PREFACE

These “Stories From Heaven” could not have been given to the world at a more appropriate time than now. The world is in a terrible state of corruption and confusion politically, religiously and socially. Honesty, modesty, genteelness and morality seem to have been eliminated from our way of life, at least in effect if not consciously. However, God has given the world a Miracle it needs.

On July 28, 1967, The Miracle Of Saint Joseph was formally announced to a True Mystic. God had chosen a woman to give us the sound direction, hope and example we need. It was not the first time God had chosen a woman to accomplish His Purpose, always for a specific task in a particular time. This True Mystic for our day is Frances Marie Klug. She resided in Southern California as a wife, a mother, and a grandmother until her death on November 15, 2009.

In This Miracle Of Saint Joseph, Many Saints have come forth to speak through Frances Klug. These “Stories From Heaven” are just a few of the thousands of Revelations received through her. Very often these Revelations were preceded by extensive Teachings which time and space did not allow us to put in print. However, some of these Teachings will be found in several of the many Volumes of "Stories From Heaven".

In these Revelations The Saints refer to Frances as "the child", "the funnel", "the spoon", "the instrument" and "the little one". God made her our Spiritual Mother. For many years now, because of this fact, she has been called "Mother Frances", or simply "Mother". Heaven also refers to people of all ages as "children" and emphasizes time and again, This Miracle is for people of all races, all colors and all creeds.

For someone turning the pages of these "Stories From Heaven" for the first time, they will easily recognize the sound logic and sound direction the Messages contain. Mother Frances heard the Words with the Ears of her Soul, and would repeat Them aloud when she was told to do so.

This Teaching Miracle is a direct parallel to the time Our Lord walked the earth. He did not loudly proclaim to everyone, "I am The Son of God." He taught in a quiet manner, simple, extensive, but always detailed in repetitiveness, instilling in those listening what He wanted them to remember. He taught in parables, short, simple stories containing moral lessons. He knew men could more easily understand and remember the point He was trying to make this way. His “Teaching Stories” pertained to everyday living, practical matters, and how to become a Saint. He gave hope through these stories. He gave example.

Now in our time, God is once again giving us “Teaching Stories” through Saint Joseph and His instrument, Mother Frances. Through her, in a quiet, unassuming and genteel way which appears so “natural”, mankind is again being taught the Purpose of life, and what God expects man to be like in his daily living. People feel hope in these Teachings, Example always given.

Two major Revelations of significance have been given for us in our day. Our Heavenly Mother is Part of The Divine, and Saint Joseph is truly The Holy Ghost. These should not bring an immediate rejection, but should pique our curiosity and interest.

Our Faith in God is based upon many mysteries. Whether it be The Holy Trinity, the Incarnation of God, or The Holy Eucharist, men strive to understand These, trying to grasp a small glimpse of the Beauty of the Truth They Are. These mysteries also pique our imagination and interest. However, even though we know God revealed these mysteries to mankind and we accept them in Faith, they still remain just that, mysteries.

One has only to look at these “Stories From Heaven” to see the value They are, and to feel the hope They instill. No man can logically deny purity of thought when it is so obvious. No man can deny purity in direction, when it is based on sound morals, sound values, sound standards. Do not be blind to truth. Skepticism is for people who are unable to see the truth of a matter or situation, and many times skepticism drowns out purity because it is full of ego and pride in one’s self. Skeptics find it an easy out to disclaim truth.

There is no doubt that it takes time for such Phenomena as This Miracle to penetrate even those minds who feel they are capable of discerning such Phenomena. We must not be governed by purely another man’s determination, but we must understand that logic, sound reasoning and purpose must be the criteria of our Faith in God.

PLEASE READ

In some early volumes of "Stories From Heaven", many Revelations describe edifices to be built on Saint Joseph's Hill Of Hope. As just one facet of The Miracle Of Saint Joseph, God invited men of all races, colors and creeds to participate in building a "City Of God". Every building, chapel, bridge, shrine, garden, amphitheater, and even a hospital and a research center, to be included in this Magnificent Project, would be designed down to the most minute detail by Heaven.

This City Of God would be a place of great beauty for men throughout the world to visit, to gain true spiritual strength and to learn firsthand that which Heaven wants all men to know.

Much to the great loss of every man, woman and child in the world, this City has not been built. Innumerable obstacles were placed in the way of Its completion by those who would have benefited the most. Not enough men volunteered to return the gifts of their time and talents to God. Not enough people came forward with the money needed to participate in God's Plan in a monetary way. Donations became less and less, because the men in the Church said, "Don't give." They discouraged people from participating.

For many years, Mother Frances and a handful of volunteers made every effort to overcome all opposition to men's lack of wisdom, to build this City for God. However, we are not at a total loss. The Sound Teaching and Sound Direction given by Heaven in the many volumes of "Stories From Heaven" continued through the years, and will benefit people everywhere for many generations to come.

In the future, if the hearts and minds of men change, the world will one day see the Beautiful City Of God.

All Revelations are delivered spontaneously and continuously as witnessed by all those present at the time.

SAINT TERESA OF AVILA

“As I speak through this woman in the world, I speak with a Love you cannot understand. Your human love has limitations to it. Your human way of life is limited in many ways, but this is good, for you see, it gives you a closer look at yourself, what you are all about, and what you must do with your life to make it a good life so that one day you will become a Saint Here in Heaven.

I am Saint Teresa of Avila. I speak through this instrument often and in the speaking I always sound very strong in what I know I want you to see, to feel, to follow, and to handle in a dignified way. I want you to understand that each of you present here has the privilege, the honor, and yes, the way, to return to God in a special way.

Do not forget, your Guidelines are important. Your sense of direction will come through you from your will. Your dignity, your honor and your loyalty, and yes, your hopes, your dreams, your needs, your desire, should all be directed with God in mind. No one is telling you not to reach for success, but do it in the proper way, proper manner, and always with God as your Guide.

The Light of Heaven has shone through This Miracle for so many years, nineteen in number. Obedience to Heaven's Way does not always come easy, but you must practice it, and when you do you will find happiness beyond what you see happiness as.

My sons, do not disregard the Importance of your physical life. Do not diminish in any way, the Importance of God's Ten Commandments. And when you practice your Faith in God, do it with a sincere desire to think purely, act purely, and be pure example to everyone you know, you meet, and you are associated with in any way. You have been Blessed, not by thoughts, but by Teaching, by Directions, Guidance.

When The Father gave to the world The Commands and The Rules, They were not condensed in the manner you have received Them. How could Moses have led in such a grand manner, in such detail, for so many important reasons, and of course, so many people, without the full detail of what God had instilled within him?

Through The Beloved Joseph, The Miracle that was given to the world for man to get to know Him better, to understand Him more, and of course, to learn more about Him, there has been much Instruction for you to think about.

Be blessed, and know that as you live today and as you live tomorrow, be loyal to God and you will be happier for it, and let your loyalty grow to such a degree that as it grows you will always be reminded that you can be a Saint along with Me. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 6, 1986 AT 4:55 P.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“I come today to speak of several things. I will begin with the disgrace that is practiced throughout the world by men of all races, colors, creeds. I hear them shout justice, I hear them shout taking sides on governmental issues. I see them practice immorality, and rarely do I hear them shout, ‘We must change our ways and be mindful of what God expects of us.’

In another area, there are many men and some women declaring proudly, loudly of their intimacy with Me, of their virtues and also of their daily practices in, on, for issues of spirituality that they feel gives them superior knowledge, status and power in My Name.

Next, I see people complaining and at the same time proclaiming the tragedy that has befallen man through abuses to the physical body, to the mental, and of course, to the Spiritual desecration caused by so-called drugs and liquid that drains the body of strength, causes depression in many, and weakens those who become addicted to it, victims of it, as it comes in many degrees of strength, some bearing fancy names, some bearing names with supposedly elegant drawing names, making one feel the elegance or the price justifies the drinking of it. However man justifies this weakness, it all can be added up as excuse, running away from the beauty of reality, wanting to hide responsibility, practicality and reasonableness attached to the physical life.

Then comes another subject, certainly not less important than the above, but it has its threatening factor on the physical, the mental, the emotional and the Spiritual of each one's life. This, of course, is improper treatment of the body, treating the body in less than an animalistic way, and there are many subjects under this desecration to the body that have become so much a part of so many people's immorality that they do not make excuses for it, they declare it as human passion, human need, human desire, human enjoyment, human necessity, and they justify it all by saying it in one phrase: 'It's human nature.' Some even go so far as to justify it by saying, 'It's the oldest sin in existence.'

Now I must speak on mankind's unreasonable lack of accepting responsibility in the dignity, for the purpose and the reasons I gave this special way of life to mankind. Responsibility, when it is properly handled, is a distraction from immorality, and of course, has a purpose to it beyond this, wherein responsibility gives dignity to life. It encourages talent, charity, strength, hope, self-esteem, pride in one's moral view, standards; and responsibility, in its very essence, gives everyone a sound purpose for living their daily life.

There are so many Lessons I have taught through This Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph, for This Great Miracle of Teaching was to give to the world My Love in a manner understandable, and in a way easy for mankind to follow.

Love for Me is obedience to Me. Love My Way is to remember Who I Am, What I Am, and the Purpose for which I created all things.

Prayer is simple, talk to Me. I communicate more than you realize. I have communicated for several years through This Great Miracle. Those who deny This Miracle may argue points, but wisdom will tell them all that is good for them is evident in just reading All that has been given to them.

I bless the whole world through This Great Miracle. The Blessings will be in the degree in which each child accepts My Love, always remembering, My Love is Free. So be it.”

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“So many times people write notes and they want answers through The Miracle Of Saint Joseph. Sometimes God will hand an answer very quickly, sometimes very casually. Sometimes He does not answer because He wants the person to figure it out themselves.

It is sad when the people do not understand that they must figure it out themselves, because their decision they can live with. They may not be able to live with God’s Decision. Think about this. God can give us the correct answer, but can we live with His Answer? Even if we knew it came straight from God, many times we could not live with it.

We all know that God gave us the Ten Commandments. Does everyone in this room live every day thinking of God’s Ten Commandments, using the Ten Commandments as a Guideline to every decision and accepting the Ten Commandments as a total way of life? No. Because, you see, we do not associate that closely to that way of life.

Man has a great Gift, his will. Man has another Gift, Faith in God, which is above all gifts in the world, yet man will deny doing the things that God has requested man to do. One is to never put anything above Him.

Ask yourself today, tomorrow, and every day from now on: Can you honestly lay your head at night and say, 'I have committed no sin today, I have done many acts of charity, many acts of mercy, and I feel good tonight for everything I spoke today'?

My daughters and My sons, as the world turns continuously men can stand still and not be aware of the world turning, and yet men can stand still and deny there is a God easily, because they feel they have the power to think as they will, they wish, they want.

Tonight I speak openly to all of you. I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori.

For a long time mankind has been cheated by men in authority because very little was spoken regarding God's Ten Commandments. There was very little direction, and of course, little given on the importance of Sound Faith in How God Is, Who He Is, What He Is All About, yet men will open legal books, they will open medical books, they will open musical books, and they will open books on many things that can cause them to create great sins. But how many men, women and children will look at the Ten Commandments every day and question their own behavior? How many people in the world will ask God's Help to remember the Ten Commandments?

You live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah. You live in a time of great controversy. You live in a time of much evil. You live in a time when few realize, understand or accept the importance of Faith in God, and yes, the importance of resisting temptation, resisting weakness, and extending hope to all of mankind.

You hear of people going to Africa. You hear of people going to foreign lands to distribute things that they find these people need. Some of these people would be better to stay home and extend charity to their neighbors right next door to where they live, but they go to another place, feeling there will be some enjoyment for themselves from this, satisfaction.

There is very little satisfaction in charity when it is given in God's Name, because you see, when something is given in God's Name there is little time to think of one's self, one's ability, one's capability, one's self-esteem, one's popularity, because the important issue is God's Name, God's Will, and that the charity is done according to His Way, not human delight.

I have spoken so many times through This Great Miracle and I say to you on this night, 'Be alert to your day, be alert to what you think and say, be alert to more things about God's Rules, God's Way, than you even heard tonight.'

It is not being scrupulous to want to become a Saint and to correct your faults. That is wisdom in your way. And at the time you are Judged by The Father Himself, you will have so much to hand to Him when you hand a Soul glowing in a Pure State.

I bless you in many ways and I bless you with The Mother's Love, but I bless you with the Hope of The Beloved Father that one day you will stand with your Soul Up Above. So be it.”

SAINT PETER

“I am a Saint in one of the most Beautiful Castles of Heaven, sharing this Beautiful Place with so Many Others Who walked the physical role. I look around Me and I see the Souls of men and women who walked just as you walk, a personal role. Some were married, some were not. Some had children, some did not. Some were highly intelligent, some were average in their thoughts and ways. Others walked a path where they could not be called brilliant in any way, but their Faith in God, their love for Him, their desire to become a Saint, was innate in each of them.

You have heard My Name. Some of you, of course, do not pray My Way, but that is all right, because every time you hold your Beads and you say, ‘Hail Mary, full of Grace,’ All of Us Here in Heaven say, ‘Oh God, the Soul will come This Way.’

I am a Saint you know about, a Saint Who walked the physical role. I am Peter. My Name has been spread throughout the world and some men have asked the question, how could I, being so close to Him, have denied Him thrice? And I say to them: 'How many times a day do you confirm your belief in all you know He did say, and how many times a day do you feel weakness throughout your body? At this time do you pray, or do you fall into the path of satan's way?'

My sons, I speak to those in this room tonight and I speak to those who will one day read the Words. Be aware of everything you do and everything you say. Be aware of weakness that can claw at you, make you have chills in the human way. Be aware that you do not give in to such a weakness. Become strong through prayer. Prayer comes in many ways. Prayer is in your thoughts. Prayer is in your intentions. Prayer is in your willingness to do acts of charity, acts of kindness, acts of caring, acts of loving.

Do not be selfish in any way. Do not be envious of others, for you see only a portion of their life, you do not see it all the way. You cannot compare your Soul with another man's Soul because you cannot see your Soul, but God does every day. Look out for the Soul that you know is yours and be aware of the Souls you come in contact with, Souls you touch in every way. Remember on the morrow that as you start another day, your Soul is also starting another day. Do not allow a demon to scar your Soul in any way.

Be prepared to protect, to stand up and defend the truth, the honor, the dignity and the Purpose of your life, because satan lurks in many ways, in darkness and in light. Just because there is no shadow, just because there is a darkness all around, just because there is a different type of Light surrounding you, does not mean he's not there to encourage you to risk your Soul for a moment's pleasure, a moment's weakness. Tell him you are reaching for a Crown.

Use your weaknesses as a crown of thorns, and as you wear that crown each day, say to God, 'When I meet You Face to face, I will trade this crown for a Beautiful One that You make for me one day.' So be it."

OCTOBER 1, 1986

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“My beloved sons, I am Saint Athanasius. The time in which I lived, there was great heresy. Today, the time in which you live, there is great heresy in the world. It is true that along with heresy there are many other things to divert attention from the real problem.

Today, in your time, the real problem is a terrible tragedy regarding what is right for the good of each man’s Soul. Heresy, yes, but the distraction in your day is drugs, alcohol, pornography; but the real tragedy is desecration to all that is right in the Beloved Sacrament that Christ Himself gave to mankind in the shedding of His Blood for all of mankind.

In My time, which was a long time ago, they called it ‘the Arian heresy’. The heresy today has a name. It will be revealed at a later time.

But right now, as I speak to you on this night through an instrument such as I was, but in a different way,

I want you to know that Faith in God is very important for each of you, but Faith without obedience is empty, is void of commitment, and it diminishes the Faith to a very insecure manner of thinking, of love, of way.

Be obedient, My sons, to The Father's Will through His Commands, and you will find that in so doing you will benefit much in every way. You will be able to fight the battle headed your way. The battle is raging throughout the beloved Church you love so much, and yet it is hidden by so many other things, by distractions that draw you away.

Take the Sword, your Faith in God, and obey His Commands as He leads you as an army to fight what is wrong. Promise Him you will not stray. And when you hear men say, 'You think heresy,' ignore it, for they are saying this to distract you from what they are doing to undermine all that you are about in your way.

The Words from Heaven must get out to the world. They must be seen, for Every Word that We have spoken over the time through This Great Miracle of Hope, of Light, represents a Sword against the evil one, a Sword of Truth, a Sword of, not fantasy, but a Sword of Love delivered to the world by The Father from Up Above.

Many men have never heard My Name but that is unimportant, for in My time, which was a long time ago, men denied what I did say. But now you must understand that though you are small in number, you have a Great Sword to fight with, the Words from Heaven, to fight what is evil.

The Words are the Greatest Sword in the world that the world has at this time, to fight the evil that you are not fully aware of, for in your daily life you go your way. But I, Saint Athanasius, come tonight and say, ‘Let the Words be your Sword, to hand to the world All that God wanted All of Us to say.’ So be it.”

SAINT MARGARET MARY

“The Miracle Of Saint Joseph is a Teaching Miracle. It’s a Miracle that bears much responsibility in the world. It’s a Miracle of Hope, a Miracle of Direction and It is a Miracle of Exactness. It’s a Miracle of Love but It’s also a Miracle that in Its own way says things that no other Miracle that ever came to the world said.

God, in His Mercy and Love for mankind, knowing that we live in such terrible troubled times, has allowed for so long, and is yet allowing, Many Saints to come and speak to us. Whether people believe it or not, It is Truth. The spontaneity of It proves Its Truth, and of course, the Messages that you are allowed to take with you and learn from, speak Truth.

Everyone cannot believe in the same thing. Everyone cannot feel healthy at the same time. Everyone cannot feel happy at the same time. Everyone does not have a toothache at the same time. Everyone does not clean their house at the same time.

Everyone does not take music lessons. Everyone does not pray at the same time. Everyone does not extend love at the same time. Everyone is not friendly at the same time. But that is what makes life so interesting.

Heaven has come through many, many times and in many, many ways, and I'm sure that many of you have grown much in listening to the Revelations, the Teachings, the Directions, and you have been taught and you have been told to be example. That is what The Holy Family was when They were upon the earth, Example. Example is very, very important.

There are many things that The Miracle Of Saint Joseph has allowed people to experience, to see, and to take with them. There are many times that when Heaven hands Light to a given number of people, some see the Light in one way and some see the Light in another way. Some say, 'I never see the Light,' but the important thing is that God allows to happen what each individual can handle, and every individual is sensitive in a different way, to a different degree, to Light, also to the sound of a voice.

Also, sometimes concentration distracts one, and so the Light would be secondary, that would be right there for someone to see. Someone may listen to Words and hear the Words and want to see the real meaning in Every Word, and maybe the Light would be shining so bright that the eyes would be watering, but the concentration from the human brain would be on the determination of the Message. Whatever it is that you have gained is what God wants you to gain, because you are an individual. You have your own will and you have your own degree of acceptance and your own degree of ability, capability, to withstand certain Favours from Heaven.

I am a Saint high in the Heavens. I speak through a woman as you. I speak Words because These Words are The Father's Will. I speak These Words with a Love different than yours. The Love is distinct because the Love is the Love of The Divine for you.

I am Saint Margaret Mary. As I speak I can say this, that when I walked the earth the Rays from His Heart, the Beat of His Heart were what I saw, what I felt, what I clung to. And I say to you on this night, 'Whatever your ability is, whatever your capability is, hang on to what you receive for the benefit of your Soul individually.'

Take the Love that is given in the manner It is extended to you. Profit from It, use It every day, and hand It to others in your way. Do not imitate someone else's love but use what you are to give love to others, for as you do, you will find happiness in a special way, for as you touch your heart you will say, 'My heart beats with The Heart of God; my heart beats because God's Heart allows it to beat.'

Men think of a heart as love. That is true. Men think of a heart as an extension of life. That is true. When you say to a child, 'I love you,' the child responds openly. When you say to an adult, 'I love you,' the adult sometimes is embarrassed. Sometimes the adult does not know how to respond. But if your love is pure and true, just as The Father's is for you, the person will feel the genuineness in it, the protection of it, and the gift it is from you.

Be mindful of your heart. Be careful, and protect your heart in every way, for do not forget, as your heart beats, you are alive with hope, energy, Direction, Light, and all these things must be example for The Father's Will to be done by you. So be it."

GOD THE FATHER

“All through time I have requested man to understand the benefits gained through small sacrifices, large sacrifices, generous acts of charity, and important commitments that served My Will. Mankind is not ignorant to what is correct, what is right, what is beneficial, what is important, to not just daily life, but life beyond the human measure of life. It begins in childhood. Children seek other children for companionship. It is enjoyable to a child to share the company of all ages. They learn from some, they share with others, and there is challenge in competitiveness in certain things.

There is great balance to the physical life, many advantages, and many areas wherein individuals of all kinds can find happiness, strength, satisfaction, accomplishment, motivation and interest. The intellect of mankind has a special purpose. It allows people to be involved in every area of living that man is acquainted with.

We come now to an important part of this physical life that can be initiated by the mind, or through the senses of individuals. This is innate in most people born to the world, a sense of direction regarding a Higher Being, Whom I Am. There is hope in this part of life, called 'Faith in God'. There is strength in belief of Its Existence. There are many benefits to Its favorable Gifts, received one might say, 'anonymously', because the person does not see or hear My Presence, but results are obvious that I have acted, reacted, or interceded.

It is important for children throughout the world to understand the Importance of Faith in Me. Faith such as this must be based on humility, love, hope, honor, respect and dignity. There are many facets to this Faith in Me. It is stimulated through prayer, good acts, sound reasoning, and obedience to My Ten Commandments. Obedience to My Ten Commandments does not restrict man's way of life, it merely directs man's way of life to a pure state of being.

Many men, women and even children believe that I exist, but are reticent to allow others to see them prostrate before Me, dedicated to Me in My Way and My Will, or even to show they are concerned, yet they know of My Existence and act accordingly in spite of what others want them to do.

This Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph is not ordinary as men try to say It is. It is Extraordinary, and has been given to the world because of the need in the world. There are so many men flaunting sin and acting sacrilegiously in the temple where I Am. I come through This Great Miracle to say once again, 'You do live in a time of much heresy, much desecration, and volumes of sins against My Will, My Way, My Commandments.' A Father Who loves so deeply, so strongly, so devotedly, holds back the wrath that a father in human circumstances, ways and limits, could not possibly handle.

I speak openly, I speak truthfully, I speak honestly, I speak clearly, and in My Speech through an instrument in the world, I say firmly, 'The ugliness, the desecrations, must stop.' I have given the world a Miracle through which, by which, in which, I am constantly alerting mankind to see the necessity to follow a pure state of life for the benefit of the Soul, Which is a Part of Me.

Man says, ‘Actions speak louder than words.’ To a point, I agree, for all the actions that each of My Commandments condemns, must be seen as sins against Me, through the blasphemies passed on through wrong example to other men, women and children, in some ways attacking the Soul directly.

I Am a God of Love, but I Am also a God of Justice. I Am a God of Truth, but I Am also a God that has given to mankind the Ten Commandments to be guided by, through honesty, respect, dignity and honor. So be it.”

NOVEMBER 12, 1986

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“I am Saint Athanasius. I speak through a human being so you can understand what The Father wants of you. Be careful of everything you do, for you do not only destroy what you are, what you have, but you affect the life and lives of everyone else you touch, you communicate with, you are in charge of, and you associate with.

You live in a time of much heresy, many heresies, even more so than the time in which I lived. You stand alone, that is true. You must stand firm in what you know is right, and you must conquer any weakness you have, for do not forget, The Father wants you to.

A Miracle of Love, of Light, has been given to the world, to what you would call ‘a few’, but the Words will live on just as The Commandments did, and do. The Teachings of Christianity have survived many obstacles. So, too, will the Teachings We have given through This Great Miracle.

I, Saint Athanasius, speak to you on this night to make you aware of heresy, for satan encourages heresy throughout the world.

There is always so much for you to learn, always so much for you to take home with you after you have been spoken to by One of Us.

This Miracle is a Miracle of direct contact, just as it was so in the time when The Son of God walked the earth. There is nothing handed through This Miracle that God does not Decree to be. We are told exactly what He Wills so you will hear and see the Beauty of His Love, the Perfection of His Hope, the Sincerity of His Way, and of course, the Protection for your Soul in every way.

Men throughout the world must read the Words soon. I cannot say that the Words will immediately change all that is wrong in the world, but I do say, 'The Words will have an effect on individuals, for the good of many Souls.'

It is very important that you understand your Soul must return to God in a manner and in a way special to Him. Do not return It less than pure. You have the power, the will, the way, to do this. Return the Soul to Him in the Manner that He gave, a Light of Love, a Light of Hope, a Ray of Beauty, Special, because It is Part of Him.

Be mindful, My children, that you have a responsibility, you have a privilege. It is up to you to make the commitment as soon as you can, telling The Father that perhaps you do not understand all there is to the Soul, but that your love for Him, your Faith in Him, gives you the courage to say to Him, 'I will try, God, to purify my Soul.' So be it."

DECEMBER 10, 1986 AT 8:24 A.M.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“Attention must be given to Every Word We have delivered from the Heavens over many years. Attention must be pointed to What We have spoken through a woman in the world, to the very young, to those in middle years, and to those who are considered old.

The world is as a top spinning in a wild unpredictable way. We Here in the Heavens, through What We have spoken, have tried, are trying, to slow mankind’s actions, thoughts, words and deeds, down to a responsible, self-controlled, self-disciplined degree, in cooperation with The Father’s Will, for the Purpose He intended man’s life to be.

A substantial amount of Direction has been given. The instrument through whom I speak, and so Many of Us have spoken, is fully aware of the tragedy that will befall mankind if the Words do not reach the world, from Here.

Men say they pray. We are fully aware there is a confusion in how they determine prayer to be. Men say it is the time in which they live that requires so much sin from them. We say, 'No, it is not misinterpretation, it is selfish self-love within man.'

There are so many sections, sects in the world, practicing wrong interpretation of God's Ten Commandments. This must cease.

Some men do not believe in Me. Some men depend upon Me totally. I am your Heavenly Mother.

The Power of This Great Miracle is far greater than man can conceive. It is a Miracle of Light, a Miracle of Hope, a Miracle of Determination, a Miracle of Direction, a Miracle of Perseverance, Fortitude, Discipline, Responsibility.

We say It is a Miracle because of the Distinct Manner, Way, Means and Measure of how Our Words purely reach mankind. The child, the woman, the instrument is fully aware of being the funnel through which, by which and with which We reach mankind firsthand.

Men say, 'I pray the Rosary,' but they do not concentrate on what It is, what It means, and the purpose for which It was given to the world.

Men say, 'I attend Holy Mass.' It is sadness Here for it is once again as it was when We walked the earth: humiliation, desecration and horror, to see such disrespect, such a lack of Faith, such a lack of hope, such a lack of understanding the Beauty of True Christianity, how It began, the Sacrifice and Love it took to give It to man.

My Blessings are always with all children. My Love never diminishes. I come to the world today to say, 'The Words must reach mankind, no matter what the cost, no matter what the sacrifice, no matter what non-believers will say.'

I bless you in a way you do not understand, but I want you to know that as My Hand rises Where I am, It is a Blessing that passes from this room throughout the world. So be it."

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“It is difficult for many people to understand the difference between emotional desire and True Mysticism.

So many times a True Mystic suffers an untold degree of harm and misery when there is an increase of open fakery that is aggressive and demands attention because it is distracting to what is right, what is truth, what is a sound Gift, valuable to man’s Soul.

There are so many imitations throughout the world, of True Mystics. We come today to alert many people, that they must see the value, the soundness, the purpose and the reason to understand that a True Mystic is chosen in a special way for a benefit to mankind and for the benefit of the Souls of human beings.

Imagination does not enter into a True Mystic’s work, because in such Phenomena the Greatness is beyond man’s ability to conceive the exactness that is the basic foundation of True Mysticism.

I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. We have spoken on so many subjects over a lengthy period of time, directing thoughts, words, actions, disciplines, of many, many people to better understand God's Will that must supersede man's will.

There are many interpretations regarding what was spoken in past History. Some are correct, many incorrect.

The Miracle Of Saint Joseph* has a Purpose to It, for It and in It, that is concentrated on man's need to exercise self-discipline, self-control, for the purity of one's Soul.

Many times men argue over the validity of This Miracle Of The Beloved Saint Joseph. Those who have Faith in God have a tendency to believe in how He might work. Those who have much faith in themselves and humanism, find themselves skeptical, indifferent and even antagonistic.

It is time the world sees, through the Words that have been spoken thus far, the Beautiful Revelings of Direction that are meant to reestablish man's manner of Honoring The Father in the way that is correct, that is expected, that should be because of Who He Is, What He Is, How He Is, and of course, the Greatness of Him. He is Supreme in Power and in All Things. He Exists and Always Will. So be it.”

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“As you have listened tonight as the Words came through, Direction, Hope, Love, Charity and Strength passed through the child to you; logic, respect for your intelligence, your Faith, and most certainly hope in every way, that you would accept the Blessing handed to you on this day.

It is not easy to stand for God. It is not easy to stand with His Words pouring forth night and day, day and night, every day.

The physical role is a role of personal habit, personal endeavor, personal likes, personal dislikes, but when The Father asks a child, an individual, to walk for Him in a special way, He says: ‘Now you can no longer have the feelings you had, the simplicity that was easy for you every day. You must stand strong for what “I” say, you must stand strong in what “I” say, and you must not permit any man, woman or child to mar the way. You must be definite, positive, sincere, caring, but you must not allow any man, woman or child to weaken what you know is Truth, what you know is Light, what you know is Hope, what you know is God's Sharing.'

I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. I have spoken much through this woman, this child, this instrument. I have used her voice and I have used her way. I have used the human role to reach you many times, in many ways.

Be aware of Everything that was spoken on this night. Remember What was spoken to you through Supernatural Light. Behold the Truth and hold it close, and when you do, grow strong from it and light the way for another Soul to see the Light.

You are Blessed, and you have been told this before, and you have also been told to use the Faith you have in The Father, in God, in The Beloved Mother, in All that Heaven is, so that one day you will be a Part of What Heaven is All About.

You say you are weak, you say that you have so many sins. Remember this: As Each of Us Saints walked the earth, Some of Us had great tasks to perform, Some of Us had light tasks to perform, but whatever the task was,

The Father gave the task according to Our will, Our way, and what We could do to follow Him.

You, too, must understand this. You, too, must recognize that each of you present has a different degree of fulfillment to make, not all the same. It would not be fair of The Father to hand the same to all mankind, for each child born to the world is different in many ways, different degrees of strengths.

Be blessed and know that as I bless you from Where I am, it is The Father's Will that I do so. So be it."

SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA

“Be mindful of your example in everything you do. Be cautious with every word spoken from you. Be careful of how others see you, and always keep modesty and God’s Love as how you express what you are to family, friends, and special ways you love.

As I speak through a woman in the world, one like you, it is a voice you understand for it is the tongue of your land. A Special Time was chosen for This to be, to come to you. I am a Saint and I speak in a manner that you know. The language I spoke was a different one when I walked upon the earth a long time ago.

My daughters, I am Saint Catherine of Siena. I had much responsibility when I spoke the Words I was told to speak. I talked to men in authority. They listened. Many were weak. Today it is the same as it was in days gone by. Sometimes the Words of wisdom, logic, responsibility, fell on ears that did not comply.

All through time man has had to balance the scale of right from wrong. Some, in selfishness, weakness, greed, weighed the scale down with impurity. But it is important for your Faith, for the Faith of all who have it, to use the Faith in The Father's Will to not just balance the scale of morality, but to have it weigh so heavy, the side that is good, that the scale is down with the weight of perfection and purity and there is no way for the scale to even itself out with the weight of immorality.

You are Blessed in many ways, for what you hear is Truth, what you hear is Direction, through a child such as you. Do not forget the Light that is handed you tonight. Use It to grow in spiritually. Allow your mind to absorb the beauty of the Logic, the responsibility of the Truth. Do not allow yourself to wander into paths that can only destroy you. Know that in your heart you must express what you believe. The Father sees and hears it all and gives you Grace to carry you through the moments when you must make a choice regarding morality.

My days upon the earth were different than yours, but I walked with firmness, sternness. I walked in sadness, I walked in hope, but in my heart I knew that the Direction that I gave was for the good of Souls. Be blessed, and know that I, Saint Catherine of Siena, before I left the earth, said to The Father, 'Let every waking moment that You allow me be used to spread Your Love and Words.' So be it."

FEBRUARY 4, 1987

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“Many times, as you read Words that Heaven has delivered, you find new meaning in What you read and you find Direction you had not thought about for a long time. It suits the moment, the circumstance, and it helps your mind, because at that moment you need Words to give you strength and you need Words to give you hope.

Your Faith is many things. Your Faith is in what you hear, in what you see, in what you think about, in what you do, and your Faith is expressed in all the example that comes from you. Your eyes show your Faith, your lips speak your Faith. How you dress expresses a portion of your Faith. How you walk in the world declares the manner of Faith that you behold.

I speak through a woman, clear, and I say through her to you, ‘Be aware of the Purpose of your very life, the reason you are here tonight.’ I also add that What you have heard should make you stop and think of the Importance of Every Word. I also want you to be aware that when you speak direction to others, be sure that the direction you speak of shows a deep care.

The world, as you might put it, on a scale of one to ten regarding the morality of all men, would have to be termed 'a half a point or less' in God's Judgment of how man acts.

You have been taught so many things. You have been alerted so many times. How much have you followed for the good of your Soul, and how much have you absorbed for the rest of your life?

If you were to take a test on this night regarding the state of your Soul, and you were to begin the test with 'The Sign of The Cross', you would remember what you were told and then you would go on from there, and some of you would begin to think of the sins you have accumulated over the years. Others of you might say, 'I feel I have a fresh start.' Some of you might say, 'I feel hopeless in this task, for I feel that I have so much to correct and I don't know where to start.'

Let us say now that you are in the confessional with Me. I will ask you the questions and you can silently answer Me. If I were to ask you, ‘Do you love God?’ you would say, ‘Yes, I think I do, I hope I do, I want to, I feel I do.’

And then, My next question might be: ‘Did you have any impure thoughts today, any impure actions? Did you lead anyone else to stray from purity?’ Your answer could be in many ways.

Then I might say to you, ‘Did you say any unkind words today to hurt another one’s feelings or to make them feel they should go away because they felt that your presence caused them discomfort in many ways?’ Each of you in this room would have a different answer.

And then I might ask you the question: ‘Did you express to someone else a little act of charity, an act of hope? Did you express in your actions, modesty, purity, and goal?’ My, how many different answers I would receive in a group of men such as you, in the time in which you live.

And now I might ask you, ‘How many of you truly understand The Holy Trinity?’ All kinds of answers would come forth. I would understand.

My sons, to be a man in the world is special in many ways, and as I walked the earth in the form of a man, with masculine ways, I too had to face each day what you face with other men. I worked. I was the Head of a Family. I had a Woman to care for, a Child to raise. We had neighbors, We had friends, and Our household was a place for all to come. We would discuss the beauty of life, the problems in life, and of course, We would listen to each other's plans.

You know Me by the Name of 'Joseph'. It was important, this way I walked, for it was to give to the world Example, it was to express God's Love, to teach you how you must live, how you must work, how you must walk, how you must talk.

I speak through this woman in the world and she feels the Presence very strong, for you see, she knows I was not merely man, for whether men believe it or not, I am The Holy Ghost. The Father's Will, handed to mankind in a manner and a way that man could understand, not in a far-out way difficult for men to relate to. It does not matter if men believe, but it does matter if men follow the path I took to show the way The Father expects all men to live, to work, to pray. So be it.”

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“When Holy Mother Church was instituted, it was instituted in the open air, it was instituted in open space. It really began with Moses. God laid down The Laws, The Rules, the way, the means, and the manner in which He wanted mankind to be moral, to see the right from wrong. Then He waited a long time because of mankind’s inflexibility and because of man’s stubbornness, man’s inability to handle all that was given.

God waited approximately a thousand years, and then He decided that the time had come for man to be organized, but here again He did it in the open, in many ways, so men could walk away and they could come back, they could think about it and they could better understand what was being delivered through a Man. They could relate to the human form just as they could relate to Moses in the human form, but if there had been something in the sky, they would not be able to relate to it because it would be so phenomenal that it would be beyond their comprehension.

So God, in His Love for mankind, hands to someone that looks just like everybody else, Information, Love, Direction, Counsel, Hope, Charity, Flexibility, and then in this, He lets each man, woman and child absorb It to the degree they can handle, absorb It in a way, in a manner, and under the circumstances in which they live. Everyone here in this room lives with a different format in their life, different characters in the house, different personalities, different moods, so people can adjust to how they live and adjust their direction to be compatible to how they live.

God, in His Love for mankind, understands all the facets of man, He understands the weakness, the superiority, the behavioral problems. He also understands the vulnerability of man, so God, when He sends a Miracle like The Miracle Of Saint Joseph, He gives you all the leeway in the world. He says, 'The door is open, get what you can, absorb what you can, and grow in It, so one day when the time comes and your Soul is returned to Me, My Spirit will bring your Soul to My Presence.’ It has to be The Spirit of God that will take your Soul to Him because your Soul is made to the Image and Likeness of The Spirit of God.

All through time men have sought another life. Some men have strayed from the correct path. Some men, women and children have realized that there is more to the physical, more to everyday living, than what is experienced. Some people have gotten off the track. They want a higher Spiritual understanding of what life is all about, so they look to another physical life, they look at living again in some form, at some time; but, in reality, they are ignoring the very fact that they have a Soul and that the Soul is what will live on, the Soul is the Important Part, the Soul is what will be Judged at the correct time.

As I speak to you on this night, I speak to you in a way not necessary for you to understand, but it is necessary for you to understand This Portion of What I say: You call Me ‘Saint’, you call Me another Name. Many men would disagree with you because they have learned it cannot be this way; but, in reality, I Am The Holy Ghost, I Am

The Spirit of God, I Am The Wisdom that comes forth to mankind through all the Sacraments you know. I Am The Spirit of Life, I Am The Spirit of Hope, I Am The Spirit of Wisdom, I Am The Gift of Life.

When I speak to you as The Beloved Joseph, you understand what I say, you associate My way of life with the human way, for the time has come in the world now for men to better understand that as I walked the earth as man, I walked it so man could understand the Beauty of life and follow the Example I was then.

The Father, in His Love for mankind, has always sent the beauty of Example, always with the freedom to be followed, according to each man's understanding of it, ability to comprehend, ability to follow, and always to be able to handle this with the degree of Faith each man, woman and child has.

The world is in turmoil in more ways than you know, but the answer to this turmoil is not a battle on any field of the world. The answer is simple: Man must once again live by The Rules of Divine Plan. Man must begin to recognize the necessity for morality and man must cast aside immorality, for it does nothing but destroy all that God has given to man.

Immorality destroys the mind of mankind. Immorality destroys the bodies of mankind and immorality destroys the Souls of mankind. Immorality is destructive in every degree man can fathom. Immorality is worse than all the bombs in the world. Immorality kills faster than any poison, any weapon man can use, design, or have.

You are Blessed, My daughters, in many ways, but you are Blessed with the freedom to use your will in the way that is best for you to return your Soul to Him. It is your privilege, your responsibility, and yes, your freedom to do so. I will be there to transport your Soul to Him when the time comes and He beckons for It. Bells will not ring, music will not play. I will know, for I will be there. So be it.”

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

“In The Miracle so much has been given in such a natural way, through a woman, to men, to women and to children, and much to the clergy, but sometimes when a True Mystic speaks, people want to see only the human side because their ego gets in the way, their vanity sometimes, or their own weaknesses or their own desire to have what the True Mystic has.

A real True Mystic does not take such responsibility upon himself or herself, not a True Mystic, because the first thing that a True Mystic learns is that the responsibility is unbearable and that to falter in any way in this responsibility would be unpardonable by God.

A True Mystic does not just feel reverence toward God, not just a deep love for God, but a sincere fear of God, fear to ever step out of line, fear to ever say the wrong thing, and always a deep respect for Who God Is, What He Is, and the Greatness He Is.

There are so many self-made evangelists throughout the world. They talk about God and they talk about how easy it is to be forgiven by God, but a True Mystic is more aware of The Commandments of God and more aware of the Strength of God and more aware of the Justice that God Is, and definitely more aware of the Truth that is connected to His Name and the Truth that must be expressed in every facet of life, every moment of the day.

Some people feel that they need attention. In reality, a True Mystic does not want attention. It is very difficult to handle because it is innate to want God to have all the attention, it is innate to want man to first see God above all things, to respond to Him, to love Him, to adore Him, and to not see the human role that is only the role of an instrument.

The world today has many claiming and proclaiming they have great gifts. They do not. The very words they speak, the intentions they have, are not self-denial in the true sense of the word but are words of self-love, and the world is full of these people.

Those of you, who have grown in love with God more deeply than in time that has passed, are fortunate, because you have allowed your will to absorb, to gather, to follow and to grow. You use your will to seek more about Him, and if you are honest with yourself, you will find that you, too, have grown in humility and an inner desire to please Him more, to do more for Him, to love Him in a greater way than you ever thought possible before. This is the way God intended it to be.

It is important, as you grow, to see the Value of your Soul above and beyond the value of material things. It is not wrong to have material things, but it is wrong to put these things above God.

As you have been Blessed many times, you have been given more Purpose to life at these times. You have been nourished with Grace, and of course, with God's Will for the benefit of your Soul.

Do not deny your Soul the Grace that waits. Do not deny your physical the moments that you can spend with Him, not always on your knees, but when you make a mistake apologize to Him, say: 'I'm sorry, God, I should have known better. I should not have done that. I will try harder to please You and to show my love for You in my own private ways.'

Tonight, as I speak to you slowly, firmly, and with great confidence, the Light I am is a Light of Hope. You stand together in a group and you stand in My Name.

I speak slowly through the instrument because I did not speak in the tongue you speak, in My days, so as I enunciate and I pronounce the Words through the instrument, I smile through her for she grasps My Words, because All of Us Here in the Heavens came from different ways, and as We speak through this child, this woman in the world, We use the language you understand, the language she can speak, and sometimes as We speak through her she listens so intently, for you see, she does not hear with her ears, she hears with the Ears of her Soul. Our Words pass through her Soul to you in a very special way.

I ask you, My sons, to understand, you will sin less if you apologize to Him when you speak in error, you act in error, or you allow weakness to take over in your thoughts, your words, your deeds. The small apology will not take away the sin, but it will give you strength, and perhaps before you commit this again you will remember the apology and not sin.

Sons have a special place in the world, just as daughters do. It is important for each one to understand the tasks are special. There is much responsibility to each one, and do not forget, there is great responsibility for the benefit of your Soul.

I bless you from the Heavens and I bless you in a way you understand: In Nomine Patris, et Filii, et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

“A Spiritual mother has a tremendous obligation to God first, because she walks in His Name twenty-four hours a day. A Spiritual mother is accountable to God for the title alone, not accountable to any earthly reason such as bearing a child or being the mother of a child. It is a Very Important Task and way of life.

A Spiritual mother takes on the fantasies of everyone that she is responsible for, she takes on the facts that each one lives with every day, and she takes on the hopes and the dreams, the worries and the cares, the kindnesses, the charity, also the lack of charity, the indifferences, the unkindnesses that the Spiritual children oftentimes do out of selfishness, out of anger, out of their own egos, and for many other reasons.

It is much easier to be a mother of a family than a Spiritual mother of God’s many children. To scold is very difficult. To reprimand, very hurtful. To console, not always easy, for fear of it weakening some part, some portion of the child. To stand in strength, tiring, very unemotional, and always there. A Spiritual mother would never accept the job if it was laid out in its full essence because it would be too insurmountable to handle, to care about, and to want to do.

The mother of a family has a tremendous responsibility, just as the father in a family has. Grandparents have tremendous responsibilities but they differ in many ways than the parents of a family. Grandparents are an extension of the family and they are expected to understand and to know and to feel many things that so many people feel security in. Grandparents are security. Parents have the important role of the immediate control, direction, caring, supporting.

A Spiritual mother or father has the responsibility of seeing what a child, no matter what age the child is, seeing what the child is actually thinking, doing, how the child is acting, where the child is going spiritually. The child can be out of work or the child can be the most successful human being in the world; the Spiritual mother does not base anything on this.

The Spiritual mother or father bases this child's Spiritual growth on what is actively seen: kindness, generosity, charity, hope, sincerity, and then there is a great concern, worry, if all these things are opposite and they are wrong for the good of the Soul.

When Roman Catholics go into the confessional and they truly mean it when they say, 'Bless me, Father, for I have sinned; it is such and such a time since my last confession,' and this person, no matter what age, is kneeling before a priest, whether the priest is a Monsignor, a Bishop, a Cardinal, or the Holy Father, the basic job as a priest is the principal factor here. Compare this with how you walk in life, to a Spiritual mother or father. It does not make any difference what vocation you have, it is what you are doing according to God's Will that is important to the Spiritual mother or the Spiritual father, just as your moral code of ethics, the way you live, should be the only factor to the priest in the confessional.

As I speak through this woman on this night, All I have spoken through her, from the time she began to speak until she leaves you, has been and will be for you to better understand the necessity to reach for purity, in spite of what has gone on in the past. As long as you have the beat of your heart, an active mind, the ability to say 'Yes', 'No', 'I Can', 'I Can't', 'I Will', 'I Won't', you have the opportunity to grow spiritually, to grow in purity and reach for perfection, for the good of your Soul.

I am Saint John Vianney. I have spoken so many times through this instrument, to you and to many other people. The Father has allowed this time in the world to give mankind a chance to grow more purely, in a direct manner, for the good of the Soul.

I hold her in a manner in which, by which, through which, with which, My Words can be passed through her to you the most pure way; of course, not through a being as a being is, but through the Life, the Living function of her Soul.

The Beauty of This Great Miracle upon the earth is to teach mankind that they are individually the custodian of their own Soul, and that is why This Great Miracle comes to the world so constantly, so consistently, through the Soul of one human being, for the benefit of the Souls of millions of human beings.

The reason I tell you this tonight, and I have spoken it before, is to help you to better understand that the Soul is an Important Part of you, a Living Part of you. It will be the Remaining Part of you when the physical time ends.

Remember What I have spoken, and remember at all times of the day, no matter what hour, that you are the custodian of a Soul, a Portion of The Father. You have a responsibility that you must control.

I bless you from the Heavens and I add to this Blessing: 'As you are the custodian of your own Soul, you have the responsibility of being pure example for the good of others' Souls.' So be it."

SAINT ALOYSIUS

“God sends Light to the world in many ways. He sends Light through Words, He sends Light through people who love God so much that they are good example. He sends tradition. He sends things for us to hang onto, to cling to, to strengthen us. He gives both men and women the same kind of things to hang onto, and He gives those who have Faith in Him hope, but He gives them also, things like statues, Holy Water, Crucifixes, prayers, things that remind them, to help them and give them courage to go on.

Tonight, in this room, if there was no courage, no hope, no enlightenment, no charity, no love, no consideration, no goal, it would be a very emotional sad room. It is not a sad room. It is a room filled with Supernatural Enlightenment, Supernatural Hope and Supernatural Goal. It is a room with charity. It is a room wherein, even though people may not be truly concerned about each other, it is a room that if someone were to walk in here and try to harm someone, we would all come to the person's aid. Not one of us would sit back. We would act in protection of one another.

That is what God does to all of us. When we are in need and when we are in trouble, when we are low in hope, low in courage, we have Him. A small ejaculation, a small prayer, a small act of love, a small act of encouragement to someone else, bounces right back to us and gives us a Special Gift called 'Grace'.

If one person were to walk in this room and be rebellious toward The Miracle, I am confident that everyone in the room would defend The Miracle, because of your Faith in God and because in your heart you know that what you have, what you have been given is Truth, It's Beautiful, and It's Strengthening for the benefit of your Soul.

I am Saint Aloysius. I have spoken so many times through this instrument. I have many times been sent to give her the strength to go on when things were difficult, timing was tiring, and hope was almost nil. I have spoken through her to many men, women and children. I did not always announce My Name, for what I was to say was more important than My Name being announced at that time.

I hold her deeply and I say, 'God's Gifts are many to those who ask for the Gifts and to those who treat the Gifts with respect, honor and dignity.' Nothing is ever refused when it is requested in a loving way, for a good reason or purpose. True, it is not always in the manner you desire but the balance is there, for with God nothing is out of balance, nothing is short-changed, nothing is given halfway.

When a child prays, no matter how short the prayer, no matter how quietly it is spoken or thought, or revealed through an action, The Father is aware. Sometimes The Father, in His Blessing to a child, extends so much Grace because the child needs that extra help to go another day.

The Light of Heaven is everywhere you are, when you have the courage and the strength to say to The Father: 'I believe What You Are. I know You Are All Things. I know I am blessed by the mere thought from You. I love You, God, hold me close to You.'

We Here in the Heavens oftentimes watch over children who do not know how to pray. We look at their deeds, We look at their smiles, We look at their cares, We look at their woes, and We ask The Father to find some human source to teach the children the Beauty of Him so they, too, can love Him in special ways. He smiles and He says: 'My Will, will be done. I see the child, and in that child I see that Portion of Me yearning to return to Me, yet standing guard with the child.'

As you are in the world today, there is so much for you to do. Some of you pray extensively. Some of you pray in small ways. Some of you have Faith that in comparison to others is boundless in its way. Some of you have Faith that is growing day by day. Some of you can grow faster than you are, but you hold yourself back because you see the human element before the Soul.

You are Blessed in so many ways, My daughters. The Light that is extended to you, in your heart and in your Soul, is a Supernatural Light of Hope. It will one day be returned as the Light of your Soul. So be it."

MARCH 28, 1987

GOD THE FATHER

“So often I ask a child to stand in a particular way, for a particular purpose, for the good of mankind. The child responds to the Will of Mine. It is not the child’s decision nor the child’s will to act accordingly, but the child, in obedience, commitment, love, says, ‘Thy Will, my God, not mine.’”

I say to the child: ‘You will have to repeat many things to many, in My Name. You will have to sometimes say at inconvenient times, “I must leave and go another way for I must be about my Father’s Business.”’ This will sound strange to many, and they will say this belongs only to One before this time, but I, your Father, come on this day and say: ‘It has happened many times since then. It looks natural, looks normal, but in so many ways it is driven by Divine Power, Divine Love, Divine Hope, and it gives to children of all kinds, the means, the manner and the way to learn the Importance of obedience, the Guidelines of hope, and the Beauty of loving in a Divine Way.’”

There is no selfishness in such a Love. There is no competition in such Love. There is only Hope, Direction, Purpose and Goal, for men to see, seek, understand, follow, and commit themselves to, for the good of their Soul.

You are Blessed in many ways; first, in the way of your Faith. There is Grace given when a child stands in Faith, obedient to My Will. I have thousands of times talked through this instrument and I have Blessed thousands through the Faith they have shown in the submission of a will to My Will, to accomplish My Plan at this time in the world.

You must understand that all you are I gave you, all you have to live for is what I Will, and you must understand that as I send such Blessings to the land, It is for the good and the Beauty of your Soul. So be it.”

SAINT THERESE OF LISIEUX

“In the time I walked the earth, men considered my age young to want to dedicate my time, my life, my will, my way, my service, to God in every way. I am Saint Therese of Lisieux.

I speak through a child on this day, a woman in the world. I speak Words of Direction, Hope, Caring, and I say: ‘As This Great Miracle was announced by Me one day, the time It was received was a time of wonderment, caring, and willingness to please. I knew how the instrument felt, for I, too, felt that way one day, the day I took my Vow of loving Him forever, for all time, hoping to one day return to Him in a special way.’

It is difficult for mankind to understand a willingness to serve God, in spite of man, but as I speak to you today, it is My wish for each present here, as My Voice comes through an instrument your way.

Understand the importance of what you are all about. Accept the Importance of the Soul that you have been given, the Purpose of the Soul, the Reason for It, and the Love The Father has of It.

Remember too, that the yoke you wear is your way of life, your personality, your moods, your nature, your hopes, your dreams, your attitudes, your intentions, and yes, all the things you are in the human way.

So as you are Blessed in having It brought to your mind, the Spiritual Part of you, the Innate Part of you, and then of course, the physical, the mental, the mind, combined, gives hope, gives life, and yes, gives you the direction for the Eternal Way.

There are so many times We have spoken through this woman in the world. We have given Direction, We have given Light, We have given Hope. We, in Our Way, speak through her Soul in a special way, and as We do, We constantly give Love, Hope and Light to those who will listen and those who want more Faith in what life is all about, more Purpose to what life is supposed to have waiting.

I speak slowly through her for the physical is tired, but the Spiritual is bright with hope for all who love

The Father.

You are Blessed in many ways.
You are Blessed today, and you are given a Blessing that will aid your Faith in The Father's Will in many more ways than any book upon the earth could give, any words of normal way could show.

Be blessed, My children, and know, that as you are in the world, Heaven waits. So be it."

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

“As I speak so many Words to sons on this night, I speak through an instrument who gives you the way to purity. As We speak through her, her Soul that is, We reach you for the benefit of your Soul. The Eyes of your Soul are connected in many ways to the eyes of your physical. Your will determines so many things that affect your Soul.

Time is important to man. Time is important to your Soul. Truth is important in your daily life, for truth gives strength to your way of life and perfection to your Soul.

You have been spoken to about God’s Ten Commandments so many times. You know Them well and in many ways you understand Them to a degree that so many others do not, but ask yourself: In the understanding, do you practice following Them according to His Will? It is important for you to think about this.

I speak in a manner you understand. I speak with Words of your land. I speak in terminology not difficult; simple, and yet profound in so many ways. I speak of daily life. I speak of the way you should act, how you should be, what you should think of, and of course, to always be mindful of the Gift of Love, the Gift of Grace, the Gift of Hope, the Gift of Faith The Father gave. It is up to you to build on it, grow in it, and become a Saint in it.

So many children throughout the world do not have the privilege to understand what the Soul is all about. So much has been told you about your Soul.

You walk sharing My Name with Me. I oftentimes tap you on the shoulder when you are in doubt as to whether something is right or something is wrong, and I say to you, ‘Remember Me, I am Saint John Vianney.’

The next time a question comes up, ‘Is it right or is it wrong, will I do it or shall I not do it; I can, I can’t, I will, I won’t,’ I say to you: A quick prayer will give you the answer, for the second you begin to pray it is heard Our Way and We immediately come to your aid. If you choose the wrong, it means that your will made a decision against what We tried to encourage you to do.

We are always at your side, trying to guide what you are, what you will, what you do. Sometimes you prefer to not listen because you feel the satisfaction of the moment or the decision of the moment is the only one that you can handle, you can do.

As I speak through the Soul, I say to each son present here tonight: ‘You have accepted a responsibility to follow in a given path, a given Light, to perform in a way that shows good example to everyone you meet. You have accepted the task of standing behind the soundness in the vocation I walked.’

I, Saint John Vianney say: ‘Oh, it is true, all authority is not good, but you have the ability to sift out what is good and get rid of what is wrong. Your example, your strength, your courage, your actions that hold honor, respect, dignity at the forefront, gives strength to those who are standing in a very vulnerable position.’

I have Blessed you many times. I have Blessed you in many ways. Tonight I bless you with a Blessing I want you to remember. As you walk as the custodian of your Soul, never forget that this Companion you are with each day, each night, never leaves your being. It will remain with you until death. Then It will go in the direction the Judgment declares It to be. It will be your decisions in your life that will return your Soul to God's Custody.

You are Blessed with the courage to defend your Faith in The Father. You are Blessed with the strength to follow The Commandments He gave. You are Blessed with a Love you must remember, the Love of your Soul for God. So be it."

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“I have spoken thousands of times through this instrument in the world, beseeching children of all ages, men, young men, women, young women, down to very small human beings. I have spoken spontaneously with a lightness that sounded so natural. Direction was given, Hope was extended, Light shone bright, Teaching was consistent, Deliverance at any time of day or night.

I am a Saint and I am more than a Saint. You call Me ‘Saint Joseph’. Men say it cannot be that a mere man has such a High Place in the Heavens, He was but the Spouse of a Woman upon the earth. I smile at this and say: ‘Yes, this is what you have learned, this is what you have been taught. If you believe this, you rely upon it, and it gives you strength, use it to its fullest degree.’

Because I am more than a Saint is important for the world to know, for I am a Portion of God. I am to Him as your Soul is to you, but of a Greater Meaning, Greater Light, Greater Advantage; and of course, as this Union of Wisdom spreads throughout the world, it will be the most innocent who will recognize It first, the Importance of It, the Right of It, the Way of It, and of course, the Reality of It.

The instrument through whom I speak passes on to you the Words I Decree to be. The Light in the Words, the Hope in the Words, the Love in the Words, from The Holy Trinity.

Do not fear This Light from Me but accept It as a child accepts a gift, innocently. The Light of the Heavens is a Precious Light. The Gifts The Father has given to you are more than precious gems in value.

Never allow anyone to allow one part of you to fall into satan's care, for he does not care for the good of you, he only wants wrong for you. He is in constant competition, for his jealousy, his envy, his anger and his hatefulness is his way to do all things. When you feel anger, it is only a touch of the anger that satan feels, and when you feel that you have reached the epitome of what anger you can handle, it is a mere drop in the bucket, a very large bucket.

So, for such anger to be constantly in the world, trying to drag Souls down to Hell, to draw the strength from every human being, it is important for you to understand he will tug at your mind, your eyes, your mouth, your nose, your ears. He will tug at your throat, he will tug at your hands, he will tug at your body, he will tug at your feet. He will tug wherever he feels he can gain entrance, to rob you of what you are, what you have, what you feel, that is good. He is envious of what you are, and in this Light of Heaven there is more Power than all of Hell. Remember this.

As I speak through the instrument I say, 'No human being in the world could love you like The Father loves you, like Our Heavenly Mother loves you, like The Son of God loves you; I am an Expression of Their Love.'

This Miracle that bears My Name is more Special to the world and in the world than you can recognize, conceive, understand.

Be blessed, My children, and be aware that you must never allow satan to enter any part of your way of life, your thoughts, your attention, your words, what you hear, what you handle, where you walk, for remember, your will is your decision, and you, and only you, are the custodian of that Precious Gift of Love, the Soul.

It is true, there is an Angel stands around you, over you, and sometimes even within you, but this Angel, in defense of you and your Soul, cries out sometimes to The Father, ‘The child is in danger, I cannot bear to watch.’

And when you stand before The Bread and The Wine, remember this: As you go to receive This Gift of Love, your Soul stands in such joy and then prostrates Itself before Him. Your Guardian Angel bows so low, for your Guardian Angel says: ‘I will protect the child; it is My privilege, Father. Thank You for this mission.’

You do not see nor do you hear the rustle of the wings or the happiness, for the purer the state of being you are in, the more joy surrounds you when you accept That Gift of Love, Him. So be it.”

GOD THE FATHER

“Men fear earthquakes, tornadoes, hurricanes, typhoons, bombs, and many other destructive, frightening happenings. I gave the world My Rules, My Commandments to live by, for them to be guided for the good in all things. There is no danger when a man, woman or child obeys My Rules. There is greater danger in the disobedience of These Rules, because of the Importance of each man’s, woman’s and child’s Soul.

I do not abandon children of all ages, of any age, of any color, any creed, any nature, any personality. I am not a God of abandonment. I am a God of Truth, Hope, Love and Justice. I am a God that wants all children to know Me, to love Me, to serve Me, and to be with Me for All Eternity.

I have Blessed mankind with a Special Blessing, a Soul, a Portion of Me. This Concept of Truth is many times difficult for some of My children to conceive, to fathom, to believe, that is, of course, in the full manner in which I have given this Portion of Me.

Throughout the world men struggle to be safe from dangers, earthly and humanly. I have, through time, told mankind of the great dangers of entrapment they subject themselves to in walking into the briar patches where satan and demons lurk. So many feel they will not be tempted, corrupted or even touched by what is in the briar patches. The very fact they have entered into such a place says 'they tempt' what is in there to catch them.

I have come to the world through what I have named and I call 'The Miracle Of Saint Joseph', for as I have given to the world His True and Full Identity, other than what men have known Him to be, accepted Him as, and have found strength in the Model Role He displayed, He Is A Portion Of Me.

Men talk of their mentality, their abilities, capabilities, talents, and their zealous attempts to be successful in the world. Man has intellect and man has a will. To some men success means one thing, to other men something else. The greatest success any man, woman or child can obtain or attain, is the Salvation of his or her own Soul.

I have come to the world through This Great Miracle, to encourage mankind to not just follow My Commands, My Rules, but to see each one in the degree I meant it to be, for through the obedience to These Rules of Mine, mankind will one day be Here with Me.

There are so many Mysteries that I have not allowed mankind to yet know. I am, through This Great Miracle, delivering to mankind a Mystery of Great Importance to the whole world.

Mankind has been Blessed by the Revelation regarding The One all men call 'Joseph', but I, your Father say, 'Now be more aware and be fully understanding of the Importance of The Holy Trinity, and how I once allowed not only The Second Person of The Blessed Trinity to be Example and Teacher to mankind for the benefit of Christianity, but to also send that Part of Me to be the Strength behind this Role of The Second Person of The Blessed Holy Trinity.’ So be it.”

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

“So many times, in Holy Mother Church, when those in authority speak, the body of the Church jumps to the will of the authority. It is not always correct to do.

God gave each one a will, an intellect, and the ability to discern right from wrong, the capability to act for the benefit of one’s own Soul.

You have a privilege, you have a responsibility, you have the motive, you have the right to say whether you believe or you do not believe in what is passed on to you, either by the whim of another human being or by the ego of another human being, or because of the truth you are given. You have the right and you have the responsibility to make a decision.

As you stand where I am tonight, as you are here physically, mentally, emotionally, spiritually, you must recognize what you stand for, what position you must take in the line of duty to The Father.

Warriors wear armor, and sometimes the armor is not of steel or an impenetrable piece of material, but the armor is the will of the human being, that takes charge, stands straight, stands tall, stands firm, for the good of one's own Soul.

I am Saint John Vianney and I speak through a woman in the world and I say, 'You are on a battlefield of honor, of dignity, of hope, and you must fight against the despair, the anger, and the lack of truth regarding what is important for the benefit of your Soul.'

Many men, through time, have broken many Rules of The Father. In your day men think it is normal, right, correct, to do such things. It is not. The Rules were given for the morality of man to be of great issue, and then man was to base his Faith, her Faith, upon the morality of God's Ten Commandments.

When The Son of God came to the world mankind said: 'Is He true, is He not true? Is He right, is He wrong? What is He, Who is He, what is He here for? I do not understand, I cannot comprehend, but He talks so simply.

He says important things and yet others say He is incorrect. Others say He is of a Divine Way, He is unnatural to the world.'

I, Saint John Vianney say: 'Without Him there would be no Christianity, civilization would not be as it is. His Teachings, His Love for mankind, His Honor, His Dignity, His Sacrifice, His Penance, His Hope for the whole world, His Love for Souls, came before all other things.'

I speak through a woman in the world and I speak to you directly. I speak through her Soul. She sees Me with the Eyes of her Soul, as real to her as you are to each other, as your physical is to her.

You have a Soul, a Portion of God, within you. You have been given the responsibility to honor It, dignify It, protect It. You are the custodian of It, to return It to The Father one day.

I speak as I do, in a distinct manner, because I was not one who spoke the tongue of your day, your way, so in the translation of My Words through her Soul, My Words are direct, clear, and directed to each of your minds on this day.

You must understand the importance of example, you must understand the importance of hope, you must understand the importance of where your life will be tomorrow, where you are going, where you will set your goal. Your goal must be for the good of your Soul.

I will show the woman, the one through whom I speak, a vision. She will describe it to you in entirety.”

VISION

There is a fire, a terrible fire. The flames are around fifty to sixty feet high. I see heads, I do not see the whole body. I see fingers reaching, trying to get out of the flames. I see what I would call costumes or manner of clothing that specify a particular way of life. I see men of all vocations in there.

I want to vomit at the horror of it. I want it to go away. I want it to stop, God. He is taking part of it from me.

There are smaller children, there are older people. There are people of all ages. He says prayers will not help them. He said the demons are holding them down. He says They will take the vision away slowly. It is so horrible.

Oh, my God!

He says:

“I am showing you through her eyes what will be, if nonsense does not stop throughout the world, the bigotry, the humiliation to The Father, the desecration to all that is good, all that is right.

I hold her tightly, but it will be a while before she can come back to where you are, totally. A vision such as this is so horrible to see.”

SAINT TERESA OF AVILA

“Sometimes, when I speak through this woman in the world, children of all ages listen. Sometimes they anticipate what will be spoken. Sometimes they do not feel that what is spoken is in agreement with how they feel, how they can act, and what their faces can reveal. But I, Saint Teresa of Avila say, ‘In My day we had many hardships, many decisions to make of right and wrong, and sometimes in the convent we disagreed, and then we would sit down and discuss it, and then the one in charge would say, “The rule is this way, we will obey it accordingly.””

Tonight I speak to you, not as firmly as I used to speak to the girls who walked with me one day, but I speak to you in honesty, love, hope, sincerity, and I repeat the Words, ‘Do not have feet of clay.’ Stand firm on what you know is right, but stand in truth in what you know is correct for you to do.

A lack of charity does many things. It destroys the hope, the love, the sincerity in other people. But when you express an openness, a love, a concern, you do not have to become emotional, ethereal, over-zealous, but politeness goes a long way. It was one of the things I requested in the convent where all of us would have our times, at dinner, recreation, prayer, and in other ways: charity to each other, respect.

These things develop many things when they are shown, not just in example, but in action to each other, and with a gentleness, genteelness, that is appropriate at that time, for that reason, for that purpose, because without it failure comes easy, quickly, and it is difficult to restore hope when failure is evident in so many ways.

You are Blessed, My daughters. You are Blessed with the Spirit of Life, the Spirit of Hope, the Spirit of Light, and do not forget, the Spirit of Example which, in Its own way extends from you to hand to others the way. So be it."

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“Many times Heaven speaks very boldly, sometimes very quietly, sometimes in such a way that men, women, even children question, ‘Could it truly be something Heaven would say?’

To walk a tightrope every day, listening to a Voice you cannot hear, responding to Direction you cannot see, accepting responsibility for What is spoken, teaching What is delivered, is not what man would understand as normal, but it is normal to this woman through whom I speak.

What has been spoken to you on this day in your time is something for you to think about, something for you to recognize, something for you to look into and see if It affects your own life. Lessons visible to your eye should make you understand how much you are cared for, cared about, and how deeply I feel for the Salvation of your Soul.

You call Me ‘Mother’. I am The Heavenly Mother. You call Me ‘Blessed’.

I am Blessed. You call Me ‘The Queen of Heaven’. I am The Queen of Heaven. You say prayers repetitively to Me. I listen, I do not miss one word. You say, ‘I’m too tired to pray the Rosary tonight,’ and I say, ‘Begin it, at least begin it, and perhaps you will find the time and the energy to finish it in My Name, for a Soul, your own or someone else’s.’

Always remember, My little ones, that time is precious to man, but time is precious to God, time is precious to Me, for as I speak to you in your tongue so you can understand what I want of you, how I feel, I want you to also realize that I am taking the time to do this, just for you.

Heavenly Light has shined on many children, many times, always will. You have experienced many Blessings, and as long as you ask for Them you will receive Them. We love to hear a child say: ‘Please, bless me. Help me. Be with me. Stay close to me. Don’t leave me. I need You.’ This is like music to Our Ears, not ears as you know ears to be, for it is true We Are A Mystery.

But never forget that as your love shines from where you are, Our Love for you shines from Where We are, in a Light of Greatness, in a Light of Power, in a Light of Hope, in a Light of Strength, delivered direct to where you are. Never feel that a prayer is unanswered. Never feel that We have not heard your plea, your cry, your yearning. Never feel you are alone. Never feel that all is against you.

There is so much in Heaven yet to be shown, yet to be given, yet to be delivered. There is so much Mystery to be revealed. For some it will not be until the time you stand before The Father, and yes, before Me, but whatever time it is and the Mystery is shown, all the effort, all the love, all the strength, all the good example you have extended, will add up to one very special role.

Think of your life. Think of how you live it and think of it written on a scroll: the day of your conception, the time of your conception, the time you were in the womb, all the things you heard, and then that moment when you were born into the world. What a precious time, what a glorious moment, the beginning for you as the custodian of your Soul. And then you learned all the things of the human ways. You learned that ‘Yes’ meant one thing, ‘No’ another. You learned all the habits of life. You learned the importance of cleanliness, and yes, you were taught that you are the custodian of your Soul.

Remember What I have spoken as well as you can, and These Words will pass down through time, man to man. And when others read the Words, some will be touched greatly by Them. Others will wonder, ‘Did She really speak?’ and then if they will but say, ‘Please help me believe,’ Grace will be extended to them, as it is to each who listen to Me.

You are Blessed, My sons, in many ways. You are Blessed with the Gift of Faith, you are Blessed with the Light of Hope, and yes, you are Blessed with a Mother’s Love that you can honestly say was a Special Blessing from The Mother of God to you today. So be it.”

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“As you listen to What is being spoken, What is being taught, What is being instilled, some of you are associating some things with yourselves, some of you are associating some things with other people, and some of you are saying: ‘God, help me to understand what is best for me in how I walk, because I truly want the Will of God to be done by me. I do not want to fall into the trap of anyone. I do not want to be vulnerable to weaknesses in others, and I do not want to stray, so the time will come and I will find myself so far away from where God intended me to be, as One.’

So many children act in ways that they themselves do not understand, do not comprehend, but they find themselves being vulnerable to other men. They find their way of life boring, tiresome, without any new ideas, ideals, so they search out what pleases them for the moment and soon they find themselves in an area they cannot walk out of, walk away from, because they become too entrenched with the place they have fallen into, walked into, so they stood still and forgot about Grace.

As I speak through one like you in the world, I speak with an honesty, sincerity, a hope, and yes, a Purpose for each one's Soul.

Children want to know what is expected of them. Through This Great Miracle of Hope in the world, Many of Us have spoken, giving Lessons, giving Directions, and then giving the Words written so there can be no mistake as to What was spoken. Many times children of all ages ignore What they receive because it takes time to reevaluate their way of life, and yes, perhaps take another stream.

The Father, in the Power He Is, the Greatness He Is, the Hope He Is, the Love He Is, the Strength He Is, can take one grain of sand, put it out all by itself, and hold back all the bodies of the water upon the earth. His Power is so strong. The Father holds in place the universe.

The Father gave to the world The Rules to live by, in detail, so that man could understand what was expected of him in his daily life. The Father, in the Creation of man, gave intellect, sensitivity, hope, intentions, care, love, abilities, capabilities. The Father gave the ability to see, the ability to hear, the ability to speak, the ability to touch. The Father gave all the means for children to act in a dignified way.

The Father gave to man what He did not give to anything else He created. He gave a Soul, for men to use, to take care of, and to have Purpose for the physical life. What purpose would there be to life if there was no Soul to think about, if there was no Aim, no Goal that was higher than what man was adapted to at the present time, the time of his physical life upon the earth? There is Reason for life, there is Purpose to life, there is Goal.

Men say: 'I read this book. I believe this book. I will follow this book. I will do what the book says.' And God says: 'Is the book a good book? Does the book truly teach What I Am or does the book draw your senses from Me and encourage you to walk the other way, toward the enemy? Does the book give you strength, courage, hope, drive, to become a Saint, or does the book say, "Life is free, I will do with it as I please"?"

I speak to you as 'Saint Joseph', and I say that though men would argue with you at the Announcement one day that I also am The Spirit of God, The Light of God, The Wisdom of God, they will say: 'How can it be? It is not rational, it is not logical.' But I say to you: 'For some it is easier for them to understand Me as a Saint. It is agreeable to God, for it has been allowed this long to be thought about in this way.'

But as The Father has the Power, the Ability, the Love and the Hope to do all things, when He created This Family you call 'Holy', of Which I was The Protector, The Father has the ability to take One Seed, place It within the form of a man, to change the course of History. How else could man have seen, felt, heard or associated with The Spirit of God, The Light of God, The Hope of God, the Willingness of God to begin Christianity?

Never be frightened at the Power of God. It is Greater than any man, woman or child can conceive. But just as all children are born with a cell, a seed that grows into human form, and children understand they are made to the Image and Likeness of Him, then why can man not understand how His Love could extend in such a way that He would take Three Seeds, Three Cells of Himself, and place Them on the land so that children one day could understand the Purpose of life, the Importance of The Father's Will to be done, and the Greatness of His Love for man?

Remember from now on that as The Father is All Powerful and He can take one grain of sand and hold back all the waters on the land, He has the Power to do all things to give strength to all children who will listen, to all children who will try to understand the Greatness of Faith in God, the Beauty of love for Him, and of course, obedience to His Divine Plan.

I speak to you because of the Great Love for you. I speak to you according to God's Plan. I speak to you because it is His Will I do, for no man, no matter how learned he is, can truly understand the Mystery that surrounds The Father, the Mystery that is in Divine Plan.

Bend your knee, cross yourself, say the prayer, and as you do, have Faith that He Truly Exists, and that in your very existence you are important to His Plan. Do not worry about anyone else's ability to understand, but when you kneel in prayer to Him, be aware of His Presence. When you walk, be aware of His Presence. When you speak, be aware of His listening to everything you say, and too, My daughters, be aware there is no corner in the world you can hide from The Father, there is no place you can go that He is not there.

Be mindful too, that as you grow in love with Him your Soul grows brighter, and as your Soul grows brighter, All of Heaven smiles and says: 'The child is growing stronger, the child is showing more love. Oh, Heavenly Father, We are sure that that child's Soul will be Here.' So be it."

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“The world may ask, ‘Why would The Father choose a woman to speak when the woman says women do not belong on the Altar?’ There are many reasons for such a choice, not all available to the world.

There are Many of Us Saints Here, Who speak continuously through her, to give Direction, to give Instruction, and to give those who listen the strength to grow, better understanding what Holiness is all about.

I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. I speak to you on this night, and it is true I walked the path of the Priesthood, a vocation dedicated to serve, to honor, and to direct children of all kinds to The Father’s Way.

I worked long hours because it was my will to do so, and in my work it was not just for self-satisfaction, it was to be able to serve to a greater degree The Father’s Will, because I feel and I felt that at a given time I realized the Magnitude, the Beauty of The Beloved Holy Trinity.

It was important for me to do what I did at the time I did it. Perhaps I was not easy for other men to understand, but that did not really cause me to change my way, my plan.

Many stand with Me Here tonight. We All walked a different way, but Some of Us you have read about and certain words regarding Our life are imprinted upon your memories.

One stands with Me and will speak. He is not a Saint of your time but of a long time ago. He spoke openly in His day and He wrestled with, He tangled with, and in His perseverance fought a battle that, in many ways, you are in today.”

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“My sons, I am Saint Athanasius. I fought heresy. The world, in the time in which you live, has so much heresy, and it is a time difficult to speak to those who are in charge, because they put their authority, their responsibility in how they want to handle things above the needs of the people, but in their ignoring what is happening they are allowing more heresy to develop, to enter, to control, and yes, to diminish the beauty of Truth in which The Father is above all things.

Men, women and children are being led in many ways of hypocrisy. Many men fear altercation, many men fear someone who is defensive for what they feel is correct. It is difficult to fight those in authority, but along with this difficulty I say, ‘It is necessary to stand up for what you know is morally sound and is pleasing to God.’

Sometimes men, women and children are faced with personal disgrace if they speak offensively, but sometimes it is the only way to get a point across when the other person or persons are defying what is truth, what is sound, what is logical, what is moral, what is correct.

Another will speak. My Words I want you to remember, for My Words are Words of Value, My Words are Words of Sound Direction.”

SAINT ANASTASIA

“I am Saint Anastasia. I have spoken many times through this woman in the world. I have spoken on different subjects, I have spoken lightly, but I come to you on this night and I say: ‘It is important for you to understand that as a warrior for God you are not alone. You are never alone when you stand for what is correct, what is truth, what is just, what is honorable, for the good of your own Soul or the Souls of others.’

Bear in mind that as you stand in one form, there is a Purpose to this form, a Reason for it, and you must help this form rise to Sanctity. You can do it. It has been done before. It will take time, energy, respect, dignity, honor, and service to The Father above all things.

A Great One wishes to speak, and as I bow My head to Her I say, ‘Never ignore the Magnitude of Her Existence, the Value of Her Words, the importance of loving Her, and the Grace received in the mere thought to Her.’”

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“I stand in the midst of Many Here in the Heavens, Those Who walked, Those Who struggled very much, in ways that you perhaps might have to struggle in your day, but as They stand Here Where I am, there is not One of Them that could not, would not say, ‘Heavenly Mother, if I had but known the Reward for living a life upon the earth the way The Father planned it for Me, I would have knelt day and night in prayer, in service, in charity.’

As I leave you, My children, on this night, I say with a Mother’s Love: ‘Do not deny your Soul the Goal The Father intended for It. You have the control, you have the will, and when things within you feel weak, you feel tired, remember All The Saints Who have spoken through This Great Miracle, and then say a prayer that one day your name will be among Them. I, your Heavenly Mother, want you to know it can be so.’ So be it.”

SAINT MICHAEL

“When The Father hands to a child upon the earth, a mission contrary to the way of the child’s life, people question, ‘Why that child, why not me, why so much given to an individual?’ The Father passes through one individual, Direction, Hope and Love for the whole world, in His Manner of Power. If He had a thousand children, all teaching at the same time, it would appear as though all had the intellect and there would be few listeners, so He takes one child, uses the child as an instrument, and gives to the world His Love, and teaches mankind the way to Him. He instills and imparts what He knows mankind will be able to understand and follow, in His Special Plan.

I have spoken many, many times through This Great Miracle. My Name is not said too many times in the last years, but I warn you that the Prayer to Me is important and it must be said many times a day, for you see, every time you speak that Prayer bearing My Name, Legions of Angels defend what is wronged, for the benefit of Truth. Now I did not say They defend the wrong, as many of you might have thought. I said They defend against the wrong, for you see, the wrong hurts The Father so much.

I hold the instrument deeply, for I watched your faces when I spoke. I listened to your minds. I am Saint Michael.

When you pray, pray fervently, sincerely, and understand, there is a battle every day, continuously. The Legions of Angels Here with Me stand as if They are a fortress, defending against all that is against The Father's Will. They stand and hold Their Arms, They stand and hold Their Wings, They stand and hold Their Swords, They stand side by side, They stand One alone, They stand above, They stand below, defending, constantly defending.

I speak so strongly through the child. She listens for My Words. My Light is always where she is. The evil one is yet jealous and tries in every way to gather children of all kinds where he wants them to go. The Light of the Heavens shines through the Words.

So many times children are tested, to see if they are hearing, listening, or if their mind has wandered in a manner and in a way to draw them to more humanistic thoughts, words. Men say Heaven would not test. Oh yes, Heaven does test many times, the love of a child, the willingness of a child to do the Will of The Father, for there is Great Grace in sacrifice when it is done in the Name of The Father.

If I were to allow you to see Hell for one moment, the very sight of it would kill you, for you could not stand the horror of the vision of such a place.

The Angels stand Here side by side. There are so Many of Them. If you ask an Angel to defend you against the evil one, the Angel will take a particular place. Do not deny such a chance for Someone to stand so close to you and guard you.

The Prayer to Me is special in so many ways. It is a Prayer of Special Grace. The evil ones stand in such disgrace and sometimes they become so hateful. They constantly defend their place, for what else do they have, where can they go? No lower place.

The Angels Here, Where I am, are strong and pure, and Their Wings are like the snow of the earth. They glisten, and the Light that shines from Each One of Them shines also in Their Face. Remember, when you say 'Yes' or 'No', We hear what you do say. Remember, when you defend a certain way, We know what stand you take.

I want you to picture All the Angels in Heaven, the Guardians that is, with Swords of Honor and of Love, defending this Great Place against an intruder that tries to enter disguised. The disguise cannot last for any length of time for the evil begins to show, and of course, the difference in how each one acts, sees things, feels, can never be disguised, for the Ones Here in the Heavens glow. The ones who try to pull tricks, to return, fall short of what it takes to ever re-enter this Beautiful Place.

The Father is more than any man knows. No man can know the Fullness He Is, the Greatness He Is, the Breadth of His Power, the Magnitude of His Being. And when the word 'Supreme' is said, it does not come near in meaning to What He is truly All About, the Greatness He Is. There are no words upon the earth that can describe, that can define the Beauty of Heavenly Power and Grace.

Before I leave on this night I want you, each of you, to remember that We are the Guardians of Goodness. We walk in the Power of Grace and We constantly defend all that is good against all that is evil, but children have walked away from this understanding of Us and they are depending upon human abilities.

Defend your Faith, defend it well. Defend your Church. Defend your Soul. Defend your mind against the evil one's trickery, for he is a master at it and he uses all forms of mockery, hypocrisy, and he is zealous in his attempt to draw you from what is Goodness, Grace, Love, Hope, and Eternal Happiness.

Remember well: When you think, be aware of what you think and form your strategy, for to become a Saint takes a strategy. It takes listening, it takes working, it takes hoping, it takes doing, and it takes the Gift of Faith. So be it."

GOD THE FATHER

“So many times, so many ways, for so many reasons, and in all days, I am taken for granted, I am set aside, I am called upon frivolously, sometimes irreverently, to fulfill desires, needs, and foolish things. I always hear a child’s request, a child’s plea. I always know the real degree of the request, its reason, its purpose, and yes, its need.

I am The Father of All Creation. I am The Power of all that exists. I am The Life of the world, the universe. I am The Light of life and for life, that at My Command persists. I come through an instrument, human in life, to deliver Direction and Goal for the Purpose of life.

If mankind would but see what uselessness human life would be if there was no Goal for it and to it, then perhaps mankind would realize, better understand it is wrong to take Me for granted, eliminating dignity, respect, and in the true sense, honoring Me.

In My Commandments to the world, My Rules for life, for living, for the Purpose of human life, I gave to mankind Rules to practice, to direct their daily habits, and to show mankind the way to purity. Obedience to These Rules is easy. Obedience to what each Rule stands for, in its fullest meaning, is not difficult for any man, woman or child, for The Rules are Protection, The Rules say Justice, Dignity, Respect and Honor to each other, and of course, to Me.

I also gave mankind a Form of Christianity, a way of life based on These Rules of life that I so generously gave for the guidance necessary for each man, woman and child to live by, live in, and live for the Purpose I intended, Eternity with Me.

Many, many men, women and children have allowed diabolical interferences to enter through their own weaknesses, such as selfishness, greed, lust, and many immoral actions, thoughts, words and deeds.

I have given mankind a free will, but this will was not just to make decisions in one category of life, right or wrong, but this will was to allow man's intelligence to make decisions of credibility, justice, and see the value, the importance and the correctness in each decision that would protect what I created mankind for: to be with Me for All Eternity.

I gave The Rules, I gave The Direction, and I have never stopped giving mankind Hope. I have never allowed mankind to be in a state of limbo, not knowing what I wanted of each man, woman and child. The world is never without My Light and the Reasoning of My Enlightenment to mankind. I hold all things in place.

My treasured Creation, mankind, is so special to Me, for though children of all ages, all colors, all creeds, cannot and do not understand the Magnitude of Me, I reveal at different times the importance of how children should think, how children should act, how children should be taught, and how children should make their decisions according to What I Have Given and not be distracted by what and those who have been cast out of Heaven.

The whole world is in turmoil because so many children in the world have accepted their way of causing, through humanistic values, an absence of Me in their life. In some ways, of course, as I said before, they take Me for granted, which I am not pleased with, for no man, woman or child is equal to Me.

I have not asked men, women and children to not enjoy the physical life. I have not taken from them the beauty of living individually. Through My Love, in what I have allowed for mankind, I have shown respect, dignity, understanding, love, and even honor, to this creation I hold dear to Me.

Men, women and children are the custodians of a Portion of Me. They are as tabernacles, holding within them Part of Me that I, in turn, wait to have returned to Me in a Pure State of Being. This is not an impossible request.

I want thousands of children to receive This Revelation so that they will better understand My Relationship to them, as God to man. So be it.”

JUNE 17, 1987 AT 11:45 A.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“If I, God, would instill into each living human being, a Portion of Myself, the Soul, why does man find it impossible, improbable, for Me to take One Cell of Myself, One Cell of The Holy Ghost, The Light of My Wisdom, and place It upon the earth within the form of a man called ‘Joseph’, so that the Supreme Protection for the establishment and institution of Christianity would and could have the Sound Foundation which I planned it to have, and to uphold it through all trials and errors made by mankind at that time and for all time to come?”

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“It is never easy to stand in a place, in a position, in a way, for a specific reason God intends it, to reveal to the world. Children of all ages respect the idea of Faith in God, and in their innocence do not fathom, comprehend, realize the Magnitude of The Father.

The Father is Strength, Support, and a child looks at The Father as a Supreme Power and Someone with Whom they can depend upon in all times of suffering, hurt, need, desire and hope.

It is difficult for some children to believe that anyone unseen, as He is, can care so deeply, so much, so often, for the needs of human beings.

Children look at Me and they can believe sometimes more in how I walk, how I am and What I say, because a child so often looks at a mother’s face and feels compassion, feels hope, and feels a contentment of support, for support, in support.

A mother's face says, 'I love you, now do what you are told.' A father's face may look as though he is ready to scold, not always true, but a child feels the firmness and the strength, the support of the protector.

I am your Heavenly Mother. There are many heresies throughout the world, the time in which you live. There are many errors being performed by men who feel they have the knowledge necessary to direct others in.

I stand in the Heavens but I also stand in the world in many ways, and when children pray to Me, I respond as a mother responds to a child, individually.

There are so many things yet to be spoken through This Great Miracle. So many Mysteries have been revealed through This Great Miracle. The time had come, and has come, for children to better understand the Beauty, the Purpose, the Goal of life The Father intends.

It is true, some men doubt, some women doubt, some children doubt. It is true there is much confusion in the world. It is true there are many who are misleading others, but if you will but look to the Prayers you have been given, the Direction you have been shown, the Love that has been extended, you will find that the path to Here is paved with Love and Example.

So many times people pray. They are of all creeds, colors. They feel comfort in the prayer, but they do not feel that the prayers are answered in the way they requested them to be.

Always remember, when a child upon the earth asks a mother for something special, the mother may know that what the child requests is not right at that moment, or it can be she is unable at that time to answer the request according to the child's wish, but a mother's heart, a mother's love very often replaces what she cannot give with a hug or a kiss, a promise, a word of direction, a word of hope.

It is this way with Me for you, individually. Never feel I have not heard, never feel I have not answered, never feel I have ignored you totally, but always know a Gift, a Promise, a Ray of Hope is always there from Me to you.

I speak in the world today. I speak for that Precious Gift of Love that each of you are the custodians of, the Soul. I speak to give you strength. I speak to hand you the Light of the True Way. I speak to strengthen all you are, and I speak to remind you of your Soul, that Soul that is a Portion of Him, that Soul that you are the custodian of, that Soul that must return Here.

Be aware of the Light of prayer, in prayer. Be aware of the Importance of the Guidance that prayer offers. Be aware of the type of prayer you say, and always say prayer for protection of your daily life in the physical, mental, and moral way.

I speak Openly, I speak Lovingly, I speak in Truth, and I speak through a Light of gold, white, silver and blue. I speak because of the Faith you have. I speak to help your Faith grow. I speak because I love you, for you see, I am aware of your physical and I am aware of the Beauty of your Soul. So be it.”

JULY 8, 1987

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“Whenever you work for God, please don’t ever think you are going to work in a little limbo, because God is Action. If God was not Action, it would be a very, very dull world. So we have been active.

This is a privilege in life and we must see it as a privilege, because privileges are sometimes looked at as problems, as parts of our life that were not as beautiful as they could be, but privileges are always something special from God: the privilege to know about The Miracle, the privilege to be part of The Miracle, the privilege to have come this far spiritually, all of us, myself included; the privilege of being able to serve God in Faith, through Faith, with Faith, and for more Faith; the privilege of being able to be together, the progress that’s going on, and yet always with the hope that God’s Will, will be done, but it will take our energy, our time, our love and our hope, our unity, our charity, our understanding, our abilities, our capabilities, our motives. It will take something from us, but we will receive so much in return. New people coming to The Miracle have been deprived of what we already know, what we already have.

The Books getting out will give Lessons to individuals. It will cause controversy. The Books getting out will make some people look at one line and it could change the whole course of their life. Many people will throw the Books down and someone else will pick them up. Some people will get them as gifts and never look at them, but we don't know that in ten to fifteen to twenty years, someone will pick a Book up, read one line and say, 'Wait a minute, what's this all about?'

The Books are like reading the Bible, only more explanatory. You don't have to interpret what is in the Books. All you have to do is read them. You're not going to have to say, 'Let's see now, will I have to think twice about this?' No. You read one line and it tells you much. You read two lines and you'll learn more. You read a paragraph and you grow in strength. You read a page, it's got to interest you in reading another page. God's Way of doing things, sometimes not as quickly as we would like it done, but God's Way is always the Surest Way, the Purest Way, the Safest Way, and the Way of Love.

Men, women and children have come to This Great Miracle and they say, 'There's something there; I feel something, I don't know what it is.' What it is, is the Hand of God. It is God's Love radiating through Words, through Facts, through Direction, through Teaching, through Motivation, through Understanding. It is God's Way of teaching children the Purpose of life, the Dignity in life and the Beauty of life, for the Purpose of Sainthood.

The Beauty of All the Teachings gives hope to whomever will read What is written, in this time, and of course, for all time to come. There is no need for anyone to translate the meaning, interpret the meaning. The meaning is clear. The meaning is not delicate sometimes, but very outspoken, definite, pure. The meaning of a simple phrase can hand to anyone who reads It, a way of life, a Goal for life, and perhaps the degree of strength necessary to conquer a weakness, a fear that is so deeply ingrained that nothing or no one could make it disappear.

I speak through a woman in the world. You call Me ‘Saint Joseph’. Here in the Heavens We transmit so much to you through a woman such as you: flesh, intellect, energy, Faith, Hope and Light.

So many men, women and children throughout the world desire to learn what life is all about. So many men, women and children fear what life is all about. So many men, women and children want security in what life is all about. What you already know to be Truth, What you already have to hand to them can be just what they need to give them the strength to go on, and decrease some of the fear they have, some of the hopelessness they have, some of the misunderstanding they have regarding life and what it’s all about.

I speak in a manner you understand. I speak in the tongue of your land. I speak because in the time in which you live there is so much desecration to what The Father has given to the world. There is so much hypocrisy. There is so much heresy.

Men, through impulsive acts, commit great sins. These same men must read the Words We have given them. It is Our Love, Our Hope that the Words will turn wrong into right because the child will see the value of what is in the Words, see the Direction, see the Logic, see the Hope, see the Purpose, and that These Words will fulfill the need for a better life.

To send Love from Heaven, it is done in many ways. One of the greatest ways is to tell you direct what is best for you, what is right for you, what is correct for you, what is hope for you, and of course, to give you the strength so on the morrow you will feel the challenges that come your way can be conquered correctly, morally, and benefit you, not destroy you.

You are Loved, My children, in so many ways. My Words tonight prove this Love. You must look to what is right, you must look to the Light of Heavenly Love, and do not allow deceit to conquer you, but you must conquer all that is wrong; and you must remember that each time you conquer a weakness you grow stronger, and each time you grow stronger your Soul grows brighter.

Never forget that Special Gift The Father gave, That Portion of Himself within you that you cannot see, you cannot feel, but you know It is there. You are the custodian of It. Your will is what makes the decisions in favor of your Soul, and you are in control of every moment of your life.

I bless you in a way you understand. I bless you with the Grace of God's Love, with the strength to overcome all obstacles, all fears, and I bless you with the Love of The Holy Trinity, and to this Love I add: The Mother's Love is always there. So be it."

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“I know that all that God has given to thousands of people Personally, and of course, through the written Word, is because The Father wants the Souls of all His children.

There is not one human being present here, listening to This Miracle, that is not of sound mind, also possessing a degree of intellect to be able to understand What has been spoken, What has been written, and of course, even in the general conversation, the Worth of What has been said, because The Miracle Of Saint Joseph is a Teaching Miracle.

Men, some women, stand on a stage and they proclaim certain powers that they themselves have. A True Mystic is positive of Where the True Power comes from, and a True Mystic knows that God’s Love for the intellect of His children is far above what each child understands this respect to hold.

As we must respect God, God in turn respects us. He gives us the Means, He gives us the Way, He gives us the Truth, He gives us the time to perform for the Salvation of our own Soul, and to be the example to help the Souls of everyone else we meet, we know, we love, and that we ever come close to.

We have a responsibility of our actions, our example. We have a responsibility in our hopes, in our dreams, our needs. We have a responsibility in how we teach others what is right, what is wrong, what is good, what is bad, what is best.

You and I, in the human way, have a responsibility to each other. We have a responsibility of honesty, credibility. We have a responsibility to uphold the dignity of the next person. We have a responsibility, a special responsibility attached to our Faith in God. We have the responsibility of following an orderly way to achieve the Purpose of our Souls.

I speak through a woman in the world. I speak in a way you understand; and you must understand this, My sons: Our Way of teaching is so that mankind will understand the benefits of human life, the dignity of human life, and the Great Purpose for which all things were planned.

You call Me your ‘Heavenly Mother’. I am The Mother of all mankind, for as My Title reaches out to the world, I am The Queen of Heaven, I am truly The Mother of God, and My Love for all children is beyond any child’s ability to know Love. So be it.”

SAINT MARGARET MARY

“My daughters, many times We Here in the Heavens have spoken and sometimes you have ignored the Words, feeling the Words were not meant for you. But if you will but think to an easy prayer to say, like ‘The Memorare’, when you speak that prayer, you speak it directly because it is a communication that you feel strong about. You feel it is heard and you want something in return for the moment of prayer that you give. It isn’t so much always that you want, but that you expect.

We Here in the Heavens hear every prayer spoken, every prayer, whether it is in thought, in deed, in action, or whether the prayer is a plea for extra help, for an extra need. We Here in the Heavens understand the need of prayer and for prayer. We Here in the Heavens say, ‘As We have taught through This Great Miracle for such a long time, you too can teach others in your daily life, in everything you do, in everything you say, in everything you give in large and small ways.’

The Father does not ask you to walk with your hands folded in a particular position. He says, ‘Awaken in the morning and spend the day doing what is right, what is good, what is full, in helping others in many ways, but never forget, in your working with others, that you must work for the benefit of your Soul, for the Purpose for which you were born, for Eternal Life Here one day.’

Some of you have asked, ‘Who is speaking?’ I smile at this and say: ‘I am Saint Margaret Mary. My Love, through The Heart of His Love, comes to you today.’ So be it.”

AUGUST 5, 1987

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

“So many times children of all ages neglect the chance to grow strong spiritually because they become so involved in daily endeavors, motivations, ideas, ideals, and they allow themselves to become lackadaisical where God is concerned.

It is wonderful to be a success among men. It is wonderful to be a success in the eyes of men. It is wonderful to be successful for one’s own satisfaction, but remember, My sons, that success comes in many ways.

Success comes in one’s own growth within one’s own thinking. Success can be measured by one’s example to all people. Success can be an art in how to handle charity. Success can stand all by itself when it is done in a morally sound way.

It is not necessary to have one’s name on a marquee, but when God’s Name is written in someone’s heart and that Name is ever present, always evident, success rings through the whole being.

You are Loved as you were told you are Loved, but remember, My sons, that the Greatest Love for you comes from The Father's Love for the Soul that you hold till one day He will ask you to return It to Him, and as He looks into the Light of your Soul and your Soul expresses that particular Love because It is returning to Him, there will be no Greater Glory, no Greater Success, and no Greater Hope and Love for any man to achieve.

You carry My Name. I hand you strength. I am Saint John Vianney. Few men celebrated My day. Few men thought of the position I play, but as I was handed a Particular Task one day, I hold it in dignity, in honor and delight, for I want you to know, as I love mankind through The Heart of God Himself, those who walk spreading His Name, doing His Will, I walk with in many ways. So be it."

SAINT TERESA OF AVILA

“All of us are here and there’s not one person in the room that did not or does not have a mother. Everyone had a mother or has a mother, and a mother is a very special part of living, very special privilege. And we must all look at Our Blessed Mother and understand that Her Love for us is beyond our human comprehension, and we have a very special spot in Holy Mother Church where Our Blessed Mother is a Very Important, not just Image, not just a Personage, but She is a Very Important Part of the Whole of Holy Mother Church.

Human mothers’ love has many facets to it. It is like a beautiful diamond that is cut to shine at each responsibility of one or more children: love, duty, teaching, scolding, correcting, overlooking things, continuously caring about little things, big things, never truly being understood for the depth of love and human devotion to each one of the children’s welfare.

A human mother has her ‘ups’, has her ‘downs’. A human mother can be so angry at a child and dislike the child totally, but there’s something away deep inside that never gets killed and that is a love that is innate, it is there, and nothing can destroy it. No matter what the child does, no matter how wrong the child is, no matter how wicked, how obnoxious, how angry you can get, it’s there, and no one, nothing can take it away.

It’s a feeling of a oneness with God for that child. It’s a feeling of communion, of privilege. It’s a feeling that that little diamond was put there for a reason, and sometimes that diamond does not show and sometimes that diamond is brilliant in front of our eyes. And sometimes one thought from that child, oh, covers so much area. I can relate to it very easily, very warmly, because to me children are a Gift from God, a loving Gift, a privilege, special.

Of course, you have grandmothers and you have great-grandmothers, and what privileges, they’re beautiful privileges, but I would like to tell you about a Spiritual mother, and this is truth, this is truly how a Spiritual mother feels about every child placed in her jurisdiction.

A Spiritual mother sees and accepts responsibilities, never truly expressed personally, but cares deeply for the human side and is ever watchful for the Spiritual side. Many times a Spiritual child is totally unaware of the real relationship of his or herself with a Spiritual mother, but a Spiritual mother repeatedly asks these questions.

Every day I ask these questions about you:

Is the child more aware of his or her own Soul, God?

Is the child more aware of Your True Existence? Does the child really know You exist, God, or does the child think You are something in someone's imagination?

Is the child growing spiritually?

Is the child constantly aware of Your Ten Commandments?

Is the child being good example every day, all day, in every way?

Is the child keeping in touch with You, God, through prayers, actions, thoughts and daily deeds? God, has the child prayed today, has the child spoken to You in any way, remembering how important it is for Your Communication never to be left until tomorrow?

Is the child fighting weakness and striving for sound moral habits?

Is the child remembering to thank You, God, for everything he or she has?

Is the child aware of the moral dangers and physical dangers that some people are to them and that some places are to them, that encourage them to follow in or to take a chance with?

Has the child grown more in love with You, God, with Our Blessed Mother, and has the child realized the responsibility of caring for his or her own Soul?

A lot of people think that a Spiritual mother has no job, no worries, no work, no problems, and really doesn't think about the individuals who are in their care, put before them. There is great responsibility and a lot of energy toward each of you every day. There is a great responsibility that what is spoken to you is Truth. I do not want to lose my Soul. What a terrible thing that would be, to lose one's Soul.

We have not reached perfection yet, but then our Soul is the recipient of all that we try to do, all that we are growing in. Our Soul is very much a Part of us. We are the custodians of our Soul.

The responsibility of the young is ever there, but there is no age limit in the responsibility of a Spiritual mother. There is no personality that takes preference over another. There is no individual who is favored, because as the responsibility is there, your Souls are present within you there, my Soul is present within me here, and what good would it do to lie to you? What advantage would I have?

It is important that children of all ages understand that we have a responsibility to God every day of our lives to return our Soul to Him, and there's not one of us in this room that does not make mistakes, there's not one of us in this room that is a living Saint. There is not one of us in this room that will not make some error tomorrow. There is not one of us in this room that will be able to stand before God tonight or tomorrow and say we're perfect to God: 'We reached that point so we feel that we should go right in to be Where You are.'

That would be stupidity, and of course, none of us could say it because human error, human life, our personality, our habits, our daily ways of doing things need perfecting. Our thoughts need perfecting, our ideas, our ideals, our intentions, our motives, our motivations, our constructive actions, and of course, our prayer life.

Many Saints are in Heaven and there is not One Saint in Heaven that is not willing to help us grow more perfect and more in love with God.

As I have spoken through this instrument tonight to you, I am Saint Teresa of Avila, and All things spoken are for you to think about, not just walk away from here and forget.

As a Spiritual mother has responsibility for those put under her care, the children also have a responsibility to grow in the way necessary for the benefit of the Soul that must be returned to The Father with great care.

Thousands and thousands and thousands of Teachings have been transferred, transmitted through this instrument for the benefit of Souls. This is not a Miracle to be forgotten.

Men will argue: ‘Why would Heaven speak through a woman? Why would Heaven not choose someone of a different way of life?’ But remember this: Those Who walked with Christ might not have been your choice. Those Who took part in important portions of Bible History might never have been your choice.

Ask yourself this question: If you had lived three thousand years ago, would you have chosen a man like Moses? Would you have chosen Moses to be the recipient of God's Commandments? I doubt it, for every human being has opinions, every human being has different ideas, every human being is an individual, but for Important Events to last through time, the decisions for who would walk the way, for Important Messages to be passed on, were chosen by God for reasons known to Him alone.

Each of you has a mission upon the earth to fulfill a very important task, and that is to grow into a Holy state of life so that one day, when you stand before The Father, the Judge, your Soul will glow in a Light beyond the light of the sun, different than the light of the moon, brighter than any star, and of course, return to The Divine. So be it."

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“Men, every one of you has an intellect. Some of you are inclined one way, some are inclined another way. Some are shy, some are quiet, some are talkative, some have motivation, some have interests in many fields. Some have not yet found what they’re to do, but no matter what you do, remember that God must be first in your mind, your heart, your work and your daily living, and of course, your daily example.

The Society Of Saint John Vianney would be nothing if you had no Goal for your Soul. God wants you to have the Goal, Our Blessed Mother wants you to have the Goal, and of course, you couldn’t have a better Saint to follow than Saint John Vianney.

The Miracle Of Saint Joseph* has had to say many things that were difficult for a human being to say, because sometimes Statements are so controversial, sometimes Statements leave people concerned, worried, but there are so many things that have been revealed through This Great Miracle that were meant only to give strength to a man or woman or child's way of life.

Men say, 'Why would Heaven speak through her?' and I, your Heavenly Mother say: 'Why not? The Words are Ours, the Direction is clear, and as We speak through a woman in the world, We have done so before, years gone by, with Special Messages to all children, Special Love.' We deliver Hope, We deliver a particular Strength. We teach you understanding of what life is all about. We hand you Truth, for you, with your will to decide what you will do with It, how you will use It, how deeply you will allow It to penetrate your mind and your body, for the good of your Soul.

Men will say I would not speak. My Voice is hers to you, but the Words are Mine because of My Love for you. So be it."

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“Everything that is happening now in Holy Mother Church is very, very important. Everything we bend to, everything we accept that is wrong, we are allowing satan to move in and he’s not cautious, please believe me; he’s a daredevil and he is moving into Holy Mother Church. He has moved in and there are some good priests out there.

We, as The Society Of The Little Way, bearing the Name of One of the Greatest Saints in Heaven, should make a pact tonight to say one Rosary every day, in addition to perhaps the one or two we say other than that, but one Rosary every day to Our Blessed Mother and ask Her to intercede and rid the Church of satan. It is a Very Important Message, a very important decision, and it can be done.

That one Rosary takes fifteen minutes. That one Rosary can be said lying down, sitting down. That one Rosary can be said at any time in twenty-four hours, and that one Rosary can conquer many things. The Power of the Rosary, diminished by so many of the liberal priests, is a very powerful prayer.

We must understand that we have a responsibility to do everything we can, in our example, in our very presence, in our respect for The Blessed Sacrament, in our respect for the priests, in our honoring The Tabernacle, and in our willingness to say extra prayers to rid the Church of satan.

Please, as a Society Of The Little Way member, think of the seriousness that we are confronted with. Think of your part that you should play. I should think of the part I should play. In order to turn things around it will take prayer. We are in a Christian war. We are definitely in a battle.

As I speak through this instrument tonight I say to each child present, 'There have been many Christian wars throughout time and you must understand you are truly in an arena, an arena where much blood is being shed in different ways.'

You are in an arena, pitting authority against love for God, authority against Faith in God, authority that is so busy being authoritative that it is eliminating love for God. You are in an arena where you do not see animals but you see men in all types of garb striving for attention, and yes, exercising all their abilities and capabilities to have power in their own capacity, in their own way, in their own jurisdiction.

Prayer to Me is important. Prayer for a particular reason means you care, you are concerned, you are perhaps worried. Are you terrified at what could happen if satan can open so many doors that he can rob you of the Greatest Gift in the world, The Beloved Blessed Sacrament? Men are abusing this Beloved Gift. Some men are amused by It and by the fact that children of all ages depend upon It.

The world is in great turmoil, for such a war as this causes much dissension, much uprising, much harm, and in many ways destroys what The Father Wills to be done.

Before I leave you, I ask you to remember one thing: Your will is your line of decision. Your intellect many times encourages your will to make decisions that are on the borderline of right and wrong.

You have experienced much and many times, the Light of Divine Will. You have been taught what The Father Wills. You have been encouraged to use the Guidelines of Love, Truth, Beauty and Logic. You have been encouraged to exercise your Faith in God in many ways. You have been told how much you are Loved. There is no other place in the world such as this.

You are the custodians of Truth, of Direction, of Hope. You are the custodians of the way to follow what is right. You are the custodians of the degree of Faith in God you will use. Your Souls are the beneficiaries of what you do with the will God gave to each of you.

There are many men saying: ‘You are wrong. Don’t be so serious. This is a new world. Live by the new rules, act accordingly. Do what you feel is best for your neighbor.’ Yes, this is good, but do not forget God must come First, Above all things, all others, and when God comes First you can do no harm to your neighbor; but, if you put your neighbor and yourself before God, the selfishness and many other sins you can commit in this manner of life can destroy you and can rob you of your Soul forever.

The Light that has been given so many times is to instill in you deeper what The Father Wills you to think about, to hold close to you, to follow, to be example of, to understand more what you are all about, why He created man the way He did, and the Purpose for each child born to the world.

Be blessed, My daughters, and know, I do not come on this night just to be talking, but to leave a Message of Heaven's Love and encourage each of you to fight well in the arena. Fight with dignity, respect, honor. Fight with purpose, and remember that you are a soldier of God and as you fight in His Name, for His Will to be done, you will be blessed by Him in ways you cannot understand, but I, your Mother say, 'The Way is Divine Love.' So be it."

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“There are many Blessings that go to all who listen to What is spoken through This Great Miracle, Blessings beyond man’s ability to comprehend what a Blessing is all about.

When Truth is spoken, Direction given, Example shown, and there is a Goal to all of this and the Goal is for one to save one’s Soul, it is obvious It comes from Divine Love, not human endeavor.

Many children have been exposed to the Light of Divine Will, the Manner in which The Father speaks, to give children Hope, Intention, Motivation, Enlightenment, and Spiritual Growth.

Many men stand in high positions, eager to look important, feel important, be known as important, express themselves in important ways, but they very often forget one thing: There is responsibility to importance and there is also the necessity to pay for what comes through the importance of what they do and they say.

I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. I have spoken many times through this woman in the world. I have spoken rapidly, I have spoken slowly, but always with Words of Direction and Words to help you implement What you have heard, for the benefit of your Soul.

Your Soul is not a natural state of being. It is Supernatural in Its very existence. You must realize this and accept this, as The Father has designed It to be. You must look at your Soul as your Purpose for life, the reality of It The Father created It for, the means and the manner and the way for you to spend Eternity with Him.

My sons, living the physical life is a very important, purposeful method and means to living Eternal Life with The Father, with The Holy Trinity.

So many Lessons have been taught, so many Directions given, none left out, for you to follow a path of deliberate action, example, for the end result, your Soul to be returned to The Father for All Eternity.

Never abuse the Soul. The means to protect It were given a long time ago, through The Rules, The Commands,

The Direction of what each one must follow to arrive at a life of purity.

The Commandments have been broken down to a few words. In many instances you have been given more definition, more Divine Love, regarding each one of Them. Look back to your notes. Ask yourself, ‘Am I truly following each one of These correctly or have I become so lackadaisical, so busy that I do not feel the necessity to look at Them clearly for the good of my Soul?’

I bless you with a Priest’s Blessing but I also bless you with The Father’s Love and I say, ‘In Nomine Patris et Filii et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.’”

SEPTEMBER 23, 1987

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“The Miracle Of Saint Joseph is a Miracle of Honesty, of Truth. It’s a Miracle taken to the people by an instrument just like the people.

Whenever God truly wanted to reach the people in the masses, I mean in crowds, He would pass the Words He wanted them to hear, through another human being. He would pass the Messages through a human being because that’s what human beings understand — another human being.

When Our Lord taught, He spoke the tongue of the time and He passed the Words on to all who would listen. We have been Blessed all through time with God’s Interest in us.

There are Many of Us Saints Here in the Heavens that learned by the lives of others. Some of Us were the instruments to pass on to others the truth, the logic, and Some of Us had the privilege of blessing others, to give strength and hope.

Some of Us were given the tasks to be in authority of others. It was not always easy to do, because in some ways there would be small rebellions of nature, personality; there would be conflict, but there would always be that one solid ground we had to stand in, on, and with each other in, and that would be to kneel before The Blessed Sacrament, ask God's Forgiveness first, and then make penance for our lack of good behavior, and then many times, apologize for our quick tongue, our lack of understanding. Sometimes a small confession of guilt would come forth and we would feel better. Sometimes the person to whom we were confessing did not see it as such, but it was meant to be this way.

I have spoken many times through this instrument in the world, a woman, a human being just as you are human, in all respects. I have taught many Lessons through her, and if the truth be known, I was Part of the preparation for her way, to listen in a rapid form, so through her What We All would say would come to you without hesitation and in a manner you could understand in your day. I am Saint Alphonse Liguori.

The tasks of This Great Miracle are many. There is much responsibility in every way, every day, and sometimes it is seen as normal, usual, natural. Sometimes it is handed in such a little way, the person hearing the Words lets the Words go by and maybe picks Them up another day. Or sometimes the child who is listening, when walking away will say: 'I wonder what was meant by that. I wonder if it meant a certain thing. I wish she would say it again.' But the child, the instrument, the woman, goes her way to practice all that is to be done and to accomplish what The Father Wills for that day.

There are many aspects to walking the path of 'an instrument' in any day. The need of the Soul of every human being is of the utmost Importance to the instrument. You cannot see the feeling behind what is said, and oftentimes you cannot feel the dread of the responsibility that you have been handed in a casual way.

But tonight I come to remind you that All that has been spoken to you tonight is for you to think of the beauty of how you walk, the responsibility you have in what you say, and yes, the reason why you were born to partake in This Great Miracle in your day. You could have been born two hundred years ago, you could have been born five hundred years ago, but it was not meant to be that way.

So as you take the Lessons tonight, you dwell on Them, you think about It, and then you make your decisions in how you will handle your rejection, objection of all that is wrong, I, Saint Alphonsus Liguori, want you to say a prayer for those who walked away, because in walking away it made it impossible for them to hear tonight What I did say. So be it.”

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“You and I, every day, base much of our life on Faith: our Faith in God, our faith in ourselves, our faith in our family, our faith in our friends, our faith in our teachers, our faith in our doctor when we go to him, faith in the company we work for, faith in an organization that we belong to, faith on legal issues presented to us that we feel are concentrated in the right vein.

Along with the Faith, there is Hope in each one of these things also. If you and I had no hope as we leave here tonight, or when we came in, we would be in such despair mentally, physically, psychologically, socially and spiritually, that we couldn't even talk to each other.

There has to be hope in how we walk, how we think, how we do things. Hope is a very important thing in our life. Without hope we are naked of any kind of, I would say, happiness, real existence; and we must understand Faith to each of us is very important, and hope is very important in our daily life: hope that we will accomplish, hope that we will be constructive, hope that we will feel better, hope that we will be successful, hope that we are doing the right thing, hope that we will become a Saint, hope that we will understand those around us and be able to express more love and understanding to them.

And now we get to Charity. Charity is sometimes good and sometimes not good. Sometimes we act in charity and the other person does not see it as charity. We must learn that when we give charity, we have to give what is needed, what is wanted, not what we want to discard or what we think they should have or that we want them to have.

Tonight some of you have come in Faith, some perhaps in hope, but have you thought about charity? Some have thought of charity in congeniality, in sharing a happy word, in companionship, in friendliness; and some, in other more personal ways.

I speak through a woman in the world, small in stature, but direct in Words. I have spoken many, many times within her and through her. Tonight I speak again in a Teaching manner, in a Sharing manner, in a Loving manner, and in a manner of Direction.

As you face each day with responsibilities, to further your responsibilities, to acknowledge your responsibilities, you must never omit that the foundation of these things, the success of these things must be based on your Faith in God, in yourself, in what you are about, and the Ultimate Goal for which you were born to the world.

Men say that they feel they were part of the world two thousand years ago, one thousand years ago, fifty years ago. We smile at this, for men forget the Importance of the human way is to be responsible for that Soul The Father gives at the moment of conception, a Portion of Himself that He waits to have returned to Him in a particular way. The Soul, though you cannot see It, you cannot feel It, but you have heard about It, is a Special Portion of your body, and yes, a Special Portion of The Father's Being.

There are many enemies throughout the world. There is one archenemy of The Father and of yours who tries desperately every day to rob you of all the decency that you have, that you reach for, that you inwardly want to obtain and retain.

Very few men in your time speak of a moral code of ethics, for they feel that in some ways it is beyond their reach, beyond their ability, because of the company they keep, the place where they work, or the outside that draws from them participation in things displeasing to The Father.

I speak through a woman to men, I speak through a woman to women, and I speak through this same woman to children of all ages. The power of discernment comes through clearly, logically, and always firmly.

You say, 'I accept The Father's Will.' I, Saint Joseph, I, The Holy Ghost say, 'Do you accept and obey God's Ten Commandments, or do you feel They are not for you in your day?'

I come on this night to ask you to say clearly to yourself before you retire for the night, the words you know to be The Commandments handed down to you in your day. Granted, They are not complete. Men have made Them so concise, easier to learn, and in some ways easier to keep, because they do not express the fullness of Them, the exactness in which They were given for men to better understand what The Father Willed for each man, woman and child to partake in and to undertake.

The Commandments, as you know Them, are simple to learn but incomplete. Many of you present here have been taught more about Them, in the language you have learned, and yes, a greater depth that each one means for the sake of the Soul, That Portion of God, that you must protect, that you must return to Him as a Saint.

There is more to life than the physical, but the Faith you express each day, the hope you have in everything you are and do, and the charity you extend, will be repaid not a hundredfold but a thousand times a thousand times a thousand times a thousand, in ways you cannot conceive, in ways you do not understand, but you can be assured that for every kindness you do, you are Blessed in ways to help you return your Soul to Him for All Eternity.

There are so many things that children outside of this room have never heard so directly, but This Miracle that bears My Name has been set forth upon the earth for all mankind, of all ages, all races, all creeds, to better understand the Beauty of The Father's Will for each man, woman and child.

I could speak hours to you, I have at different times, but the Words I have spoken to you on this night are for you to remember in Pure Light.

It makes no difference if men outside this room do not believe in What you have heard many times before, but the Words, when They will be read, will touch each one who reads Them for a different reason, for a different degree of Faith, perhaps for a different purpose than yours, but the Light of Heaven, the Love of Heaven, absorbed in Each Word that has gone forth and is going forth, leaves a Mark beyond any man's words.

Truth has a perfection in it, a logic in it, a stability in it, and a foreverness in it. Untruth shouts loud, sometimes is very emotional, and has a weakness in it that is noticeable and really not acceptable by someone who has grown so strong in Faith, Hope and Charity, that untruth is shed like water.

I bless you, My sons, in a way that perhaps you have heard many times, but I bless you in your thinking, in your mind, so you will better understand and be able to discern what is correct for you and how you should live so that others will follow your example.

I bless your heart, for in it you express love, understanding, hope, drive, concern, and through your heart you say to others, ‘I believe in God and I want to share my love for Him with you.’

And in your charity, I bless your whole being, for as you walk and as you talk, as you are example to all others you meet, your whole being says that you accept the Will of The Father, with sound morals, sound standards, sound logic, sound Faith, pure Hope, and that beautiful Gift of Charity. So be it.”

JANUARY 6, 1988

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“I have used this instrument many times, for many years, even before she was aware of the control, the use of her being. Many people suspected something but would not dare to think anything of This Magnitude.

Each of you has been taught responsibility, to God first, and then to accept your personal responsibilities in a way and in a manner, to a degree, to help you grow closer to God and to help you better understand The Holy Trinity.

Men argue behind closed doors of this instrument's existence and because of her existence. Some flounder for answers, some feel very prideful in their determinations, and sometimes when they meet her they look into her eyes and they ask themselves, ‘What do I see?’

She is fully aware of the questions they ask for We alert her to their glances, their eyes, their reviewing her, their concerns over her determination for them, of them, about them, and many times We become so strong within her that her eyes show We are present where she stands, where she looks, where she sees, how she answers, and what she feels.

You call Me ‘Saint Joseph’. It is a Name I love to hear for it is how I stood upon the earth in certain years. If a man says to you, ‘You are a fool to believe that Joseph could be more than you know Him to be,’ just smile and say: ‘Thank You, God, for letting me in on such an Important Issue. Thank You for the trust You have in me, for I do believe, God, that He is Part of The Holy Trinity.’

The Heavenly Mother, The Queen of All Love, All Hearts, All Peace, All Light, stands Here in the Heavens through your days and your nights, ever watchful over children who plead for Her Intercession. She says, ‘The child is thinking right, We must give the child an answer.’ Whether the answer be what you have prayed for, or whether the answer be something She feels you need more, it is a positive Act of Love from Her that Grace pours forth to you from Above.

You are Loved in so many ways, ways you cannot understand, ways you cannot feel, touch or see, but your Faith will allow you to know that as I speak through this instrument to you, you are truly Blessed by The Heavenly Queen but you are also Blessed by The Holy Trinity. So be it.”

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“When some children are handed responsibility, they take the responsibility as if they were taking a grain of salt that would make life a little bit nicer, but responsibility, as We Saints Here in Heaven know it to be, has much heartache to it and there are many demands that pour forth from it, for it, through it, by it.

I am Saint Athanasius. You truly live in a time of much heresy. I, too, lived in such a time upon the earth.

When The Father handed to the world The Miracle Of Saint Joseph, He handed to an instrument, to a woman, a monumental Degree, and of course, a monumental Source and Force of responsibility, not to be taken as a grain of salt to make life more pleasant, more successful, or to become more popular.

I stand in the Heavens and I oftentimes speak through this instrument to men and women of all ages, all backgrounds, all different intellects, all different desires, hopes, dreams, ideals, and moral values and moral standards. In spite of those who are listening to the Words or those who just read the Words, the underlying responsibility is a tremendous burden for the instrument, and to her very existence.

Children talk about a purpose to life and a purpose of life. A purpose means to have results. Everything you do during the day has a purpose to it. You awaken in the morning and that is for you to live the day to its fullest, but bear in mind, you must live it according to The Father's Will, using your will to carry this out properly.

Heresy is very difficult to fight, to conquer, because heresy creeps in through humanism in many forms, through weaknesses, through desires for attention, and heresy is used by The Father's enemy in many ways.

Tonight, it is true, it is a special night for you, for you are joined together and yet you stand individually accountable to God for how you live, the manner in which you live, and how much example you distribute through the day for others to better understand the beauty of life.

Now, as the child feels the weight of what she holds,¹ it is only like a grain of sand in comparison to the burden of responsibility. Unconsciously and consciously she fears it will fall from her hands. I say to her, 'Hold it tightly.' She says, 'I am, but the Force of your Power weakens my hand.' That is true, for a child who has endured, an instrument who has persevered under the Force and the Power of so much, feels something you cannot feel and yet can honestly say the reality of It, though It is frightening, gives strength to What she knows she stands for and in.

Her firmness is not a dislike for you. It is a love for you because of Him. You must understand that as you were born to the world in a small form, you have grown to womanhood, you have responsibilities to represent purity in every form. You have the responsibility to show sound, good example in all you say and all you do. You have the privilege to stand up for what you believe in when you know it has sound values, sound standards as its core, as its foundation.

I lived a long time ago. Times since then have been difficult in many ways. In the time in which I lived a great heresy was all about. You, too, live in such a time, but few men will accept the word 'heresy' or accept how you feel about it, but that does not make you wrong. The fact that they do not understand, they do not see it as such, should give you the strength to be more example in a Godlike way and stand up fighting what you know is sacrilegious to God in every way.

You have been taught God's Ten Commandments. You have been taught many things about each Commandment. You have been spoken to gently, you have been spoken to firmly, you have been spoken to lightly, you have been spoken to in laughter, in joy, but always remember, All of Heaven passes through This Great Miracle and All of Heaven has Blessed you for your very listening. It is your desire, your will, in how much you accept, how much you look to for the repetitiveness that strengthens you.

The instrument searches for My Face, I am that close. The closer I get, the deeper she is with Me. This is not an imaginary thing. God so wants all of you, and others, to understand the Closeness He is to each one daily. He wants the children of all kinds to know He is present continuously.

Tonight Many of Us were here with you, as We always are. The dignity, the solemnity that was obvious, is beautiful to see, but you must know that We read your hearts, We understand what is going on in your mind, and We are fully aware of what you feel.

You are Blessed, My children, in so many ways, but you are Blessed by the Words that you can understand, you can follow, and that in your logical mind does suit your days, and the Words are truly a Lesson for you to think about and for you to try to better understand the necessity of responsibility you have, living as man. So be it.”

SAINT BERNADETTE

“Many times people try to hide from truth because truth takes strength to stand up to and for and in and with, but truth will outlive anything else because God Is Truth and God will remain when all things are gone.

As Roman Catholics we must understand more of what we truly believe in. We must understand also that God must be First, in our hearts, our minds, our actions, our motives, and everything we do. God cannot be second, He must be First.

Heaven has spoken so many times through This Great Miracle. Heaven has given Lessons of encouragement, Lessons to work with, work on, to improve one’s own Faith in The Father. Heaven encourages children of all ages to stand in dignity, for principles that point the Soul to God.

I am a Saint that has not spoken often through This Great Miracle but there have been times that I have spoken and have not announced Myself.

So many people have visited This Great Miracle, some once, some twice, some several times, and always the Light of Heaven shone forth so the children would understand the reality of the Presence of a Heavenly Being. It is difficult sometimes for children who hear the Words to stand strong when they leave the site, but you must remember that All of Us Here in the Heavens had times of concern, fear, worry, times of deep love, times of total commitment, times when we felt fulfillment in the slightest thing, and other times when we felt God did not hear us for major things that we thought we had practiced in His Name.

The time has come when people throughout the world, those who are without homes, those who are hungry, those who do not have anyone to lean upon, hear of This Great Miracle, for it will be a strength to them, a hope for them. It will be a place one day for many to come to, to encourage them to grow closer to God.

There are so Many Here in the Heavens Who have spoken much through This Great Miracle. There are so Many Who are yet to speak when The Father allows it to be so.

I am Saint Bernadette, and as you are Blessed tonight, I personally ask you to remember the Lesson you have received. Let no man hold a sword over your head and control your whole being to obedience. You have a will. You must use it. And do not forget, you carry a Sword when you call on Saint Michael, for He immediately comes to your aid to protect you. So many people forget to call His Name. So many people do not understand the Importance of Who He is and how He reigns.

So many children throughout the world pray at night for something personal. There is nothing wrong with that, but We Here in the Heavens would like each child to add a prayer to better understand God's Ten Commandments, for without Them there are no strong rules to live by, and These Commandments make the road of life more understandable, more realistic, and yes, stronger. The road of life, to some, is very difficult, but never forget, when you take the right road of life, God's Light is always ahead of you. So be it."

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“The Miracle Of Saint Joseph has given so much in Direction, Time, to many, many people. When such a Miracle comes to the earth It leaves a Mark on everyone It touches, on Every Word spoken, because the Mark is Divinely Rendered for the benefit of each person’s Soul.

It is not easy to be a True Mystic for such a Great Miracle. It is never something taken for granted and it is never something that does not bear a tremendous responsibility for Every Word spoken.

The Miracle Of Saint Joseph* many times appears casual, many times appears as though what is being spoken is natural, and many times appears as though it is a normal conversation between two human beings, or one human being with many human beings.

The Miracle Of Saint Joseph* is not the most ignored Miracle in the world, but It is a Miracle of Great Depth. It is a Miracle of Giving, a Miracle of Serving, a Miracle of Hope, a Miracle of Love, a Miracle of Responsibility, and a Miracle that comes direct from All of Heaven.

Men, women and children throughout the world will one day read What has been transmitted through This Great Miracle. Men will say, 'What truly was The Miracle?' It can be explained properly in a very simple way.

When The Son of God was present upon the earth He spoke in the tongue of the people who listened. He spoke simply, He spoke understandingly, He spoke as a Friend, He spoke as a Father, He spoke as a Teacher, and He spoke of the necessity of obedience to a Higher Will. He spoke of men's will, and what responsibility it had. He spoke of the beauty of obedience to The Rules that had been set down through another man, for the benefit of mankind.

Today in your time, the same type of Teaching goes on in the language of your way, for it has become one of the most common languages amongst many kinds of people throughout the world. It is a language to be understood for it is a simple language in many ways.

You are not standing on dirt, listening to what is spoken. You are not standing in a temple, listening to a Man speak. You are in closed quarters listening, through a soft voice, Many of Us Here in the Heavens giving you Direction, Hope, and teaching you, as the people were taught many, many years ago, reminding you that you have Another Life to walk into, and That Part of you is a Part of God.

You have heard it casually said that you were created to the Image and Likeness of God, but you did not think too deeply on that Very Important Part of you, the Soul, only because you cannot see It, you cannot feel It; but there is Something within you that you are aware of because of your innate knowledge of right and wrong, your ability to think, your ability to make decisions, your ability to walk when you want to walk, your ability to change your thoughts when you want to change them, your ability to strive for success, your ability to say, ‘I do not want to be a failure.’

It is not just that part of you that you are aware of. There’s Something deeper inside each one that tells right from wrong, good from evil, and encourages you to walk away from what is not right.

Sometimes you do not understand why or how this feeling is so deep within you, but if you could take this time in your life to better understand That Part of you, you cannot see, you cannot feel, that encourages you, discourages you, as being That Part of God that protects you, That Part of you that wants to return to God for All Eternity. You are never without That Part, no matter what you are doing, right or wrong, no matter whether you are at work or in the temple.

My sons, I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. I speak slowly through this child upon the earth because I want all things I have spoken to remain in your being, so you can understand the Importance of life, so you can take the time to see sacrifice as a doing, as a giving, as a practice, so you can see this time in your life is not one for mediocre tasks to be approached in a lackadaisical way, but see the importance of every moment of every day of your life.

You do not have to be a legal mind. You do not have to say, 'I have an average above all others; my intellect tells me what is right, what is wrong.' I, Saint Alphonsus Liguori say, 'It is more than your intellect that tells you what is right and what is wrong.'

Tonight can be a beginning of you turning each day into hope, into strength, into energy you did not know you were capable of. Tonight can be the beginning of saying:

'I realize, God, that my small sacrifices are not enough. I want to do more to serve You, to grow in Grace, so that my Soul will one day have Its rightful Place back with You for All Eternity.'

It is true, Many of Us Who walked the earth, Who you now know as 'Saint', did not think These Words out loud, but now that We are Here, not because some man decided We would have the Title 'Saint', but because The Father gave Us the Privilege to be with Him, We want you to understand there is a Place for each of you Where We are.

The Place waits. There is no hurry for any of you to take it upon yourself to say, ‘I want to hurry there tonight, it sounds so wonderful to me.’ When the time comes, be ready for it, but be ready to take the Place that waits.

When the Soul faces The Father, there is nothing on the earth that can describe the Joy, the Happiness, the Peace, the Honor, the Dignity, the Solemnity. There is nothing in the world that can take that Place.

It is worth your while now to prepare in every way you can, and always remember, your acts, your actions, your example, your speech, your look, is what will count in the Final Decision when the time comes to stand before The Crown. So be it.”

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT
OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“Sometimes, through The Miracle Of Saint Joseph, many people have come to It, listened, gained much, felt they had enough, and then walked away. No one was ever stopped from leaving. No one was truly encouraged to stay.

Each of us in this room has a different degree of Faith in why we were created. We have a different belief in the Purpose of life, in our daily way of living. Basically we feel that there is such a thing as becoming a Saint but many times we cannot associate this with ourselves in how we live, how we act, how we think, and of course, it is difficult for some people to picture life in the physical ending. It is frightening, but in reality it shouldn't be frightening, but the only thing we are really frightened of is the unknown.

So we, as Roman Catholics, knowing that God Truly Exists, knowing that there is more to life than right here and now, than tomorrow and the next day, we should look at what we are all about, think about what we are all about, and strive to grow closer to God in every way possible.

All through time there have been many heresies in Holy Mother Church, and heresy is a developed untruth. We have it now, we've had it before, and we have survived all the other times.

As an Organization¹ believing in God, learning to love Him more each day, striving to become better in every way, depending upon Our Heavenly Mother and The Saints to guide us, to guard us, we are stronger now than we were three weeks ago, three months ago, or whenever you first came to The Miracle Of Saint Joseph. We are all stronger spiritually. But we are all alone physically and spiritually. We don't stand there and lean on each other. We make our own decisions, and when we make a decision we must live up to it. That has been the story of All The Saints before us. That has been the story of human beings for all time.

¹ Refers to The Society Of The Little Way.

Tonight, though it appears we are small in number, there are Many More in the room than the count of us. In the beginning of The Miracle Of Saint Joseph, Heaven promised and Heaven never goes back on a Promise, that there would always be Many Saints present when Heaven would speak. I truly believe and I truly know this is true.

Presently, through the Eyes of my Soul, I can see Seven Saints. One Saint is Saint Anastasia. One Saint is Saint Athanasius. One Saint is Saint Dominic. One Saint is Saint Bernadette. One Saint is Saint Alphonsus Liguori. And then Our Heavenly Mother, Who is more than a Saint, but some people call Her 'Saint Mary', stands very high in the Vision, and The Beloved Saint Joseph stands close to Her.

I can tell you what She has on. It is the same green I have seen Her in before. The Crown is all very large emeralds. She has gold in the Crown and She has little gold sandals on Her Feet. The sash is gold and the gown is emerald green.

Saint Joseph is in a gold but it is not a gold as we know a gold to be. It's a very rich gold. And His Crown is different than I have ever seen it before. His Crown has rubies, emeralds and sapphires, and it is very much the shape of the crown that is planned to be in the Chapel of Our Heavenly Mother, and is highlighted by the diamonds, sits very firmly on His Head, and He smiles as He speaks:"

"It is difficult for mankind to understand how I walked the earth as man so long ago, and now I stand Here beside The Queen Who shines with a Light of Pure Gold. I speak through a woman in the world. I speak with Hope and with Love. I speak with Direction that I can assure you, comes from Above.

The Vision the instrument sees is a Vision that will one day be shown to the world depicted accordingly.

I come on this night to reach your hearts, to instill in your minds hope for the Salvation of your Soul for All Eternity.

There are so Many Here in the Heavens that walk with you each day. When you say a prayer, you make a request, you ask for help, your Faith is shown, and I add, no matter how you are dressed. You do not have to be dressed as We are in the Vision, but your way of life calls for a different mode of clothing.

When you get the chance, bend your knee and pray. There is much Grace to this act of humility. When you are going your way during the day, say a word to Us. We hear everything you say. We love to hear a child mention Our Name. We love to hear a child say, 'Blessed Mother, please listen to me, I need help.' She hears your plea.

Now some children say, 'I did not get an answer.' We always smile at this for no prayer goes unanswered, but I can tell you this: 'The prayer that is answered is answered in more of a fulfilling way than what you ask for, and perhaps one day you will see the results of that prayer that came to Our Heavenly Mother, to a Saint, to God, or to Me.'

In the Heavens there are so Many Who dutifully follow The Father's Will, answering prayers, giving hope, holding a hand that needs care, love, understanding, sitting with a lonely one just to watch. These are things you do not understand because you do not see the Love that goes forth from The Holy Trinity, but your Faith as it is tonight, your Faith as it has grown, your Faith as it will grow more each day, will help you to understand the Love of The Father is a Love inconceivable to man, but Its Presence is always there.

I have spoken to you tonight to give you the strength and the hope. Our Heavenly Mother stands Here with Me and smiles as I speak. As I look at Her She says, ‘Yes, I will say a Word or two or three to the children who have Faith enough to believe in the Beauty of life, the necessity for Faith in The Father, and the Truth that must be seen.

‘My children, do not allow anyone upon the earth to cause you to do wrong to the Soul The Father gave to you. Protect your Soul from any scar that can be caused by a moment of temptation, a moment of sin, a moment of despair, a moment of vulnerability.

‘You are Blessed tonight by All of Us, but always keep in mind, the Faith you have in what you are all about is a Faith truly Blessed by The Divine. So be it.’’

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“In the development of so many children understanding promiscuity as a way of life, they have missed out so much on the beauty of purity, the dignity in purity, and really, the self-protection of purity.

When I speak of children, I mean children of all ages, not just the small ones, the wee ones, but those who are of an older age. They feel that in the time they live purity is not necessary, times have changed. It is too bad that these people cannot read all the History books that showed all the eras of time, when people were abusive to the body, corrupt, and were making many, many mistakes morally.

I speak to you on this night in your time, hoping from The Divine, that if you are aware of anyone who is being promiscuous, shedding purity, denying what is good, because of a designated time, stand up for what you know is right, speak out in what you know is truth, say it like it is, and God will reward you.

As each of you are individual in so many ways, each of you has the ability to be example, to give direction, to stand up for what is correct, and to be firm in what you know is the correct way.

All the big things wrong in the world, the heresies, the satanism, the wickedness, the debasing of human life, are major tragedies, but if you can use what you know as truth, and have the courage to speak it, no matter what the other person thinks of you, you have the opportunity to set someone straight. It takes courage, it takes moral strength.

All ages are defying God. People of all cultures are using self-righteous measures to express what they believe in, even though it is wrong.

I say these things to you on this night through a woman in the world, a woman whose Soul We use to teach you.

The Light that projects through This Great Miracle is a Light of Divine Hope, a Light of Divine Love, a Light that directs all people to right, not wrong.

If all of the Wisdom from the Heavens were to fall into this room on this night, it would be a waste, for no human being could comprehend, could contain what would be given in such great amounts, for each child, each woman here, each man here, would only be able to grasp a certain phase, a certain part, a certain portion.

I, Saint Joseph, speak twenty-four of your hours every day, teaching, instilling, directing, because the world is in such turmoil, and so many children in total disgrace. How much happier everyone would be if they would be in the state of Grace, casting aside the foulness of disgrace.

You must teach. You must stand up for what is correct, what is right. Your words must be heard. Do not be afraid to say what is wrong. If you do not speak out against what is wrong, you are condoning false rights.

As you are Blessed with the Light of the Heavens, you are Blessed with the Hope that on this night you will understand that you have the privilege to speak truth, speak purity, speak honestly to those who need your advice. So be it."

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“When Heaven hands to the world a Miracle, Heaven teaches. Heaven doesn’t hand just opportunities, good luck, and all the things that men and women wish for. Heaven hands privilege, Heaven gives responsibility to keep our minds active, to keep our abilities in the open.

My sons, I speak through an instrument in the world who bears much responsibility in Every Word spoken. We Here in the Heavens pass through her Soul to reach you, with responsibilities untold.

You say you believe that there is a God. You say you believe in The Heavenly Queen. You say you believe in Saints. This is good, this is right, this is sound, this gives strength to your Spiritual life.

But as you say, as you believe, as you understand, be aware of another part of you, and that part is the weakness of man. Never allow weakness to lead you, never allow weakness to control you. Never allow temptation to interest you so much that it is as though it takes you by the hands.

Keep your hands free so you have the decision to do with your hands what you will. Keep your eyes free so through the power of movement of them, you decide what they shall see. Keep your feet firm on the ground, for if you do, you will find where you walk is good.

Keep your mind alert to what you are all about, for if you do, you will follow truth, and one day when you stand before God, He will say: ‘Many decisions came your way, many times you almost faltered, but your ability to handle responsibility was great. You thought of Me and you recognized the truth was necessary.’

Your Soul will be Judged on the truth you accept, on the responsibility that you use in every word you say, every action you take, every decision you make, and remember, one day you will be Judged, for All Eternity. So be it.”

APRIL 5, 1988 AT 4:05 P.M.

OUR BLESSED MOTHER

“Men struggle to believe, to accept, to understand how The Father would act or would work in the midst of men. He has done it many times through innocent ones, through learned ones, always asking one thing: commitment of one’s will, one’s body, one’s mind, for the benefit of Souls.

Thousands of years He has entered the world, in some ways Personally, evidently, quietly, always instructing, never concealing, always directing, giving children of all kinds, all races, all colors, all creeds, the benefit of Sound Direction which He has never concealed.

Children of all kinds say they reserve the right to accept or deny their belief in how The Father would display His Affection, His Hope, His Love, to mere man, from Above. It is always sad to hear doubt when something is truly demonstrated by The Father’s Will, to keep mankind in balance, to help mankind understand His Will. True, it is a Mystery, but it is a Mystery evidenced with a Clarity of Direction, with Sound Hope in application, and Truth in Its perception.

As I stand Here in the Heavens, I have spoken many times through This Miracle of Love, of Direction. I am The Mother of All Mankind. I am The Patroness of Purity. I am The Director of Hope. I am The Queen of Heaven. I am The Mother of Mercy. I am The Heart of The Holy Trinity.

As My Heart beats with His Heart, for each child born to the world, it is not a mixture of blood that joins in this Love, as you know blood to be, it is a Divine Love desiring to capture a child's attention so that the child will look to The Hearts that are All Purity.

Men walk in sin. It is not related only to one race of mankind. It is spread throughout the world, and one of the deepest hurts is that it is spread to those who have learned The Father's Will, His Rules, and what He expects of human dignity.

All of Heaven watches over This Great Miracle that is displayed in such innocence and in such a quiet manner. No loud exclaiming to gather attention, but Simplicity, Dignity, Understanding, and a constant Reflection on what The Father Wills for the Soul of each human being He has allowed to be created, not to fill the world with mankind to balance nature out, but for the benefit of children to see that the human life is but the beginning for Life for All Eternity. So be it.”

APRIL 27, 1988

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“When Heaven hands to the world a Miracle, children immediately expect the Miracle to be expressed by physical shows of healings. When the Miracle is announced or an occasion arises that something special is given to the world, children of all colors, all races, all creeds, all kinds, all personalities, all natures, they want a show of proof.

When Heaven gives a Miracle to the world, Heaven does give proof. The proof is in What is spoken, proof is in the Direction, proof is in the Solidness, in the Hope, the Peace, the Understanding. Proof is in the ability to understand What is being spoken.

If God were to send a Miracle to the world in a language you could not understand, you would be looking for a sign in the sky. You would be looking for an action to be something you could connect to, something that was unrealistic. You would be looking for something that you could say was unusual.

I have come to the world thousands of times through this instrument of This Great Miracle. My Name was used for hundreds of years in a very casual way. The Father waited for a Particular Time to announce the Fullness of My Way, for you see, The Father waited for the time to come when the world would be in great trouble, and His Spirit Of Peace, Hope, Love, Would Have To Be Recognized For What It Is All About, What It Is For, How He Uses It.

Miracles are defined by mankind as something close to an explosion, an expression that is unusual, a sign that is overpowering.

My Name was always spoken with love. My Name was always spoken, requesting a need. I always smiled at a child in this form of speaking to Me for I would say, ‘Yes, I can fill that, for you see, I am The Third Person of The Holy Trinity, but it must be done in such a way that you will not become emotional, not become shocked, not become concerned, but you will feel the peace, the dignity, and you will understand that you must have more love for The Holy Trinity.’

I answered millions of prayers. I answered these prayers through the Beloved Name of 'Saint Joseph', a Name recognized throughout the world as a Man Who walked a special road, a Man Who had responsibility. As The Spirit of God, as The Spirit of Wisdom, it is true, I had much responsibility.

You stand in a Light not of emotion, but you stand in a Light that will create motion, for Truth is Motion, Truth is Light, Truth is Hope, Truth is Peace, Truth is Commitment, Truth is Responsibility.

You are Blessed with a Light of Divine Hope but you are Blessed by Me, and whether you call Me 'Saint Joseph' or whether you call Me 'The Holy Spirit', I Am One And The Same. I answer to Either Name. Both please Me, for as you call 'Saint Joseph', I respond to you humanly, and then when you say, 'Please, God, give me the strength to endure; please, God, give me the knowledge that I need,' I respond Supernaturally.

You are Blessed, My sons, in many ways. You are Blessed with Truth, you are Blessed with Love you could not describe to any man, woman or child intelligently, but The Miracle that bears My Name is a Miracle to give you strength, to give you hope, but also, to say I have handed you much responsibility. So be it.”

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

“Tonight is an important night, when we gather together, because Heaven cares enough to sometimes give us Ideas, Information, Thoughts, Direction, that maybe in our own life we would be too busy to think about.

Tonight, as you look at the shattered pieces of glass, the fracturing¹, you must be reminded that it is exactly what is happening in Holy Mother Church. There are few men in Holy Mother Church who have the strength, consideration, vocation, desire, or love, to heal the cracks, the fracturing, the splits. It takes a lot of strength to heal this type of a wound. There is no medication that can wipe it out. All the antibiotics in the world, all the medications, all the surgeries, nothing can help Holy Mother Church survive what has happened to it.

The Order of Men that will bear My Name will have strict rules, and these men will be asked to be dedicated to the Spiritual Works of Mercy that are so desperately needed throughout the world. Their home base will be a constant instruction in how to teach others Holiness, how to teach others how to become a Saint.

Prayer time will be a time of communication with God, not a time with each other. Each man will kneel separately in an area all by himself. It will be his obligation to say certain prayers to strengthen his vocation.

He will be taught many things and he will teach others many things. He will give of himself, all there is to give, and there will be times when exhaustion will enter and he will be encouraged to go on so others might live.

Each man will be handled differently, and yet the same rules will apply to all. Each man will be sharing the work of necessity, but each man will gain mentally, physically, spiritually. Each man will be expected to stand strong, stand firm, on what is right, what is truth, what should be permanent.

Each man, in his own way, will be given a fracture in the Church to heal in a special form, for every time a man says to another man, a word that will be good example, a word that will give strength and hope, a word that will make the other man think about God, the Purpose of life, the Soul, that will be the healing part, that will give strength to the Church.

Many men will argue the point of this Order that will bear My Name, but the instrument through whom I speak will stand in the background, as it has been, and she will constantly say: 'It is time for you to think. It is time for you to understand what life is all about. It is time for you to stand up for what you know God wants of you. It is time for you to not betray, but give to God the limit of your way. Let it be to the extent beyond the act of prayer. Let it be in such a way that when the time comes and you leave the earth, you will be a legend in many ways for what you have taught, and because of what others have learned from you, from your example, because of you, because of your example.'

I truly speak through an instrument in the world. There are many heresies, there are many fractures that must be healed. So be it.”

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“Much effort by All of Us Here in Heaven has been put forth thousands of times, to encourage children of all kinds, all ages, to support Truth, to understand what Truth is, and to balance their life on Truth.

So many children find it easier to tell an untruth because they feel that the responsibility of Truth weighs heavy. In reality, the sound Truth gives peace to the Soul, honor and dignity to the individual, and strength to the receiver, whether the Truth be verbal, written, or in the smallest example.

Much Light has been sent forth through This Great Miracle. It is a Miracle because of the Magnitude of the Teaching The Father has decided would go forth to the world, through a mere instrument in the world, for all mankind to better understand what life is all about, the Purpose of life, the Reason for life, the Beauty that one day comes when a physical life ends, and the Spiritual Life, the Light of the Soul has a chance to once again glow before The Father's Eyes.

Death is a part of living that men are frightened of, but a man, woman or child who lives in Truth, in loving God, understanding the need for such love for God, goes from one world to Another in a Light of Glory, a Light of Hope, a Light that is indescribable in any man's words.

There are so many facets of life you have learned about and there are so many areas of life you have been taught to better understand. It is important on this night that you see Truth and you see the beauty of loyalty.

As I hold the instrument tightly, My Love for each of you extends to you in a degree you can withstand, because of your littleness. I am your Heavenly Mother.

We Here in the Heavens have spoken so many times and We have seen children rush out and forget What was said, and then at a later date the subject will arise and the child will wonder where they heard a portion of that subject and they will try hard to remember, but We do not always allow the child to remember, just that the subject at that time should be handled carefully for the sake of the Soul.

There are many degrees of ecstasy, many degrees in how this instrument hears what We say, understands what We mean. Life in the world should never be wasted for there is so much to be done to correct so many things. Time is important to man. Time is important to God, for He allows a certain amount of time for mankind to reach a state of Purity.

Some children say, 'So many young die, they did not have a chance to understand more.' Some people say that some people live too long, beyond the point of caring. No one has the right to judge how long a human life should be, but there are men now deciding many things on the life of a human being.

Sometimes people think if the world was rid of a certain man or woman, the world would be a better place. Who are these men to judge such things?

My daughters, I have spoken many times through 'other instruments', always with a Reason, always with a Purpose, always on specific things. Each instrument is chosen for a different manner of responsibility.

As I speak to you on this night, I say two Very Important things: ‘Be thankful for where you are tonight, and then remember to not waste What you have learned.’ It would be a shame for Us to have put such effort into such Important things and have you dismiss the Importance of What has been spoken and ignore your responsibilities.

I bless you with The Father’s Love. I bless you with a Mother’s Love. This instrument will describe the Vision she has seen.”

VISION OF OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“Our Lady is about ten feet high, that is, off the ground. Her dress is white. It appears as though there is blue in the folds. Her sash glistens as if the sun is shining on Her. Her Face has a blinding Beauty to It. She smiles at this. The sandals on Her Feet are gold.

She said to tell you what I see in Her Face is Heaven’s Light. It has almost an appearance of gold. She says it is not gold, but She said my eyes are so penetrated with the Light. She said this same Light shines in The Tabernacle day and night. The human eye cannot see the Light, but for you to remember It is always there.

She said I could let you know that this degree of ecstasy will take three days to be released fully.”

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“Loyalty is a very special part of human life because very few people feel the necessity of loyalty, the obligation of loyalty, and also, the responsibility that loyalty gives, to ourselves first, and of course, then to other people.

Loyalty is a precious form of life because loyalty gives strength, understanding, gives hope, love. Loyalty determines our closeness to each other. Loyalty is part of fidelity.

Loyalty is always evident in any hope we have, loyalty to God if we are praying, loyalty in prayer when we say we will pray for someone else. Loyalty has a special meaning in our lives.

A long time ago, when I walked the earth, loyalty was very important to all those with whom I walked, for as we responded to loyalty we placed our loyalty to God first, then we placed our loyalty in our example to others, what we taught, what we spoke, and of course, in our appearance.

We expressed loyalty to God's Commandments, the importance of this loyalty, and that this loyalty was never to be a hidden loyalty, but a loyalty that was something beyond what the relationship was with someone else.

Loyalty is not a big word but it has much meaning. When you promised to not sin against a particular Commandment, you also promised your loyalty to God. Whether you made this promise to an individual, to a priest, or on paper, it was an important commitment.

Loyalty is a bond. Loyalty is a binding action, whether the action be in thought, word, deed. Loyalty is a promise to reach for no flaws in a relationship.

I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. I have spoken many, many times. Much of what was read tonight was spoken by Me, through an instrument in the world, for you to better understand what you are up against, and also, for you to contemplate how loyal you are to God. He is loyal to you. There is never a disloyalty from Him to you.

Many times you make many promises. When you are in need, when you care to have something happen, promises come easy, but your loyalty to carry out the promises sometimes wanes when the promise feels as though it is in the past.

I have spoken thousands and thousands and thousands and thousands and thousands of Words, directing men and women, from the beginning of This Great Miracle to the time that I speak to you now. Some have listened, learned, and held the Messages close to them. Some have walked away from the Messages, finding another path less humble, and in many ways, less respectful to The Commandments of God.

You are men with degrees of intelligence, and there is not one man present here who does not have a will to live by, with, and this will, as you have been told, is your decision maker. If you will loyalty in your life, it will be. If you will to enjoy all that is immoral, it will be your decision, but the next time you make a decision and you know this decision should be based on one of God's Commandments, remember His Loyalty to you and remember the importance of your loyalty to Him.

There is much in the world to be changed. Your loyalty to God can be your effort, your support, your understanding, your willingness, your part, through your example, through what you say, what you do, how you do it, how you dress.

There are many ways to perform Spiritual Works of Mercy in the lay way. There are many ways for you to perform Corporal Works of Mercy, as a layman in the world. To some the Spiritual Works of Mercy seem so much easier, to others the Corporal Works of Mercy seem to be a path that they feel more comfortable in; but, in reality, whether in your mind you choose the Spiritual Works of Mercy or the Corporal Works of Mercy, you must understand one thing: one includes the other. They are not totally separated. One does not seem to work without the other one, in reality.

You are Blessed in many ways: first of all, for your degree of Faith. It is a Blessing from The Father. You are Blessed in other ways: your abilities, your capabilities, your desire to grow closer to God. You are Blessed with an intellect that can transfer what you are doing now into activity at a moment's notice.

Some of you are not pleased with the type of work you are performing. Some of you want to do more. Some of you have vocations you have not even touched upon yet, for one reason or another. Some of you, at one point in your life will say, 'I will make this change because I feel this change will give me more opportunity to express what I truly feel, what I feel I am all about.'

Never be afraid of change when it is for good, when it will, in many ways, draw you closer to God, for that is what life is all about, unity with God through your mind, your body, and eventually, of course, Total Unity with the Soul.

You are Blessed with The Father's Light, a Light you may be searching for in a way that perhaps It shines differently to each man, for each man, but remember one thing, that when We speak, We reach you through Divine Intervention and through Divine Light. So be it."

THE HOLY TRINITY

“Sometimes when God sends a Great Miracle to the world, It is defied and rarely defended. The instrument, through which The Divine works, is many times the only defender for such Supernatural Grace, but when a Blessing of Great Magnitude enters the world, It is not given to the world for the instrument, It is given to the world for all of mankind.

It is easy for man to read a book, take the content, apply it or reject it, or to tell others about it, that it was interesting, encouraging, enlightening, but when Heaven hands Words, They are Words of Instruction, Words of Direction, Words to Implant and Instill Hope, for the benefit of a child’s Soul.

They talk about what happened historically, that thousands gathered and thousands were spoken to, thousands believed that a Man standing in their midst was The Messiah. What gave these people the Faith to believe such an impossible story, thought, idea?

There was no extra encouragement. The belief came because of the Words spoken, the Naturalness, the Hope, the Love, the Direction.

Again I come to the world to teach, in the same Manner, with the same Force, as I did a long time ago. A small number gathers, but the Words are transcribed so that thousands and thousands and thousands and thousands and thousands of children will read the Words and respond to the Words, for the benefit of his or her own Soul.

Why would I come in a time like yours, why would I speak in a day like yours, why would I take the time? Because of a Great Love for mankind, it is now as it was in that time long ago.

I have spoken. Others have spoken. You have recognized some Names and there have been some Names you have not recognized, that you wondered about, you thought about, and yet the Name encouraged you to grow in Faith, to grow in love, to grow in hope, and to desire to one day come Above.

In business, no man likes to fail. Socially, no man likes to fail. Men should think of Spiritual growth and reject failing in this Important state of being. Men should think of not just disgrace in failing spiritually, but the disaster to one's own Soul.

As I speak to you I speak on the Winds of The Holy Spirit. I speak to you as The Son. If I say to you, 'I am God The Father,' if there were strangers among you some would run and say, 'It cannot be, it would not be; this is false, for The Holy Trinity would not speak in this manner, this way, as One.'

I do speak constantly through this instrument in the world, and I do say this to you, 'Allow yourself to not just believe in Who I Am, What I Have Spoken, but allow yourself to see the Importance of the Words, the Importance to your Spirituality.'

I come in much Grace, but as I am in your place, I must say that I reach you through The Spirit of The Holy Trinity. So be it."

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“As I speak to you, I allow you to see the instrument in a deeper degree of ecstasy than you supposed her to be a short time ago. If truth be known, in order to speak so fluently, so positively, the ecstasy was very deep, but the ecstasy is not always coordinated with the physical the way man would do it.

As your Heavenly Mother, I say to you that the deepest of ecstasies is very often a very dangerous place for a child chosen to walk such a dangerous road. The advantage others have at this particular time, is because the child is so totally with Divine Rule that the child ignores the human presence, because the human presence is unimportant to the child where We are available to the child’s vision through the Soul. The child says, ‘Take me with You for I am tired,’ and We say, ‘Taking you at this time, what good would it do, the work is not yet accomplished, and you must walk and work according to The Father’s Rule.’

Sensitivity cannot enter, emotionalism cannot be part of such an Important Place in life that is dedicated totally to The Father's Will. As the Soul feels Our Touch, as the Words are spoken in a manner you understand, in a format you can believe, you can remember and you can translate to others in a time of need, there is a Great Power, not human, that passes this through her Soul to you.

Your Soul is That Part of The Father that He desires for you to return to Him, in a way, in a manner, and in the purest of Light that you will allow to be, for if I were to allow each Soul present in this room now to glow in Its degree, Some would glow brighter, Some may not glow as bright, and yet there is not one Soul in this room that is not Part of The Father.

This Great Miracle of Hope, of Light, has come to the world to instill into all of mankind the knowledge, the information that each human being has That Portion of The Father within, the Reason for living, the Purpose for human life.

Do not ignore what is so important for you. Do not turn your back on what you can do to help your Soul grow brighter. You have a will, you have the way, you have the Goal. Let your decisions, My daughters, reflect only His Will in you, through you, day and night.

Do not say at a certain hour, ‘I will do Your Will, my Father, but I am busy now taking care of other things, other measures of life,’ but do say to Him, ‘I offer for whatever purpose is Your Desire, my responsibilities that I am taking care of at this time, on this day, for what is right.’

So much has been spoken, so much has been taught, so much has been given, so much Love has been shown, through This Great Miracle that so many men do not want to accept because It is too Great, too Bright, and so Right. They do not feel they have the capacity to comprehend This Information, and some of them say, ‘I do not want to believe for it will change so much in the past, from the past.’ But I, your Heavenly Mother say: ‘Men do not make the correct changes all the time. Better they look at This Great Miracle and take seriously what We have spoken about for so long a time. Better they listen, with not just the Words that pass through different ways to them, better they read the Words so they can grasp the full meaning of what is so important, coming so freely to the world in This Time.'

You are Blessed with a Light of Divine Light and Purity. You are Blessed with a Hope. It is your security. You are Blessed with the Love of The Holy Trinity. You are Blessed with a Mother's Love for your purity. So be it."

She smiles as She says, "The privilege of a very deep ecstasy is for you to understand the Greatness of God's Love for your Faith, hoping it will draw you to more purity."

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“As I have said many things through this instrument tonight, I have spoken with much Love, and yes, I add, with much delight.

There is no Miracle in the world as thorough in teaching children of all kinds, how to accept, how to perform, how to do The Father’s Will. It is as it was in the time We walked the earth, a time of enlightening, a time in which Hope was given, and a time when children were taught to understand the Beauty of Christianity, the Importance of Tradition, and the Love The Father had for every child, woman and man.

The world is in chaos and you do live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah. There is no easy answer to the whole of this tragic event but there is great hope, because through the Words We have spoken, there is much Direction for children to hold, to be example of, to share verbally and on paper. This Great Miracle is not for just those of you who are here but for the whole world.

Many men try, in many ways, to shed This Great Miracle from their walk of life, their way. They want this instrument through whom I speak, to agree solely and totally with them in every way, both the strong and the weak, but sometimes her silence in their presence says more to them than hundreds or thousands of words, and then sometimes a few Words spoken in a direct form causes them to think. By nature, the instrument is silent; by vocation, verbal.

I am your Heavenly Mother. I have come to the world to let children of all kinds understand that as We were upon the earth a long time ago, We are once again upon the land, through Words, through Love, through Personal Direction, through Hope, and yes, through a Manner of Instilling the Way to what men would call 'the Promised Land', a Place in Heaven where there is work to be done, a Castle in Heaven for the work that has been done.

Be blessed, My children, and remember this, that as your Faith grows there is not always human bliss, but as your Faith is practiced it develops more in a way of The Father's

Will, and this, of course, gives Him much happiness.

A Blessed Event is called ‘the birth of a child’. A Blessed Event Here in the Heavens is when a Soul arrives in that Perfect State of Grace, in a Light that shines brighter than the stars. You have a Soul. I want you to know We expect It to arrive Here in the Manner and the Way you have just been told. So be it.”

GOD THE FATHER

“Evidences of diabolical intervention, intercession, injection, are being received wholeheartedly by millions and millions and millions of people throughout the world.

Through time there have been many warnings to generations of people, to be alert, to beware of such a time as this.

Men, women and children ignore openly the danger of this ugly intervention to the Salvation of his or her Soul.

Men laugh it off. They say, ‘My time is different.’ Women scoff at their position in life and say, ‘I, too, was meant to live life to the fullest.’

Children accept what is handed to them openly, whether it be through visible means, the actions of others, or what they feel is beneficial to their way of life, their time in life, their fantasy of what life is all about.

I have spoken thousands and thousands and thousands of times through what We Here in the Heavens term, call, 'The Beloved Miracle Of Saint Joseph'.

So many people upon the earth refer to Him in a human manner, as a foster father, as a carpenter, as a 'just' man, but let Me say this to you: 'In no way was He just a man.'

It is time for the world to awaken to the diabolical intervention that is so blatant in all areas of human life. The enemy beckons all people to believe, to accept, to partake in all that is against What My Rules Are, What My Control Is For.

It is time that all men, women and children, of all races, all colors, all creeds, understand, and that is this: 'MY WILL' Will Be Done, 'MY WILL' Will Be Accepted In The Manner And The Way I Have Deigned It To Be, So That Souls Will Be Returned To Me. So be it."

“In the human life man counts years. Astronomers many times use the terminology ‘light years’. We Here in the Heavens refer to things in somewhat of a different manner.

At the moment of conception a child begins to age. Time is important to man. Man gives a certain amount of time before this child makes entrance into the world. Man says, ‘It will be within this time that a child will come, and we will have the responsibility of this child.’ Rarely does anyone say: ‘We are already responsible for the Soul of this child to be born. We have been responsible since the time of conception for the Soul of the individual.’

Men ignore the Importance of the Soul. All the importance is put on the physical: Is it a girl, is it a boy? What will it look like? What will it be? Will it be a sweet baby or a baby that has a very strong will of its own? Will the baby look like the mother or the father? Will the baby be talented?

And of course, yes, the baby will have a big job in the world, the hope of many people. The baby will be rich, the baby will be this, the baby will be that. But how many men and women in the world ever say, 'God, help this baby become a Saint'?

The whole world is in turmoil. There are many fractures in 'a structure' that is important for many Souls, responsible for many Souls. Who is going to mend the fractures? Prayers will help. Good deeds would do their share. But as I have spoken so many times through This Great Miracle, it is everyone who has the Faith to believe in The Father's Will, The Father's Commandments, that has a responsibility to remember the Soul.

There are Three of Us Here speaking to you on this night in your time, for the benefit of your Faith to grow, for you to better understand that your will is important, and you must see your will for the purpose it was given, it was designed for.

I am your Heavenly Mother. The Two with Me, I smile and say, 'The beloved Saint Therese of The Little Way comes again to the world, and the Other One Who stands with Me is One Who walked as man, Who has spoken many times, for children of all kinds to better understand what the physical life was for. His Name is Alphonsus Liguori. As He lived in the world He had great devotion to Me. His Place in This Great Miracle is to help you understand the Importance of what life is all about, and the Importance of your Soul.'

Therese stands to My left. She smiles with an assuring smile of Love, for many have walked in Her footsteps. But I, your Heavenly Mother say, 'Always remember that as She walked a particular road, She had strength, always hope, but Her Faith in everything She felt and did was what gave Her the strength for sound action, self-discipline and self-control.'

You have been Blessed many, many times because of your Faith, because of how you feel, in your understanding the importance of prayer where others are concerned. Lean on prayer, lean on Faith in God, and never omit from your daily conscience the Importance of The Commandments that were given a long time ago.

I must add another line to this, for I want you to think clearly on this: When The Commandments were given to a man a long time ago, the man came down from the mountain and he was faced with everything that would throw anyone in despair, but he knew he had a Task to perform and he knew that he had to teach constantly, consistently 'What The Father Willed' for all mankind to understand the Purpose of life, what they must do, so there was no moment during the day or night that he did not stand strong.

I ask you in a simple way, 'Is it not true that The Commandments that were given were for all of mankind?' They have lasted, in your time, three thousand years. What you have learned about Them had to be carried through because of the Truth in Them, the Value to Them, and from Whom They came, for nothing else could have lasted this long and leave such a Permanent Mark wherever They are shown. But never have We heard the remark about this man, who was given The Commands and The Rules for all of mankind to live by, that 'he was infallible'.

Remember What I have spoken to you tonight. Remember The Commandments as you know Them to be. They cover every phase of your life. And remember that God, in His Love for mankind, has given to the world a Great Miracle.

Much has been revealed, much has been taught, much has been given. Much sacrifice has been made in areas you do not know of, for Messages to be handed to you, and These Messages will pass on to millions of people who will not have heard Them personally, but They will go on as The Commandments did, for hundreds and hundreds and hundreds of years.

All of Heaven has come forth to give This Great Miracle to the world, to give Credence to It, put Love in It, and send Direction through It, according to The Father's Will. Never be blinded by things that people tell you that could possibly be untrue. Think it out for yourself, work it out according to what you feel you can handle, what you feel will give you the strength to grow closer to The Father, and what, in your heart, you know will give you the strength to become a Saint and be counted Here.

Remember, from the moment of conception you had a Soul. It is that Soul you must return from Where It came, That Portion of The Father, That Portion of His Love and His Will. So be it.”

SAINT THOMAS AQUINAS

“Tonight each man, woman and child throughout the world should say some form of prayer. Some will say, ‘I’m too tired, God,’ and some will say, ‘I’ll do it tomorrow.’ Some will say, ‘I don’t feel like praying, I really don’t know what to say.’

The most beautiful prayer in the world is simple:

*‘God, thank You for today.
I hope I did something to please You, in my own way.
Help me tomorrow, God, to be a better man. Help me to be example so that others will learn from me the beauty of morals in the way of man. I love You, God, goodnight for now. Help me to remember You tomorrow morning before I go my way.’*

My sons, I am Saint Thomas Aquinas. I have spoken many, many, many times through this instrument in the world, delivery of all Subjects, derived in a manner different than most would teach. The subject is, of course, for the benefit of your Soul, for the benefit of your Eternal Life with The Holy Trinity.

Every man is not a scholar. Every man is not gifted in many ways, but whatever Gifts you have been given, use them wisely. Be sensitive about them and see the importance of exchanging these Gifts with others in the right way.

I could speak hours through this instrument. I could tell you many things. I could give you Lessons profoundly, but I say simply: 'Be a man worth loving God. See that your Soul remains clean. Reach for purity in all ways and means, and never forget to say, "God, I love You."' It is not a woman's way alone, for The Father loves to hear a son say:

'God, I love You, help me to be better today, help me to know the path of Truth, of Light, of Hope, so when the time comes that We will meet Face to face, I know that You will not send me away.'

I speak as Saint Thomas Aquinas. I deliver this Message to you as a Saint, but I also say to you this: 'I walked a human way and I know the importance of what it means to live each day as a man in the world; competitively, yes; encountering many things, many decisions, some worthwhile, some just to pass the day.'

But be aware of every moment that you live. Be aware of your kindness, your generosity, your charity, your hope, your drive, your interests, your goals, your humility, and wipe away any part of ego that might be robbing you of the Beauty of Light for the benefit of your Soul that must return to The Father one day.

You are Blessed many times through This Great Miracle. It is a Miracle of Greatness because the Miracle is a Lesson in Hope. It does not divide you, it unites you with the Apostles of a long time ago. It gives you strength, it gives you encouragement, and it says 'Live life fully.'

Be understanding. See reality. And when you want to look at things ideally, see the practicality in how you act, the reasonability in what you think, do and say, and the hope that you express in your good example, and let others see the love you have for The Father, in what you do, how you act, how you think, and of course, what you say.

Your actions do speak loud sometimes. Your eyes say more than you feel they reveal, for many times the eyes of a man, woman or child express what's in the heart when the mouth cannot do so.

So when you lay your head tonight, and all nights to come, speak to The Father as a son. He will remember you by blessing you with Grace. He will also give you the strength to grow firmly in a Better Place. So be it."

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“Ecstasy is ‘a control factor’ by Heaven, to deliver What Heaven wants delivered. Sometimes a person can walk around in ecstasy, be aware of what is going on and actually be a part of what’s going on, and yet be frightened of the situation because of knowing that other people do not understand the fragile state of thinking, or the fragile state of being a part of what is natural to everyone else. Ecstasy is a Powerful Way, Condition, and it is not something that is attained through one’s own desire to have.

I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. The child, the instrument, the woman through whom I speak, listens intently to the descriptive Words that I, in some form enumerate, to give you a better understanding of how a child who must listen constantly, be obedient consistently and be aware totally, walks, lives.

Men try in many ways to deny the existence, the true existence, the valuable existence, and the manner of existence in which this instrument lives, thinks, acts and speaks, only because they do not understand the total commitment of the will of man to do only The Father's Will, for Divine Plan.

The world in which you live is a world of many troubled areas. A long time ago it was spoken of as a time worse than a famous time in History when people were, in every way, lower than the acceptance of animals. You live in a time now of great, not just sinfulness but blasphemy, sacrilege, desecration to all that is for the good of each one's Soul.

Some men say, 'I cannot change.' Others say, 'I will try to change,' and others say, 'Why should I change, it is the time in which I live, it is the way I live, and how could people handle me if I changed my way so totally?' Change is important, My sons, because change will give you the strength and the courage and the hope. Strength will come when you decide to walk another path instead of the one that you know is a path of ugliness, against the Will of The Father.

The enemy works diligently in your day and all through your night. He never gives up, for in his extreme desire to gather Souls away from The Father, away from all that is pure, beautiful, hopeful, and of course, Eternal Life in a Place no man can describe, the evil one uses you in your weak times, and then his laugh rings loud and clear for he says, 'The Soul is scarred.'

There are so many things We have spoken through This Great Miracle, so many Directions have been given. I, Saint Alphonsus Liguori, remind you that you should never forget your Goal must be Heaven. Your logic must tell you, your intellect must tell you, your sensitivity must tell you, your Faith in God must tell you, that you were created for a Purpose, a Reason, and in a time in which you could survive all the wrong that would be around you.

I hold the instrument very deep, to a degree wherein it will be at least three days before she is totally released. The body, the mind is subject at all times to obedience, difficult perhaps to understand, not easy for any woman or man, but always a Purpose Far Greater than anyone can conceive.

Be blessed, My sons, and understand that the world has been Blessed by This Great Miracle, for through It, It gives great understanding to the Purpose of life, the Reason for life, and the way The Father expects you to live it.

Men sometimes feel that some sacrifice is worth more than others. I say to you, 'Sacrifice is an individual's form, manner, source, for each human being.'

I press down very hard on the instrument, and if the truth be known, the weight of the Power could drive her into the ground. Men talk about the power in the depths of the ocean. You see stand before you, one who is surrounded by a Power Far Greater than the ocean.

This was shown to you tonight to help you better understand that the Words that have been spoken before must reach out to every land.

The Power is so Great it is difficult for her to speak. I bless you,

My sons, with a deeper Faith. So be it.”

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“Sometimes, through History, when God chooses a particular time and a particular child to hold a particular position for a particular reason, for a Purpose designed only by Him, the instrument is not one with the strength of Samson. The instrument, physically, very often is incapable of lifting an earthly weight. But the Heavenly Weight, the responsibility is as the weight of all the water throughout the world.

The pressure of so much water would crush the human body to nothingness, but in this case there is a Bridge of Divine Love that holds the child, the instrument in safekeeping, and the child, the instrument is always alert to Who is holding he or she in place.

And so it is in This Great Miracle upon the earth. As I speak to you on this night as The Spirit of God, The Wisdom of God, The Love of God, I speak through someone less physical than you, weaker physically than you, but who bears and holds dear a Love for you indescribable in human words.

Men say there is security in hearing the Words; in reality, Sound Love, True Love is not always described in the depth It is, the fullness It is.

Some men, some women, some children can use flowery words, saying what they think, they feel, but the Love of this instrument through whom I speak is as the Love is that The Father has for each of you: a Silent Love, a Love of Hope, Understanding, a Love of Clarity, a Love of Purity, a Love that does not always shout.

It is a Love of Respect, a Love of Firmness, a Love of Communication, and a Love that says: Do not forget, you were born to the world for a Reason, you were born to the world for a Purpose. You have been taught the responsibility for which you were born. You have the intellect and the will to decide how you will use this life upon the earth to live Eternally with Us.

What an easy decision you have been handed. What a Beautiful Goal to reach for. All you have to do is accept purity, obey The Rules, and grow so deeply in love with the Purpose of life that there is no question in your mind, in your heart, that you will not attain the Goal for which you were born to the earth. So be it.”

SEPTEMBER 21, 1988 AT 8:23 A.M.

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“My children, I speak instantly and consistently through this instrument who stands in the world as you: human form, intellect, will and Soul.

Everything that We have given to the world in thousands of years, in your time is being denied as what has been requested to be the format for human living: denial of good, denial that there is evil, denial of The Rules The Father Himself gave for mankind of all races, all colors, all creeds, to hold as the Guidelines for living the human life.

Men scoff at sound values, sound standards. Each decade of time gathers their own rules to live by, injects their own interpretations of what is morally sound.

Men refuse to see dignity in their values, in their standards with each other. Some men say: ‘Others expect me to accept what they feel, to respect what they feel, think and do. I feel an obligation to mankind to receive each person on their own standards.'

I, your Heavenly Mother say, 'Should not the standards for living the human life be The Ones He set down, in Their fullness, not in Their conciseness They are being thought about, taught, partly followed, and practically ignored?'

The world has a tremendous evil force upon it. True, it has been like this before, but instead of moral progress men are allowing themselves to not just be degraded, but to become pawns of this evil force, governed by what is all wrong, all ugly, all against What The Father Is, and against what The Father created mankind for.

I want This Message of Mine revealed again and again. I speak openly upon the earth through this instrument and I speak in a manner of understanding so that there can be no confusion as to what I mean.

My Blessings constantly go throughout the world. My Divine Tears constantly pour forth through means mankind can understand, hoping that My Tears will cleanse the impurities that come about through the wills of mankind.

There is so much destruction to Souls, not just marring the Souls. We feel a sadness beyond human comprehension. We see a total devastation to man's inner life, to man's Salvation. So be it."

SEPTEMBER 21, 1988

SAINT TERESA OF AVILA

“Many of Us Here, Who have spoken many, many times through This Great Miracle, did not find it easy to motivate others to do the Will of The Father. Many times we found it the most difficult task in the world because of people’s moods, temperaments, anxieties, hurts, needs, intentions, their habits, their way of life, their internal feelings, and yes, their goals.

We found that to change someone’s mind, to accomplish something totally different than they had thought about, was an exhausting experience. We found that many times we would kneel by our bedside, or kneel on a floor that was not too comfortable, and we would rather be standing someplace else because the floor hurt so bad, but we knew that we had to pray at that moment, for in sincerity and honesty to our Soul, we felt that it was time to make reparation for our thoughts.

Life was never as easy as the books say. When you read a story about Any of Us, you will find that sometimes people gathered what was interesting to them. People did not always see what was a tremendous hardship for us.

We stood upon the earth, and there were times of great need that we had to almost visibly step off of the earth, and then to get back it seemed like a larger step; but, on the other hand, there were times that as we stepped off into that other area of life, when only God's Will forced us to do certain things, to step back into the world or on the world, whichever way you want to put it, was a big decision to make. To face mankind on mankind's terms is not always easy.

We were not comforted by special admiration saying, 'You did a good job now, child; you did right.' We were not complimented by Heaven. All we knew was that we had to make the step.

There were times when hunger came, there were times when we were so exhausted after a day's work, but it came time for prayers and there was no question, nor was there a desire to not say those prayers, in spite of the tiredness, for the prayers gave strength, the prayers gave hope, energy, to see us to the next day where our routine was repetitive, our silence deafening, our friendships with each other a bond difficult to explain, but to the outside world, they would look at us as though we were not of this planet.

I am Saint Teresa of Avila. This Miracle has come to the world to instruct, to correct, to improve, and to give all children of all races, all colors, all creeds, the opportunity to recognize within themselves the Purpose of the human life, to recognize the opportunities that God has given to the world through His Commandments, through That Portion of Him, The Son, through the Beauty of Sacrifice in the Name of Hope and Love.

There are so many things for you to take into consideration as you face each day. There are so many things that a little effort will make big things happen. There are so many times that when you motivate others to participate, you motivate yourself to do more.

There were so many times in the convent, when things were very low, our spirits were down, someone who was allowed to speak would say something to motivate, to inspire the rest of us to feel good about the way we were, to feel good about the way we walked, to feel good about the hope of tomorrow, to feel successful instead of to feel failure, to see the light of day and not be so engrossed in the dark of the night.

We found in each other's presence a desire to please, a desire to give strength, a desire to express the necessity for all of us to walk the way we walked. There was a Purpose to our lives. There were many obstacles to our lives.

But you have the opportunity to walk, in many ways, as the Apostles walked. You have the opportunity to stand firm on what you believe in. You have the intellect to make your own decisions and you have the will to stand strong for the Soul that God gave each of you, for the Goal He intended the Soul to attain.

You are men of degrees of intelligence. You are men who are present here tonight, not because you are not tired; you are here because Something inside of you encouraged you to go to a place where other men would not bother to go. Ask yourself what this was inside of you that encouraged you on this night to make this step. You will find, My sons, it was your Soul.

During the day, do you ever think of talking to your Soul? During the day, do you make many visits with God, asking His Love in certain areas? Do you ever talk to your Soul and say: 'If I'm going to do something wrong, for the sake of Both of Us, You and I, pull me from the danger, pull me from the temptation. I know that You will never leave me, but I realize that sometimes I forget Your Presence'?

Say this to your Soul. Become acquainted with that Very Special Part of you, the Part that reaches for The Father's Love constantly.

Do not deny what you are, who you are, how you feel, and do not deny the fact that you had to be born for a special Reason, a particular Purpose. Thank God each day for the time He gives, and then tell Him that on tomorrow you will look forward to what He has in store for you.

Ask Him to help you motivate others to do what is good, to do what is right. Ask Him to give you the strength to have the motivation yourself to do what is good for your Soul.

You are Blessed in many ways. You are Blessed because you are here tonight, you are Blessed because it took strength to make the trip, but above all, you are Blessed for your Faith in where you were going, why you were going, and yes, the inward love that you felt in a certain way, that gave you the strength to go.

Be loved, My sons, and understand, you walk in the world, you are much a part of the world, and in this participation in worldly things, you have the right to say what you think. You have the obligation and responsibility to stand in the world and be example to all you come in contact with. You have the responsibility to stand in sound morals, for sound values, so that others may learn from you the dignity of life, the Purpose for which each child is born to the world. So be it.”

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“As I have spoken through this instrument in the world tonight, the Words were to help you to better understand that The Father never allows mankind to be alone without some form of Information, Instruction, Direction, for what is best for his or her own Soul.

In number, according to many men throughout the world, this group united together in this place on this night would be considered small, but do not forget, the soundness of the Institution that you love so much, that is so right for the whole world, was perpetuated by a small number of men from its very inception.

I am Saint Athanasius. You do live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah. You do live in a time of great turmoil. You do live in a time of what men are happy to announce as ‘a time of liberal attitude, action, thinking’; a time wherein men are told to think what they want, do what they want, feel what they want; a time when all people are not guarded against wrong sinfulness, but are drawn into it because of the enemy of God and the enemy of each man's, woman's and child's Soul.

If each human being did not have within their being a Portion of God, there would be no reason to see, to understand or to feel the necessity of the right decision between right and wrong, good and evil.

In My day there was much unhappiness, as there is in your day. In My day there were men, women and children scattered throughout the world, unhappy, sinful, and yes, disturbed because they did not know how to fight what they knew was the enemy.

You have the ability, you have the standards and the values, you have the knowledge to fight what is wrong so good will come of the time in which you lived.

There are thousands of Words I could speak to you on this night but I want you to remember one thing, that you, in your way, can pass on to others through the Story form, the right way to live, the happy way to live, the correct way to live, the decent way to live, for a Purpose beyond what many men feel, what many men recognize, because there are so many men, women and children in the world today that are unaware of their possession of a Soul.

Dignity is not a thing of the past. It is part of what men do in their daily life. Respect is important for respect says, ‘I feel good about what I am, what I do, and in my respect I recognize what is right and how God would Will it to be.’

Daily your decisions are many. Daily your decisions must be true. Remember, it is not just a thin line between right and wrong, good and evil. The width of this decision is most times the width of a piece of thread, that separates what is right, what is wrong, what is good and what is evil.

I have spoken hundreds of times through This Great Miracle, sometimes in a very casual way, sometimes in a very firm way, sometimes in a formal way. Tonight I say: ‘Protect what you know is right. Be strong in your loyalty to The Father in all ways, and remember that when you stand at the time of Judgment, you and you alone will face His Decision for your Soul.'

This Great Miracle has been given to the world for the benefit of all mankind. When the Words reach the whole world, many men will try to deny the Facts, yet on the other side, many men will be drawn to the Facts and It will change their whole world.

Responsibility is great, for you may never know the results of your efforts, your time, your loyalty, your hopes and your dreams, but then one day when you stand accountable for all you have done, some small thing might be said and you will say: 'Ah yes, I did not realize the importance of that act. I was so busy, God, doing other things.'

You are Blessed in many ways. You are Blessed because of your love for The Father, you are Blessed because of your deep love for The Mother, and you are Blessed because of your Faith in what you know is Right, what you know is Truth, what you know is your Goal for All Eternity. So be it."

OCTOBER 5, 1988 AT 8:25 A.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“Men greet each other, recognizing the other one’s presence, existence, whether the other one be family, friend or acquaintance.

Many men pass by My Place and never look My Way. They say they practice a particular format of belief in Me, but they pass by the Places wherein they admit themselves for specific prayers, at given times, on special occasions, so why do they not remember Me, speak My Name, speak some type of greeting to Me when they pass by the Place where, in their inner belief, they come to share time with Me?

In reality, I reside in all places throughout the world. I am available to every thought that comes My Way. Man is never without My Presence as he walks in his daily way. I am in his workplace. I, of course, am in his home. I am in the schools. I am on all corners, all avenues throughout the world. I am every place.

I want mankind to understand My Availability to every thought, every word, every action, every intention, and of course, I hope to be expressed in all example.

The Commandments I gave were lengthy, describing all areas of life that men could be involved in.

I ask mankind a very important question: ‘How can you exist without thinking of Me more than you do? How can you relate to life without seeing a Great Purpose to life? How can you ignore My Rules and do things against Them without fearing in some way, My Reaction to disobedience to My Rules?’

I come through This Great Miracle called ‘The Miracle Of Saint Joseph’, with many Lessons easy for man to follow, easy for man to understand, easy for man to see the importance of moral values, moral standards, that bear only soundness, logic.

There are so many ways for men to change their way of life if they are not recognizing Who I Am, What I Am.

The first step is for each man, woman and child to be guided by My Rules, through the proper teaching of My Rules, for My Rules were not meant for just a particular time, but for the whole time in which mankind will live upon the earth, or any other place men choose to live.

There is a great enemy of Mine, and of man's, throughout the world. There is no question that this enemy will not and cannot be defeated, because of My Power, with My Power, but I created mankind with the privilege of a will, a will different than Mine, but a form of freedom for mankind to practice so many things in life that would be beneficial to mankind, and give mankind a small portion of the many things that My Wisdom, My Power has the ability to do.

I made man to My Image and Likeness. Granted, it is in many ways much less than What I Am, but it is a Special Gift of Love, My Creation of man.

The world is ignoring so many important things that through time, I have allowed to be expressions, open expressions of what is right, what is wrong.

It is time mankind learn more about why I created man, The Rules I gave man to live by, and of course, more about the Soul that each human being is given at the moment of conception, That Portion of Me that in many ways is more than man could conceive in his human knowledge.

My Love of mankind is greater than any man is capable of understanding. My Love is beyond man's ability to comprehend, but My Love is extended in all things, in all ways.

How can mankind pass by Me, pass Me by, and not say a word to Me? So be it."

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“My sons, I am your Heavenly Mother. We use this instrument for many Words to be handed to the whole world. It is not an easy task for one so fragile, and that is the perfect word to use where she is concerned.

We come to the world in your time to give strength to all of mankind, because of each man, woman and child’s Soul.

Millions of Words have been spoken to give Hope to the world because The Father’s enemy, and your enemy, is in all places throughout the world.

The enemy uses people you love, the enemy uses strangers. The enemy uses places where you work, the enemy uses places where you socially gather. The enemy uses words, the enemy uses pictures, the enemy uses ideas, the enemy uses dreams, desires.

Be cautious when things are not pure in essence. You are in danger when you do not look at the whole picture. You are in danger if you allow yourself to be drawn into temptation that will tempt you to do what is against The Father's Rules.

You are constantly Blessed for your good thoughts, your good actions, and for every prayer you say, requesting help in any and every way.

To reach you We use a fragile form, but We use Words you understand without having to interpret Their meaning, without having to decide what the sounds truly say.

You are Blessed in so many ways. I, your Heavenly Mother say: 'When you find My Rosary too repetitive, or even monotonous, remember this: The quickest way to learn more about many subjects, the quickest way to tell someone how you feel, is to be repetitive in the exact words so eventually your intentions will be heard.'

I love you in a way far greater than you know love to be. You are united for a purpose, for a goal. Accept What has been given to you as a way to save your Soul. So be it."

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“Heaven has given a Great Gift to the world. Heaven has given millions of Words through a human being. There is no glory to such a Task upon the earth, such a Responsibility. Glory is not expected nor would it be accepted.

The most important thing in the world right now is to give to mankind, all races, all colors, all creeds, Words of Direction from What is truly Divine.

I have spoken many, many times through this instrument, this woman in the world. I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori. Everything that has been dictated, has been dictated for a reason, to touch a particular child in some portion of the world, for the benefit of his or her Soul.

There are so many areas in which This Miracle will spread through the written Word. It would be impossible physically to touch all corners of the world. Human life does not permit it.

The instrument, in many ways, has always been what We Here in the Heavens call ‘a fragile physical state of being’. Many people who have great physical abilities, endurance, strengths, would not be the ones We would choose for such a Delicate, Important, Responsible Task.

I have spoken many times on issues. I have spoken many times with Directions that perhaps you felt did not include you, but I promise you there is someone in this world that will be touched by the Words, and who, through the Words, will improve emotionally, physically, and of course, spiritually.

The Father has allowed so much Light to be sent through This Great Miracle, so much Enlightenment, so much Love, so much Strength.

The Father has allowed so Many Here to speak because of how They walked the earth, to give the world Messages from Many; not just One, not just Two, but Many. There will be men, women, and maybe even children who will say, ‘How can this be true, that so Many would speak through a woman?’ but the Meaning will be evident.

You must, in your own way, read again and again the Words you have received, for through Them you will find new Meaning, and in the new Meanings you will see the advantage to All Words that have been spoken. In your own way you will be able to teach as you read, when others ask you questions of, ‘Why this, why that?’ You will have the opportunity to explain, just as the Apostles once did. You will have the time, many, many of you, to say, ‘Well, this is what was meant, a better understanding of God’s Rules,’ and you will remember the Light that you felt, the Light that you perhaps had seen at a moment when in your own life things appeared dark.

There are so many children throughout the world who will find the Books a Way to Here.

I speak through a very tired instrument, for the Power of Heaven, as you have been told, is Greater than the weight of all the water in the world. I could speak hours at this time, but her physical would break under the strain, but then so would yours.

You have been Blessed in so many ways, so many times, for so many reasons, for so many prayers, for so many requests made by you. Remember two words, 'Thank You', for The Father loves to hear a child say, 'Thank You, God, I know what I received was from You.'

Be blessed, My children, and read again and again the Words that have been given to you before now, and on this night, for when you review What has been spoken, you will find strength in each day that you face what you do. So be it."

GOD THE FATHER

“If a man, woman or child steals a monetary possession, all people would yell: ‘Thief, robber; he must, she must, or the child must make amends for doing this to me.’

Throughout the world many, many, many people are having far worse things happening to them. They are being robbed of their morality, their dignity, their hope, their Spiritual values, their Spiritual standards, and the reality of what the Purpose of Life was created for, and that is a Life with God for All Eternity.

This Subject is many times scoffed at, reduced to a nothingness, for men, women and children are saying: ‘What is here now, I know I have. What I have been promised through Words, I do not feel is true, is of such Great Value as I have been told it to be. It feels like an empty promise just to make me bend according to certain Rules.’

I, your Heavenly Father, say to you now individually, collectively, in a way you must understand, ‘There would have been no purpose to create mankind unless I had an Ultimate Goal for giving Portions of Myself to fulfill what I wanted to share with what I felt so Important.'

I hear so many excuses. I see so much dilemma aggravated by a lack of understanding of the Importance of human life.

There are many men shouting, women also, their idea of how men, women and children should live their lives. They are giving directions interpreted by their own personal ideas, but much of their intention is not based on self-denial but self-love, self-interpretation, self-praise, looking for others to recognize in them a particular role designed by Me.

Fakery, falsehoods are rampant throughout the world. When I speak through a particular Soul, I speak for the good of mankind in every facet of mankind's life.

I do not say, 'Do not live a happy life.' Why would I have created happiness, why would I have created talent, why would I have instilled recognition in all mankind, the Fact that there has to be a Supreme Being that every man, woman and child is accountable to?

I speak These Words emphatically for there is so much, not just unhappiness throughout the world, but falseness, catering to the enemy that lurks in all places, in all ways, except in What I Am All About.

Men of all races, all colors, all creeds, must begin to recognize the value that I have placed on sound morals, sound standards, in the total definition of My Commandments, not in just a word that means a generality of meanings to man's life.

I want These Words distributed. Some, many will say: 'Why would He speak through a woman in the world? Why would it not be spoken through a well-known man who preaches, a man who is learned in the Ways of God?'

Though I smile at this remark it disturbs Me, for if men of all races, all colors, all creeds, understand when they look at a newborn baby, My True Presence there, how can they question how I would reach mankind in other ways?

I bless the whole world, through not just the will of a woman in the world, but a woman I use in many, many, many areas of life, touching a thought, an action, an idea, a hope, a dream, many times in areas no one would expect to find Me. So be it.”

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“There are many, many Stories that have been taught through This Great Miracle, a Miracle that bears My Name. The world says, ‘It is The Miracle Of Saint Joseph.’ I smile and say, ‘Yes, It is a Miracle because It is delivered to the world by The Father, It is allowed by The Father, and It is to be distributed according to His Will, for the benefit of mankind.’

What good would a physical Miracle be if there was no Spiritual intent involved? If a man, when he needs help, does not get it the right way, the help then is not sufficient, just like the story that was told to you about the hungry person who needed food so badly and the wealthy person sat bragging about how much monetary measure he or she had.

When you have Faith in God and you have it the proper way, you are wealthy in many ways. There is no sin to have monetary wealth if it is gained the right way, but remember, a rich man can be happy if he is good, pure of heart, pure of Spirit, and loves The Father, lives according to The Rules. A poor man can be just as happy, for there is always the hope, the drive, the love, the sincerity, the respect, the dignity, that comes with having Faith. Faith is the foundation of all things.

One man can have a lot of land. No one lives on the land. Another man can have a piece of land. A lot of people live on the land. He is charitable, he is kind, he says, 'Good morning,' 'Good afternoon,' 'How are you doing today?' and on his own time he kneels and he prays and he says: 'God, bless them all because without them I would not have what I have. Please help them in their way of life, as You have helped me in mine.'

There are so many ways to live a good life, a loving life, a giving life, and a life of hope for all time to come, so when the time comes and you stand before The Father, you stand in a way of wondering what is next, you will not ask for a Miracle, I promise you, My sons, you will just want to be blessed. So be it."

OCTOBER 26, 1988 AT 8:17 A.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“Men talk about Faith. They do not understand how valuable this word is.

Faith in one’s fellowman can change according to the personality of all concerned, the intentions of all concerned, the practices of all concerned, and the goals of all concerned.

Faith in What I Am is different. Faith in Me is based on the logic that I exist, I must exist, for who, in the world, ever born to the world, has the Power I Have? No one, nothing, nor does the enemy, the opposite of Me.

I have given mankind a will. I call it ‘a line for decisions’, ‘a line of decision’, a line that allows mankind to say ‘Yes or No’, ‘I will, I won’t’, ‘I can, I can’t’.

This Gift of Faith in mankind, that I instilled at the moment of conception, bears a depth of feeling that in its own area of man’s being, determines right from wrong, good from evil, and all through life makes decisions that are beneficial to man's mind, body and Soul, or detrimental to man's mind, body or Soul.

As I come to the world now, My Words I am allowing to be recorded so mankind will not have to try to remember the exactness in What I spoke. Mankind will not have to discuss with others the interpretational meaning of What I meant when Certain Things were spoken.

This is an Important Time in the History of mankind. This Time will go down in many books. This is the Time that I, through the written Words, will bind mankind to Facts, Rules that are Mine.

Men, through time, from now on will say, 'This is impossible to believe, that The Maker of All Things, The Judge of all time, all life, would use a mere woman in the world.'

There is no reason why I would not, and I will not go into a further discussion or deliverance of My Reasons. Faith in how I would work, Faith in how I would speak, Faith in the Reality of Me is the Important Factor, not who I would choose as an instrument to benefit all of mankind.”

OUR LORD

“I speak many times through an instrument in the world, and yes, I did appear upon the earth in human form. I was called many things in My day, but My Purpose upon the earth was Special. It was for the good of mankind.

There were many reasons why My Birth was Important. There were many reasons for the manner in which I taught at that time, and now I come to the world again to teach, to instruct, to inform, to confirm, and in many ways reiterate What I spoke a long time ago, in a different tongue, in a different manner, to a different group of children.

But I want you to remember within your heart, keep it deep within your Soul, That Portion of The Father, that what you learn in how to be good, how to be right, how to love Him so much that you feel the Power of His Closeness and Faith in His Light, I want you to remember that the second you call His Name, He is available to your call. The second you call Me, I hear, and never forget The Heavenly Lady, The Mother of All, for She is always close when a child calls. So be it.”

NOVEMBER 2, 1988 AT 9:29 A.M.

SAINT JOAN OF ARC

“For thousands of years men have formed armies, some of good, some for good, some for wrong, some even for evil reasons. Historically, men have been in these armies, and few women can be counted in the main ranks of the yesterdays.

I am Saint Joan of Arc. In My day it was not a common way of life to lead an army of men in battle, sitting and discussing the tactics by which the expected results of battle would take place.

I sat with these men, men of all types of character, men who walked in different modes of life, some hard, some cold, some indifferent, some kind, some gentle; some, one would not expect to be in such forceful encounters at a given command. I would sit with these men and I would tell them what I was directed to do, and through me, what they were expected to accomplish.

I cannot say it was always a readily accepted action, but as we grew closer together, it became more of a realization that I would not have the desire, first of all, such intentions, to lead an army of men, nor would I have had such intellectual reasoning.

The men close to me became more understanding each time a battle occurred. It was difficult for them and for me, for you see, I was considered a girl. It was evident that a Greater Power had to be directing me, for these men who were of all different backgrounds, rough in spirit, some crude in ideals, some gentle, genteel, found that I, Joan, had Something else inside of me other than human dignity, human reasoning.

Today in the world a greater battle is taking place. It is good fighting the ugliness, the jealousies, the hatred, the anger that is in the evil force. It is not just a country fighting another country. It is a battle far greater than men can conceive.

In its home base, the instrument I speak of is gentle, genteel, so some men wonder how they can conquer what surrounds her, for they say, 'God would not choose one such as this to fight all that is evil.'

Ah, The Father has always been known to use one instrument, for in His Great Power, that is all He needs; because through His instrument that He delivers to others such Magnitude of Truth, Direction, Hope and Love, it is His Power that outshines all that is negative to human understanding, incomprehensible to man's thinking.

I, Saint Joan of Arc, have spoken many, many times, privately and openly, through this instrument in the world, during her preparation to accept such a Magnanimous Task, and after the preparation, to many people, revealing to them what was best.

This army, this leader may appear small to the Hierarchy of Holy Mother Church and to the demonic force in the world, but the Instructions, All of the Directions have a Force within Them, a Logic to Them, that is evident to all degrees of intellect in human beings.

The Father's Rules cannot be cast aside. The Soundness of why man was created cannot be denied. The Purpose for human life, to one day return to The Father to enjoy Eternal Life with Him, is not a myth. It is Sound Fact and Sound Reasoning.

A battle on the battlefield without reason is barbaric. The obstacles in life that decisions must be made upon, choosing right from wrong, good from evil, morality instead of immorality, must have a purpose other than just winning a point, gaining acceptance. There is Great Reason to human life. There is Great Purpose to human life.

This Great Miracle teaches, inspires and encourages all who will listen, all who will read what All of Heaven has been giving through one instrument, for the good of all Souls to return to The Father in a Pure State of Being. So be it.”

NOVEMBER 2, 1988

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

“I, Saint John Vianney, have spoken much on this night, in a way for you to better understand how a woman walks in the world and deals with men. I have spoken many, many times in a natural form of speech, through her, for I have been appointed by The Father to stay close to her.

There is so much to be accomplished, so many things to be done, so many Souls to be saved, so many children to work so that Souls will come Here one day.

Men look at benefits and they say, ‘I must see the benefits now.’ I, Saint John Vianney, say: ‘Sometimes the benefits do not reveal themselves until a given time, when the benefits will not allow selfishness to show, ego to show. The time that lapsed between allows humility to be the theme.’

Children come and go upon the earth, and each time a child leaves the earth the Angels reach for the Soul. As the Soul is elevated to a Higher Way, the Soul stands sometimes in a concerned way, for the Soul desires so much to return to a Place from Which It came; difficult for some men to believe, difficult for some men to understand, difficult for some men to accept, but I, Saint John Vianney, say, 'There were many times upon the earth I did not like what I said, I did not like what I did my way, but I did it because I felt it was best.'

And now I come to you in your day and I say: 'Be cautious in how you walk. Be careful in what you say. Be on guard every day, and do not forget, you have The Rules to live by, you have the standards, you have the values. What more can you use? You have talents, you have a mind, you have a will, you have a nature, you have a personality, you have a way of life.'

The world now, in which you stand, is being desecrated in every way by man; but, in This and through This Great Miracle, Words have been spoken. You have Them at your hand. And when These Words are spoken again and again, the Words say it differently each time, but the Words always remain with one thought, and that is for your Soul to return to The Divine. So be it."

DECEMBER 7, 1988

SAINT JOHN VIANNEY

“I, Saint John Vianney, have spoken many times to you and to many others through this instrument in the world, teaching what the physical life is all about, teaching the Purpose of life in the world, teaching mankind the reason for sound moral values, sound moral standards; teaching mankind the Importance of God’s Rules, God’s Commandments.

I, Saint John Vianney, want the whole world to know of This Great Miracle upon the earth, because mankind is lost in many areas of life. Men are shouting emotional words, only to be heard themselves.

When I was upon the earth in the same form that you walk now, it is true I talked harshly many times but it was to instruct so that something constructive would come out of my time with the individual or with the group.

I spoke in a different language than you. I spoke in a manner, forming my words differently, but with Messages just as I have given, and Others have given through This Great Miracle of Hope, of Understanding, of Purpose, of Greatness, of Value.

The child through whom I speak has an exhaustion beyond man's understanding. The Power with which I hold her, the muscles in her body, is a Power beyond what you can understand. As My Words flow through her, her throat tightens at the degree of Power I force through her body.

Sometimes We Here in the Heavens, in reaching you, feel so strongly that you must understand the necessity of looking for purity in your daily life, in the way of man, that Our eagerness is to have you hear, Our eagerness is to imprint, implant in your mind the importance of prayer, the importance of a closeness to The Father, the importance of understanding that you have a Soul, the importance of believing in your Soul, the importance of using the abilities of your will, not just to understand, but to practice what is good, what is right, what is necessary for each of you to become a Saint.

Sainthood was not designed by man. Souls were not designed by man. Your will was not designed by man. God's Rules were not designed by man. The formation of the universe was not designed by man. Christianity was not instituted by man. Oceans were not made by man. Heaven was not made by man. God, as The Creator of All Things, holds all things in the Palm of His Hand, and the Power that surges through a human form to reach you is a Power beyond man's comprehension. True, men try to imitate It. No man can.

I, Saint John Vianney, say, 'If you will take What you have heard tonight in this room, in your time, think about It and apply what is good to your daily life as an individual, always remembering that you are not alone in the world, I would say you have your foot on the Path to Heaven today.' So be it."

DECEMBER 14, 1988 AT 9:22 A.M.

GOD THE FATHER

“Mankind innately desires peace of mind, peace of body. Peace, to mankind, means happiness, means contentment. Peace gives time to think properly, to hope for the good things of life. Peace has an extreme effect on men, women and children.

In the time I lived upon the earth, We would greet each other with the hope of peace for the other, for in troubled times, troubled areas of life, peace heals many problems, many afflictions.

Mankind thinks only of peace to the mind and to the body, but I, your Heavenly Father, say: ‘Peace within one’s Soul is a peace beyond human understanding. It is a peace of direction, for direction. It is a peace beyond man’s comprehension of contentment. It is an inner peace, a solemn peace, a peace wherein only hope is its attention.’

The world celebrates now a time in which, similar to the times of years past, great turmoil amongst men and within men, but a Great Moment of Peace entered the world at a given Time, for a given Purpose, and that was to teach mankind a way to live, the Purpose for living, the intention for which each one was born to the world.

The turmoil within the world is because of the allowance of so much greed, so much anger, so much biased opinions against other men, women and children.

How can there be peace among men when there is so much dishonesty, hatred and diabolical allowance interfering with what is right, what is good, What I gave to the world as a Means for peace?

The time in which you live is in many ways no different. Men had to eat. Men had to sleep. Men had to work. Men had physical concerns. There were wars. There was much anxiety, and there were all the things present then that are disrupting men's lives today.

I hear so many excuses but I rarely hear the cry for peace as it should be. Mankind must individually, through his or her own actions, example, express peace, for you see, peace eliminates unhappiness in so many areas of human life.

I have given mankind All the Means to carry peace within their heart, their mind, their body, and within their Soul; a Precious Gift of Love, but men do not always use such Gifts in the proper way, the proper manner.

A time of giving is important to mankind. It is important to Me, for in the very breath of life that I give, it is an internal and external Gift of Divine Love.

My happiness at the moment of conception is beyond man's thinking, ability to believe or understand, for It is Part of Me within that being, individually, that expresses hope, love, creation, and a peace, for you see, for Each Part of Me, the Soul that I give in My Supreme Love, is the internal Sign of Peace that I extend to each human being conceived in the world.

So many men, women and children dismiss My Part in their being, My Portion of their life, for they omit the understanding of why they exist, how they were created, the Purpose for which they were created. I designed all things because of My Love for mankind.

Men argue over the truth of life, the reality it is, the dignity it was meant to be, and the Peace of the Soul that is instantly given to this human form at the moment of conception.

Men shout, ‘Peace on earth, good will to men.’ I, your Heavenly Father, say, ‘My Request to you on this day: Live it, don’t just say it.’ So be it.”

JANUARY 25, 1989

SAINT ATHANASIUS

“I have spoken many times through This Great Miracle that bears the Name of The Beloved Joseph. I am Saint Athanasius.

You do live in a time worse than Sodom and Gomorrah and you do live in a time where changes are leading many children of all ages to perdition.

You live in a time of great controversy, great heresy. You live in a time when prayer is not enough; dedication of one’s life must be thought about in areas where the Soul is concerned.

Satan is loosed upon the earth in all areas of life. You must be constantly aware of his entrance into places where the very young are, and where those are who feel that they are adults, and of course, those who feel they have reached a point of maturity.

There is no time during the day that man is without the decision for moral conduct to be the way he or she chooses to take.

I lived a long time ago. I walked the earth. I fought a heresy. The instrument through whom I speak fights heresies, not just one, quietly, serenely, but always in a positive way. The Father commands and the instrument listens.

Men argue over this instrument. They try to find the weak point, they try to initiate a weak point, and she smiles at them and says, 'You look, you ponder, you probe, but you have not yet touched what you are looking for.'

I have come many times to speak through this instrument in the world. Tonight I hold her deeply, but you have always seen the calmness, you have always felt the interest, the sincerity, the hope and the drive.

I come on this night to ask you to be aware of all the heresies that surround you in the world. Do not ignore them in any way. Do not say they do not touch your life, for they do. Do not feel that they touch everyone else but you. That is not so.

Sometimes someone you trust is, in his or her own way, teaching you heresy. Sometimes it's someone you meet casually and they walk a very free life, so it seems, but in their own way they are touching you with heresy. Mankind feels it is something of the past. Not so. You walk in the 'muck of heresy' wherever you go.

Some men say, 'Why would Saint Athanasius speak through her?' I, Saint Athanasius, say, 'Because she is an instrument of The Father's for the whole world.' His Will must be done and all things must be understood, that you, on this night or on the morrow, will be touched by a heresy that surrounds you.

I have Blessed many through this instrument, this woman in the world, and I bless you tonight and I say, 'As the Light of Love reaches you from Here, through a voice you understand, you know, you've heard before, I touch you with the Light of Hope and I say, "A cleansing must come to the world soon, for you see, heresies can rot all that is good away."' So be it."

SAINT JOSEPH, THE HOLY SPIRIT

“It is difficult for the instrument to be so forcibly taken like you have just seen. We speak through a very tired being. I hold her tightly, for if I did not her body would fall before your eyes. Men do not understand the degree of Power We force through her being to reach man. The paleness you often see is because of the physical weakness of this instrument.

My sons, so many times Lessons have been given to direct thinking to a specific mode of prayer, in a specific direction, to guide one’s whole being to better understand the importance of sound values, sound standards, sound moral example in the life as man.

You are surrounded by many, many heresies. You do not see them all, for you are preoccupied by your own way of life and you are preoccupied by your own goals, your own ideas.

I have spoken many times through this instrument in the world, not her choosing to be, but The Father’s Will for the good of mankind.

She is sensitive in more ways than you know sensitivity to be. She is always coherent in what she says, how she thinks. She has been commanded in more ways than man could understand, to obey What is spoken by Us and to do it in a normal, natural way.

You knew Me for a long time as ‘Saint Joseph’. My Way was explained more fully. It is difficult for some men and women to understand the Fullness of the Role I played, as I walked the world as man.

I have spoken to many through this woman in the world and the question so many have asked is: Why was she picked instead of one of them?

There is no emotionalism in This Great Miracle that bears My Name. As I speak to you as Saint Joseph, you must keep in mind that as I walked as Him, I was also That Portion of The Father, The Spirit of His Light, Love for all men.

Men talk about physical matter. They understand physical things. So many try to delve into ‘What is Faith all about; what is the Supernatural all about?’ Faith can be the easiest part of this for man, but to truly understand what the Supernatural is all about would have many areas of difficulty for man.

The Father picked a gentle Soul. The Father picked one who would listen to every command. The burden is far greater than anyone knows.

Prayer is important for all men to partake in, as an individual or with others, but always remember that the prayer must be solid in its concept, in its use, and it must be directed to all that is right, all that is good.

Prayer is beneficial, for sometimes when men, women and children pray, they feel a euphoria, a feeling of well-being that nothing else can give them. This is right, this is good. They feel consoled just saying prayers. They feel strength, they feel hope, they feel understanding.

Prayer is of great benefit to man. Prayer is important, for through prayer there is the benefit of understanding the relationship of God to man. A feeling of well-being, a feeling of security is oftentimes all that man needs. The feeling of hope, a new beginning, gives strength sometimes when nothing else can.

When someone is in fear, a prayer can do many things. It can console. Prayer can be a companion. Prayer can rid time of sorrow. Prayer is beneficial when it is done properly.

There are so Many Saints Here in the Heavens that have spoken through This Great Miracle that bears My Name. They have All done it in obedience to The Father. They have All given What They were to give at different times.

The world must understand one day that through the human form The Father acts in many ways. He uses what He created to do the things that will give others strength.

I say to you on this night, ‘One of the greatest disappointments of your time is through that very special Gift of the Priesthood; you have been so disappointed so many times.’ The Father gave this Gift to the world for special reasons.

Many of you have oftentimes said: ‘How can we change what is wrong? How can we be part of what should turn all things to right?' Prayer is the beginning, example the way, and to use all you are to show what you believe in, and remember that you touch lives every day. It is up to your will combined with your actions, and remember, in every word you say.

You talk about the captain of a ship. Some of you care about the water. You talk about the captain being the head. You are the captain of your life. You are the director of your life. You have the control of all you are, all you do, all you say.

Remember this the next time you are with someone and you speak words. Ask yourself, did you leave that person, or persons, with a good thought, not just of you, but a thought that will give them direction in a special way? You have this Gift of Love from The Father. Do not throw It away.

I have Blessed thousands through this instrument. I have spoken many, many, many, many times. Tonight I have spoken again and I say, 'As the Apostles walked one day, you have the privilege, the ability to walk in a similar way.' No coward can walk this path, but someone who prays can.

You are Blessed, My sons, in so many ways. By your presence here tonight you have the ‘Gift of Faith’. By your desire to pray, you have the ‘Gift of Love’ to communicate in a special way. Be blessed by My Hand, by My Words, and know, that through This Great Miracle there is that Beautiful Love from God, Hope. So be it.”

OUR LORD

“So many times Lessons are taught to a few, but the few end up distributing What they heard, and as the Words pass from them to others, as the example is seen by others, imitation is a great lesson of communication.

Remember, as you think about your senses, that every day you use every one of your senses in your dealings with everyone you meet, everyone you talk to, and also, in anything you might write.

The senses were given to mankind for many reasons. Remember that Gifts from The Father all have reason, all have purpose. Your will, though you are not always conscious of it, is a very important part of you.

I Willed many things when I was upon the earth. I Willed to do what The Father Willed for the good of mankind. I taught in many forms, in other tongues, other than the tongue you speak. I gave men of all ages knowledge, for them to pass on to others, for them to better understand the Purpose of life and Where life truly came from, Where it began, and the Reasons for which it began.

As I walked the earth I was remembered by many, I would say most that I met and most that heard My Name. I was called many things; many wrong, some right. That did not concern Me. My Duty, My Work, My Mission, was to leave with the world 'Christianity'.

Men say it was timed. I say: 'Sometimes men choose time to consummate issues, situations. They do not ask God what time it should be. Sometimes the eagerness in men does not wait on time, or for time.'

I walked in many ways as a Teacher. I walked as a Friend, I walked as a Son, and I walked counseling, consoling, directing. There were so many things I had to accomplish so that you would be left in your day with the format, with the formula of Christianity. Since the time I walked the earth, many men have tried to destroy What I instituted. It cannot be destroyed.

Since I physically, at that time, left the world to return to Where I came from, I said: ‘Father, the task of walking in the world has so much good in it, so much turmoil, so much grief, so much love, so much hate, so much hurt. It is so diversified and men can walk in a very constructive, productive way if they will but see the Beauty of living the Christian way, if they will but follow The Rules, if they will but see the value of example, if they will but understand the moral code of ethics that they must embrace every day.’

I speak through this instrument in the world and say to you, ‘Through her Soul I leave My Words with you, so that your Soul will be protected by you “through your protection of your senses” while you are in the world.’

Men say, ‘I will protect life no matter what I have to do.’ My Request to you on this night is, ‘Use what you have, what you know, and in every way use your senses to protect your Soul.’ So be it.”

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“Tonight I spoke much on what is best for your Soul. I did it in a manner to help you better understand the Importance of your Soul and this Beautiful Gift that was given to man.

I am a Saint that has spoken much through This Great Miracle. I have spoken through the Soul of this instrument many times with Information, with Direction, with Teaching, sometimes rapidly, sometimes slowly, but always with a clarity you could understand.

I ask you to have great devotion to The Heavenly Mother, under any Title you love, any Title you desire, for She hears all prayers that pass from your Soul, from your mind, to Her. Your love is important to Her for you are Her children.

I had the privilege in My lifetime upon the earth to recognize and to spread a very important Devotion to Her. This Devotion is yet in your time, and so it should be. It is called ‘The Mother Of Perpetual Help’.

This is a Perfect Title for your Heavenly Mother, for She is ever present, ever ready to hear your plea, your request, and oftentimes She whispers back, through your Soul, Her Love. You do not hear It, but sometimes you feel a strength. You are not sure of where It came from, but you are aware of Its presence in your being, in your mind, in your actions, in what you are able to do.

Men of all ages say, 'I go to The Blessed Mother.' We Here in the Heavens smile at this, for it is a comfort for every child in the world to know they have a Mother to go to, other than the one or the ones they know that are upon the earth, or who have gone to rest, leaving a Soul.

The time in which you live is truly worse than all the ugly times in History. Men try to ignore the obscenities, the mockeries, the blasphemies, because you see, it is easier to relax and say, 'Well, I live my own life, I can't change the world.'

'But,' I, Saint Alphonsus Liguori say, 'you can change much that surrounds you.' You can be the example to save Souls. Your understanding is not always necessary. The Truth you believe in, the values you uphold, can be the greatest strength to anyone you meet, everyone you know. Your example that shows courage, that shows hope, understanding, yet direction in the right way, your moral code of ethics, must show.

There is so much in impurities in the world. Men are catering to the enemy of The Father and the enemy of all of mankind. So many people in the world gather in areas where they perform terrible acts against The Father's Will.

If I were to show at this time, this instrument, a portion of Hell, where souls are suffering, it would be too much for her to stand. If I were to show to you such horror, some of you would die, as if by a physical hand.

The horror of Hell cannot be told in its total way. Mankind could not understand the ugliness, the violence, the hate, the impurity.

As I speak through the Soul of this instrument, I hold her physical tightly, for the Power that is forced through her, to adapt to What is spoken through her Soul, is a Power beyond man's ability to comprehend such a Source, such a Force, in such a Degree. Sometimes, in recognizing Our Presence, the Light to her is blinding, and she must respond to What We Direct.

The Father has given so much to the world through This Great Miracle that bears the Name of a Beloved One. It was One Way for the world to get to know more of Him, more about Him, and the Greatness He Truly Is, in The Father's Way.

Men have a way of diminishing so many things, but through This Great Miracle the Words will be handed throughout the world. Men in dark corners will read Them. Men in business places will question why they had not heard These Words before. They will look at the date and say, 'Why did not someone tell me of This Thing that is happening in the world?'

The Words on paper are the important thing. Direction, and the Course that was taken to attain Them in this manner is for the whole world. Some men, some women, some children will learn the language so they can read These Words.

Be blessed and be aware that as you become more aware of your senses, more aware of your Soul, you will find peace that nothing else can give you, for as you become more aware of your Soul, you will recognize more deeply that That Soul is a Portion of God that you carry with you every day of your life, and that you are responsible for. So be it.”

MARCH 1, 1989

OUR HEAVENLY MOTHER

“There is so much Love I extend to you through This Great Miracle called ‘a Miracle of Hope’. It is Hope, because It is a Teaching Miracle, a Miracle that instructs you how to live and the purpose of your way of life, and of course, the Great Purpose for which man was initially created.

The Father, in His Love of All He Has, All He Is, the Beauty that Heaven Is, has been taught through time in a very simple way, but in reality, human words in your way could not describe the Magnificence, the Beauty that awaits your Soul when It arrives Here one day.

There are many things The Father created upon the earth that have great beauty in them. Some are settings that dramatize scenery, others are things you live with every day, everything within your human comprehension that you can understand, that you can accept, but Here in the Heavens Everything is far more Beautiful and Never-ending.

Never forget you have a Soul, That Portion of The Father that was truly instilled at the moment of conception. My children, when you pray, remember to ask for the strength to use your senses, to use your intelligence, to use your will to make the correct decisions so that your beautiful Soul will not be sent away.

I do not want you to think that if a Soul is condemned to Hell, that a Portion of God suffers in Hell. That is not so. It is the loss of Heaven for the Soul, difficult for you to understand in your day, in your time, in your way, but remember What I have spoken on this night to you, with a Mother's Love, for the good of your Soul to come This Way.

Be blessed and be aware that living the physical life is a Gift of Love. The Soul is a Divine Gift of Love given to you to return Here one day. So be it."

SAINT CATHERINE LABOURE

“As I walked the earth I was involved with people. I speak so naturally through this child, this woman in the world. Many times I speak through her in ordinary conversation.

Just the other day when a man approached her, she made a Statement to the man that was Mine, not hers. She immediately said, ‘Who are You, what do You want to get across?’ I smiled and I said, ‘I have already spoken It.’

The man has thought about the Statement several times since, but thought about It in ways in connection to his life, in how he walks, what he’s about, and his own integrity in the world. He does not know Who spoke to him. He says, ‘That woman spoke to me.’ That’s what he thinks it was.

This is how We Here in the Heavens use the Souls, the children upon the earth. Obedience is important to Our Way.

As I speak through her tonight, and I spoke through her and to her all day, there was much exhaustion, physical, mental, and she said, 'Please do not wear me out Spiritually or I will be too tired to say Your Words again.'

I am Saint Catherine of Laboure. I hold her not too tightly on this night, for as the body is stressed with pain, weariness, exhaustion, and love for All that was spoken to you on this night, I say that if children will but seek out the Glory of Heaven, they can do it every day.

Do not misuse time. Do not misplace the beauty in the Gift of Faith and prayer in your time. Do not forget to ask The Father's Blessing. You see, you do not hesitate to ask the blessing of one who walks the vocation way of the Priesthood. You feel the strength, you say. You feel a love for this path of life. But know this, My children, that every day as you ask for The Father's Blessing, He passes It on to you immediately, and then He oftentimes sends One of Us to see how you are doing that day.

Do not think you are alone in the world; you are not. Your Faith in Him is far greater in your strength, to your strength, for your strength, than I can say to you, so you will understand the Greatness of His Way.

On the morrow, perhaps even tonight you will remember to say, ‘I love You, God, good night.’ And then on the morrow when you awaken for the day, say, ‘Good morning, God, I love You; stay with me today.’

It is a treasure of a prayer and it is a prayer that is easy to say. It is also a prayer that He loves to hear for He knows then that you are thinking of Him in your little way. So be it.”

SAINT ALPHONSUS LIGUORI

“It is very difficult for many people to understand The Miracle Of Saint Joseph because in many ways they are insensitive to the practical, logical way God works. Many people, in hearing the word ‘Miracle’ respond immediately. They react to the word because it is something beyond what they feel is human, and that is true.

But a Miracle of This Magnitude, that is proven by the multitude of Revelations and Teachings, is so obviously God’s that it is difficult sometimes to hear a man or woman argue the point and say something negative about The Miracle Of Saint Joseph. Even Here in the Heavens, it is sadness, because children try to deny Fact because it is not suited to their way of life.

I have spoken hundreds of times through This Great Miracle, and if I were to speak in the manner I spoke in My day, many of you would not understand My wording, the manner in which I spoke, and of course, the depth in what I would speak at given times. I am Saint Alphonsus Liguori.

The times now are difficult, and true, there is much desecration to all that is right, all that is good, but if you will but remember one thing, and that is to nourish your Faith in The Father. Nourish it with what you do, how you feel, how you act. Nourish it by your own example to other people. Faith is a Magnificent Gift of Love. Faith in God is a Gift of Divine Love.

Men argue over the word 'Divine' because they try to place it in a category that is not understandable, but The Father, in His Love for mankind, always comes to the world in a Special Form, a Special Way, for a Special Purpose, in time of need.

The world is in great need now of This Great Miracle that teaches everyone, all races, all colors, all creeds, the practicality of Faith in God, the importance of Faith in God, the beauty of Faith in God, and the necessity to practice this Faith morally, with dignity, honor.

This Faith must be cherished as a Treasure, because through this Faith, the action of this Faith, the action in it, will grant the Soul, That Portion of God, a Higher Place in Heaven.

Each child born to the world has a Soul. Each portion of your body is important to your way of life. You cherish it, you take care of it, and that is right, that is good. Sometimes you feel as though that portion of your body is not serving you well, for it hurts, it aches, and you say, 'I don't know what I'm going to do.' But remember this: You must not neglect the body, you must not neglect the health of the mind, and you must never neglect the Faith that you have been given, to believe in The Father, to understand so much of what He expects of you every day of your life.

A long time ago a man was given many Rules. They are still the same Rules that were given to him. They are yet to be honored in every way, in every man's life.

Men ignore The Rules. It is time men awaken to the necessity that is so important, to honor The Rules, make The Rules a daily way of living, cherish The Rules, for They are the Way to Heaven.

Children cannot make These Rules suitable to their own way, for These Rules have been written according to Great Direction. They were written for a reason and These Rules were 'instilled' in a man a long time ago.

Where truth is, fact is. Where logic is, sound love is. God's Love is not a jealous love; It is a Protective Love. Satan says, 'I too, love,' and God says, 'It is not love; you want to possess what is Mine.' This type of possession is jealousy, hate. Remind the children in the world today that pure love is a generous love; a possessive love is a love of selfishness.

You are Blessed in many ways, more than you know. Let All that you have heard, All that you know, give you the strength to be example for people you meet, people who just see you walk in the world. Let your example express your belief in God, your Faith in Him, and that you are aware of His Rules. So be it."
