on the morrow ask yourself, if you do not, why not? And you will find again just excuse, for you see, the Ultimate Gift was given to man by The Holy Trinity, and the Ultimate Gift awaits each man each day, to partake of It.

And now I say, ‘Through all the Visions that have occurred throughout the world, The Beloved Heavenly Mother has requested the Holy Rosary to be said by you. Have you complied with Her Request, or have you denied Her this prayer from you?’ The prayer is one of great beauty. The prayer says much, My children. The prayer says first, that you believe in God Almighty, and then the prayer goes on to say the prayer God gave to The Son one day: ‘Our Father, Who art in Heaven.’ This, My children, is recognition of your Creator.

And then the prayer goes on to say, ‘Please, God, give me Faith, Hope and Charity today.’ Without Faith, My children, you can be lost; without Hope, you have nothing to cling to; and without Charity, there is no joy in your way. And then, when you meditate on Special Events God gave you, you think about them, and you remember the Importance of your life and how God truly loves you. And so, as I have given you the formula, I ask you now, ‘What will you do?’

I bless you with God’s Love and I say, ‘Carry the formula with you every day, for when you do, you will grow in love with God. And, as you grow in love with Him, keep this in mind: He will help you all the way.’ So be it.”

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved sons, My beloved daughters, I smile through the child for I love her much. As she is obedient to God’s Will, she does His Will teaching mankind through Us. I appear to the child as nine feet tall. This is how God Wills it to be, and as I do this I always smile, for I overpower her each time it is done like this.

My time is now to come to the world to teach mankind how to serve God and how to be a Saint. The world must hear My Name, the world must get to know My Way, and the world must see the beauty of obedience, the beauty of example, and the beauty of trust in God above all things.

As I speak through this child, I speak with the Power of God, and I say: ‘If I were to tap each child on the shoulder, present here today, and request of you each, a particular task to be done, what would you say? Would you believe it was I Who tapped you, or would you say, “Oh, go away”?’ So many times children do this when God requests a task for them to do on a particular day, because you see, My children, you have become so accustomed to doing just man's things, man's way, that you are not listening to God and how He works in His Way.

Other Saints have mentioned The Holy Eucharist, and some have mentioned penance. This is not a thing of the past; this is a thing for you right now, so if the day does come and you leave the world, you will be, in a short time, facing God instead of waiting a long time in Purgatory.

My children, I say to you on this night, 'Grow in purity.' It is easier to do than you think. All it is, is subjecting your will to God. It is asking Him to help you in all things, and then obeying what He says for you to do.

Many of you here before Me now are not tolerant of others. I say, 'Let this be a cross for you and use it God's Way.' Keep in mind the beauty of patience, and know that The Son of God was patient, until, of course, He saw the child act with the evil one. Never use the staff against weakness, only evil, and much love will reign within you, around you, and from you. Now keep that in mind, My children, and repeat it to yourselves when you leave this home of Mine. Never use the staff against weakness, only evil. Keep in mind though, that you must know what is weakness and what is evil, for sometimes the evil one will appear as weakness, to draw you in to him. So this is where prayer must come in.

As Mary and I walked the earth, We prayed. And when We would gather at repast time, We would begin with a prayer, thanking The Heavenly Father for the food to nourish the physical. Right now in the world in which you live, children are not learning the power of prayer. They are not learning the power of love. Man has put his own interpretation on love. Man has written it up to be a special way. God's Meaning for all these things is to a greater degree. Keep in mind, My children, that through man, man learns man's way. Nowhere does it say The Father designed your language. Nowhere does it say that The Father gave all the meanings to your words. This was man's thinking, man's doing. So, when God says to you, 'I love you, child,' know that God's Meaning for this word is deeper, fuller, and greater than man could put on this word.

I bless you with God's Love and I say, 'Go to God and obey Him every day, for one day I desire to see each child in My Presence Here, in Heaven Where I am, returning God's Love that He truly holds dear.' So be it."

OUR LORD

“I have come on this night to speak to you of the Love I have for you. I also want you to know that This Miracle of My Son, Who was My earthly Father, is a Miracle of Wisdom, a Miracle to give you the chance to know Heaven as It truly is, to know Our Love in a personal way. When I walked the earth, I taught The Father’s Wisdom, and since that time no man has been set forth upon the earth, until now, to teach this Wisdom. Of course, My children, this point will be argued as it always is, but nonetheless, it is true. As I taught, The Beloved Saint Joseph will teach, and All Heaven has come forward to participate in This Great Miracle of Hope.

At the moment of conception of the physical way, a Soul is sent from Heaven, a Guardian Angel, a will is implanted, and the Gift of Faith. It is there as a seedling and it is through your will that you develop this seedling. Man is unaware of the many reasonings We use. Man places all things in categories he is familiar with, and I come through this child on this night to say to man, 'There are some categories you are not aware of.'

When I walked the earth, I walked with men in a natural way. I taught them Divine Way. I showed them the reason for the physical, the need for the physical, and the Purpose it had. Even then the enemy of God was fighting desperately to gain My Way, and to abuse God. And so it is now, in the time in which you live, God's enemy is all around and he is stressing to man to stand in pride and forget humility; to stand, catering to only the physical needs. He says, 'Cater to yourself first.' And there is no mention of a Soul, for he fears if he mentions the Soul, it will trigger man's Faith, it will trigger man's mind, it will trigger man's intelligence, it will trigger something inside to stir the man to think.

Right now, My children, the evil one is grabbing children of all ages. He is making sin look like a great thing. He is making one man sin with the other and passing it off as just a physical thing; but keep in mind that man is allowing the evil one to do this. He is allowing him to use his will, and believe Me, My children, the evil one will readily use your will. And it is Our Will to say, 'Child, do Our Will with yours.' The evil one is greedy, he does not love you, he loves no soul in Hell. Once a soul is there, the soul is forgotten by him; there is no more challenge left, so he goes on and on and on.

As I stand Here in the Heavens, I am teaching you a Wisdom; it is not just knowledge. The night I was born to the physical world, a Star shined brightly in the sky, and those who followed this Star were men of wisdom. No man wrote a book for them to read. No man directed their thoughts to the Star. It was The Father Who alerted them to this, and they had the wisdom to accept it. They had the wisdom to see it was beyond man's way. They had the wisdom to see it had to be Supernatural. And so it is, My children, on this night. This Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph is as a star, giving man life. There are many similarities in This Miracle of His to the time I walked the earth.

The day that men nailed Me to the Cross was a day of sadness; and in Heaven, when it was done, there was a rejoicing that no words can describe, for you see, My Job was done and I could return to Heaven Where I had been, and Heaven was opened for all Souls to come in. Man crucified Me, and I stood in Truth. They mocked Me, for they didn't know what else to do. Such sadness this was to Me, for I knew the walk on the Hill was for them. My prayer to The Father was, 'Let it be over soon.' Keep this in mind, My children, for when you walk in truth men will deny you, and usually, the child who walks in all truth walks alone, for you see, God's Power and God's Strength is shown in this way.

As I appear to the child and My Words come through her, My Hand rises to bless you and I say: 'Walk in truth. The lonely road only lasts a short time in comparison to Life in Eternity.' So be it."

MARCH 21, 1972 AT 9:15 P.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“All through time man has denied Me, My Way. I could say that man is arrogant, disrespectful, ungrateful, impudent, but I will not, for I truly love man in a Divine Way. I created man to My Image and Likeness. I created man with My Love, out of My Love, in My Love. I gave man a Soul. This Soul was a Greater Part of Me than man knows. I gave man a heart. This heart was to keep man alive physically, and the heart is important to man as the motor of life.

I say to man, ‘I extend My Heart to beat with you. Through My Power, My Love will strengthen yours.’ So many men are denying themselves and Me this union of love. Men are whispering at this moment about This Miracle I have placed in the world. This Miracle, in many ways, is My Love; I have placed My Heart in It.

I have called This Miracle after a Beloved Saint Whom I dearly love. As man, He stood in the world, ready to perform My Will. He was obedient.

When I said to Him, 'Please, My Joseph, save The Beloved Mother so She will carry out My Will for Me,' and this Son Who was young in age, obeyed, and He went to another place to protect Her. The Child would have been killed had Joseph not been obedient to My Will. You see, My children, the Importance of obedience; disaster can occur, hardship can happen and sadness can develop.

I come through this child who does My Will momentarily. It is as it was with Joseph and Mary. When I say to her, 'Go,' she must go. When I say, 'Stay,' she must stay. When I say, 'Be silent,' she must be silent. When I say, 'Speak,' she must speak. When I say, 'Anger is called for here, child,' I expect her to react in this way. The day will come when men will come from all over the world to see this woman through whom I act, through whom I speak, through whom I teach the Wisdom of My World. This child is example of obedience.

I have come to you on this night, for in this room each of you extends your heart to Me and I love you. As it was told to this child before, many men will not agree with her. They will think it is her idea, this Hill of Hope. They will think that she drew it up as a plan for Me, so they will fight it, thinking it was man-made. I will spread This Miracle throughout the world. It is on the Winds of My Power and It is on the Power of My Winds.

The child stands alone for Me; it has to be this way. She must depend solely upon Me for every move she makes through the day. Where man is concerned, I govern this. Where man reaches out for her, I tell her what I expect, and she must do as I Will it to be, react as I Will it to be, for you see, I have made her aware of all Souls. Even as she speaks with you, I have made her more aware of the Soul around you, and within, for the Soul, as I have said before, is a Great Part of Me. So would it not be truth then, that she would be more aware of your Soul than your physical?

Children are growing from This Miracle, children are growing in love with Me; this is what I desire. I sent a Message to the world one time through The Beloved Heavenly Queen, and this was to alert mankind that a day would come and The Beloved Saint Joseph would step from The Divine and live again in the world for men to see, for at no time in the physical life did He stand before mankind in an obvious way, for you see, every act He performed, every word that He said, was to honor Me. And now the world must recognize Him, and now the world must go to Him, and now the world must see Him for What He Truly Was and Is.

I speak to you in a manner you understand, with Words you can understand. Oh, My children, I do love thee. Many men will argue and say, 'The Father does not speak to anyone today.' This is sadness for Me to hear. Why would I not speak to those I hold dear? Why would I not come to help them in a time of need? A Father does not stand by and allow the children danger; of course not, My Love is too deep. Your love is so little in comparison to Mine, and yet your love means so much to Me.

The child, as she knows this to be, will suffer many blows for Me. I have accepted her will and she is a sacrifice on the altar for Me, for through her performing My Will, Souls will come Here with Me. I use this moment, but the part that I truly use is her love for Me.

The Hill of Hope must come about, for you see, satan will fight this Hill, for satan knows that upon this Hill many, many Souls will be saved, and he will use every means to keep this Hill from drawing Souls to Me. A battle is on, a fight to the finish, and I will use men of all colors, all races, all creeds, to fulfill My Will, to see that this Hill is completed, for the reason I have designed It to be. Many learned men will be as pawns to the evil one where this Hill is concerned, for they will not see the Souls being saved upon this Hill. All they will think of is the material way, the material goal, the material value, the material debt; but this Hill will be.

Many men weigh all things a material way. Many men weigh all things on the scale made by man, not Me. My scale is far different than man's. I weigh all things on the Glow of the Soul, for you see, Heaven is lighted by the Souls Who have come Here to be with Me, and as each Soul shines, It adds joy, happiness, Here.

I know, My little children, you have had a full physical day, and before you leave here tonight, please remember to say, 'Thank You, God, for the strength to have lived one more day.' So be it."

MARCH 22, 1972 AT 11:05 A.M.

SAINT AUGUSTINE

“My children, I am Saint Augustine, and I speak through this child; it is God’s Will I do, and I have much to say to you. There are people on the world who will be safe one day because of God’s Will, because of This Miracle in your day. All over the world men are gathering to come this way, for This Miracle is parallel to the time that The Son of God walked one day. He, too, walked; He, too, taught the Wisdom of The Beloved Father. And now again, Heaven comes to the world to honor a Beloved Saint Who stands Highest in the Heavens, and Who was obedient in all ways to God’s Will.

As you gather you respond with your hearts, and some say, ‘It cannot be true,’ and some say, ‘Why her, why not me?’ and some say, ‘I want it to be true.’ It was the same in the day The Son walked the earth. In many ways skepticism of the truth is a weakness in man. In many ways criticism of another is weakness which is never in God’s Plan.

On this day, your Beloved God waited at the Altar for you to pray. And some here in the presence now say, 'I was not obligated on this day to see my God, to accept Him in His Way.' Is this not sad, My children? If I were to walk into the room now with a tray, and upon this tray have crowns of jewels and offer one to each one here, would you reject My gift? Would you reject it, saying, 'I do not have an obligation to take it, so I will pass it by today'?

You were offered a Gift on this day, a Gift far greater than a jeweled crown. What did you say? You were offered the Gift of The Holy Eucharist, you were offered a Touch of The Holy Trinity, but as you are in your way, many of you made an excuse today. Keep this in mind, My children, on the morrow when you wake, and ask yourselves: Are you prepared to accept God's Way for you that day? Do not let your scruples hold you back, but keep in mind that God, in His Plan, gave all things a place.

Right now in the world in which you live, men are trying desperately to diminish the Beauty of this Sacrament. They are using many means to tear It down and they are desecrating It into the ground. God says to man, ‘How long do you think I will take this?’ And man, of course, does not hear God; all he hears is man, but now, through This Miracle of Love, This Miracle of Hope, Heaven is teaching: ‘Beware, My children, The Father’s Fist is raised,’ for He says to man, ‘If you follow the evil one, you are not following My Plan.’ And I say to you now, ‘Where can you gain strength if you do not accept God’s Gift to you, Which is the Ultimate of Gifts?’

My children, I, Saint Augustine, say to you: ‘Do not be foolish, do not waste time, for the days are short unless mankind accepts God’s Will and rejects the evil one. Sodom and Gomorrah is being redone. Keep this in mind.’ So be it.”

MARCH 22, 1972 AT 11:13 A.M.

SAINT PETER

“My beloved children, I am Saint Peter. I stood many times on a hill, on the water, with The Beloved Son of God. I did not know at the time that He was The Son of God, but as we listened to His Words, and listened to the Wisdom that He taught, we knew that this Man had a Special Place in The Divine. We also knew that What He taught was not known by other men, and What He taught was for the good of mankind.

And as I speak to you this day, through This Miracle of Love, I say: ‘You, too, are walking with God each day. Do not ignore What He teaches, for keep in mind that What He teaches is all truth; and keep in mind, My children, that when you ignore truth you fall into the hands of the evil one.’

Oh, My children, as I stand Here in the Heavens, I say, ‘Do not deny God as I did one time, three ways; but stand in truth and deny the evil one,

for then you will reserve a Place Here Where I am on this day.' So be it."

MARCH 22, 1972 AT 11:16 A.M.

PADRE PIO

“Man spends much time deciding on material things, what shall he choose, what shall he pick, and the color and the scheme, and man says, ‘These are important to me, God, for You see, You have given them to me and I must display them in the proper way and in a way most advantageous to me.’

I am Padre Pio. As I smile upon you on this day, I say, ‘My children, I am a Saint Here in the Heavens, because of God’s Will, God’s Way, because of God’s Generosity, because of God’s Justice,’ and I say to you on this day, ‘You, too, can be a Saint Here in the Heavens, Where I am to stay.’

Be aware of the power of prayer, be aware of The Holy Eucharist, My children; and be aware of the power of the Holy Rosary, and as you do each day, say it with love, say it with devotion, and when you do, God will come your way, for you see, the power of prayer, the love of prayer and devotion to it, will make you a Saint. So be it.”

MARCH 22, 1972 AT 11:21 A.M.

OUR BLESSED MOTHER

“My children, I do not appear to the child in a Vision, for sometimes when I do, the emphasis on the Vision draws you from My Words that I want you to hear. I am your Beloved Mother and I speak through this child to tell you what God wants of you.

This Miracle has been sent to the world to help you. This Miracle is a Gift from God. This Miracle is One of Courage, One of Strength, One of Perseverance, One of Dignity, and One in which all things taught are to draw you to the desire to see truth. It is unknown to man, such a Miracle as This. It is unknown to man, God’s Great Love for man. The Purpose of This Miracle is to draw you close to Divine Plan, to show you the weakness of selfishness, the hazards of self-love, the wickedness of evil, the beauty of prayer, the Magnitude of The Holy Eucharist and the Joy of Heaven Here.

The Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph, Who was My Spouse

upon the earth, is a Miracle for the whole world. What you did not know when you entered His home on earth was this: You were touched in the heart with more Faith, more love, more courage, for what you did not see when you entered here, was The Holy Family.

I hold the child, for the Power that We use is One not known to man, and I show It to you. I come to the world through This Miracle to give you a pattern to follow so you will be sure you can do God's Will. First, My little ones, when you awaken in the morning, offer quiet prayers to The One Who made you, and as you do this, be sure you thank Him for the privilege of the day. Do not become so sure of your intelligence, your knowledge, yourself, that you forget to look to Him first each day.

There are many men around being used as pawns of satan. The Father is allowing All Saints to help you through This Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph. You must be aware of sinful men who will do anything to gain your Soul. Some of these men are close to you, some are related to you. If I could show you at this moment, the sight I see from the Heavens Where I am, you would vomit your insides out at the sinfulness of man, for there are many places, some unknown and some of great renown, that harbor evil all around.

To love God and to desire purity does not rob you of life. It is the first step to it. Man has not had the example before him that he has needed for a long time. Satan does not allow one moment to pass, day and night, that he does not latch on to the slightest thing to gain a child's Soul, even in dreams. Many men, learned ones, have lost Faith in God's Way, have rejected the simplicity of how God works and they are seeking a sensationalism, a commercialism to cause their senses action.

As I stand Here in the Heavens, I have pleaded with children for prayer. Some have complied, most have not. The time has come for man to be aware of his Soul, and less of all, of his physical. Children are being murdered for ridiculous reasons because man is so concerned with the physical aspects that he is forgetting the Soul of the unborn. This is satan's scheme, this is evil, and those who indulge in it, and those who partake in any part of it, will have to answer to God for it.

Men all over the world are seeking new methods for perversion of all kinds, for sins of all degrees. God says, 'I did not make man for this purpose,' so He is using This Miracle to change things. Do not give God excuses for your lack of prayer, but grow so in love with Him that you begin to care, for through this caring you will grow in a way and in a manner bigger than you know, but you will find happiness and glow.

I, your Mother, say to you on this day, 'Do not reject the beauty of the world; the beauty is goodness, the beauty is truth, the beauty is obedience God's Way for you.' I bless you with My Love and I say, 'Make every moment count through your day, so when nighttime falls and you end in a prayer, you will feel the day well-done and a step closer to The Divine One.' Your heart was touched and your mind alerted to God's Will; a Gift, a must to you, a Gift of growth to grow in, a Gift with Great Purpose, so you will not sin. So be it."

MARCH 22, 1972 AT 7:30 P.M.

SAINT COLUMBKILLE

“My beloved children, I am Saint Columbkille, and I say to you on this night, with a deep devotion to God, ‘I am a Saint Who has spoken many times through this child,’ and as I speak through her again, I say to you, ‘Live your life and make it worthwhile.’ God has given man the physical to use as a means to Heaven. God has given man a heart to give him physical life. God has given man a brain to think with, to perform with, and God has given man a will to choose right and wrong with.

As I stand Here in the Heavens, to some, I am unknown; to some of you, you have heard My Name, and as I speak, I speak with Lessons for you, in God’s Name.

The Holy Trinity must be recognized throughout the world for Who It Is. Children are diminishing the Beauty of It, the Magnitude of It, with their sins. There are many men who have responsible positions in the world who do not accept The Holy Trinity as The Ultimate One. Keep this in mind, My children, as you walk your way, and try to pray. Try, for example, to show these men that you do care, for you see, as you care, God loves you for it and He grants you Grace in a special way, to give you strength, to give you courage to carry on this way.

Right now, My children, in the world much sin is taking place, and children are accepting it and saying, 'What is this?' So, you see, there are so many things that children are denying: The Sacraments, The Commandments; The Holy Eucharist, The Ultimate Gift from God. And so many men are saying, 'What is prayer? Prayer is meditation.'

Oh, My children, you can pray and you do not have to let your mind fade away. Pray to God in thanksgiving, with gratitude and love. Say to Him, 'Oh, God, I am but a child, teach me Your Way.' This does not take a great concentration; it takes humility. Keep this in mind, My little ones, and every day say:

'Oh, God, I thank You for this day. I love You. Please help me to be a Saint.' So be it.'

MARCH 22, 1972 AT 7:41 P.M.

SAINT FELICITAS

“My children, I am Saint Felicitas. Many of you do not recognize My Name, but as I stand Here in Heaven, it is God’s Will I speak to you on this night. I come to let you know that All Heaven is alerted to the perpetuation of This Miracle that God has bestowed upon the world, in the world, to make known to all mankind the Beauty of a Saint. Through This Miracle you are given the Purpose of life, and the Way to come Here one day Where We are.

Through This Miracle of Hope, This Miracle of Love, many children are alerted to the evil way, for so many times, in the day of now, you take many chances with your life. Man puts much emphasis on the physical way, and ask yourself on this night, how much emphasis you put on the Spiritual life. Ask yourself on this night: Have you prayed today, or have you just acted your way?

There are many things for you to do in the world you live in today. One of them is to release Souls from Purgatory through the form of prayer. Ask yourself, if, on this night, you were planning to say the Holy Rosary that Our Lady loves so much. The Heavenly Father says, ‘Tell them, My Child, to pray the Beads of Hope, to pray the Beads of Love,’ for you see, My children, these Beads are the hope of Purgatory. Children who leave the physical world and must spend time in this place, sometimes raise the Beads to Her and say, ‘Please, Blessed Mother, have a child say these Beads for me today.’ The child cannot say the Beads himself, but you, My children, can. Keep this in mind. And sometimes The Heavenly Mother has to say, ‘All right, My child, five more and then you will be released one day.’

And so, My children, when a child lives in this way — in hope, you can see now why the Beads you must say are important to The Heavenly Mother in Her Way. Children do not know the importance of the Beads; they are not taught the importance of this way. So, as you leave this home tonight, keep this in mind, My children, that the Souls in Purgatory cling to hope. They cling to the Beads that only you can say. So be it.”

MARCH 22, 1972 AT 7:44 P.M.

SAINT MARTHA

“My beloved sons and My beloved daughters, My Name is Martha and I come to you on this night at the Request of The Beloved God. At this moment children are working diligently to help life: some of them are working in a manner others cannot; some of them are in the form of teaching; some of them are caring for the physical life, and some of them are helping the little ones in the physical way in eating.

When man is born into the world, he is dependent upon man. This is the way The Father Willed it, for you see, God gave man the responsibility to care for other men, and in doing this, He said, ‘You must learn to care as I care, you must learn to do as I have done, and you must learn to share.’ An animal does not share the burden of the prey, but man is given this love from God to share the physical way. Man’s way upon the earth is a great one, and God says, ‘As you learn to share, you learn to serve, and this is how I want you to be, to serve Me in the physical way.’

As I stand Here in the Heavens, there are Many Saints around, All ready to speak through this child who sits with many crowds; and as We speak We understand each heart, each mind present. We see each Soul before Us and We say: ‘As you gather in a room of the physical way, the Glow of your Soul is brighter than the light of your day. It is important to God that you help this Soul grow in brightness, and as you do, greater Sainthood is given to you.’

I bless you with God’s Love and I say, ‘The Words I have spoken to you on this night are Words of Wisdom, God’s Way; Words of Truth His Way, and Words of Love, for you see, I walked the human way.’ So be it.”

MARCH 22, 1972 AT 7:49 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My children, The Heavenly Father announced My Entrance to the world a long time ago. I was seen in a Vision in another place, holding The Child in My Arms, blessing the world. This was the First Announcement that one day I would return. The Time is now, the Place is here, and the Message does unfold. I, Saint Joseph, did appear at Fatima a long time ago, and now I’m here with each of you, announcing what God wants Me to.

The time has come for man to see the need for Truth, the need for The Holy Trinity. The time has come for man to serve God, to grow in love with Him, to kneel to Him, to pray to Him, to recognize the Magnitude of Him.

This Miracle of Mine is given to mankind to teach man the Dignity of The Divine, and to teach man the Magnitude of The Holy Eucharist Which, My children, is The Holy Trinity. This Miracle for Me is a Teaching Miracle, is a Giving Miracle, so that man will begin to see the Purpose of the physical is not just to live in the world, but to spend Eternity with The Holy Trinity.

I come on this night and I plead with each of you, I beseech you to understand that This Miracle has a Great Purpose for man. As it was said, that in this realm of Purgatory, man has but one thing; that is hope. And now, This Miracle of Mine does come to the world to give man hope. The Heavenly Father goes to a great extent to give man hope. He has designed a Hill for Me, and upon this Hill there will be eight edifices. One will be a home to house children who will come from far away.

And as you walk up this Hill there will be a place to retreat from the world. This will be a place for children of all colors, all races and all creeds, to feel the Hand of God near them, and to learn Bible History; to retreat from the busy world, the sounds of your day, from the distress all around. It will be, in many ways, as the stable was to Us: a place of refuge, a beginning place, a place of truth, a place to learn how to do God's Will.

And as you walk up this Hill, there will be a place in special dedication to the physical. God has designed this place to be, and the Altar here will be dedicated to The Sacred Heart of The Divine Son Who, as Man, walked with Me.

Upon this Hill there will be a group of men dedicated to Saint John Vianney, and in their work, and in their way, they will grow to Sanctity, but they will be placed upon this Hill to give order to this Hill. They will be the core of this Hill, and as they walk around the Hill they will be able to clothe you in many ways. They will be trained especially to save Souls for God one day.

Upon this Hill there will be a group of women dedicated to serve God ultimately. Their business on this Hill will be to help Souls, and to make things comfortable for man while man learns to pray.

You know, My children, the Hill is the Hill of Hope, and many men will fight this Hill coming God's Way, for they will say there is no need for Basilicas, for edifices, for people to pray. Many men are gathering now, saying this very thing, and I ask you on this night, 'Do you have to have hope?' Of course you do, My children. Hope is strength, hope can give you life.

I take you on this Hill now and I open up the doors to a Magnificent Chapel called 'the Room of Saints', and in this place, all men will see that We did walk the human way, and We did obey God's Will, for each day We tried to grow in love, His Way.

And now I take you to a Chapel, and in this place The Heavenly Mother will be, and around Her Chapel, fifteen Mysteries; and as you pray on each bead, and others also do, you will say 'Hail' to The Queen, and as you do, She will be so happy Here with Me, for Souls will be released from Purgatory. This is truly a Hill of Hope, My children, and one day it must be visible to the eye, and physical in being.

And now I take you up the Hill and another edifice stands tall, and the woods in this place say to all, the vocation of My Way. This great place will be dedicated to The Holy Trinity and God has said, a Place of Honor for Me. I beseech you, My children, pray that those men, who will fight this great place for men, will weaken and see God's Will.

And all around this Hill there will be the Mysteries of Her Rosary, protecting this Hill, to bring you to Eternity. And when men fly overhead they will look down and be told that there is prayer going on, and they will feel the strength up in the sky where they are. And children will come from all over the world, for you see, the Hill is special to God and it has waited since the Crucifixion Day, being prepared for Me.

I bless you with Hope on this night and I bless you with more Faith, and I say: 'Do not reject God's Way, and do not follow man for he is weak. Keep in mind at all times that God is Strength, man is weakness. God is Hope, man can be despair. God is Love, man desires love.' I ask you to take it from there. So be it."

OUR LORD

“Man weeps at sorrow, man reacts to joy, man loves progress and forgets pain. I stand Here in the Heavens, My little ones. I am The Son of The Father, and I speak to you on this night with a Power you cannot know, and in a manner you can understand. I come with deep concern over the lack of self-discipline, the lack of obedience that man has in all things. I speak through this child; I could not if she was not obedient to My Will. Man looks at the sorrow I suffered, looks at the pain I endured and looks at the Resurrection in a casual manner. It was not casual, My children, it was Important to man.

As I walked the path of suffering, some men stood by and shed tears. Others forgot very quickly the look on My Face, the agony I was enduring. The brutality of man was evident in every step; there seemed to be an anxiousness to do more to Me. Men shouted at Me, ‘If You are truly The King, show us.’ Man was designing the kingdom, the power, his own way; man was seeking sensationalism. The Father does not work that way.

As I walked, I beseeched The Father to have the road end, for on top of the suffering I could feel the pain of the horrible sins. This, I truly feel, was the greatest for Me. The Wound in My Shoulder cut so deep I felt like it was inside of Me.

It was not just tolerance that I showed, but I knew that in order to free men I had to be obedient to The Father I loved, for I knew that His Love for men was so Deep and so Great, and I could not say 'No' to Him. One time when I looked to the sky, the Blood in My Eyes dimmed My view. I saw the sky; I knew I would have to wait to see Him. The loneliness I felt at this moment was far greater than any man can know.

The Father has designed This Miracle of Hope, and here again He had to have a Victim Soul. The Beloved Saint Joseph must be seen, must be heard throughout the world. Men must get to know Him and to love Him. In the world right now, man's weakness is as a stench. Man is catering to his weakness, for man has no self-control.

You truly live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah, My children, and as you live in the midst of all this, you have been given the Truth, you have been given the way to escape the weakness of man: first, through prayer, through The Commandments God gave, through the truth you know, through obedience to Here, through the beloved Sacraments you must hold dear.

I was the First Priest, and I come on this night to say that those who follow in My Way must not diminish in any way. They must once again be put in a place of high esteem, of dignity, of great purpose, for they follow Me. I am ever ready to help each one of them if they will but ask Me.

The time is now for man to learn respect for the Purpose of life, for each life truly has a Purpose. The Father does not create without a purpose in mind for all things: some were created for balance; some were created for service; some were created for beauty; some were created to give man strength. No man can make a moon, no man can make a sun, no man can make an earth, no man can create a star, no man can create man, no man can create a Soul. Does this not make man a subject to God and subject to Him?

Man is walking around, determined to enjoy the senses. In reality, that is what they were given for, to enjoy, but also for a purpose. And satan is using the weakness man has allowed and satan is encouraging man to use the senses wrong.

I will not be crucified again for man; there is no reason for it. And I say to you on this night, 'Remember the walk to Calvary, remember the Purpose of it, remember the Purpose God gave man, and remember the dignity of the Priesthood.' And keep in mind, My children, the great place that God placed marriage in, for this place, too, is being diminished by man. What will man have left when he tears down all the Beauty that God gave, God encouraged? Satan is encouraging desecration.

My children, The Saints have spoken to you of hope, and as you leave this home on this night, ask yourselves one thing: Do you reject hope, or do you accept it? Do you embrace it when you see it, when you feel it, or do you feel too self-sufficient to have to depend upon it? I ask you on this night to think much on this.

As I hold this child with My Power, she is aware of each one of you, of your hearts and of your Soul, and I have told her that, for some of you, she must pray much — part of the burden untold.

Take the Wisdom you have learned, take the Truth you have been shown, take the Hope you have been given, take the Love that has been entrusted to you, and share It with others who depend upon you. Place the Faith where you will, and I will nourish them as I Will. You are present at a Miracle, you are present to My Words. You have been given Divine Love to help you grow in the Spiritual.

I bless you with the Wounds I suffered, I bless you with My Heart that gives you hope, and I bless you with the Ray of Light from My Heart, for you to follow. So be it.”

MARCH 23, 1972 AT 7:31 P.M.

SAINT PHILIP

“My sons and My daughters, as I speak it is truly direct to you. I stand in the Heavens and I am in use of God’s Power through a child as you. You are unaware of the Power, for if It touched you, you could not stand the Greatness of It. It is a Power unknown to man, a Power that cannot be developed by man, and It is a Power that loves you.

As I stand Here I wish to relate to you the way I walked in the world a long time ago. I am Saint Philip.

As I walked I suffered, and yet, through the suffering, I knew the only way to endure it was to ask God’s Love, God’s Strength, and I say to you on this night, ‘You, too, have sufferings to endure, some great, some small, and I suggest you ask God to help you.’

Children have lost the beauty of asking their God for things. They have become so accomplished themselves that they lean only on themselves or other men. The beauty of leaning on God is that He created you, He knows you, and He always extends His Hand, so whether the suffering be of the mind or the heart or the body, I say to you on this night, 'Lean on God, My children, for He is always Right and He never denies a child Light.'

I stand in the Heavens, as I will through All Eternity, and I suggest to each one here to offer each day, offer each suffering, and ask God to hold your hand. So be it."

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“My children, I have been requested by God to come at this moment to all here present with this child. I am your Heavenly Mother. I will not give the child a Vision in your sight now, for if I did you would not listen to My Words that I want you to hear, I want you to obey, I want you to love, I want you to respect, I want you to follow.

The world on which you live, in which you take a great part, it is sadness to Here. The Heavenly Father is much disturbed over the sins, the hate, the wickedness, the evil that is all around, that you partake in when you deny obedience to God, when you reject the beauty of prayer.

Oh, My children, each day your Beloved Father waits for you upon the Altar of Hope, the Altar of Sacrifice, the Altar of Love. How many here in the child's presence now, denied themselves today, the Strength It is, the Courage It is, the Love It is, the Beauty It is, the Hope It is, the Magnitude It is? Are you one of these? When you stand before The Heavenly God, oh, My children, He will have weighed all things, and He will Judge you on your love for Him and how you served with the physical way you lived. I cannot bear to have children stray from Him.

I speak through this child because I love each one here in My Presence now. I love you so much that through This Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph I request often to keep in touch. As you walk your daily way, others you meet, others you touch, do not always love God in a special way. So you, My children, must be example for each of them, and you must learn to practice what God wants.

I speak to you from the Realm of Heaven, for if I appeared in your vision now, the vision would only last a short time. But through this child My Words will live on, for I know Each Word is being taken down man's way, to refresh men's thinking, to give man hope Our Way. Heaven is a Gentle Place, this is true, but The Father is firm in what He wants for you, and He says to you on this night, 'Be sure, My children, you fight for truth and do not deny the evil that is all around.'

In your midst God placed a child, and through this child a Miracle of such Greatness that you cannot understand or know the fullness of It. But if, at this moment, I were to say, 'I will give you life for every day,' what would you say? You would want it, I know; and that is what I have come to you to do on this night. I give you life, I give you hope, and now I will give you the way for it, to it.

Do not let others drag you down to evil ways, and do not allow others to rob you of the beauty of each day; and do not let others tear you apart so much that you forget that God made you, and you forget to keep in touch. Anything that man can do is only temporary. God is Eternal. Keep this in mind. So, the problems of your day and your way are only temporary, for only God can help you, and only God can live with you for all time. No man has this right, this power. So please, keep this in mind.

Oh, My children, as I speak to you, I speak with the Wisdom of God and I speak in firmness too, for a mother that loves her children will do this, for she wants them to hear what she does say, she wants them to follow the beauty of this way, and she wants them to be with God one day. God placed man upon the earth so one day man would enjoy Heaven with Him. And now the evil one is saying: 'There is no Hell. There is no Purgatory. And Heaven, who knows about that?' Please, My children, Heaven is Real, God is Real, and God is All Power. Remember that.

Man will not remain on the earth, nor will any material thing. Nothing lasts forever, only God, and one more thing: Sainthood, children, His Gift to you, His Goal for your life in the physical. Keep this in mind. Begin tonight to desire to be a Saint, but walk the path in obedience to God. Keep prayer first, above all things, for when you do, you will grow so in love with Him that you will desire to forever live with Him.

Keep in mind, My children, the Beauty of The Holy Eucharist, the Power that It is. Men now are diminishing this Great Gift from God. They are trying much to eliminate It. Do not be a part of this, for This, My children, is God's Gift to you, and this is where the evil one is attacking, straight to you, for if he can eliminate this Great Gift of God from the world, man will become so weak, man will become in such turmoil that man will not be able to stand to fight against the evil one, and this is what he's doing, children. Please, My little ones, do not desecrate this Great Gift and do not let others diminish It, for if you do you will be lost without It.

I bless you with My Rosary, the prayer that says hope to the Souls in Purgatory. I bless you, first with the Crucifix, for this is the part of it that saved you, that opened up Eternity with God for you. I bless you with My Beads and I say, 'Honor Me this way and I will never forget it, for as you do, Grace is given to you. And when the Souls are released from Purgatory through the Beads that you do say, I multiply the love for you, for you see, you can bring Souls This Way.' So be it, My loved ones, for now."

MARCH 23, 1972 AT 7:50 P.M.

SAINT JOSEPH

“My beloved children, I will speak stronger than The Beloved Heavenly Mother did, for as I walked the earth I was a man, and now I am a Saint in Heaven. This Miracle of Mine has been sent forth to the world to help mankind spend Eternity with God. I am Saint Joseph.

This time in which you live, I come forward now, for now it is a time of great sorrow, great grief, great trouble, and The Heavenly Father is sending Me to show you the beauty of obedience and the beauty of trusting in Him.

When The Heavenly Mother walked the earth as My Wife, We walked much like you, caring for Each Other, caring for the day, partaking in the daily tasks and doing all things We should. At repast time We joined in talk about the daily way. We discussed the problems of Our friends and the need that some We knew had that day. We prepared Ourselves for the following day, and as We did, We walked around the house, discussing what We felt should be accomplished in that day, as you do in your way.

There were many times Our Beloved Son would discuss with Us the situations all around. We knew the Wisdom that He had was from a Greater Source and We knew that This Child was destined to walk a road for God alone. We did not discuss what He would face, but We took each day as it would come, not anticipating problems, but solving them one by one; and this, My children, is for you.

Do not try to take a lifetime and accomplish it in one day. It cannot be done. And that is why This Miracle of Mine, given to mankind, in the midst of you, is a Miracle of every day, a Miracle of Truth. God did not send It for one day, one month, one year, but It is continuous for you; and each day is handled as We feel it should be, moment by moment. And as the children come to hear the Words from The Divine, We speak Them for the ones present, and We touch the hearts of those who open up their hearts to Us.

And so I say to you on this night, 'I love you in My Way and I understand the troubles of your day, but I also understand that you walk in a time of great trouble.' God has not diminished, but man has diminished his idea of God, and now I come to the world to change that thinking.

The Heavenly Father has designed a place of hope for you, a place for you to go to, and learn more of Him; a place for you to stand and look around the world, a place for you to feel good in, a place that will surely give you hope. It is a Hill, My children, and in many ways compared to the Hill of Calvary, for on the Hill of Calvary man was given hope. And now The Father sends Me, another Son, to the world in a different way; but here again, a Hill is involved, and it is not too far away.

The Hill will have upon it, homes of rest for pilgrims to come from all over the world, to feel God, to learn to know Him and to love Him. Another house says, 'Oh, My children, rest,' and this will be a retreat from the world. There will be a Monastery upon this Hill where men will serve this Hill, and you will be able to go and say, 'Please, Father, take my sins away.' And this priest will know the power of his Gift, and he will say, in many ways, the advice that We will give. Upon this Hill there will be a place for women to honor The Holy Trinity, and on this Hill there will be a place for the physical to be nourished, to give men strength to pray.

And then, upon this Hill there will be a Room to The Beloved Holy Mother. Also, My children, All Saints will be recognized upon this Hill of Hope. There will be a Basilica in My Honor, but housing The Holy Trinity first. So as this Hill comes to completion in God's Way, God's Time, man says, 'It cannot be done,' and God says, 'It is My Will from The Divine.' And no man must stand in the way of this Hill being completed, for God's Will must be done in your time. My Name is fast becoming known, for This Miracle of Love, This Miracle of Hope is on the Winds of God's Power and in the Power of God's Wind.

Oh, My children, you have been Blessed on this night as you entered the door. You were met by The Holy Family. You did not see Us, but nonetheless, We were there, for some of you have come in great hope, some of you have come in great despair, and some of you have come, saying, ‘It cannot be real, God does not work this way.’ Oh yes, He does, My children, and you have partaken in This on this night. Keep this in mind, and remember this: We welcomed you at the door.

I bless you with God’s Love and I bless you with Hope, and I say, ‘Wipe away despair, it solves nothing; and in its place put hope, for where there is hope there is life; and where there is life, let it be God’s Way.’ So be it.”

MARCH 23, 1972 AT 8:01 P.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“My beloved sons and My beloved daughters, since the Announcement of This Miracle, many men have made decisions on how I would design such a Miracle. None have come up with the correct design. No man can anticipate what I would do or how I would do it.

As I speak through this child, it is direct to you from Heaven. I created you and I created the world, I created the universe. Why would I not then have the power to create a Miracle and partake in It, as I always do? I, your Father, speak openly to you, using the physical of one of you to reach the world. I place her in a normal atmosphere, in a natural surrounding, in a human way. I have been known all through time to use My Creations to perform My Own Will, and to help mankind.

The world has fallen into a pattern of sin. Man has forgotten how to pray because he has become so involved with the human way that he has forgotten Me. I do not care if man does not agree with My Thinking, but I do care if man does not obey Me. In My Plan I gave man The Rules to live by, easy to understand, but now These Rules are being set aside and replaced by man's thinking. I say to man on this night, 'Obey My Commandments; I Command You To Do So.' I did not create man to be lost to Me.

I speak slowly through the child for I use a Great Power to reach you. I come to you on this night because I love you. I love you in a way you cannot know, to a degree you cannot know, and in a manner far superior to man. In My Creation of all things, I had a firm plan. The enemy thrives on jealousy and many men are following him. He cannot love, he can only hate. Is this not foolish then, My children, to participate in anything he offers?

I showed, through My Son, the beauty of prayer; and I showed, through My Son, the beauty of sacrifice and love and trust. I showed, through My Son, the beauty of obedience. My Generosity has no boundaries.

Oh, My children, on this night I say, 'Sift the untruth and let it go away.' If, when you sift, there is but a small amount left, if it be truth cling to it, for it will grow. You are but children to Me.

Many men would say, 'The Father would not speak.' This is foolish banter, foolish way. I did not create man and then go away. As I placed This Miracle of a Beloved Son upon the earth, I am much a Part of This Miracle, but through This Miracle I intend to show man the Beauty of the Heavens, the Magnitude of The Holy Eucharist, of Which I Am; the power of prayer, the necessity for sacrifice, and how I love obedience.

I give man hope as I once did a long time ago through Another Son, and this time I give it through The One Who was His Father upon the earth. Man must get to know This Beloved Saint, man must speak His Name out, man must honor Him.

I, your Father, bless you in many ways. My speaking to you tonight was a Blessing you cannot know, but in which you partake. I ask each child in My Presence here to become a Saint. I will not deny you Sainthood if you grow in love with Me. I cannot deny you anything for I truly love each of thee. I grant you what I know is best, I allow what I know will help you; and when you face a test I am ever ready to stand by you, but sometimes, children, you forget to call upon Me. I bless you. I am The Father of The Holy Trinity. I am your God. I Created Everything.”

MARCH 24, 1972 AT 11:15 A.M.

OUR BLESSED MOTHER

“My beloved children, if I thought it would save mankind, I would appear in the world for all men to see a Grand Vision of Me. It would serve a great purpose, but it is not the answer at this time. I, your Mother, speak to you in Full Truth from The Divine. The child now sees Me as I Will her to see Me, and I stand upon the world you are in. You are a part of this place and I am ever ready to protect it.

I encircle this world with My Holy Rosary for it is the greatest protection man has. Men are not learning these Beads and the value of them. Men are not seeing them for the beauty they are, the truth they are, the lesson they are. Man is only looking upon them as a monotonous prayer. What mother does not love to hear a child say nice things to her? And when My children say, ‘Hail Mary, full of Grace, the Lord is with You,’ you see, My children, this means the child recognizes God’s Love for Me, God’s Closeness to Me; and when a child says, ‘Holy Mary, Mother of God,’ here again, the child recognizes the Oneness We are, the Togetherness We have, and the Power of God, for if it was not for Him, I would not be in this Place, I would not be your Mother as I was His.

So many children gather with high hopes of saying this prayer and they become discouraged when others do not share. When I say to all mankind, 'Be example so others will latch on to the idea, to the beauty it is,' men, when they become disappointed when they cannot lead others, they immediately give up. This cannot be, for to stand in full love, in full truth, you must continue, you must persevere in it. And so I say to you, 'If you kneel alone, do this: Others will join you if you ask them to.' So many children are not being asked, for discouragement comes when some refuse. This must cease. I want the world to be dedicated to the Holy Rosary, for it is the protection man needs.

I use this child spontaneously, and she is obedient to Our Way. The Words that you hear now come to you from Me, through her, the speaker of your day; her voice, not loud in volume, but through her voice many men will come Our Way.

My children, I stand in the world, I stand upon it, I stand above it. I am ever ready to hear what you have to say, but keep in mind this: I expect you to pray, for through your prayers you will give others strength, you will give hope, for you see, the example you show is a gift to others they cannot know.

If The Divine Son, Who was My Son upon the earth, became discouraged when men did not agree with His Words, where would We all be today? Heaven would not have opened. Is this not so? So persevere, My children, in God's Will and in obedience to Him. Persevere in serving Him. Persevere in being example for Him, and I will gather you around My skirt and We will walk the physical life together, for you see, as I once walked in the way of man, I walk now in the Heavens Here, and I gather children around Me to lead others to the Feet of God.

I say to you on this day, 'Continue to persevere through The Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph, for in the Heavens Here, We All honor Him, We

All love Him, and We All participate in God's Will for Him.'

I bless you with God's Love first, and then I bless you with My Heart, and I bless you with the Light that shines through This Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph. So be it."

MARCH 26, 1972

“To all outward appearances, it appears to man that he is placing much emphasis on the true physical way. This is not so. What man is doing is only surface love. To truly be concerned about the physical way means that man would be concerned with the whole of one’s self, which means the physical, the Spiritual, the mental. So many men are walking in the world, putting all emphasis on, not physical, but on the senses belonging to the physical. Oh, My children, if you but knew how this diminishes the fullness of the physical, you would not believe the magnitude that it is.

Let us now dissect the whole being: the physical, the Soul, the mental, the emotional, the personality, the will. This, My children, makes up the whole of man, and each part plays an important part in the life of man. It is true that through the physical man will save the Soul; through the emotional, through the personality, man will give of the will.

I could go on and on, but if I did, I would take hours of your time to truly paint a picture of the physical's connection with The Divine.

And now I say to you on this night, 'Be aware, as you stand in the world, that you are not just made up of senses, but there is more to you than you realize.' I have dissected you into six parts. Keep this in mind, and as you go through life, be aware of each part combined.

I bless you with God's Love and I say, 'I am a Saint Who walked the physical way, but I suddenly became aware of all things that made up the physical way.' I bless you with God's Love, with a Power from Above, and I say, 'Do not separate yourselves with just the senses from the truth of your way, but look at the broad view that God does, and if you do, you will see the fullness of you in all ways.' So be it."

MARCH 26, 1972 AT 12:00 P.M.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“My children, I am your Heavenly Mother. If I were to live in your time and be a neighbor of yours, let Us pretend, you and I, that I am knocking on your door to speak with you. Would you ignore Me? Would you welcome Me? Would you invite Me into your home? I feel you would. I feel that you would give Me the time of day and respect Who I was. A physical visit is not likely to be in the way you visit with others, for I am no longer on the earth, but I have been allowed by God to visit you through This Great Miracle of Hope, This Miracle that has been given to the world to save Souls.

Many times I have spoken direct, beseeching children to do the things that will give them hope, and give Souls in Purgatory the Way Here. Many men say I would not speak this way. This is not so. Man cannot design The Father’s Way. Man cannot make the rules as to how We would come to men. Man must understand that all through time God has done all things in a particular way, for a particular time, and in a manner best for the children all around; and, of course, the ultimate reason was always for the Soul.

I speak from the Heavens and I say to children whom I know love Me, 'Be example of the things that will help others better understand The Holy Trinity, My Immaculate Heart, and Sainthood that is available to all mankind.' So many men have tried to tell men that there is no Hereafter. Of course, My children, these are satan's ways, and oftentimes he uses men who are weak in God's Way, are full of self-love in man's way, and who want only to look good in the eyes of mankind. The evil one does not love you; he envies you. The evil one does not care what happens to you; he is jealous of you.

All Heaven has come forward to fight the enemy for you, but in doing this, The Holy Trinity is giving you the Wisdom and allowing you your will to make the choosing. Oh, My children, this is God's Love for you. He gives you the Wisdom, He gives you the Light, He gives you the freedom, He gives you the chance to say 'Yes' or 'No'. Satan cannot work this way.

He is not sure that if he gives you the freedom, he fears you will accept the right; and, of course, then you become lost to him. But God, in His Great Love for you, because He created you to earn the right of Heaven, to earn the right of Sainthood, He gives you the chance and the freedom to choose Him. This is Love, My little ones. It is strength, it is courage, it is peace, it is joy, it is tranquillity.

I have spoken many times through this child. Her will is at God's Command. The will of hers is given for the sins of man. And at the moment of her accepting the Will of The Blessed Trinity, All Heaven came forward, ready to speak, ready to use this child to give you the Way to Heaven. Oh, it is true, many men have said to God: 'I give You my will, do with me what You want,' but circumstances were quite different. It was He Who approached this child. It was He Who gave her the prayer. It was He Who took her heart. It was He Who chose the way of suffering, of purpose, of task after task, of facing mankind. It was He Who said to her: 'I offer you no happiness. Let your will serve only Me.' And she agreed, not in a moment of weakness, but in a moment of strength; not in a moment of turmoil, but in a moment of love; not in a moment of despair, but in a moment of great joy; not in a moment of burden, but in a moment of obedience, trust, and love; not with the imagination, not with a desire, but with a full understanding that it was His Will for her.

This place that so many men look upon with criticism, and some even belligerence, she must stand in it, and stand firm on what she knows was God's Will. I beg of you, My children, I beseech you, that in your daily way you are determined to find His Will, to perform It, and do not let anyone lead you from It; for many will try, and satan will put many before you: temptation of the eye. Do not let it be you who weakens, but turn your way and say, 'God, I want to do only what You Will me to do today,' and then, My children, say 'The Divine Praises', for they pay Honor to Him; and this is the one prayer that the evil one fears, for as long as you shout, 'Blessed be God, Blessed be His Holy Name,' the evil one is sent in despair.

I, your Mother, love you far more than any earthly mother could, for you see, I see your Soul and I see what you can gain by doing God's Will. I come to you with a Crown of Heaven. The Crown is not a crown as you know a crown to be. The Crown is the Sight of The Holy Trinity. What mother does not want a child to have the best? I, too, want the best for thee: a Crown. I love you and I bless you in The Sign of The Holy Trinity, and with Grace to one day come Here and be a Saint with All of Us. So be it."

SAINT JOSEPH

“My children, The Father often asks a child to stand in a precarious position when His Will is to be done by man. The first Son to be asked to stand for solid truth was The Divine Son Who walked as man.

There were many Christians before this that stood in a solid way, but their choosing was somewhat different for their day. When a child stands in a chosen way, the child must listen constantly for God’s Will, and oftentimes this leads to denial by man.

The Way of The Cross, the Crucifixion scene, was similar to this, for as The Son did walk the path chosen by God, it was man who inflicted the Wounds and the humiliating way. It was man who chose the method of Crucifixion, not God. It was man who made the decision against Him, saying He was not true. It was man who carried out the decision to the end; keep in mind, man’s way, not God’s; and all down the line The Father gave each man a chance to stand up for Him. He had to continuously say that He stood for The Divine King. He was ridiculed, spat upon and denied.

Oh, My children, now, in the time in which you live, God has chosen another child for many men to deny. The child will be tried and will be found not guilty. She knows this, for she will stand in Solid Truth, but this does not say that man will welcome her, that man will not deny her, that man will not discredit her. This child stands on a tightrope to save Souls. This child stands in jeopardy each day, only to fulfill God's Will, God's Way.

Many men will eliminate themselves from This Miracle of Truth, but keep this in mind when they do: It will be their own pride, their own ego, their own decision, and they will be as the first men were on the Hill to Calvary. They will become absorbed in seeking all things man's way, not God's. They will stand on the truth they feel, and in the knowledge that has been revealed to them by other men; and I say to all of them now, 'Would it not be wise if you stood in wisdom and look to the similarities taking place?'

The world has been given a Great Jewel, The Miracle of Mine. The world has been handed hope through This Miracle of Mine. The world has been shown, firsthand, the Love of The Holy Trinity. I stand in the world now, not as man, but through a man. I stand in a home, receiving man. All those who come to this home to find out Truth, are given Truth. There are no lies, there are no untruths, and those who have Faith in God see It. Those who have faith in themselves alone cannot bear to see It, for you see, to accept in Faith, All Truth, they would have to deny themselves, and they cannot do this to their pride, to their ego, to their self-love.

This child through whom I speak stands out against heresy. This is not an easy road. Those who cling to man's way of doing things, she strikes out at; and when a child must stand in this way, keep in mind, My children, that humility has to be present at all times, no self-gain. She has been prepared for those who will reject This Miracle. It is a great sorrow to her and a great sorrow to Us, for as they reject It, they say to God: 'I do not agree with Your Thinking. I do not feel this woman stands as she should, as she does. Show us a sign, give us open view'; and so it was that fatal time, The Son Who walked for you. When a child is a Victim Soul for God, the child sometimes has to deny one thing to stand up for What God Wants.

Oh, My children, for the first time in centuries man is being given the chance to be a Saint in great number. Many men at this moment are discussing this child and they are saying, 'Why her, why not me?' and many are saying: 'God would not choose a woman to fight this great fight. God would not choose a woman to stand before all mankind; He would choose a man, a man of great strength.' And God says to them: 'Why do you feel you know who I would choose? You look for strength in physical way. I know that this strength is only temporary. The strength I look for is in the Soul. The strength I use is love for Me, and so you see, man, you do not have the wisdom to determine My Choosing. Through the weakness of the physical way, My Power is seen, and those who are present here have seen It, for the physical weakness in this child is far more than you know. To sustain her in times of great tiredness, only I could have done so.'

Those who are following man tend to believe they have great powers on their own, great strengths within them. Not so. This child through whom I speak depends solely on Us for all things, and We have told her oftentimes: 'Let the criticism and the discrediting you receive slide off of you. Wash it away with the water blessed by the priest.'

The Hill of Hope is not man's dream. It is God's Will, and it must be seen. The child will stand firm. Do not try to anticipate how it will be. Those who eliminate themselves from This Miracle of Truth are sadness to Us Here, for it is only self-love and there is no strength in this love. The greatest strength in the world is to do God's Will.

The world is attentive now to the approach of the Crucifixion scene. I cannot help but wonder how many children now would stand and shout at The Beloved King: 'Give me a sign so I can love You. Show me Who You really are so I can believe the altar that this child stands upon is similar.' She turns to Us repeatedly and says: ‘Thy Will, my God, not mine. Let all those who want a sign change their minds so they will grow in love with You and see that there is no need to have a sign.’

I bless you, My children, with The Father’s Love and with The Heart of The Divine Son, Who was My earthly Son, Who walked the world in sacrifice, in penance, to save mankind; and with the Light, the Wisdom for the world, through This Miracle of Mine. So be it.”

SAINT JOSEPH

“Man is rejecting the solemnity of all things. Man is saying: ‘We do not need protocol in the Spiritual way. Let us all act as we feel God wants us to be.’ Oh, My children, pomp and ceremony is necessary to stimulate the Spiritual. Man is eliminating the beauty of ritual. Man says, ‘We do not need this; let us all act toward God in our own meditative way.’ Oh, My children, you lose so much, for when you do this, your mind wanders, you lose touch.

The Heavenly Father gave mankind The Holy Eucharist, and This, My children, must be received with honor, with dignity, with reverence. This is ceremony, but so many children are rejecting the ceremony that this is, and they are saying, ‘It is not All they say It is.’ Oh, My children, understand that as This was handed to the first Apostles, it was done in dignity, it was done with reverence, it was done with a beauty, and it was done in a formality, for how could The Holy Trinity be given to man any other way?

Man is making excuses for all things. Man is deliberately disobeying God, because man says: 'We live in a time different than then. We live in a time where man does what he wills to do, when man seeks God on his own terms.' Oh, My children, that is why This Miracle of Truth was given to the world, to show man the dignity God expects of man, to show man the Dignity of The Holy Eucharist, and to show man the need for prayer, and the reverence to These Things that should be there. Man has become so lackadaisical in his manner that he is forgetting the beauty of respect. Man has become so indifferent to God's Way that he makes excuses for his time not spent in this manner of giving to God time due Him. Do you understand?

Oh, My children, through this child, each day Miracles occur, and man says, 'I do not see the Miracles,' and God says: 'But I do, for as the Words plant Seeds, I nourish Them. These are Miracles of My Way.'

When man is able to create something small, God smiles upon this and says, 'I gave you the means; please thank Me for this,' but man, in his pride, forgets to thank The Creator of All Things, The Dispenser of All Things, and man takes all the credit. And so, now, God has sent a Miracle to the world through a child as you, through Me, Saint Joseph, and God wants man to recognize that he can do nothing on his own, and that man must take the time to respond to God, His Will, His Way, His Plan.

My children, Many Words from Me, through this child, have awakened you to the spirituality that life must have. Is this not so? And is it not true that you have grown in love with God, you have grown in love with The Holy Trinity, through This Miracle of Hope? I hear your hearts say: 'Yes, my God. Yes, Saint Joseph. Thank You for the Soul.'

Oh, My children, at a moment's notice this child must respect Our Wish, Our Will. At a moment's notice this child must respond, and there are those who are standing on the outside of This Miracle, ready to disclaim her, ready to discredit her, and Heaven stands by and says: 'Child, shrug them off. They do not know God's Will; all they care about is self.'

And as I speak through her on this day to you, I come to you to give you strength, for you see, My children, you will need much strength to continue in the work ahead. You will need much strength, for in the work that is to be done, children will think of The Holy Trinity. And children will come to This Miracle for they will read the Words that you take part in, to display before them, and they will say: 'Who is this woman who stands in such a way? Who is she, who God speaks through every day?' That is not for you to answer. Only We will nourish the Seeds, but you are the distributor of the Seeds. You are the planter, in many ways, of Seeds throughout the world. Your task is great. Oh please, My children, know this, for as you send forth the Seeds made by Heaven, created Here, God says to you, 'Plant Them everywhere.'

Man is familiar with a story: When a seed is planted the tree will grow; and do not forget, some trees will not bear fruit until a certain process takes place. The child is the process. Oh, My children, plant the Seeds and let Them fall in every place you know, and let Them fly upon the Winds of God's Power and let Them land in places you would not dare go, for you see, as They do, Souls will be awakened and the nourishment will take place and the Seeds will grow: grow within the Soul, grow within the agonizing ills of some men; They will grow in the consciousness of some men, and They will grow in the hearts of many.

I bless you on this day, and I come to say to a group gathered in God's Honor, My Way: 'Oh, children, let those Seeds you handle with such care, let Them be on the Winds of The Power everywhere, and stand upon the Hill, imaginary to you but real to Here, and let the Words of Wisdom, Truth, Knowledge and of Love, be placed everywhere; and as They do, Some will be held in solemn way and Some will be distributed in this way, but do not let the manner in which They are passed on be your care; only be the sower of the Seeds, and only send Them everywhere.'

I love you and I bless you for the work, for as you place the Seeds with your love, with your heart, with your hands, with your minds, know that They are All Truth. So be it."

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“My beloved children, I am your Heavenly Mother, and it is true, satan works very hard for Me to not speak to you. My Way on earth in your time is to appear in visual sight to a certain few. This Miracle through Which I come is The Miracle of The Beloved Son, Saint Joseph, Who was My Spouse in the world.

I speak through a child in a manner unfamiliar to you. I am within her, I am around her, I am above her, and yet My Words reach you. I speak in the tongue of your way and in Words you understand, through the language you know in your day. I come to you in a special way, to give you a Special Message for each of you.

I speak to the sons first, who follow the Way of My Son, Who is The Son of The Divine. You are attacked from all sides. You are approached from all sides. You are the target of many pawns of satan. You are, in many ways, subject to criticism, and yes, you walk a tightrope for The Holy Trinity.

I say to you now, as I have said through this child before: 'Do not walk on the tightrope alone. Hold the Hand of The Father at all times. Hold It close, hold It dear, and do not let go of Him, for if you do, you will have reason to fear. Man will try to knock you off the tightrope. It is man's way to seek strength, to seek courage. Man is screaming for strength, for courage.'

It is now as it was in the time My Son walked the earth. In that time, too, men were seeking someone to stand in absolute Truth, someone to teach Divine Way, someone to radiate love for The Divine, love for The Creator; and through This Son, man was able to hear What God Wanted him to hear. So it is again in your time. The tightrope you walk is as thin as any line can be. Man fishes in the ocean with the line of this dimension, for you see, the line is strong. Remember this, and the strength of this line will support you to a degree, but the real strength in the line, in the rope that you walk, is The Divinity.

Oh, My sons, be aware of the path, of the plan, of the way, of the truth, of the wisdom that you have within you, and let no man shake the rope and cause you to fall from it. I will always protect you with My Mantle if you will but seek My Help, if you will but put yourselves in My Protection. There are Many Saints Here in the Heavens Who watch over you. You do not pray to Them, but They have been given the task by God, to watch your path. Through this watching, many times They have called you back: in little things, perhaps to you; in great things, that you have not recognized satan's hand in, against you.

Oh, My sons, through This Miracle of All Truth, I come to you on this day with a Love you cannot know and with a firmness as only a mother knows, a Heavenly Mother Who dearly loves you.

I speak to the other sons in the room. Both walk a different path. One, in anticipation for the path you are on, I say to him on this day, in your way, to be cautious, son, for many are eager to challenge you and to weaken you. It is as it was when the Apostles were first called to follow The Son. Before the time came to make them a true follower, an everlasting one, there were many, many attractions on the side and there were many, many men who abused their way, saying, 'You fool, why do you follow a Man Who speaks as He speaks, Who walks as He walks?' There is nothing new in the world. Oh, My son, if you but knew how many are against your way. Keep in mind that you, too, must hold the Hand of God; you, too, must seek My Protection every day; and you, too, must follow truths in all ways.

You, My son, were chosen to protect a child whom God uses every day. Your role as protector is as Joseph's was. Your role is to stand by and see that God's Will be done in a particular way.

Four men, I speak to now, all working for God in a special way, all seeking to do His Will. I am happy, My sons, and I cherish a time such as this, and I say, 'Never try to anticipate God's Will, but stand in the Truth He has given and you will stand within His Plan and you will stand within His Holy Will.'

I bless you with My Love and I say: 'The world was given to man as a means to come Here one day. Cherish the way. Cherish God's Plan and follow His Truth. Follow His Holy Will to the physical end, so when the physical is over and Life begins, you will be able to stand before Him and say to Him: “I love You, God. Thank You for the privilege You gave me one day.”

I speak to the little ones in the room and I say, ‘You, too, must seek My Protection each day, and you, too, must hold your Father’s Hand for all time.’ I bless you with a Mother’s Love and I say, ‘Cling to My Dress, hold My Knee, and I will walk with you down the path to Eternity.’ So be it.”

APRIL 4, 1972 AT 7:20 P.M.

SAINT MARGARET MARY ALACOQUE

“Heaven hears children remark of Me. Heaven smiles at children so alert to the power of a name, for children connect much to a name. We Here in the Heavens smile at this, for you see, My children, I am the Saint known, connected, with The Heart of The Son. You know Me as a woman Saint. Some children do not pronounce My Name properly. ‘Alacoque,’ some say. I smile upon this as they do this. And some say, ‘Saint Margaret Mary’; some say, ‘Saint Mary Margaret’. Oh my; but Heaven says, ‘Why is a name so important to children who walk the physical way?’ We understand them, and We smile upon this when We hear children discuss the Names of We Saints.

Right Here in the Heavens Where I am, there are Many Saints Who walked the earth in chosen ways, for God alone. They were not recognized in the world for the way They walked, for many men discussed Their way, and many men saw the pros and cons of Their way, and many men denied Their way.

I speak to you now of a Very Great Saint, Saint Teresa of Avila. Oh, She stands Here in the Heavens, and She smiles upon all children who discuss Her way, and She says: ‘It is one of the ways you can imitate to reach God. Remember this.’

And Saint Catherine, Who is known as ‘Saint Catherine of Siena’, She, too, walked a very definite way for God and She, too, walked a pattern of complete Truth, and She, too, had to stand up to men of all kinds and tell them what God wanted of each of them.

I smile at these Beautiful Saints, for you see, My children, God has placed Them in a Particular Way, a Particular Place, and He has left Their Names upon the earth for you to seek out, and for you to pray to for aid, for comfort, for help.

And now I, the Saint of The Heart, come to you. And many men say My way was not truth. This does not change the way I walked.

There are Many Saints Here: the Beautiful, the Beloved Saint Anne. She comes to all children as The Heavenly Grandmother, and how many children do not even know Her way, and they do not even know that She was the mother of The Heavenly Mother, Who leads all men This Way. We smile at this, when children begin to know Her Name, for you see, to them Her Name is important.

Oh, children of God, All Love, all children of Grace, keep in mind that children need to know about The Saints. They need to know the way They traveled, human, and yet deliberate in God's Way.

And keep in mind the great men who walked the world, Who are now Saints. Saint Peter walks in the Heavens, God's Way, and He oftentimes walks forward and says, 'Oh, God, a child needs Your Help a particular way,' and The Heavenly Father smiles at Peter and says: 'Peter, you have My Permission. Keep in mind, too, Peter, that the Church is your way. You must help all men who walk the pattern of this way.'

There are so Many Saints Here, My children. The Name of John Vianney was mentioned by you. We smile upon this, for you see, His path was a different way, His method was a different way, and yet His love for God was ultimate in its way.

There, as I look forward now, I see the Beloved Saint Bernadette. She, too, walked a human way. She, too, was obedient to God, to The Beloved Mother, in a particular way, and through Her obedience, many men now cherish the way She walked; but, at the time She walked, oh, men were critical and men did not treat Her as a Saint; not necessary, for you see, the only thing that was necessary was for man to believe and to walk the way that was prescribed by The Heavenly Queen.

And now I look over to My left, and I smile and say, 'Oh my, Saint John of The Cross stands there ready to help all children know the way to God.' You see, My children, All of Us are ready, All of Us are willing, and yes, All of Us are able to help you in many ways.

Children are not learning the Beauty of Sainthood. We want you, on this day, to begin to understand that for the children to know about The Saints, Who We are, is necessary for them, for what Greater Purpose is there to the physical life than to be a Saint in Heaven with God for All Time? Children must begin to know that the physical has a Purpose and has a Way to go.

I bless you with The Heart of The Son, and I say, 'To follow This Heart, My children, you, too, must do this every day, and when you look to The Heart of This Beloved One, keep in mind that He extends It to all mankind, and the Rays of His Love go forward at the slightest thought a child has of The Holy One.' I bless you with This Heart and I say, 'Teach others about This Heart every day.' So be it."

APRIL 4, 1972 AT 7:30 P.M.

SAINT MATTHEW

“My sons, I am Saint Matthew. As I speak to you, I speak from a Realm you know little of. You do not know the Great Beauty that is Here, nor do you know all the work that is accomplished Here each day to draw Souls to the Divine Way. Man has the idea in a human form, that We Saints do not concern Ourselves with man’s way. Never would God allow you to be alone. Remember this each day. His first Great Act in this way is to show you His Great Love for you by allowing Himself to be consumed by you each day. This in itself should tell you of His Love. He does not cut the Love off there, for some children cannot understand this Gift of His, and so He allows Us to project help to you each day.

As I speak through this child, I speak in a way of your knowledge, of your understanding. You walk in a day of different time than when I walked, but the problems of your time are similar in many ways. As I speak through this child, I speak in a manner in which I spoke; Words I use are for you to understand in your way. You are exposed to much sin, much weakness, and it is a great Truth in your day that the heresy all around is against God's Way.

Man is so busy reading books that he does not have the time to pray. Man must begin to know that prayer is communication with God in a particular way. My time was a time of learning. My time became a time of giving. My time was a time that many new things were occurring, and then too, there was a great need to pray. Man has the wrong idea of prayer. Man is somehow misunderstanding a small thought. Man is beginning to think he must go off into the wilderness and spend hours meditating. This, in many ways, is a waste of time.

Man must learn that prayer is done in the acts of life. The small things man does can be a prayer to The Divine. I speak through this child. Her obedience to My Way is an act of prayer. Each act of duty during the day can be made an act of prayer. The thought must be presented with the act. Man should be told this manner of prayer. The daily tasks should be thought of as prayer to God. The daily work should be presented to God in thanksgiving for the privilege of the performance.

Children of all ages are not being taught prayer. They must be alerted to all kinds of prayer. Please, My children, keep this in mind as you go through each day. Prayer in a wordlike manner is important to God, but many men use this to such a degree that, in many ways, it is a waste of time. All it does is satisfy man's laziness. This must be told to man: Prayer, when presented to God in the form of acts, must carry the thought to God: 'God, I offer You this task, for Your Will to be done.' This is what man must learn to do.

I have not spoken often through this child, but I have spoken some. She recognizes My approach and My manner. I leave you now, My sons, with the thought of how to teach man to pray. It is important, for God wants all men to recognize the beauty of prayer. I bless you with God's Love and I say, 'Keep in mind the beauty of prayer as you go through your day.' So be it."

APRIL 6, 1972 AT 2:07 P.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“My children, if I were to ask each child in the room to add two and two, there is not one of you that could not do this. If I were to ask each child in the room, ‘What color is the moon?’ you would know immediately. If I were to ask each child, ‘What is water?’ you would know immediately. If I were to ask each child, ‘Does a knife who cuts you hurt?’ you would have to say, ‘Oh yes, God,’ right now.

And now I say to you: ‘Do each of you know the status of your Soul? Do each of you know how you feel when you are in sin? Do each of you know how good it feels to be in the State of Grace with Me?’ Oh, My children, know these things and be aware of these things for, as you are, you will grow more in love with Me each day.

I bless you with My Love and I say, ‘If you know so much about the world, why do you not know more about Me and My Way?’ So be it.”

APRIL 6, 1972 AT 4:42 P.M.

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“My beloved children, I walked in the world a long time ago. Many men do not know of My Name nor My way, but when I was in the world I fought a great heresy, a terrible scourge that was occurring throughout the world. Many men remember Me as fighting the Arian heresy. I am Saint Athanasius.

This child has been set forth upon the earth by The Heavenly Father, partly to fight another heresy all about. This time it will be known by a different name, this time it will be accomplished in a different vein, and this time many men will see, after seeing the child, the Greatness of the way she must walk, the Fullness of the way, and the Manner that God has displayed.

The heresy that this child must fight is greater than you know. The wickedness that this heresy is bringing forth is far greater than any man can tell, and I say to all children: ‘You live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah. You live in a time worse than any heresy of any other day.' So keep in mind, My children, that This Miracle of Hope, This Miracle of Love, must flourish throughout the world, and All the Words said by The Divine must be seen by mankind readily.

You see, My children, man is wasting time. Man is leaning on the past, man is leaning on the future, but what man must truly lean upon is the Truth of the moment, the Truth that has been set forth by The Holy Trinity, the Truth that will last for all time. This, My children, is God's Will, God's Way, and the Truth that has been set down by Him through His Divine Son many years ago.

I bless you with God's Love and I say, 'Heresy must be gone from the world for children to see the Light God's Way.' So be it."

APRIL 7, 1972 AT 7:48 P.M.

SAINT BONAVENTURE

“My children, I am Saint Bonaventure, and as I speak through this child, I have come to teach you a great Lesson. I have come to teach you how to pray. In the day in which you live, there are so many children of all ages who are not praying in the correct way.

First of all, to pray well you must recognize The Holy Trinity, and keep in mind that the Cross is the greatest prayer you can say. As you say, ‘In the Name of The Father,’ you are recognizing The God Who created you. As you say, ‘In the Name of The Son,’ you are recognizing that This Part of The Holy Trinity once gave His Life for you; and as you cross your shoulders and you say, ‘In the Name of The Holy Ghost,’ you are accepting the Light from God that He sends through the Third Part of Him. So, My children, keep in mind, and I ask you to say it together with this child: ‘In the Name of The Father and of The Son and of The Holy Ghost. Amen.’

I, Saint Bonaventure, come to you on this night, and I want you to always remember this great prayer is a love to God's Sight, and as you say it every day, begin the day as such. And when you lay your head at night, say the prayer again, and ask The Heavenly God Who created all men to bless you through this time and help you greet another day. Oh, My children, when you are in error or trouble during the day, say this prayer to yourself, for in this prayer, you call upon God in your own little way.

I bless you with The Sign of The Cross, and I say, 'It is the Cross that will lead you to Here, for it will remind you every day of your Creator, of The One Who gave you life, and the Light you must follow and hold dear.' So be it."

APRIL 7, 1972 AT 8:01 P.M.

OUR LORD

“My children, you were created by God. I am The Son of The Father. I am The Heart of The Trinity. I am The One Who gave Love to the fullest for you. It is truly I Who speaks to you, for on this night, through this child, many Lessons were taught to you with Divine Love, through Divine Love, because of Divine Love. If I had accepted selfishness, the Gates of Heaven would not be open for you. If I had decided to fight the soldiers and not go through with the Suffering, the Scourging, the Crucifixion, the Gates of Heaven would not be open to you.

I ask you on this night, ‘Do you love Me?’ And if you answer ‘Yes,’ this carries responsibility, for when you say, ‘I love You, God,’ it means that you desire to be a Saint. Sainthood is the Promise We give to all men who are born to the world such as you. When you partake in the challenges of your day, you look for reward. Is this not so? We knew this when you were born. So, as reward, We give you Sainthood to always be Here with Us. The Father did not create you and forget you, but He is Ever Present for you. Keep this in mind each day of your physical lives, and let no man distract you or cause you to turn from God Who loves you.

If I were to stand in this room now and offer you a crown of jewels, would you accept it? Each one would. Tonight I offer you a Greater Thing than the jewels in a crown for you. I offer each child in My Presence here, Sainthood. Will you accept it?

I take you back to the Water. The Water cleanses, and when it does, it gives new life, a new look, a new light to what it touches. I give you, My children, a Greater Gift than this, and this Gift is The Holy Eucharist. You do not receive Us with reverence. You do not receive Us in dignity. You do not receive Us with the love We must have from you. As the Man of God stands on the Altar of Truth, We are present to reach you. Keep this in mind each day, and know that throughout the world We are ready to touch you. I ask you on this night to remember this, My children, for I gave this Great Sacrament, this Ultimate Gift to you. I ask you, also, that when you receive Us, you fold your hands as such: pointing your fingers in the direction We are, and you be reverent, you walk in dignity, and you accept the Magnitude We are.

I walked to Calvary in humility, in pain, in suffering, in agony for you. I ask you now to return to Me dignity when you receive Us on the Altar of Love. Each child in the room, no matter what age, I ask you now to fold your hands in the position I gave, with the fingers pointed to Where We are — an act of humility, but an act of love thus far. Children say, ‘This is not necessary,’ but We say, ‘It is.’ And do not care what others think, others do; for, children, it is necessary for you to be example, for My enemy tries to encourage all children to desecrate this Great Gift and to act undignified receiving It.

I bless you with My Love and I bless you with Grace. I bless you with Truth and I say, ‘All you have learned, hold It dear, for when you do, you will grow closer to Here; and, oh, My children, I want each of you to be a Saint.’ So be it.”
